for the place of school director, and J. W. Goffin, present incumbent, will run for school clerk. Mr. Goffin has served in this capacity for the past two years, and his work has been very efficient, according to those connected with school matters, hence it is doubtful if anyone will run against him.

BOND PROPOSAL IS LOST

COTTAGE GROVE VOTERS DEFEAT CITY MALL PROJECT

(Register Lane County Special)
COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., June 6.—The proposition to bond the city in the amount of $10,000 for a new city hall was defeated at a special election held Monday in which not over 10 per cent of the vote of the city was cast. Five per cent additional voters could have changed the result.

The proposition to give the council power to permit property owners to create lighting districts was also defeated by almost the same vote.

A proposition to take from the council power to sell the west side watershed without a vote of the people was successful, the vote on this being exactly reversed. The council favored all three of the propositions.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., June 7.—J. W. Hyatt and Dr. Baker of Eugene went to Belknap Springs Sunday, fishing, and Hyatt claims they got a string of fish. They had a good time anyway.

The ladies of the flower committee of the Civic Improvement club, who sponsored the flower show Tuesday, wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all who so generously assisted with their beautiful and tastefully arranged bouquets and also to those who assisted in the work of fixing up the rooms and tables and altogether making the show the success it was.

The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Shaub Wednesday and sent out a large number of mission bouquets around town.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Davis of Eugene were up Wednesday evening and completed the purchase of the new home.

DAILY MARKET REPORT

OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE
PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—Egg market situation continues of mixed character with cold storage reports indicating a bearish trend, although no price change is shown here.

According to a special message received by Manager Dixon of the Pacific Poultry Producers' association, cold storage stocks of eggs in the United States June 1 included 7,813,000 cases or 34,900 cases less than the June, 1922 report showed. At first glance this report indicates an extreme shortage of eggs, but the fact is that a month or two ago the shortage reached about 1,000,000 cases. This shows, therefore, that supplies are rapidly increasing and the next report is expected to show an increase over the 1922 report.

BUTTER TREND JUST STEADY
While state cube extras sold as high as 40 1/2¢ a pound, a rise of 1/2¢ for the 24 hours, the general trend even of the cube trade is not quite as good as a day or so ago. San Francisco showed a further loss of 1¢ during the day and Los Angeles was lower. Prints unchanged here.

CHICKEN PRICES IN SLUMP
Prices are again showing a slump in the chicken trade with some of the f. o. b. bidders down to 11¢ for light hens, although some are still offering as high as 14¢. Heavy hens are extreme top at 20¢, with broilers around 22¢ for 1 1/2-lb. stuff. Trade heavily overloaded.

VEAL MARKET IN BAD SHAPE
Market for country-killed calves has not been in such bad shape for an extended period. While occasional tops are quoted up to 12¢, some rather good stuff sold down to 8¢ 10¢, with few asking above 11¢ in lots. Hogs holding nominally at former prices.

FIRST WATERMELONS ARE GOOD
First carload of watermelons of the season came from the Imperial Valley to the Pacific Producers company and sold around 5 1/2-6¢ per pound. The same firm also received the first carload of yellow onions of the season. These came from Stockton and were quoted at 34¢.

CHERRY MARKET IS VERY SLOW
Very slow trade is shown in the cherry market. Local and California stuff is arriving more freely. Some of the stock from the Dalles is of good quality and is selling at 32.5¢-37.75¢ per box of 15 pounds. Some valley stock sold at the lower price. California stock very disappointing.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—These are prices retailers pay wholesalers, except as otherwise noted.

Butter—Selling prices, box lots—Creamery prices—Prints, extras, 44¢ lb. for plain wrappers; cubes, extras, 40¢ 42¢ lb.; prime firsts, 39¢ 40¢ per lb.; dairy (buying price), 30¢ per lb.

Butterfat—Portland delivery basis—No. 1 grade, 45¢ 44¢ per lb.; No. 2, 40¢ 41¢ per lb.; No. 1, 41¢ 42¢ for "A" grade.

Eggs—Buying price, front street (subject to candling): Mixed color standard—Western Oregon, 22¢ 23¢ per doz.; pullets, 18¢ per doz.; henneries, 24¢ 25¢ per doz. Selling price—Storage pack—Extras, 29¢ per doz.; select, 27¢ 28¢ per doz.; candled, 24¢ 25¢ per doz.; pullets, 23¢ 24¢ per doz.

Live Poultry—Selling price—Heavy hens, 20¢ 22¢ lb.; light hens, 19¢ 14¢ per lb.; broilers, light, 20¢ per lb.; heavy, 22¢ per lb.; turkeys, live, 25¢ per lb.; capons, dressed, 34¢ 35¢ per lb.

Oregon potatoes, 75¢ @ $1.25 per cental; sweet potatoes, $2.75 @ $3.00 crate; new potatoes, 7¢ 7 1/2¢ lb.

Potatoes—Selling price to retailers—Oregon potatoes, 75¢ @ $1.50 per cental;

Irene Castle Favors Modesty Belt

Before sailing for Europe, Irene Castle, widow of the late Vernon Castle, experienced such disgust at dances she had seen in the Middle West that she expressed a decided favor for the "modesty belt," a French invention. It consists of spiked belts for women, which keep their male partners at a respectful distance. The new belt, which has just been introduced into Chicago, is worn by Miss Bee Thompson.
