WALTERVILLE NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special)

WALTERVILLE, Ore., June 29.—The election of the McKennie high school was held at the high school building in Walterville on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, for the purpose of electing five directors. Seven names were placed.

DAILY MARKET REPORT (Oregon Journal Market Service)

PORTLAND, Ore., June 29.—Under butter continues to be the best local trade, resulting in a congested market for anything except the best quality. Because of the insistence of a score of 93 for extras by San Francisco, the local market is lowest. For that reason San Francisco butter values are not also to be considered as reflecting general sentiment along the Pacific slope. While there remains an excellent demand for cube butter extras, and prices in this line are fully maintained, there is little desire to load up on poor stuff. There is an over-abundance of such offerings.

EGG SITUATION IS STEADY

General steadiness is shown in the market for eggs here, with no change for the day either in buying or selling figures. Receipts are rather favorable considering the season.

POULTRY TREND IS FAVORABLE

All through the poultry market with the possible exception of ducks, the market is showing a favorable demand. At this time, retail prices are being raised generally for chickens.

VEAL SITUATION IS SLUGGISH

Very sluggish trade continues for country killed calves here as a result of the sudden hot weather and the slowness of the retail demand. Sales continue at 12 1-2@13 1-2c pound for tops with the larger buyers offering at lower prices. Hogs are firm, with most sales of tops at 11 1-2c.

LEMONS ARE AGAIN HIGHER

Effective at once, a sharp advance in the price of lemons has been forced in the Portland wholesale trade as a result of a similar rise demanded by California co-operative interests who control market sales here as high as $11.00@11.50 case.

COULD HARDLY DO HER WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Eat, Sleep and Feel Better Every Day

Chicago, Ill.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time, and dizzy, and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for years, but they did not help me. Then I read in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for other women and gave it a trial. I began to eat better and could sleep, and consider it a wonderful medicine. I recommend it to my friends and will never be without it." Mrs. J. O. LINDEN, 3640 S. Marshfield Ave., Chicago, Ill.

It is such letters as these that testify to the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This woman speaks from the fullness of her heart. She describes as correctly as she can her condition, first the symptoms that bothered her the most, and later the disappearance of those symptoms. It is a sincere expression of gratitude.

For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.
