Does "Petticoat Government" Rule?

Sir William Watson, noted English poet, has asserted that America is a nation of "women worshippers," that the United States is ruled by a "petticoat government" and that American women were primarily responsible for the 18th amendment and subsequent more-or-less prohibition. Miss Lucy Branham, Carnegie medal winner for heroism and a leader of the National Woman's party, has characterized his statement as "bunk." America, she said, is "male-ridden," and women haven't the least share "of the political or economic energy which is their just due." Chief credit for prohibition, she added, must go to the middle-class business man, who could not afford to drink and did not want to see his workers drunk.
