

Separate Skirts For SPORTS WEAR

The Sports Skirt for Spring is a garment that stresses novelty, and no matter whether it be of homespun, camels hair, flannel or a knitted fabric, it is bound to be individual and striking. Some of the new skirts have gay overlaid designs—others plaited or plain in style or made with side plant arrangement.

$5.95 to $14.75

LARGE'S

845 Willamette Street

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Realtor at Portland—Rugh, local realtor, is at Portland on a business visit of several days.

Went to Oakridge—E. H. Hall, in the office of the Commercial forest, is at Oakridge on business.

Mrs. Schwaninger in Portland—Mrs. H. A. Schwaninger, wife of Dr. Leslie Schwaninger, is in Portland for a few days.

From Walleraville—Mrs. A. Millican and daughter, of Walleraville, are in Eugene at the home of Mrs. George Millican, daughter of Mrs. Millican.

Purchases New Truck—A Ford truck has been purchased by the Midgley Planning company of this city through E. C. Simmons, company, local agent for the Ford machine.

Employee Injured—Felix number 31 at Wendling, was injured at the Eugene hospital by a fractured leg as a result of an accident while he was at work yesterday.

Representative Is Here—Or, recently appointed, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars of this city, is here on his first trip to Eugene, the E. C. Simmons company, Charles Norton, formerly road man for the district.

Leave for Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman, of this city have left for Los Angeles accompanied by Lester Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy and Mrs. Clara Pennington, of Los Angeles.

Who's Your Hatter? The Paying Teller at the Bank--

never sees his customers' feet from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., yet he knows their footing from A to Z.

When a fellow's on the inside he doesn't have to look out.

That's how you should feel about your clothes—especially this Spring, when there are so many blind bargains in the market.

One thing about trading here—you know what's going on—both sides of the counter you are on the inside—the right side to get satisfaction. And that's what you're looking for—isn't it?

SOCIETY BRAND
New Spring Suits
$40 and more

OTHERS $25, $30 AND $35

Oreen Merrell Co.
men's wear
"One of Eugene's best stores"

who have been visiting here, Charles Kaufman is going south for the benefit of his health.

Here From Cushman—Grant Hoach, wholesale fish dealer of Cushman, was a Eugene business visitor yesterday.

Idaho Visitors Leave—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCready, of Lewiston, Idaho, have left for their home after a visit of several months here at the home of their son, Lynn R. McCready.

Blue River Road Patrolman Here—Charles Neal, road patrolman of the Blue River district, was a visitor here yesterday to confer with the county court on road matters.

Dr. Moody in Portland—Dr. Sherman W. Moody left here Saturday afternoon to attend a board of directors meeting of the Oregon Optical association in Portland, returning Sunday evening.

Engineer Visits Family—Walter H. Hodge has returned to Redmond after spending a week with his wife and little daughter, Florence Louise. Mr. Hodge is engineer for the state highway commission.

More Snow Falls on Upper McKenzie—Stanford Leach, of Belknap's bridge, on the upper McKenzie river, came to the city yesterday to get some hay for his stock. He said that more snow fell there yesterday morning.

Smoke Causes Fire Alarm—Smoke coming out of the wall between Matlock's store and Owen's cigar store on Ninth avenue east caused an alarm of fire to be turned in yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. No fire was found.

Site for Residence Is Purchased—Charles Wickre has purchased a building lot on Eleventh avenue west near Washington street from W. T. Sherman. The new owner plans to build on the site. The deal was handled through the Kam High Realty company.

Former Eugene Man Here—J. P. Holland, formerly of Eugene and Springfield, now located near Baker, is in the city on his way home from Los Angeles. Mr. Holland was principal of the Springfield school 22 years ago. He is now farming near Baker City.

Durant Sport Model Purchased—J. R. Wynn, of this city, has purchased a new sport model Durant through the Lane Auto company, local agency of the machine. The sport model Durant was on display here at the recent motor car show and attracted considerable attention.

Building Lot Is Purchased—Frank Chambers has sold a residential lot on Alder street between Nineteenth and Twentieth avenues east to Rev. John T. Stivers of the Eugene Bible university. A. T. Stivers of the Peterson and McCully realty company handled the deal for the property.

Deer Browse Quite Close to House—That there are plenty of deer in the hills near Walleraville is the belief of J. W. Fountain, of that place, who was in the city yesterday. He said that his wife saw five browsing on the hillside within 300 or 400 yards of their house at one time.

Child Struck by Car—R. C. Breyer, of Fall Creek, reported to the police yesterday that while driving his car on Eighth avenue west he struck Helen Crosby, aged 7 or 8, and knocked her down, but that she did not appear to be injured. Mr. Breyer said he offered to take her home but that she declined the ride.

Take Truck Load of Lumber up River—H. E. Vincent, assistant supervisor, and C. E. McFarland, ranger in the Cascade National forest, took a truck load of lumber Saturday up the river for the new look-out house to be erected on top of Cow Horn mountain. Smith L. Taylor, ranger, took out another load yesterday.

Snow Is Still Holding Out on Upper River—The snow is still much in evidence in the McKenzie valley above the elkman bridge, according to W. B. Wallace, who has returned after a week-end visit at the Harry Hayes ranch at McKenzie bridge. Wallace was accompanied on the trip by E. C. Simmons, of this city, and George Bates, of Portland.

Y. M. C. A. Delegates to Leave—Frank Eberhart and W. P. Walter representing the Y. M. C. A. and Sig Skavlan and E. Taylor representing the H. Y. club will leave today for Portland to attend the annual state association meeting which will open tomorrow. Tonight at Portland a meeting will be held with the national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. boys' work program.

Two Convicts Escape—Sheriff Sticksel and Chief of Police Christensen yesterday received word that two young convicts at the state penitentiary had escaped. They were Frank Payne and James Hanford, both 20 years old, each weighing 150 pounds and are light complexioned, one being five feet, nine inches and the other five feet, 11 inches tall. They were rustlers and were kept outside the walls of the prison.

Odd Fellows to Discuss Building—The plan of building an additional story on the Odd Fellows' temple which has been a matter of discussion among officers of the lodge recently, will be brought before the meeting of the I. O. O. F. tonight. The additional story would involve a financial outlay of between $12,000 and $15,000 according to the estimates of the architect, John Hunzicker, of this city, drew the plans for the present building and reports that the walls are sufficiently strong to hold the additional story.

I. O. O. F. to Entertain—A small fry will be the offering of Eugene members of the Odd Fellows at a meeting to be held Wednesday evening when members of the encampment from Harrisburg, Junction City, Springfield and Cottage Grove will be the guests of the local lodge. The Cottage Grove degree team will confer the royal purple degree on a class of candidates at the meeting. John Newman, chief patriarch, will have charge of the meeting.

Motorcyclists Have Hill Climb—A group of about 15 members of the Eugene motorcycle club staged a hill climb yesterday morning at the Mt. Hood road which will be held in the near future near Cottage Grove. The local club will also meet with the Roseburg motorcycle club at a picnic next month at Roseburg.

University Grad Returns—Eugene Kelly University of Oregon graduate last year, is here on a business visit from his home at Portland. Kelly is now traveling for a Portland book house.

Leaves for Home in Iowa—Grant Moore left yesterday for his home at Boone, Iowa. Mr. Moore was here to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Moore. The funeral services were held Sunday.

Joins Local Store Staff—Miss Maude Jackson, recently of Portland, where she was employed in the retail sales department of a Portland jewelry store, has joined the staff of the Luckey's Jewelry store of this city.

Returns From Lorain—William Bell, of the Price Shoe company, who has been spending the past two weeks at the home of his sister, near Lorain, is spending a few days here and expects to return to the farm Thursday.

Hunter Fined $150 for Having Liquor—H. H. Hunter, of this city, was fined $150 in police court yesterday for having liquor in his possession. He told Judge Alta King that he bought the liquor at Springfield but declined to say who sold it to him.

Not Game at Salem Postponed—Owing to the state Y. M. C. A. meeting at Portland this week the volleyball game between the Eugene and Salem associations which was to have been played at Salem Thursday has been postponed until Thursday evening, March 22.

Caliph Grotto Has Dance—The members of Caliph Grotto, Mystic Order of the Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm were hosts last evening at a dance held at the chamber of commerce. Masons and their families were the guests of the evening.

Traffic Officer at Portland—C. A. Cornell, Eugene traffic officer, is at Portland to have his speedometer tested. This inspection is held twice each month in order that there will be no complaint when a driver is shown the indicator after having been stopped for breaking the speed laws.

Residence Is Sold—H. B. Donk of the Bailey Electric company, has purchased the new home recently constructed by Frank Scobert, located near the corner of Eleventh avenue and Monroe street. Mr. Scobert expects to erect another house on the corner for himself. The deal was handled by the Hoffman Realty company.

Bungalow to Be Built—C. B. Johnson was given a permit yesterday to erect a bungalow at 988 Second avenue west at a cost of $1900. A permit was also issued to the Midgley Planning Mill company to build an addition to the cabinet room at its mill at the corner of Fourth avenue east and High street at a cost of $500.

H. Y. Clubs to Hold Meeting—A joint meeting of the senior and junior H. Y. clubs will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow evening. The senior H. Y. will hold the annual election of officers at a meeting scheduled for March 25. At that time plans will be made for the holding of the "Mother and Son" banquet by the two organizations.

Lumber Industry Is Booming—Indications that the lumbering industry is on the up grade in Lane county is shown by a number of calls for mill and camp hand at the local office of the United States employment service. Yesterday a total of 50 men were sent out, which is the largest single day in the Eugene office for many months. Training camps were represented in the call for men. The Tuft mill at Beck which opens this week called for 20 men to start work when operations are resumed.

Modern Woodmen Have Big Time—About 40 members of the Eugene camp of Modern Woodmen of America attended the meeting of the Monroe camp Saturday night and put on a degree work for the camp there. Twenty-four big husky candidates were put through the work and the local lodgemen state that it was some job to handle them. Supper was served at 11 o'clock and the work did not cease for a couple of hours after then. A big delegation was also present from Corvallis.

Inquiries Received About Lane Scenery—E. F. Martin, local photographer, has recently sent a number of photographs of Lane county scenery to "Kodak Light," the Eastman company's magazine, and was rewarded by seeing five of them printed in the last issue. A number of inquiries from different parts of the country from people who have seen these pictures and who wanted information about hunting, fishing and camping possibilities in this section of the state.

Running Out of Gas Costly—Max Brumberg, a salesman whose home is in Portland, has a hard luck tale to tell of Southern Oregon. The other day he ran out of gasoline just this side of Ashland and left his car standing with two wheels on the pavement while he walked on a mile to get a gallon of fuel. When he came back a traffic cop was waiting for him, and a little later a heartless judge at Ashland mulcted him of $25 for parking on the pavement. Mr. Brumberg, who was in Eugene yesterday, is still boiling over and putting out the fire whenever he thinks of it.

California Alumni Invited—Alumni of the University of California will hold a banquet and meeting at San Francisco next Friday evening, starting at 8 o'clock, and the music, song and speech of the gathering will be radio broadcast from that station KFO at the Hales department store at the Bay City. E. L. Stockton, 1126 Taylor street, this city, has issued an invitation to any California alumni who reside here to join the party at home and hear the radio program from the south. The governor of California and 150 members of the state legislature will attend the U. of C. banquet, according to word sent here.

Lime Experiment to Be Made—A. G. Tromp, farmer of the Leaburg district, was a local visitor yesterday for the purpose of obtaining information from the plant of the Grangers' Eugene Washburne association. The lime was obtained by the association

Announcing the Arrival of Peggy Paige DRESSES

at the McMorran & Washburne Store Exclusively

Fascinating Fashions

Attractive Prices

Your first glimpse of these Peggy Paige frocks shows you how very smart they are, and with the first try-on comes the realization they are as becoming as they are smart. You will find the Peggy Paige frocks fashioned in the most wanted materials of the season, in pleasing styles and careful workmanship usually associated only with very high price garments.

In our store we are constantly on the watch for merchandise of unusual value. Dresses, Suits and Coats of outstanding quality. In the Peggy Paige garments we find the values, the styles and the high quality the women of Eugene demand. By obtaining the exclusive Eugene agency for these famous dresses, and buying in large quantities direct from the manufacturer, we are able to offer most attractive prices—
$32.56 to $55.00

"Veils Again" Fashion says

Because they are so very becoming for Spring wear, Veils will again be the vogue. Right now we have many smart patterns to show you. Some are dotted all over, or in clustered or barred designs, and lots of plain net ones that are pretty, too.

BY THE YARD
50c to $1.75

MADE UP
$1.75 to $3.50

For Tuesday We Announce a Sale of Taffeta Silks

AT
$1.39 All Pastel Shades

36 inches wide

You are urged to come early if you wish to share this excellent bargain. At this low price we believe every yard of it will be sold Tuesday. A splendid quality Silk Taffeta in all the charming shades for evening gowns. You would expect to pay at least $1.75 yard for this same grade. Tuesday, $1.39 yard.

NEW Priscilla Dean HATS for Children

Very perky little affairs they are. Made of the new crushable visca straw cloth, cleverly trimmed in yarn and embroideries and dainty ribbons. Colors are navy, oakwood, copen, fallon and red. Priscilla Dean Hats are sold here exclusively—
$3.95 to $6.00

Lots of Good Looking Caps Now

Suappy new shapes and light colors for Spring—
They're $2.50

SHIRTS?
Yes, Sir! All the New Ones

Shirts of aeroplane cloth, silk poplin and soisette—white, tan and pearl. Attached collars—
$3.00 and $4.00

Suits of Whipcord

Values only possible by a keen study of the market and the enormous purchasing power of this progressive store

These Suits are not to be compared to the usual whipcords found at this price. Their excellent tailoring in every detail, their rich American wools and distinctive styles place them in a class far ahead of others.

We're showing them in the Sport, Norfolk and Plain models. All the good colors for Spring—sand tans, forest browns, heather tones and oyster grays. Step in any time and try them on. You are never urged to buy. We like to show them.

Men—they are real values at $40.00

McMorran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE, QUALITY & ECONOMY

All Mail Orders Filled Promptly

from the state plant in Southern Oregon and is being tried out here as a fertilizer. This is the first time that the product has been used in Lane county except on small experimental tracts, according to officials of the association.

Power Line to Be Built—A new power line of one-half mile will be run by the Mountain States Power company from Coburg to the rock crushing plant of the A. C. Mathews company. The Mathews plant has recently been improved and new equipment added.

Returns from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell and their daughter have returned from Portland after a short visit. Mrs. Fell and daughter were in the north for the past week and Mr. Fell motored to Portland to spend the week-end and returned with his family Sunday.

Owen May Open Store at Springfield—Henry Owen, proprietor of Owen's billiard hall and cigar store on Ninth avenue west, may move to Springfield to establish his business, according to an application for a permit which is to come before the next meeting of the Springfield city council for action.

Owen is forced to move from his present quarters within the next three weeks on account of the building having been taken over by the Manville Furniture store. A tentative location for the Springfield establishment is said to have been negotiated for between Mr. Owen and Welby Stevens of Springfield.

Jasper-Fall Creek Road to Be Repaired—Emmett Sharp, county commissioner, went over the Jasper-Fall Creek road yesterday and promised that it would be repaired as soon as possible. The commissioner said that there are a number of very bad places on that section of the road.

PERSONAL MENTION
F. D. Peitzold, of Mercer, was a visitor in the city yesterday.
B. B. Helfrich, of Vida, was a business visitor here yesterday.
Dr. Royal J. Glick has returned from Portland after a short business visit.

Warner tunes pianos. Phone 1511R.
Insure with Henry Tromp, 33W. 9th

ANNOUNCEMENTS
STOCKHOLDERS OF MCKENZIE River Telephone company, comprising lines 14 and 15, will meet at Thurston hall Tuesday night, March 13, at 8 p. m.

A CHICKEN DINNER WILL BE served in the Baptist church dining room this evening from 5 to 8 p. m. by the Phi Beta Pi organization, which is composed of high school girls. Following the dinner a program will be given. Everybody is cordially invited.

THE LADIES OF SANTA CLARA who are interested in the free millinery and dress form extension work of the Corvallis O. A. C. are asked to communicate with Mrs. Richard Liles, or phone 31P13.

THE L. O. F. CLUB WILL MEET Thursday afternoon in the Eika club room. There will be a business meeting at 2 o'clock, followed by cards, choice of orange or what. Mrs. S. R. Dipple, chairman of the hostess committee; Mrs. F. L. Poindecker, chairman of the refreshment committee.

RAGURA

For Sore, Tired and Tender Feet

A guaranteed remedy for Corns, Bunions, Callouses or feet that perspire. Anyone can apply it.

Over 600 Testimonials from Local People

1 Shampoo
1 Foot Treatment
FREE

Carroll's Pharmacy
783 Willamette