POILUS, HOOTED BY TEUTONS, KILL TWO

Two Others Seriously Hurt
When Soldiers Open Fire

GERMAN ANGER AROUSED

Spotlight in Ruhr Rises on Penalties Franco-Belgian Court Martial and Border Control Bodies Inflicting on Germans

(By The Associated Press)
BOCHUM, Feb. 22.—Two French soldiers this afternoon fired point blank into a crowd of Germans in front of the law courts, killing one man and severely wounding two others.

The trouble occurred while French troops, with tanks, were engaged in occupying the law courts building and the neighboring prison on suspicion that certain Frenchmen had been incarcerated as spies. During this operation one German official was arrested and placed under a guard of five French soldiers.

Some of the bystanders hooted the soldiers, two of whom fired then into the crowd. The scene was witnessed by several foreign newspaper men. The crowd had made no attempt to molest the soldiers.

The populace was greatly angered and one body of the townspeople, finding a French civilian interpreter alone in the street, mobbed and manhandled him. The Frenchman was removed, battered and bleeding, to the police station.

(By The Associated Press)
ESSEN, Feb. 22.—Gelsenkirchen having been evacuated by the French forces after their several days of punitive occupancy, the spotlight on the Ruhr valley developments rested today on the penalties the Franco-Belgian court martial and border control bodies are inflicting on the Germans because of their resistance to the allied authorities.

The latest move of the occupiers to offset German obstructions to the maintenance of railroad transportation has been a ban against any locomotive leaving the occupied area. All German-manufactured trains reaching the edge of the Ruhr, eastward, are required to leave their engines behind and await locomotives from the unoccupied territory to pull them further.

Railway Men Are Ejected
Reports from Waltrou and other points indicate that the rejection of German railway men from their dwellings and offices is also being conducted on an intensified scale.

At Castrop a court martial dealt with eleven German officials and other citizens, all in one day, the charges being of a wide variety. The sentences ranged from 10,000 marks fine against an inn keeper for failing to show a menu to military guests, to two months' imprisonment and 200,000 marks fine against a small town official because certain supplies were not furnished. A Sharnhorst railway inspector received a fortnight's confinement because a railway engineer was allowed to drive a loaded coal train through his station at full speed into uncontrolled Germany.

Red Cross Makes Appeals
In the meantime the German Red Cross is making an effort to intercede for the Germans already in jail. Their efforts are especially in the interests of two of these men. One of them is Vice Lord Mayor Schaefer of Essen, sentenced to two years' imprisonment and fined 10,000,000 marks for failing to supply automobiles for the troops. The other is Recorder Cuyens of the Essen Retail Grocers' association, charged with signing the circular urging merchants to refrain from selling to the French and sentenced to two years and a fine of eight million marks.

These two men are alleged to be confined together in one cell which the Germans claim is seven cubic meters smaller in dimensions than the cell prescribed by the Germans for individual criminals of the lowest type. The Red Cross is said to have been refused the privilege to have representatives visit them despite several applications to General Fournier.

EACH SIDE CLAIMS VICTORY
Passive Resistance Declared by Germans to Be Effective
(By The Associated Press)
DUSSELDORF, Feb. 22.—Both the Germans and the French and Belgians claim that the war-winning struggle in the Ruhr. The system of passive resistance inaugurated by the Germans when the French and Belgians entered the Ruhr, is declared by the newspapers of Essen and other towns in the newly occupied area to be entirely satisfactory. The newspapers still take the stand that the French have "cut off more than they can chew."

DAILY MARKET REPORT
OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 22.—Market for eggs shows extreme price range here, both for buying and selling. Such a condition is normal for this period of the season and does not mean that the higher priced houses are overcharging their customers. Everyone appears to be at sea regarding the value of eggs at this time, a condition usual for the late winter and early spring period, when prices respond to changing weather.

While some firms are quoting the selling price of select eggs down to 27¢ per dozen, others say they are experiencing no difficulty in obtaining 30¢ a dozen. Buying prices are quoted by some down to 22¢ for extras, and 21¢ for henneries, but others are still quoting as high as 23¢ for receipts and 25¢ for henneries.

BUTTER SITUATION IS STEADY
Situation in the butter trade here is steady with no further change in quotations. Movement of cubes is now equal to the demand, although an increased output is expected the coming week.

CHEESE TRADE RULES EASIER
Slightly easier tone is generally showing for cheese here, although no open cuts are announced in prices. There is considerable stock held in storage at various points.

VEAL PRICE AGAIN LOWERED
Further lowering of the price of country-killed veal is shown along the wholesale way, with sales around 16¢ 16½¢ for extreme tops. The latter price is available only in a very limited way, most of the business in good stuff being around 15½¢ to 16¢.

HOG PRICE IS QUOTED FIRM
Price of country-killed hogs is quoted very firm at 14¢ 14½¢ a pound for extreme block quality. Heavy stuff finds but limited demand at a very sharp cut in the price. Bull beef in demand.

SUGAR ADVANCE IS IN EFFECT
Contrary to the government's statement of no sugar shortage, the further advance of 40¢ per hundred pounds in the price of all grades of refined sugar took effect here during the day.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 22.—These are prices retailers pay wholesalers except as otherwise noted.

MRS. LINDQUIST TELLS WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE
What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 22.—"I was left in a very serious condition after childbirth and no one thought I could ever be any better," she says. "I had the 'Change of Life' and I was not prepared for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at times to be perfectly quiet as I could not even stoop down to pick anything from the floor. I did not suffer any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after this I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I had begun its use and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to others who have the opportunity."—Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2814 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Don't overlook this Remarkable offer!

Take it to your grocer

THE nation-wide popularity of Mazola as the leading brand of salad and cooking oil, is due to the fact that Mazola has demonstrated its superior quality and great economy in the household—to the housewife herself.

HOWEVER, there are still some housewives in America, who do not as yet use Mazola. There are also some who still believe that expensive imported olive oil is necessary to make a delicious salad dressing. There are others who still believe that foods cooked in lard are as easily digested as foods cooked with Mazola—the 100% pure vegetable oil.

Many housewives continue to use high priced butter, whereas Mazola is equally as rich as butter, costs much less, goes further, and makes the most delicious cakes, etc., that you have ever tasted.

It is to these Housewives that this 25c Free Mazola Coupon is offered for One Week Only Fill out the coupon—hand it to your grocer. It is worth 25c toward the purchase of one quart can of Mazola. It gets you this remarkable salad and cooking oil at about half price.

WE want you to give Mazola a fair trial. This is your opportunity to prove that Mazola is equal to any oil for salad dressing; that Mazola mayonnaise is smooth, rich and creamy, and will keep longer. And remember, Mazola costs considerably less than expensive imported oils.

For shortening you will find Mazola is equal to rich, creamy butter, and you use less. Makes your cakes and biscuits light and tasty. Once you use Mazola for shortening, you will prefer it to lard and butter.

And for frying you will find Mazola-cooked foods are more digestible. One reason is that Mazola can be heated so hot that the food is instantly crusted over. This keeps in all the rich juices, and makes the food more delicious and tastier. Because Mazola does not carry odors and flavors from one food to another, you can use it over and over again to the very last drop. Merely strain it. Always remains sweet and clean.

IF you are not satisfied in every respect with Mazola, as the best oil for salads and cooking, just as we have stated in this advertisement, your grocer is requested to refund your money without question.

All grocers are hereby requested to cooperate with us and their customers in carrying out this guarantee.
