

Morning Register Lane County News Service

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Feb. 9.—H. C. Jackson, of Waverlyville, was here on business Friday.

H. C. Haugh, of Thurston, was a business visitor in Springfield Friday.

Lafe Moore, of near Eugene, was a business visitor in Springfield Friday.

D. H. Dean, of West Liberty, Iowa, is visiting here with his brother, Geo. I. Dean, who has been residing here for some time. These two brothers had not seen each other for a period of 55 years until this time.

D. B. Murphy, who has been quite ill, has returned to work again at Gray's Cash and Carry store.

Velma Murphy is ill with a cold and not able to be in the store.

The American Legion auxiliary will give a dance at Stevens' hall Monday night.

There will be a benefit show given at the Bell theatre by the ladies of the library board. The proceeds will go to the library to buy new books.

Miss Bernice Nelson, English teacher at the Springfield high school, attended the games at Eugene O. A. C. vs. U. of O.

Julius Fulop, proprietor of the Farmers' Exchange, returned this week from Portland, where he has been on business for the past few days.

Revival Meetings to Open (Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Feb. 8.—A series of revival services will open February 11 at the Methodist church to continue for two weeks. There will be messages on divine healing and the second coming of Christ during the series.

Public Market Is Proposed (Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Feb. 8.—A public market will be discussed by members of the grocers at an all day open meeting in this city February 17. There will be several good speakers present to discuss grocers' problems and a basket lunch will be served.

Pie Social Next $3.50 (Register Lane County Special)

THURSTON, Feb. 10.—A total of $53.80 was raised by the members of the Christian church here tonight as a social and pie sale held for the purpose of raising funds for the papering of the church building. Thirty-eight baskets were sold by Rose Mathews. An entertainment program was also presented at the affair.

Stepson Dies in Butte (Register Lane County Special)

MARCOLA, Ore., Feb. 9.—E. A. Holbrook, of Butte, Mont., who is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Sullivan, received word of the death of his stepson, Harry Strike, in Butte. Mr. Strike had made his home in Springfield, and was well known there. He recently went back to Butte, Mont., to visit his old home, where he took sick and died. Mrs. Holbrook, who was also here visiting, returned home.

Goshen Grange to Meet (Register Lane County Special)

GOSHEN, Ore., Feb. 10.—Goshen grange meets in regular session next Wednesday, February 14, at the hall. Business meeting begins promptly at 10:30 a. m. and members are urged to be present at that time. Dinner will be served at noon by the ladies of the grange. An interesting program has been arranged by the lecturer for the afternoon.

GOSHEN NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

GOSHEN, Ore., Feb. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cornelius drove out in their new Chevrolet roadster Sunday and visited relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stafford, of Springfield, were guests Sunday at the L. E. Stafford home.

Mrs. McPeak left Thursday for a two months' visit with relatives in the East.

Lloyd Stafford, who has been quite ill with the flu, is reported much improved.

Mrs. Bernard Brannon, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is improving steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. Where Packard, of Mabel, called on Mr. and Mrs. David Calvert recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowry visited relatives in Eugene Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Servier, of Eugene, is visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens attended the auto show in Portland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Frey visited her daughter, Mrs. Brannon in Eugene Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. McKinney, Mrs. L. E. Servier, Mrs. R. Eby, Mrs. David Calvert and Mrs. Carl Lowry spent Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dow Moxley making dress forms. The Goshen community team, composed of Mrs. Moxley, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Lowry, are doing splendid work. The ladies from Coast Fork community, as well as Goshen, plan to meet for an afternoon of work on dress forms at the home of Mrs. J. K. McKinney very soon.

Mrs. Omar McBee spent a day recently with Mrs. John Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheller entertained Reverend Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Latta, of Pleasant Hill; W. Shelley, of Eugene, at Sunday dinner.

John Barr is building an addition to his house. Omar McBee and C. Carder are doing the work.

A party from near Junction City recently ordered 1000 Rhode Island Red eggs from A. C. Hoffman.

Fruit Growers Attend Meeting (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 10.—A large delegation of stockholders of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association attended the annual meeting at Eugene Saturday and among those present were C. E. Hewitt, W. E. Thompson, H. C. Travill, T. P. Jackson, H. H. Powers, Mrs. Grover, Ed Weber, C. H. Sedgwick, A. H. Pohl, Frank Sly, David Francis, Chester Hewitt, Van Groubeck, S. G. Thompson, N. E. Stubb, W. P. Caviness, C. H. Hubbell and Chas. Hoffman, and G. C. Lawrence, of Goshen, and C. Travill was elected a member of the board of directors.

CRESSWELL NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Eugene, were up Thursday afternoon on a business and social trip.

R. A. Hopkins, who has been in the Cash and Carry grocery store, will go to Marshfield and leave this week.

Rev. Geo. Cromley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is spending the week in Cresswell visiting the members of the congregation.

Mrs. Gertrude Clark went to Eugene Thursday to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

Joe Weber was taken suddenly quite ill Thursday morning and is confined to his home under doctors' care.

Fred Robinson is sick with the prevailing cold and confined to his home a few days.

E. L. Howe had a small fire at his home on his ranch west of town Thursday afternoon. It was extinguished and resulted in a slight damage to the roof.

A gospel team composed of university young people of the Eugene Methodist church will conduct the evening service at the Cresswell Methodist church Sunday, February 11. The team will furnish special music and tell the gospel story. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service.

Farmers' Union Meets Wednesday (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Trent local of the Farmers' union will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, February 14, at Trent. The ladies of the Farmers' union are to be obligated. An enjoyable evening is expected. Light refreshments will be served.

TRENT NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McPeak have gone to Roseburg where Ed expects to haul lumber.

Henry Wade has moved his family into the Wheat house and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hutton have moved into their own home.

F. V. Kimball is helping the Wheeler brothers in the mill while Cecil Wheeler is farming. Allen Wheeler has quit the Camas mill to help the Wheeler brothers in their mill.

Miss Miriam Bohart, who is teaching at Black Butte, spent last week-end at home here.

Mr. Roberts of Eugene, is helping Fred Papenfus the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John West, of Coast Fork called in Trent Wednesday afternoon.

Oliver James, of Cloverdale, was a Trent caller Wednesday.

Wheeler brothers, Kimball and West loaded a car of ties at Lowell Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening was election of officers for the literary society. Allen Wheeler was elected president; Miss Fish, secretary. All young people are for white Thursday evening. The question is, resolved that all schools in Lane county should be consolidated.

Sam Baughman, of Pleasant Hill was a caller here Tuesday evening.

Clayton Kimball was in Eugene Wednesday.

W. L. and W. E. Wheeler are building a barn for E. D. Hutton. Allen Wheeler has purchased a new Ford.

Miss Mary Walker visited over Thursday evening with Miss Helen Miller.

Preparations are being made for the new bridge across Lost creek. V. C. Stroud was out from Eugene the last of the week.

Othel Stroud is working in Eugene.

Mrs. H. C. Wheeler left Friday for a visit at Salem.

Mr. Wolf is working at Lowell.

FRANKLIN NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

FRANKLIN, Ore., Feb. 8.—Chester Crone did some carpenter work for Tony Bryant last week.

Mrs. R. T. Stingley spent Thursday with Mrs. Elsie Bryant.

J. E. Millhorn had the misfortune to lose a horse Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Riddard visited Mrs. G. N. Bryant Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Sara Wood was an afternoon caller at the J. E. Millhorn home one day last week.

Ira Richardson is on the sick list again this week, but is improving at this writing.

Little Neta Kirk is quite sick with a sore throat.

Mrs. Tora Cox submitted to an operation for some throat trouble at the Eugene hospital Sunday.

The family of Chester Crone and D. T. Stingley are having severe colds.

Little Helen Nelson is out of school this week on account of a cold.

Tony Bryant was operated on at the Eugene hospital Sunday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens attended the auto show in Portland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Frey visited her daughter, Mrs. Brannon in Eugene Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. McKinney, Mrs. L. E. Servier, Mrs. R. Eby, Mrs. David Calvert and Mrs. Carl Lowry spent Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dow Moxley making dress forms. The Goshen community team, composed of Mrs. Moxley, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Lowry, are doing splendid work. The ladies from Coast Fork community, as well as Goshen, plan to meet for an afternoon of work on dress forms at the home of Mrs. J. K. McKinney very soon.

Mrs. Omar McBee spent a day recently with Mrs. John Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheller entertained Reverend Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Latta, of Pleasant Hill; W. Shelley, of Eugene, at Sunday dinner.

John Barr is building an addition to his house. Omar McBee and C. Carder are doing the work.

A party from near Junction City recently ordered 1000 Rhode Island Red eggs from A. C. Hoffman.

Fruit Growers Attend Meeting (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 10.—A large delegation of stockholders of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association attended the annual meeting at Eugene Saturday and among those present were C. E. Hewitt, W. E. Thompson, H. C. Travill, T. P. Jackson, H. H. Powers, Mrs. Grover, Ed Weber, C. H. Sedgwick, A. H. Pohl, Frank Sly, David Francis, Chester Hewitt, Van Groubeck, S. G. Thompson, N. E. Stubb, W. P. Caviness, C. H. Hubbell and Chas. Hoffman, and G. C. Lawrence, of Goshen, and C. Travill was elected a member of the board of directors.

CRESSWELL NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Eugene, were up Thursday afternoon on a business and social trip.

R. A. Hopkins, who has been in the Cash and Carry grocery store, will go to Marshfield and leave this week.

Rev. Geo. Cromley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is spending the week in Cresswell visiting the members of the congregation.

Mrs. Gertrude Clark went to Eugene Thursday to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

Joe Weber was taken suddenly quite ill Thursday morning and is confined to his home under doctors' care.

Fred Robinson is sick with the prevailing cold and confined to his home a few days.

E. L. Howe had a small fire at his home on his ranch west of town Thursday afternoon. It was extinguished and resulted in a slight damage to the roof.

A gospel team composed of university young people of the Eugene Methodist church will conduct the evening service at the Cresswell Methodist church Sunday, February 11. The team will furnish special music and tell the gospel story. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service.

Farmers' Union Meets Wednesday (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Trent local of the Farmers' union will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, February 14, at Trent. The ladies of the Farmers' union are to be obligated. An enjoyable evening is expected. Light refreshments will be served.

TRENT NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McPeak have gone to Roseburg where Ed expects to haul lumber.

Henry Wade has moved his family into the Wheat house and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hutton have moved into their own home.

F. V. Kimball is helping the Wheeler brothers in the mill while Cecil Wheeler is farming. Allen Wheeler has quit the Camas mill to help the Wheeler brothers in their mill.

Miss Miriam Bohart, who is teaching at Black Butte, spent last week-end at home here.

Mr. Roberts of Eugene, is helping Fred Papenfus the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John West, of Coast Fork called in Trent Wednesday afternoon.

Oliver James, of Cloverdale, was a Trent caller Wednesday.

Wheeler brothers, Kimball and West loaded a car of ties at Lowell Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening was election of officers for the literary society. Allen Wheeler was elected president; Miss Fish, secretary. All young people are for white Thursday evening. The question is, resolved that all schools in Lane county should be consolidated.

Sam Baughman, of Pleasant Hill was a caller here Tuesday evening.

Clayton Kimball was in Eugene Wednesday.

W. L. and W. E. Wheeler are building a barn for E. D. Hutton. Allen Wheeler has purchased a new Ford.

Miss Mary Walker visited over Thursday evening with Miss Helen Miller.

Preparations are being made for the new bridge across Lost creek. V. C. Stroud was out from Eugene the last of the week.

Othel Stroud is working in Eugene.

Mrs. H. C. Wheeler left Friday for a visit at Salem.

Mr. Wolf is working at Lowell.

FRANKLIN NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

FRANKLIN, Ore., Feb. 8.—Chester Crone did some carpenter work for Tony Bryant last week.

Mrs. R. T. Stingley spent Thursday with Mrs. Elsie Bryant.

J. E. Millhorn had the misfortune to lose a horse Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Riddard visited Mrs. G. N. Bryant Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Sara Wood was an afternoon caller at the J. E. Millhorn home one day last week.

Ira Richardson is on the sick list again this week, but is improving at this writing.

Little Neta Kirk is quite sick with a sore throat.

Mrs. Tora Cox submitted to an operation for some throat trouble at the Eugene hospital Sunday.

The family of Chester Crone and D. T. Stingley are having severe colds.

Little Helen Nelson is out of school this week on account of a cold.

Tony Bryant was operated on at the Eugene hospital Sunday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens attended the auto show in Portland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Frey visited her daughter, Mrs. Brannon in Eugene Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. McKinney, Mrs. L. E. Servier, Mrs. R. Eby, Mrs. David Calvert and Mrs. Carl Lowry spent Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dow Moxley making dress forms. The Goshen community team, composed of Mrs. Moxley, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Lowry, are doing splendid work. The ladies from Coast Fork community, as well as Goshen, plan to meet for an afternoon of work on dress forms at the home of Mrs. J. K. McKinney very soon.

Mrs. Omar McBee spent a day recently with Mrs. John Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheller entertained Reverend Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Latta, of Pleasant Hill; W. Shelley, of Eugene, at Sunday dinner.

John Barr is building an addition to his house. Omar McBee and C. Carder are doing the work.

A party from near Junction City recently ordered 1000 Rhode Island Red eggs from A. C. Hoffman.

Fruit Growers Attend Meeting (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 10.—A large delegation of stockholders of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association attended the annual meeting at Eugene Saturday and among those present were C. E. Hewitt, W. E. Thompson, H. C. Travill, T. P. Jackson, H. H. Powers, Mrs. Grover, Ed Weber, C. H. Sedgwick, A. H. Pohl, Frank Sly, David Francis, Chester Hewitt, Van Groubeck, S. G. Thompson, N. E. Stubb, W. P. Caviness, C. H. Hubbell and Chas. Hoffman, and G. C. Lawrence, of Goshen, and C. Travill was elected a member of the board of directors.

CRESSWELL NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Eugene, were up Thursday afternoon on a business and social trip.

R. A. Hopkins, who has been in the Cash and Carry grocery store, will go to Marshfield and leave this week.

Rev. Geo. Cromley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is spending the week in Cresswell visiting the members of the congregation.

Mrs. Gertrude Clark went to Eugene Thursday to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

Joe Weber was taken suddenly quite ill Thursday morning and is confined to his home under doctors' care.

Fred Robinson is sick with the prevailing cold and confined to his home a few days.

E. L. Howe had a small fire at his home on his ranch west of town Thursday afternoon. It was extinguished and resulted in a slight damage to the roof.

A gospel team composed of university young people of the Eugene Methodist church will conduct the evening service at the Cresswell Methodist church Sunday, February 11. The team will furnish special music and tell the gospel story. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service.

Farmers' Union Meets Wednesday (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Trent local of the Farmers' union will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, February 14, at Trent. The ladies of the Farmers' union are to be obligated. An enjoyable evening is expected. Light refreshments will be served.

TRENT NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McPeak have gone to Roseburg where Ed expects to haul lumber.

Henry Wade has moved his family into the Wheat house and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hutton have moved into their own home.

F. V. Kimball is helping the Wheeler brothers in the mill while Cecil Wheeler is farming. Allen Wheeler has quit the Camas mill to help the Wheeler brothers in their mill.

Miss Miriam Bohart, who is teaching at Black Butte, spent last week-end at home here.

Mr. Roberts of Eugene, is helping Fred Papenfus the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John West, of Coast Fork called in Trent Wednesday afternoon.

Oliver James, of Cloverdale, was a Trent caller Wednesday.

Wheeler brothers, Kimball and West loaded a car of ties at Lowell Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening was election of officers for the literary society. Allen Wheeler was elected president; Miss Fish, secretary. All young people are for white Thursday evening. The question is, resolved that all schools in Lane county should be consolidated.

Sam Baughman, of Pleasant Hill was a caller here Tuesday evening.

Clayton Kimball was in Eugene Wednesday.

W. L. and W. E. Wheeler are building a barn for E. D. Hutton. Allen Wheeler has purchased a new Ford.

Miss Mary Walker visited over Thursday evening with Miss Helen Miller.

Preparations are being made for the new bridge across Lost creek. V. C. Stroud was out from Eugene the last of the week.

Othel Stroud is working in Eugene.

Mrs. H. C. Wheeler left Friday for a visit at Salem.

Mr. Wolf is working at Lowell.

FRANKLIN NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

FRANKLIN, Ore., Feb. 8.—Chester Crone did some carpenter work for Tony Bryant last week.

Mrs. R. T. Stingley spent Thursday with Mrs. Elsie Bryant.

J. E. Millhorn had the misfortune to lose a horse Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Riddard visited Mrs. G. N. Bryant Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Sara Wood was an afternoon caller at the J. E. Millhorn home one day last week.

Ira Richardson is on the sick list again this week, but is improving at this writing.

Little Neta Kirk is quite sick with a sore throat.

Mrs. Tora Cox submitted to an operation for some throat trouble at the Eugene hospital Sunday.

The family of Chester Crone and D. T. Stingley are having severe colds.

Little Helen Nelson is out of school this week on account of a cold.

Tony Bryant was operated on at the Eugene hospital Sunday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens attended the auto show in Portland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Frey visited her daughter, Mrs. Brannon in Eugene Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. McKinney, Mrs. L. E. Servier, Mrs. R. Eby, Mrs. David Calvert and Mrs. Carl Lowry spent Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dow Moxley making dress forms. The Goshen community team, composed of Mrs. Moxley, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Lowry, are doing splendid work. The ladies from Coast Fork community, as well as Goshen, plan to meet for an afternoon of work on dress forms at the home of Mrs. J. K. McKinney very soon.

Mrs. Omar McBee spent a day recently with Mrs. John Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheller entertained Reverend Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Latta, of Pleasant Hill; W. Shelley, of Eugene, at Sunday dinner.

John Barr is building an addition to his house. Omar McBee and C. Carder are doing the work.

A party from near Junction City recently ordered 1000 Rhode Island Red eggs from A. C. Hoffman.

Fruit Growers Attend Meeting (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 10.—A large delegation of stockholders of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association attended the annual meeting at Eugene Saturday and among those present were C. E. Hewitt, W. E. Thompson, H. C. Travill, T. P. Jackson, H. H. Powers, Mrs. Grover, Ed Weber, C. H. Sedgwick, A. H. Pohl, Frank Sly, David Francis, Chester Hewitt, Van Groubeck, S. G. Thompson, N. E. Stubb, W. P. Caviness, C. H. Hubbell and Chas. Hoffman, and G. C. Lawrence, of Goshen, and C. Travill was elected a member of the board of directors.

CRESSWELL NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

CRESSWELL, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Eugene, were up Thursday afternoon on a business and social trip.

R. A. Hopkins, who has been in the Cash and Carry grocery store, will go to Marshfield and leave this week.

Rev. Geo. Cromley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is spending the week in Cresswell visiting the members of the congregation.

Mrs. Gertrude Clark went to Eugene Thursday to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

Joe Weber was taken suddenly quite ill Thursday morning and is confined to his home under doctors' care.

Fred Robinson is sick with the prevailing cold and confined to his home a few days.

E. L. Howe had a small fire at his home on his ranch west of town Thursday afternoon. It was extinguished and resulted in a slight damage to the roof.

A gospel team composed of university young people of the Eugene Methodist church will conduct the evening service at the Cresswell Methodist church Sunday, February 11. The team will furnish special music and tell the gospel story. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service.

Farmers' Union Meets Wednesday (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Trent local of the Farmers' union will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, February 14, at Trent. The ladies of the Farmers' union are to be obligated. An enjoyable evening is expected. Light refreshments will be served.

TRENT NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

TRENT, Ore., Feb. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McPeak have gone to Roseburg where Ed expects to haul lumber.

Henry Wade has moved his family into the Wheat house and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hutton have moved into their own home.

F. V. Kimball is helping the Wheeler brothers in the mill while Cecil Wheeler is farming. Allen Wheeler has quit the Camas mill to help the Wheeler brothers in their mill.

Miss Miriam Bohart, who is teaching at Black Butte, spent last week-end at home here.

Mr. Roberts of Eugene, is helping Fred Papenfus the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John West, of Coast Fork called in Trent Wednesday afternoon.

Oliver James, of Cloverdale, was a Trent caller Wednesday.

Wheeler brothers, Kimball and West loaded a car of ties at Lowell Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening was election of officers for the literary society. Allen Wheeler was elected president; Miss Fish, secretary. All young people are for white Thursday evening. The question is, resolved that all schools in Lane county should be consolidated.

Sam Baughman, of Pleasant Hill was a caller here Tuesday evening.

Clayton Kimball was in Eugene Wednesday.

W. L. and W. E. Wheeler are building a barn for E. D. Hutton. Allen Wheeler has purchased a new Ford.