

COOL SUMMER APPAREL

to make vacations worth while

This store has assembled large stocks of appropriate apparel for various vacation spots. The seashore, the mountains, the highway and home sports—each demands their particular kind of apparel.

Gingham Dresses for Mornings

French Gingham frocks in colorful checks and various new styles. Special values $4.95 to $9.75

Wash Blouses—"Tailored"

To wear with Sports skirts or sweaters—these tailored blouses of voile or dimity are ideal $1.00 to $4.95

Frocks—Ratine or Linen—Cool and Fresh

Tub Frocks that will answer the call for an afternoon stroll—cool and supple—easily tubbed $7.95 to $12.75

Japanese Parasols—Hosiery—Silk Sweaters—Skirts—Bathing Suits—Knit Underwear.

Wrap - Around Girdles for Sports

Cool and well-fitting Corsets and Girdles especially designed for vacations—
$1.50 to $3.75

LARGE'S

865 Willamette Street

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Sheridan Man Here—Sheridan Sackett, of Sheridan, is here and expects to be in the city during the remainder of the summer.

Leaving for Portland—Mrs. E. L. Paine will leave this week-end for Portland to join her husband who has established in business there.

Former Eugene Attorney Here—James N. Workman, a former Eugene attorney, now located at Vashburn where he is farming, here for a few days. He is registered at the Griggs.

Youth Let Out of Jail—Ernest M. Howerton, an Albany youth arrested a few days ago, having been suspected of the theft of a bicycle at Albany, was liberated from the county jail by Sheriff Stickle yesterday as the officers at Albany made no move to prosecute him.

Eugene Pierce Here—Eugene Pierce, who is a cook in a logging camp operated near Linton by the Montgomery brothers of this county, is here on a brief visit.

Road Patrolmen Are Appointed—The county court yesterday appointed Jess Gates as road patrolman for districts Nos. 6 and 43 and Jake Marguth for district No. 10.

Leaving for Klamath Falls—Charles H. Emory and family will leave Sunday morning for Klamath Falls and Crater Lake. They expect to be absent for about ten days.

Administrator Appointed—Mrs. Dora M. Morris yesterday was appointed by Probate Judge C. P. Barnard administrator of the estate of George F. Morris, who died in Eugene June 28, 1923, leaving property of the estimated value of $1950. John L. Marsh, R. R. Wells and J. H. Beytlen were appointed appraisers.

Alaskan Pastor Visits Eugene—Rev. George G. Bruce, D.D., pastor of the Northern Light Presbyterian church of Juneau, Alaska, is in the city for a short visit. While here Rev. Mr. Bruce is staying with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winterberger on the river road. From here he will attend the session of Washington synod.

Officers are Moving—Yesterday was moving day for some of the officers in the city hall. The city engineer's force was transferred to the north side of the building in the rooms formerly occupied by the police and the police will occupy the room just vacated by the engineer and the city building inspector on the south side of the building.

Dr. Danford Home—Dr. S. A. Danford, Methodist superintendent, returned yesterday from a trip to North Dakota points. While gone he conducted the young people's Bible conference at the Methodist camp meeting at Jamestown, North Dakota.

Visit at Stevens Home—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stevens, of Aberdeen, S. D., old friends of City Attorney C. M. Stevens and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Soule, of Portland, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agass, passed through Eugene yesterday and visited the Stevens family. Mr. Agass is a locomotive engineer on the Milwaukee railroad and Mr. Soule is a traveling salesman.

Central to Hold Celebration—Among other Lane county communities to hold July 4 celebrations this year, the Central community is announcing a program and big time for the holiday. A school of games and sports and other varied forms of entertainment and a baseball game are announced.

Big Crowd Expected at Meacham—A great crowd is expected to be at Meacham in Eastern Oregon July 3 when President Harding will dedicate the old Oregon trail, according to H. H. Haller, of Baker, who passed through there a day or so ago and who was here last night. Mr. Haller said that the trail, which is one of the state highways, is now being placed in good shape for travel to Meacham. It has been in bad order all spring and summer where it has not been macadamized.

Party Gets Huge Bear Pelts—Word has been received from Campbell Church of this city, who is now on a big game hunt in Alaska, that the party will bring back two bear pelts, each with a length of 12 feet. Whether these dimensions have become mixed in transit is not known, but local hunters state that 12-foot bear pelts are rare, although they have been known to have been brought out of Alaska. Mr. Campbell is accompanied on the trip by Edison Marshall of Medford, writer of outdoor fiction.

PERSONAL MENTION
Mrs. Althea Harmon, of Lowell, was in the city yesterday.
James Holland, of Veneta, was a visitor in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Sam Worden, of Walton, was a visitor in Eugene over night.
Mrs. Eli Baker of Harrisburg was a visitor in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Ray Scroggs of Searsville has gone to Portland for medical treatment.
Mrs. E. Birch and daughter, of Oakridge, arrived in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Maude Fowler and daughter of Linslaw were in Eugene last night.
W. R. Henderson and wife of Landay transacted business here yesterday.
Darwin Bristow and family will spend the week-end at their summer home on the upper McKenzie.
Mrs. Wayne Puckett, teacher at Mabel, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lucille Dilley of Goshen was in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. C. C. Carter, Mrs. P. A. Boatman and Miss Mabel Maner, sister of Mrs. Boatman, have returned after a visit of a few days at Portland.

Eugene Collection Agency
No collection, no fee; no entry fee or dues. W. H. Blowers.
11-12-14

Green Merrell Co
men's wear
"one of Eugene's best stores"

days. They will also visit Fort Klamath, former home of Mr. Emery.

Guardian Appointed—Mrs. Pearl Putnam yesterday was appointed guardian of Lawrence LeRoy Clark, minor.

Two Fined for Speeding—P. M. Gregory and G. E. Wood were each fined $15 in police court yesterday for speeding their cars on Franklin boulevard.

Notarial Commission Is Filed—The notarial commission of J. Harold Beytlen, of the Bank of Commerce, was filed in the office of County Clerk Bryson yesterday.

Macduff Goes to Upper River—Neilson P. Macduff, supervisor of the Cascade national forest, left yesterday afternoon for Reserve and Oakridge to be gone a few days.

G. A. Holton Here—G. A. Holton, of the Rumet Electric company, of Portland and Seattle, is here on business with Frank and White, local representatives of this company.

Mining Location Notice Filed—Notice of location of the Snow Bird mining claim in the Bohemia district was filed in the office of County Clerk Bryson yesterday by O. G. Gilbertson.

Camp Permits May Be Required—If the present hot weather continues camping permits will be required within the national forests by July 1, said Neilson P. Macduff, supervisor, yesterday.

Assumed Business Name Is Filed—Robert H. Kennedy and V. H. Rayner, of this city, yesterday filed the assumed business name, Oregon Motor company, in the office of County Clerk Bryson.

George H. Bohler to Coach at Mississippi—George H. Bohler, former athletic coach at the University of Oregon, has signed a contract as coach of Mississippi college at Clinton, Mississippi.

Former Eugeneans Here—Mrs. J. H. McClung, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetherbee and Mrs. Charles Friedel, formerly of Eugene, all now residing in California, arrived here yesterday for a visit and a trip up the McKenzie river.

Tool House Erected—A large tool house for the workmen on the Hoffman House addition was erected on Ninth avenue yesterday. E. H. Wynd will superintend the erection of the fourth story and the remodeling of the first floor.

Stock Will Be Taken to Forest—M. J. Beal, of the Diamond B ranch above Lowell, was in the city yesterday. He said he was making preparations to take a herd of cattle to the Cascade national forest next week to graze during the summer.

Family Here from Portland—The family of W. M. Clemenson, clerk at the Osburn hotel, has arrived here and will make their home in this city. Mr. Clemenson joined the Osburn staff a few months ago, coming here from Portland.

Dr. Stivers and Family Go to Turner—Dr. E. V. Stivers, pastor of the First Christian church, and his family will go to Turner today to attend the Christian convention. Dr. Stivers will be gone Sunday but will occupy his pulpit a week from that day.

Return Library Books Is Requested—Mrs. Adelaide Lilley, librarian at the city library, makes the request that if anyone knows where any of the library books are to take them to the library or notify her as the annual inventory is soon to be made.

Telephone Work About Completed—C. M. Allen, telephone engineer for the forest service, and Smith L. Taylor, ranger in the Cascade forest, have about completed placing the McKenzie line in order and Mr. Allen will go from here to Oakridge, where he will install a new switchboard.

Prowler Frightened Away—Yesterday morning at 4:45 o'clock, G. A. Emerson, of the Table Supply store, residing at 833 Fifth avenue west, was awakened by someone opening a window leading to the front porch. Mr. Emerson called out and looking out the window saw a man running across the lawn.

Administrator Appointed—Mrs. Dora M. Morris yesterday was appointed by Probate Judge C. P. Barnard administrator of the estate of George F. Morris, who died in Eugene June 28, 1923, leaving property of the estimated value of $1950. John L. Marsh, R. R. Wells and J. H. Beytlen were appointed appraisers.

Alaskan Pastor Visits Eugene—Rev. George G. Bruce, D.D., pastor of the Northern Light Presbyterian church of Juneau, Alaska, is in the city for a short visit. While here Rev. Mr. Bruce is staying with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winterberger on the river road. From here he will attend the session of Washington synod.

Officers are Moving—Yesterday was moving day for some of the officers in the city hall. The city engineer's force was transferred to the north side of the building in the rooms formerly occupied by the police and the police will occupy the room just vacated by the engineer and the city building inspector on the south side of the building.

Dr. Danford Home—Dr. S. A. Danford, Methodist superintendent, returned yesterday from a trip to North Dakota points. While gone he conducted the young people's Bible conference at the Methodist camp meeting at Jamestown, North Dakota.

Visit at Stevens Home—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stevens, of Aberdeen, S. D., old friends of City Attorney C. M. Stevens and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Soule, of Portland, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agass, passed through Eugene yesterday and visited the Stevens family. Mr. Agass is a locomotive engineer on the Milwaukee railroad and Mr. Soule is a traveling salesman.

Central to Hold Celebration—Among other Lane county communities to hold July 4 celebrations this year, the Central community is announcing a program and big time for the holiday. A school of games and sports and other varied forms of entertainment and a baseball game are announced.

Big Crowd Expected at Meacham—A great crowd is expected to be at Meacham in Eastern Oregon July 3 when President Harding will dedicate the old Oregon trail, according to H. H. Haller, of Baker, who passed through there a day or so ago and who was here last night. Mr. Haller said that the trail, which is one of the state highways, is now being placed in good shape for travel to Meacham. It has been in bad order all spring and summer where it has not been macadamized.

Party Gets Huge Bear Pelts—Word has been received from Campbell Church of this city, who is now on a big game hunt in Alaska, that the party will bring back two bear pelts, each with a length of 12 feet. Whether these dimensions have become mixed in transit is not known, but local hunters state that 12-foot bear pelts are rare, although they have been known to have been brought out of Alaska. Mr. Campbell is accompanied on the trip by Edison Marshall of Medford, writer of outdoor fiction.

PERSONAL MENTION
Mrs. Althea Harmon, of Lowell, was in the city yesterday.
James Holland, of Veneta, was a visitor in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Sam Worden, of Walton, was a visitor in Eugene over night.
Mrs. Eli Baker of Harrisburg was a visitor in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Ray Scroggs of Searsville has gone to Portland for medical treatment.
Mrs. E. Birch and daughter, of Oakridge, arrived in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. Maude Fowler and daughter of Linslaw were in Eugene last night.
W. R. Henderson and wife of Landay transacted business here yesterday.
Darwin Bristow and family will spend the week-end at their summer home on the upper McKenzie.
Mrs. Wayne Puckett, teacher at Mabel, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lucille Dilley of Goshen was in Eugene yesterday.
Mrs. C. C. Carter, Mrs. P. A. Boatman and Miss Mabel Maner, sister of Mrs. Boatman, have returned after a visit of a few days at Portland.

Eugene Collection Agency
No collection, no fee; no entry fee or dues. W. H. Blowers.
11-12-14

Green Merrell Co
men's wear
"one of Eugene's best stores"

Hampton's Specials!
Silkette Pongee, 36 inches wide, worth $1.25, special 79c
Dress Linen, assorted colors $1.19
Soisette, white, pink, orchid 49c
Ladies' extra good Silk Hose $1.25
Boys' Overalls, the pair 79c

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

MORNING REGISTER, EUGENE, ORE., FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1923

Our Store Open Until 12:30 July 4th
As a convenience to our out-of-town patrons our store will be open on July 4th until 12:30. Do your 4th of July shopping at this store.

BASEMENT SALES For Friday and Saturday

Glass Mixing Bowls
Low Priced at 69c Set

Clear glass hot-water proof Mixing Bowls, so handy for mixing salads, etc. They're handy to "keep things in," too, when one uses an ice box. Basement special at 69c set.

Fluted and Plain Aluminum Coffee Percolators $1.19

Pure Aluminum Coffee Percolators well worth $1.50—way underpriced at $1.19. Fluted and plain styles. Splendid for the camper as well as every-day kitchen use. Only about one dozen to sell at this low price.

Hardwood Rolling Pins
Large size, each 39c
Small size, each 29c
Fancy Wooden Salt Boxes, each 35c

42-inch Pillow Slips Friday 29c
Regular price is 35c. Full 42-inch size, wide hemmed.

Set of 5 Glass Mixing Bowls 79c
Sizes 5 to 9 inches. Hot water will not break them. Decidedly underpriced at 79c—Friday and Saturday!

Wire Handled Split Cedar Picnic Baskets 13c
Small size picnic and shopping Baskets, well made. Wooden and wire handles. Only a few of these, so shop early!

500 Pair Men's Dress Sox, 6 Pair $1.00
One of Friday's best bargains! Splendid quality Cotton Dress Sox in colors of black, brown and gray. All sizes and at 6 pair for $1.00 they're real bargains! This item will attract thrifty buyers—and there's plenty for everyone!

Handsome English Crockery Tea Pots $1.48
Very attractive English Tea Pots in black and brown, tastefully decorated in bright-colored flowers, etc. Two shapes. Only a few of these, so come early if you wish one.

Wicker Clothes Baskets Friday at $1.19
Good size, strong Wicker Clothes Baskets that sell ordinarily at more! Friday and Saturday only this size at $1.19. Other sizes at less also.

Fluted Glass Water Tumblers 4c Ea. 900 in the lot
Good weight and fancy fluted. Buy all you want Friday and Saturday at only 4c each. Aluminum Pie Plates 10c each.

Boys' Corduroy and Wool Mixed Knickers $1.29
Considerably less than the usual low price on these heavy corduroy and neatly patterned wool mixes. Sizes 6 to 16. They're well worth $1.75 pair and Friday and Saturday only you may buy them at $1.29.

Boys' Khaki and Blue Steiffel Coveralls—98c
Wire and Wooden Coat Hangers, each—5c

Boys' Suits, worth up to $12.50—$6.45
Aluminum Pie Plates at, each—10c

Apron Check Gingham, 27-in., 13c Yd.
Large and small checks, good quality at such a low price!

Royal Society Package Goods at Half
A whole table full to select from at just half regular prices.

Oiled Paper Japanese Parasols $1.29
Medium sized, attractive red, green and blue designs and colors. Much less than regular price.

27-inch Outing Flannel Friday at 14c Yd.
Attractive light patterns, well fleeced and full 27 inches wide. Buy now for future use. Big assortment of patterns.

Stevens' Linen Crash 19c Yard

Mr. Morran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE, QUALITY & ECONOMY
Lane County's Great Bargain Center

Toilet Paper 10 Rolls 25c

ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE ANNUAL PARTY GIVEN for the children of the Robekas and Odd Fellows at the L. O. O. F. hall will be Friday night, June 29.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF THE Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. Dorey at 257 East 15th street Friday at 2:30.

BUTTON—At her home Tuesday, June 28, 1923, Mrs. Ellen Button, of Irving, at the age of 71 years. She is survived by her husband, Edward Button, and the following children by a former marriage: W. H. Russell of Dubois, Idaho; Lewis Russell, of Omaha; Mrs. Nellie C. Sharp of Los Angeles; Mrs. Bessie Speck of Portland, Neb. Death was sudden. She had lived in the Irving neighborhood about eight months. The funeral will be held Friday at 2 o'clock from the Brannetter chapel. Rev. W. H. L. Marshall officiating. Interment at the new L. O. O. F. cemetery.

MARRIED
CLAXTON-MITCHELL—At Glenada, Ore., June 27, 1923, George R. Claxton, of Astoria, Ore., and Miss Gladys Mitchell, of Glenada, Dr. E. V. Stivers, of Eugene, officiating.

CADRY-LEWIS—At the study of the officiating minister in Eugene, June 26, 1923, Herbert S. Cadby and Mary E. Lewis, both of Eugene, by Dr. E. V. Stivers.

BORN
ANDERSON—At the home on the Elmira road, west of Eugene, June 28, 1923, to Mr. and Mrs. Marius Anderson, a daughter, weight seven and a half pounds.

MUTUAL LIFE, G. M. Sprague, U. S. Nat'l Bldg. 2-17-14
Auto & Fire Ins. G. N. McLean, 14 Try Register Classified Ads.

TERMINAL CAFE
Under New Management
We wish to announce to the public that we have taken over Terminal cafe located in the Elks block and that it is our intention to give you good service as well as all the good things to eat. Short orders from 6 a. m. till 9 p. m. Give us a call.
MR. AND MRS. A. L. NACHS-6-29-23

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's

Hampton's