REBEKAHS PRODUCE PLAY
(Register Lane County Special)
CREWELL, Ore., Feb. 19.—On Saturday evening at the W. O. W. hall the people of Crewell were given a treat in the form of a play presented by members of the E. Z. club of the local Rebekah lodge.

The hall was well filled with an enthusiastic audience. The play was a three-act comedy entitled, "A Southern Cinderella." The story was in short a clever theme of an effort to sidetrack an inheritance by two designing and clever nurses who had secured a will in their favor from their patient who had on account of a faintly pride claimed the only representative of her family who had been obliged to enter the workhouse for means of support. An old friend of the mother of the girl becoming interested in her welfare intervened and was finally at the last minute successful in having a new will made devolving the property to the rightful heir.

An old darky mammy of the family had her heart in the right place for the girl and through her simple efforts to get married and be faithful to her protegee she makes a barrel of fun by mixing up her marriage license with the real will, and by clever acting the nurses burned up the license instead of the will which when discovered restored all the worthy to happiness. The cast of characters were Mammy Judy, Mrs. C. W. Hoagland, who was continued to perfection to carry out her part. She had the darky voice and intonation to such exactness as to make her portrayal of the part very realistic. Everybody laughed when she laughed.
