

LARGE'S! The approved Fashion Shop for Spring

Time honored Easter morn presents many pleasant surprises. Madam's new frock—Jane's swagger sports coat—the versatile costume suit—will take its place in the line of approved styles for Spring if purchased at this store.

The Newest Styles in Frocks and Coats

Hundreds of the newer modes in wraps and frocks are here for April shopping. The new wraps are more elaborate than ever—the latest arrivals in frocks are a riot of color in gayly printed designs or solid shades. Prices are surprisingly reasonable—Frocks at $12.75 to $59.50. Wraps at $16.75 to $89.50.

LARGE'S

865 Willamette St.

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Major Peterson in Portland.—Major C. O. Peterson is in Portland, having been called there on business.

Will Spend Easter in Portland.—Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dick went to Portland yesterday to spend Easter with relatives and friends.

Visiting at Albany.—Mrs. N. L. Lee, of this city, has left for Albany, where she will visit for the week with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller. Mrs. W. A. Mc-ground floor of the Chambers building on Willamette street between Seventh and Eighth avenues.

Marcola People Go to Corvallis.—C. G. Sprinker, principal of the Marcola school, accompanied by his wife, drove to Corvallis yesterday to look after property interests.

Returns from Portland Trip.—George E. Love, proprietor of the Surplus Army Goods store, has returned after a business trip of several days at Portland, Vancouver, Barracks, Wash., and at Camp Lewis. He made the trip by motor.

Here from Wyoming.—Mrs. C. A. Loucks, of Portland, and F. R. Crucker, of Rock Springs, Wyo., have been called here to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. John Crocker, 293 Fifth avenue west, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Coyote Baseball Team Gets Its Equipment.—George Holland, of Coyote, was in the city yesterday on a business trip and also to obtain baseball equipment for the new Coyote team, which is preparing to take the field against the best of its class in the county, according to Mr. Holland.

Coming from Spokane.—John M. McLean, brother of George N. McLean, of this city, will arrive here today from Spokane, Wash., for a visit. Joe McLean, son of John McLean and former University of Oregon student, accompanied his father as far as Portland by motor. Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLean expect to make their permanent home at Portland.

Plans Are Made for Camp Opening.—The Hansen auto tour camp south of the city on the Pacific highway will be officially opened about April 10, according to Melvin Hansen, proprietor. The waterpower plant and other accommodations that are being installed for the use of the tourists are now nearing completion in preparation for the season.

Y. M. C. A. Boys at Portland.—The junior leaders' corps of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. are spending the week-end at Portland as the guests of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and the local team is participating in a basketball game with the Portland association boys. E. E. Holdeman, physical director of the local association, accompanied the leaders' corps team to Portland.

Three Jewett Cars Purchased Here.—Professor Frederick S. Dunn, of the University of Oregon, has purchased a new special Jewett touring car; J. L. Jones has bought a special sedan of the same make, and O. E. Lee has purchased a regular touring car model of the Jewett. The cars were all delivered last week and were sold by the Bingle and Calkins company, local agents of the Jewett.

Realty Office to Move.—The Kinney and Hyde realty office which has been located in the Zumwalt building at Seventh avenue and Willamette street for the past two and one-half years, will move about May 1 to the offices over the Imperial grill which are to be vacated by the Melvin Hansen office this week. The Willamette street store at present occupied by the Kinney and Hyde company has been leased for a barber shop which will be established after May 1.

Sunday School Classes to Hike.—The Spartans Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church under the leadership of W. P. Walter, boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will leave tomorrow for a camping and hiking trip to the vicinity of the Lucky Boy mine in the Bohemia district. The party will be about a week, returning Sunday. The Rips Sunday school class of the Methodist church is also planning a camping and hiking trip and will leave Friday for a trip of a few days.

Notarial Commission Filed.—The notarial commission of M. P. Bonnell, of Eugene, was filed in the office of County Clerk Bryson yesterday.

Leave for Seattle.—Mr. and Mrs. William Steuding, Mrs. E. J. Knapp and Miss Vivian Steuding left yesterday for a motor trip to Seattle.

Motor to Portland.—Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Longworth, accompanied by Mrs. Nettie Bayliss, Mrs. Edwards and her daughter, Pearl, motored to Portland yesterday to spend the week-end.

Plans Trip to Kansas.—Fred Bangs, resident of the Junction City district, is planning a trip to Ottawa, Kansas, in the near future. Bangs has not been in Kansas for 40 years.

Miss Pease Advanced.—Miss Eva Pease, for a number of years a member of the force of the county clerk's office, has been advanced from the recording department to counter work in the front office.

Portland Hotel Man Is Here.—Phil Mettschman, proprietor of the Imperial hotel of Portland, is a Eugene visitor accompanied by his family. They made the trip by motor and expect to return tomorrow to Portland.

Army Man Returns from Islands.—After three years army service in the Philippines, Sidney S. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall, 148 Sixth avenue west, has returned to his home here.

Local Fireman Resigns.—Bert Ingram, member of the Eugene fire department, has resigned. His resignation has been accepted by the appointment of Rex Reed, Ingram plans to leave for Medford.

Inventory of Estate Filed.—The estate of Mary J. Page has a new inventory of $488.74, according to the inventory filed yesterday in the probate court. The appraisers were M. Ethel Taylor, H. H. Hobbs and Nathan Barrett.

Dismissed from Mercy Hospital.—Dismissals reported yesterday from the Mercy hospital were: Mrs. Harry Thienes, Walterville; Boyd Strom, Drain; Mrs. H. N. Hatfield, Eugene; Mrs. Nick Tacoma, Harrisburg; and Frank Fox, Eugene.

Salem People Visit at Graham Home.—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spear and two children, of Salem, stopped in Eugene yesterday on their way home from San Diego, Cal., to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Graham.

Mill Employee Is Injured.—Thomas Harris, employed at the Booth-Kelly logging camp No. 29, near Wendling, is receiving medical treatment at the Eugene hospital for an injury to his wrist as the result of an accident when a piece of a steel wedge flew up and struck him.

Lad Sustains Broken Arm.—Clayton Sullivan, 18, suffered a broken arm Friday night while attempting to ride the rear bumper of a motor car. Sullivan was running behind the machine which speeded up and threw him to the pavement. The driver did not know of the accident.

New Switchboard Ready for Use.—A new three-section switchboard which is being installed at the local office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, is now ready for use, and will be in operation within the next few days, according to C. P. Van Houtte, manager of the local office of the company.

Peerless Dental Parlor to Enlarge.—The entire second floor of the Zumwalt building on Seventh avenue and Willamette street has been leased to the Peerless dental parlor and the quarters of the establishment are to be enlarged. Two apartments are also to be added to the second floor quarters.

Baseball Team Starts Practice.—The first real workout of the recently organized baseball team of Company C of the national guards of this city is planned for today if the weather co-operates, according to officials of the club. A fast team is promised to take the field during the coming season to represent the local guardsmen, is the announcement.

Eastern Star Members Visit.—A delegation of members of the Evangelical chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of this city drove to Creswell last evening to attend a meeting as the guests of the Creswell members of the order. Mrs. Theresa Castner, of Hood River, grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon, was the principal speaker at the Creswell meeting.

Missouri Man Purchases Farm.—V. A. Davis, graduate of the agricultural department of the University of Missouri, who recently arrived here, has purchased the Eaton farm on the River road and plans to make his home in Lane county. Mr. Davis after looking over several Pacific coast points for the selection of a farm has decided that the best advantages are in this community.

Jolly Girls Plan Entertainment.—The Jolly Girls, an organization of the local Rebekahs assembly, are planning to have the members of the Rebekahs as their guests at an entertainment and party to be held at the I. O. O. F. temple next Monday evening. The event is called an "April frolic," and those taking part will dress in special costumes, according to the committee in charge of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick at Corvallis.—E. E. Chadwick, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, and Mrs. Chadwick were at Corvallis yesterday to visit the annual business show of the state college. Mr. Chadwick upon his return said that the display sent by the local chamber is very creditable. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer, of this city, who are students at the college, have charge. The Lane county exhibit consists mainly of pictures, being much different from the others.

Plant to Add New Equipment.—New equipment is being added to the plant of the Loud Manufacturing company at Springfield which will increase the capacity of the factory which turns out finished building materials of which about three or four a week are being shipped out from the Springfield plant at present, according to Mr. Loud. Both dry kilns of the concern are now in operation, the owner states.

Dance Hall License Obtained.—The Coast Range Lumber company's Mabel yesterday took out a dance hall license.

Sticks Home from Portland.—Roy Stickle, who is attending the North Pacific Dental college in Portland, is here for the week-end.

Felix Sparks in City.—Felix Sparks, of Blue River, who has been employed at Lowell for some time, was here yesterday on his way home.

Dairy Has New Improvements.—Thompson's dairy, north of the city, has installed a new Simplex tubular double waterway cooler, boiler, bottler and bottle washer.

Says Drouth Is Upon Us.—Lee Goetschius, local weather observer, says that the drouth has started. During the past two months the rainfall has been but 2.85 inches, which he says is far below normal.

Piano Company Moves.—The Berry piano and furniture house will move to the new quarters of the concern tomorrow. The store in the Chambers building which has been leased by the Berry company is now nearing completion.

Sawmill Is Sent to Monroe.—A new sawmill that is to be used by the Martin and Main concern which is opening a mill near Monroe, has been shipped from here by the Oregon Machinery company. The mill is expected to be in operation within the near future.

Several Marriage Licenses Issued.—Marriage licenses were issued at the office of County Clerk Bryson yesterday to the following: Russell William Lenhart, of Springfield, and Vera Hodges, of Eugene; Ferdinand Root, of Portland, and Yena Eklund, of Eugene; Fred L. Butts, of Roseburg, and Margaret Farrington, of Eugene.

Mrs. Petrie Appointed Administrator.—Mrs. E. Petrie yesterday was appointed by Probate Judge C. P. Barnard as administrator of the estate of Harley H. Petrie, who died at Cottage Grove March 11, 1922, leaving property of the estimated value of $3960. A. A. Hale, D. H. Hemenway and J. C. Teeters were appointed as appraisers.

New Plumbing Shop to Open.—The refitting of the store on Olive street formerly used as a warehouse for the Chambers Hardware company is nearing completion and Finnie's plumbing shop will shortly occupy the quarters. The shop is being moved from the rear of the Willamette street building between Eighth and Ninth avenues west, which will be rebuilt by the Wetherbee-Walker company.

Leaving for Marshfield.—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton and infant daughter are leaving today by motor for Marshfield after a visit of a few days in this city. Mr. Britton, former physical director of the Eugene Y. M. C. A., is now athletic director of the Marshfield high school. Harold Dotson, of this city, will accompany them to Marshfield today, and he expects to return here later in the week.

Two Boys Run Away.—Chief of Police Christensen yesterday received a message from the chief at Corvallis stating that two 14-year-old boys had run away from home there and asking the officers here to look for them. The name of one is George Goldsmith. He is 5 feet 3, and weighs 125. He wore a brown mackinaw coat, khaki trousers and leather leggings, and has three front teeth out. The other's name is Stevenson. He wore a brown cap, blue cotton shirt, dark green sweater, army trousers and high top shoes.

PERSONAL MENTION

A. E. White, superintendent of the schools at Junction City, was here yesterday on business.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.—DURING THE EASTER RECESS, March 30 to April 8, the university library will be open each week day from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. It will be closed evenings and Sundays.

THE REGULAR MEETING of the Shakespeare club will be Monday at 3 p. m. in the chamber of commerce rooms.

Your Feet Are Worth a Fortune!

Right now while you have good feet you should take care of them. You can have comfortable feet if you continue to wear ordinary shoes with sagging arches. Arch Preserver Shoes with the concealed arch bridge keep your feet vigorous and healthy because they are comfortable and normal support is provided. Arch Preserver Shoes are in good style, always, enabling you to have your feet look as you wish.

Sold only at

ANNOUNCEMENTS.—THE ASSOCIATED COUNCIL OF the Eugene P. T. A. will meet in Superintendent Carlton's office Monday afternoon, April 2, at 2:30.

THERE WILL BE A LECTURE by Mr. Dorks at the Metaphysical library room, 938 Willamette street (over J. C. Penney store) at 7:30 this evening. The public is cordially invited.

THE EUGENE THEOSOPHICAL society requests all its members to attend a business meeting of the lodge on Monday, at 7:45 p. m. in the Metaphysical reading room, 938 Willamette street, above Penney's store.

THE L. O. E. CLUB WILL MEET Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Elks' club rooms, Mrs. F. L. Chambers is chairman of the hostess committee and Mrs. Mary Pironi is chairman of the refreshments committee.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE Woman's Auxiliary to the American Legion will be held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening starting at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as business of importance is to come before the meeting.

DIED.—LANGLEY—At 106 Taylor street, March 31, 1923, Mrs. Alice Langley, of Grande Ronde, Oregon. She leaves her husband, A. G. Langley and four children of Grande Ronde. The funeral arrangements are in charge of the Veatch chapel and will be announced later.

Card of Thanks.—We wish to thank our many friends for expressions of their sympathy and kind deeds during the illness, death and burial of our beloved husband and uncle; also the beautiful floral offerings.

MRS. E. W. DANNER AND FAMILY
MR. and MRS. FRANK HORN AND FAMILY

Eugene Collection Agency.—No collection, no fee; no entry fee or dues. W. H. BLOWERS. -11-12-13.

DON'T read this ad if you have lots of money! You have always envied the girl who could afford a PERMANENT WAVE haven't you? And now you can make your dreams come true.

A beautiful Nestle Permanent Wave for only $10 at

MARGIE'S
Phone 1245Y - 573 W. 5th

What $1 Does Here to-morrow

See Page 7, Section 1, for full-page Announcement of our great value-giving

Dollar Day

Monday, April 2

One Day Only

DeWitt's Health Food

Beginning Monday, April 2d

We will put on a

CLEARANCE SALE MILLINERY

Leocade Hat Shop
WHERE YOU ALWAYS BUY FOR LESS
172 East Ninth Street, Near Pearl

New Spring Sportswear

Sport clothes this Spring are so new—so different—that it seems every bit of creative design has gone into them. Here you will find Sport clothes of distinction.

Sport Skirts

are now to be seen in a wonderful selection of new and lovely styles—camels hair, basket cloth, plaids, stripes, and in fancy silk weave.

Priced $7.75 to $20.00

Sweaters

In an array of coloring and variety of styles. The new Jacquette in both silk and wool is one of the newest.

Golf Sweaters are usually plaided or mixed. The back and sleeves plain.

Gilmore's
Correct Apparel for Women

Green Merrell Co.
men's wear
"One of Eugene's best stores"