

MRS. HICKEY
SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND
 How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass.—"I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the floor. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and thought I would try it. After taking a week I began to improve, and in a few days I was able to do my usual work, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this as a testimonial, as I would like to see any one suffering the way I once suffered from such a weakness."—Mrs. Hickey, 4 S. Ludlow St., Worcester, Mass.

OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN
PATTERSON SCHOOL PUPILS
APPEAR TONIGHT

Practically Every Child Enrolled Will Take Part in Clever Entertainments

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Villard hall at the University of Oregon the Patterson school pupils will render the operetta, "The Cruise of the Trundle Bed."

Practically every pupil in the school will take a part in the presentation of the operetta. In it will be shown brownies, fairies, Swiss milk makers and cheese makers, toy soldiers, Japanese, Laplanders, English and American soldiers and many other characters. Those who have witnessed the rehearsals declare it to be one of the cleverest entertainments ever put on by the school pupils of Eugene.

It is announced that an admission fee will be charged but that children without parents will not be admitted. The story of the operetta follows:

Two little boys while away time in bed before they grow sleepy by playing "Sailors Out to Sea." Just as they have everything fixed to start on "The Cruise of the Trundle Bed," they fall asleep, as a good fairy comes on the scene and takes them on a journey around the world. In their dreams, they visit a number of foreign countries, but they manage to get back just as the clock strikes four, at which hour the fairy finds she must disappear, as she is not allowed on earth after daylight. Just as she is making her escape, the youngsters wake up and try to catch her, but she gets away. The two boys compare notes and conclude that all they had seen must be real, and the curtain goes down as they scamper off with their clothes under their arms.

FUNERAL TO BE PRIVATE
RELATIVES TO ATTEND SERVICES FOR MRS. PAGE

Funeral services of the late Mrs. J. B. Page, who was fatally injured when struck by an automobile on Eleventh avenue east Saturday night, will be private and only the immediate members of the family will be present, according to the announcement of Mrs. Marian Page Hamilton, of Prosser, Wash., daughter of Mrs. Page, and Mrs. J. L. Creeks, of Redding, Cal., sister, arrived here last night following the receipt of word of the fatal accident.

There will be no inquest, according to Coroner W. W. Branstetter, who reports that he has investigated the facts of the case and that G. W. Swanson, of West Springfield, driver of the car, was not to blame for the accident.
