ROSE SHOW ATTRACTIVE

MANY BLOOMS DISPLAYED AT SPRINGFIELD FESTIVAL

June Danks Rules as Queen of the Day in Children's Parade Held in Evening

(Register Lane County Special)

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., June 5.—The rose show held here today at the library was a huge success from every standpoint and showed to advantage not only Springfield's array of blooms, but demonstrated the spirit of civic pride that has been so marked here. Dozens of entries were on display for every class, and all were displayed in their most attractive forms.

Prizes for the entries were announced as follows:

Class one, six roses of one variety—Mrs. J. W. Coffin, Ophelia, first; Mrs. Frank Gordon, Hillingtons, second; Mrs. Percy Tyson, Sunburst, third.

Class two, three roses of one variety—Mrs. Ed Perkins, Hadley, first; Mrs. J. W. Coffin, Hillington, second; Mrs. Chas. Dority, Lyon, third.

Class three, singles—Mrs. Lucy Strubin, Hillington, first; Mrs. Chas. Dority, Lyon, second; Mrs. Percy Tyson, Sunburst, third.

Class four, baskets—Mrs. Corton, Hillington, first; Mrs. J. W. Coffin, Bruner, second; Mrs. Cora Long, Bette, third.

Judges for the contest were Henry Fisher, superintendent of the grounds of the University of Oregon; Charles Kingswell and Mrs. Jim Clark. Refreshments were served during the showing of the displays.

The children's parade took place on Main street with pretty little Miss June Danks as queen of the festival. She was attended by other girls of the city and the many children carrying great bouquets of roses attracted much favorable comment from those who witnessed the affair.

The queen was determined by popular vote and this feature, together with the many attractive floats, made a very attractive showing.

GRANGE PICNIC BOOKED

ALVADORE AND IRVING MEMBERS TO REVEL

(Register Lane County Special)

IRVING, Ore., June 5.—At the meeting of Irving grange last Saturday it was decided to accept an invitaton from Alvadore grange to join with them in a picnic which would take place on Tuesday June 12.

All to meet at the Cheshire oak grove soon after the noon hour. Bring baskets of lunch and spend the afternoon in having a good time. A baseball game will be played between the two granges. Each member is asked to bring a dish for strawberries and a drinking cup.

All those present at Irving grange Saturday enjoyed the program planned by the lecturer, Mrs. Ella West. It was a children's day program and was made interesting by readings, songs and experiences of the childhood days of some of the older people, one especially thrilling by W. R. Wing telling of mischief he and his brothers were doing during the absence of their parents when he was a boy.

Public School Has Closed
(Register Lane County Special)

IRVING, Ore., June 5.—Irving public school closed on Friday and celebrated the last day of school with a picnic. The teachers, J. G. Grimes and Mrs. Bertha Near, and all the children of the school and also a few of the parents, went to the grove near Herman Stoll's place, having a basket dinner, and the games which usually help to make a picnic a success. All present felt they had a happy day together and departed for home about 4 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Zumwalt and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Kelso motored to Looking Glass the latter part of the week and visited Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode who are living at that place.

E. J. Ward, of Fern Ridge, was delivering strawberries in Irving Monday morning.

FLOWER SHOW BIG EVENT

CHOICEST BLOOMS DISPLAYED BY CRESWELL FOLK

Mrs. Drew, Chester Noland and J. W. Hyett Put to Test in Judging Splendid Exhibit

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., June 5. — One of the most elaborate and beautiful flower shows ever put on in Creswell was given by the ladies of the Civic Improvement club this afternoon in the old hardware building. The committee who arranged the displays were Mrs. Ed Groshong, Mrs. Tom Brown and Mrs. F. A. Richardson. Flowers of all kinds now in bloom both tame and wild graced the tables in groups and single sets. Mrs. Drew, Chet Noland and J. W. Hyett were judges and had a genuine time of labor and mental anguish to allot the prize ribbons which they did after a faithful two-hours or more of service.

During the afternoon J. R. Letter of Salem, field agent of the Children's Farm Home, presented the facts and needs of the home showing that it was intended for the care of homeless children who had no lodge or organization to look after them. The movement here was fostered by the W. C. T. U. through its president, Mrs. Mary Howe, who appointed a committee to further arrange for the quota allotted to Creswell for the support of this work which was estimated at $100. The committee appointed by Mrs. Howe was Mrs. Ed Anderson, chairman, Mrs. F. A. Richardson, Mrs. Grace Moore, Mrs. Clara Parsons and C. H. Sedgwick. The ladies served a light luncheon of sandwiches and coffee for which a silver offering was contributed by those present which offered a social feature as people visited while enjoying their refreshments.

List of Prizes Awarded

The prizes awarded for the flowers were grouped and singles as follows:

There were over two hundred bouquets in the display.

CIVIC CLUB HOLDS MEET

CRESWELL LADIES GATHER FOR REGULAR EVENT

Pleasing Feature of Session Was Attendance at the Meeting of Several Former Residents

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., May 30. — The May meeting of the Ladies' Civic Improvement club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Margaret Martin and Mrs. C. R. Cleaver at Eugene, they formerly being residents of Creswell and members of the club. They were assisted in entertainment by Mrs. G. E. Everson, Mrs. Eliza Thompson, Mrs. J. Perini and Mrs. Otto Olson. The Creswell ladies formed auto parties and went to Eugene early in the afternoon. In the absence of the president Mrs. R. O. Brady, the second vice-president, Mrs. W. W. Wyatt, presided. The usual routine business included committee reports. The educational committee reminded the members of the school meeting June 18 at which a member of the board was to be elected.

A vote of appreciation was extended the present corps of teachers for what they accomplished in the schools this last year. Under the child welfare committee Mrs. Ed Anderson reported on the farm home for children at Corvallis. Also referred to the home for crippled children being promoted by the Shriners. The publicity committee reported sending a report of the club to the Womv en's Magazine.

A special committee consisting of Mrs. Ed Groshong, Mrs. Thos. Brown and Mrs. F. A. Richardson have charge of a rose show. Sixty dollars was reported in the treasury. Mrs. Brown reported that the grange had made no charge for the use of the grange hall for the Oregon products banquet and a vote of thanks was ordered sent to the grange for the courtesy and favor. A discussion of a summer kindergarten was held and the matter placed in charge of the executive, child welfare, educational and music committees.

Medford Meeting Reported

The three delegates, Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mrs. Ethel Treanor who attended the state meeting at Medford the last week, gave most interesting reports. Mrs. Schulmerich's report had been written and she not being present her report was read by Mrs. Bearby. The report showed that the next national meeting was to be in Los Angeles and the next state meeting at Oregon City. Creswell's report at the convention made a creditable showing, being given there by Mrs. Treanor. Each lady took a day of the convention thus covering it all for the home club.

Refreshments of ice cream cake and coffee were served.

A pleasant feature of the meeting was the attendance of several former residents and members of the club who now reside in Eugene. They were Mrs. Elmer Roberts, Mrs. F. C. Davis, Mrs. H. E. Richardson, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. Ernie Schwering, Mrs. Jay Hewitt, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Chas. Wirth, also Mrs. Marion Hager, of Ashland, and Miss Lois Traxler, of Eugene. Those from Creswell attending were Mrs. George Snere, Mrs. F. L. Ricker, Mrs. E. Groshong, Mrs. T. P. Jackson, Mrs. Eliza Thompson, Mrs. H. A. Olson, Mrs. J. Maaranen, Mrs. F. A. Richardson, Mrs. W. W. Bearby, Mrs. Clara Traxler, Mrs. W. W. Wyatt, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Miss Elizabeth Tryon, Mrs. N. E. Steele, Mrs. Thos. Brown, Mrs. Ethel Treanor, Mrs. Ed Anderson, Mrs. G. E. Everson and Mrs. C. H. Sedgwick.

The next meeting will be held with the club president, Mrs. R. O. Brady.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., June 5.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nearhoff of Portland, called a few minutes Saturday making an auto trip.

Mrs. Ollie Parsons, of Eugene, came up Saturday evening to attend the decoration services of the Women of Woodcraft Sunday.

The Creswell high school team played the Drain high school team at Creswell Monday afternoon and won by the score of 26 to 9.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Steele and son, Claire, and Miss Elizabeth Tryon went to Corvallis Monday to attend the graduating exercises of the college. Miss Zella Steele was one of the graduates being an honor student of the home economics course.

Leslie Lacey came home Monday afternoon to visit his parents. He is in the employ of the home mission board of the Presbyterian church at San Francisco. He made the trip to Portland by water attended the graduating exercises at O. A. C. where his sisters Miss Mildred and Miss Elizabeth Lacey are attending college.

The Christian church held a fine children's day service Sunday morning with a fitting program. After the exercises the school was arranged in front of the church and a picture taken by Mr. Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sedgwick and daughter Elizabeth attended the graduating exercises at O. A. C. Sunday and Monday. Their son William Sedgwick was one of the graduates receiving a diploma in electrical engineering; also a commission as second lieutenant from the government.

The council met in regular session Monday evening. The bicycle ordinance was about completed but deferred from final passage by objection of one of the members. The object of the ordinance is to protect pedestrians on the sidewalks, will compel riders to dismount when meeting pedestrians and penalty will be a fine or jail sentence or in case of minors in lieu of jail the taking away of the use of the bicycle for a time. An ordinance authorising the improvement of Fourth street between D and C streets was passed.

C. L. Weber and family and guests went to the fish hatchery up the McKenzie on Tuesday for a day's outing.

There are nine graduates this year namely, Lois Everson, Glenn L. Martin, Marjorie Austin Schulmerich, Matt O. Maaranen, G. June Mooney, Leslie C. Kirkham, Christine E. Robinett, Berton A. Land, Thelma D. Howe. The class motto is "Dig," class colors are green and white; class flower white rose. The baccalaureate sermon will be given by Rev. Robert Parker, pastor of the Methodist church at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Escapes Fatal Injury
(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., June 4.—Clarence Sears narrowly escaped a fatal injury a few days ago in an inexplicable manner. He was cutting off a block of wood with a gasoline woodsaw and had struck the ax into the top of the block. He was reaching to stop the saw, as the cut was nearly completed, when the ax flew up for some reason which Mr. Sears does not understand and struck him on top of the head. A large gash was cut and the physician who attended him said that if the ax had struck an inch to one side it would have inflicted a fatal injury. Several stitches were taken and Mr. Sears is now doing nicely.

SPRAYING TIME AT HAND

CODLIN MOTH SHOULD BE FOUGHT NOW SAYS STEWART

Spraying for codlin moth on apples and pears should begin at once, says C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector. The formula to be used at this time is one gallon of lime and sulphur to 50 gallons of water plus lead arsenate at the rate of one pound to 50 gallons of the solution. For O'Anjou and Comice pears the formula should be one gallon of lime and sulphur to each 65 gallons of water, plus one pound of lead arsenate to each 50 gallons of the solution.

Spraying in the larger orchards should commence by today so as to finish in eight days but in the smaller orchards the work may be commenced as late as next Monday, says the inspector.
