LUIS ANGEL FIRPO PUTS BILL BRENNAN TO SLEEP
Fusillade of Blows In 12th Ends Furious Bout
RIGHT TO EAR DOES TRICK
South American Fighter Wins Spurs as Contender for Jack Dempsey's Heavyweight Title
NEW YORK, March 12.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight, knocked out Bill Brennan of Chicago, in the 12th round of a sensational 15-round match tonight in Madison Square Garden. The end came with dramatic swiftness when Firpo sent the Chicagoan down for the count with a terrific right to the head. Firpo earned his spurs as a contender for Jack Dempsey's title by unleashing a terrific attack in the final round after trailing his opponent on points for a number of rounds. Smashing rights and lefts to Brennan's head with terrific force he drove his man about the ring until a right that landed behind the ear sent him to the canvas. Brennan lay inert for several seconds after the count and had to be assisted to his corner. The victor was accorded a tremendous ovation.
Firpo Outboxed by Brennan
The South American, outgeneraled and outboxed by his more experienced rival for a good share of the contest, brought the bout to a sudden conclusion by an attack of tiger-like fury. Pummeling Brennan about the ring, he landed the first blow, a left to the head. They sparred and Brennan blocked several right swings. The South American was the aggressor and pummeled Brennan about the head. Brennan drove Firpo back with a hard right to the body.
Round Two—Brennan jolted Firpo with a left to the chin, but the South American came back with a two-fisted assault that drove Brennan to the ropes. Firpo pummeled the Chicagoan with hard blows to the head and had the crowd in an uproar.
Round Three—Brennan shot in several lefts but drew a series of rights to the head in retaliation. Firpo drove his opponent to the ropes and landed several damaging body blows. The South American was fighting furiously as the bell rang.
Round Four—Brennan halted Firpo's rush with two hard lefts to the head. The Argentinean whipped over a right uppercut that dazed his opponent and followed with several smashes to the head. Firpo unleashed a two-fisted attack, sending Brennan to the ropes.
Round Six—Brennan had Firpo swinging wildly as he opened a fresh flow of blood from the South American's injured eye. Firpo came back with a smashing drive and the two exchanged blows at a terrific pace at close quarters. A left uppercut staggered Firpo.
Round Seven—Firpo took a hard right to the body and a left to the head. The South American landed a right to the jaw but missed most of his swings. They spent most of the round clinching.
Round Eight—Firpo shot in a hard right to the ribs and pummeled Brennan about the head and body as he took the aggressive. Brennan shot in a left jab but drew a stiff body punch in return. Firpo was booted for swinging at his opponent's jaw as they backed from a clinch.
Round Nine—They exchanged rights to the head and Firpo cut loose with a two-fisted attack that rocked Brennan's head from side to side. Brennan hooked a hard right to the jaw and opened a fresh flow of blood from the cut over Firpo's eye with a stiff left.
Round Ten—Brennan forced Firpo back with a jabbing attack to the head. The South American missed two terrific right swings. Brennan took two rights to the body and then shot in a hard wallop to the ribs. Brennan scored with a right uppercut that staggered the South American. At one point in the round Firpo gesticulated in protesting Brennan's apparent hitting.
Round Twelve—Firpo rushed from his corner and landed three smashing lefts to the head. Brennan whipped over a right uppercut and shot in a right to the body. Firpo forced the Chicagoan to hang on with two hard rights to the head.
As quick to sense his advantage, Firpo turned loose a battery of rights and lefts that sent Brennan staggering to the ropes. Unable to clinch, Brennan tried to duck out of his rival's reach but was caught by a right swing to the jaw. The South American leaped in like a tiger and sent Brennan crashing to the floor with another powerful right to the count.

OREGON FAILS TO SCORE IN WRESTLING MATCH
Washington State Wins By Score of 36 to 0
By EP HOYT
The University of Oregon wrestlers wound up their season yesterday afternoon by losing to the grapplers from Washington State college by a 36-0 score. In three of the five matches the States clearly excelled, but in the other two it seemed that the Oregon men were going to win. In the light heavyweight class Terjeson of Oregon lost to Hamilton of Pullman after the Webfoot matman had won a decision in the first bout, and annexed the win in the second. In the third and deciding go Terjeson was working on Hamilton to advantage and seemed sure to win when he pulled some of his abdominal muscles. As he relaxed from the pain and slid into a half Nelson and arm lock and was downed.
In the go at 145 pounds between Harvey Robertson of Oregon and Captain Ewing of Washington State, each wrestler secured a decision while the other bout went to a draw. According to the regulations as provided for this contingency, the two wrestlers went to a draw. Robertson and Ewing were separated by one-minute rests. Robertson lost by the narrow margin of 25 seconds, in other words, Ewing worked on top 25 seconds longer than Robertson and won the decision.
The meet was refereed by Coach Rathbun of the Oregon Agricultural college wrestling team. The results of the meet follow:
135-pounds—Jahlium of Washington State took two straight falls from Sumption, Oregon, using reverse body locks. The time for these falls was two minutes, 50 seconds, and two minutes, 45 seconds.
145-pounds—Allen of Pullman beat Chathburne of Oregon two decisions.
155-pounds—Captain Ewing of the States got the decision over Harvey Robertson of Oregon after three seven-minute bouts and two extra three-minute sessions.
165-pounds—Sulford of Washington State won by a decision over the first bout going to a draw, while in the second, Sulford downed the Webfoot in five minutes and 50 seconds.
In the light heavyweight division, Hamilton of W. S. C. won from Terjeson of Oregon. The first bout the States won by a decision, the second went to a draw; the third was won by Hamilton on a foul after Terjeson pulled a muscle.
The meet yesterday disclosed two clever wrestlers, Terjeson and Robertson, and these men might with the proper coaching develop into real champions. Both are strong and aggressive and never quit.
