National Jantzen Week

World-famous swimming coach says: "my swimmers all wear Jantzens"

Wm. Bachrach, coach of the Illinois Athletic Club, gives his opinion of Jantzen—the national swimming suit—in the above voluntary testimonial. He is the man who developed Johnny Weissmuller, new world's wonder, and dozens of other celebrated swimmers. It means something when he endorses the Jantzen!

For the swimmer, there's no suit like the Jantzen. Jantzen-stitch is a pure worsted fabric with the elasticity of rubber. It fits snugly to the body, giving utmost freedom of movement, yet is always trim and modest.
