Professor Gilbert, of the university, will be one of the speakers. His subject will be "Economic Conditions of the Farmers." Several bankers also will be present and make short addresses.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., April 18.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church commenced operations Wednesday afternoon for the Old Fellows' convention April 24 in preparing the rooms in the old hardware building for the service of meals at noon and evening to the guests on that day. They came with their brooms and cloths and soon made over the rooms into a most attractive reception room. They entertained themselves with doughnuts and coffee, the thought of Mrs. Cora Olson.

AMUSEMENTS
The ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion held a business meeting at the legion rooms on Thursday afternoon. A live discussion enlivened the meeting.

The Fly-By-Nighters

WHEREVER there is money you will find the fly-by-nighters. They prey upon the people who have spent a lifetime accumulating a little stake for the future non-producing years.

Eugene has not been without its high-yield, high-risk stock artists, and in some cases the losers could ill afford their loss. The moral in all of which is, "Consult your banker first."
