

Morning Register Lane County News Service

Street Work to Start (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—The work of improving the city streets is to start the first of the coming week according to word received by J. W. Coffin, city recorder. Force and Curran, contractors who are putting in the Goehsen-Eugene road, have the contract for the repaving.

Postmasters Hear Harding (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—Postmaster T. B. Hamlin and John Nies and E. G. Sankey of this city, have just returned from Portland where they attended the session of state postmasters. President Harding spoke to the gathering in a very interesting way, and the local men and other speakers there also offered some instructive talks.

Barley Machinery in Use (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—The barley processing machinery recently installed by the Springfield Mill and Grain company was started up today, and is running in first-class order, according to the management. The needs of the community for this class of feed can now be taken care of, it is stated.

Barley Hold Celebration (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—It took seven automobiles to haul the Bailey family to Lake Creek, where a general reunion was held on the Fourth. All were children and grand-children of C. E. Bailey who lives near here. Those in atterday and were registered at the Hotel Spong. J. W. Coffin, city recorder, and wife, celebrated the Fourth by attending the exercises held in Eugene and later in the day (fishing up the Willamette.

4 FINED AT SPRINGFIELD (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—Four traffic violators, all of them speeders, were fined in the Springfield court during the past few days. Those guilty and amount of fines, as announced by J. W. Coffin, city judge, were as follows: Speeding, G. D. Armittage, of Eugene, $10; Eugene Whitacker, also of Eugene, $10. Speeding past intersections at more than twelve miles an hour, E. C. Wakefield, Portland, five dollars; E. F. Ludford, of Eugene, five dollars.

KETEL HOME IS ROBBED (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—A thief who entered the home of J. F. Ketels, proprietor of the Ketel's drug store of this city, obtained $125 in jewelry and seven dollars in cash some time Tuesday evening. Part of the loot was obtained from a penny savings bank, and the rest was taken from various rooms in the house, it was reported. Razors, two neckties and three watches were included in the loot. The thief was evidently familiar with the place, since the robbery took place while the family was out for the evening. The house was pretty thoroughly gone through, the thief apparently taking his time for the job. Police are now at work on the case.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 5.—A donkey engine for the use of the Motor Investment company on road work has been received here at the local Southern Pacific station.

The American Legion will meet tomorrow night for the regular monthly session, announces Oswald Olson, commandant. Matters of importance are to be discussed. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moshier attended the celebration held in Eugene yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sutton, of this city, accompanied by Fred Clingart, of the Morrison and Clingart feed store, motored to Newport to spend the Fourth.

F. L. Brewer, of Fall Creek, spent part of yesterday in this city, with A. Browning and family, of Onalaska, Wash., arrived here yesterday and were registered at the Hotel Spong.

Constance Rehban and Abbie Tomseth have left for Coy, Oregon where they will visit with Miss Tomseth's grandmother.

Harley Perry, a resident of Wendling, was in town today on business.

Art Bushman, sales manager for the Springfield Mill and Grain company, left for the southern part of the state today. He will visit at Roseburg, Myrtle Point, Medford and other points.

John Bushman made a business trip to Eugene this afternoon. W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

Jack Pulley, truck driver for Frank E. Blair, of Lowell, made two trips in for supplies this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moore, of this city, have gone on a camping trip near Dexter. They expect to remain there for some time.

J. L. Clark, local hop grower and real estate dealer, returned the first of the week from Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Clark said that there is a great boom in oil down there now, and that the derricks make the country look like a queer forest. Much activity in every line was also noted.

L. J. Simms and family, who have been living in this city for some time, returned to California, where they intend to locate.

John Bushman, auditor of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, returned today from Yakima, where he celebrated the Fourth.

Art Bushman returned from his business trip to Eugene this afternoon.

W. H. Stearns, head miller and chemist of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, spent the Fourth with his family at Salem.

Mr. Stearns reports that he was very much disappointed in the outcome of the fight at Shelby yesterday.

N. F. Chaffee, merchant of Dexter, came in for a load of supplies today.

held election of officers Sunday and the following were elected: A. C. Morrow, superintendent; Clare William assistant; Mrs. C. L. Ingham, secretary; Juanita Scherwing, organist. The same teachers were retained.

Mr. and Mrs. Vint Gillispie are at home from Wendling, the camp having shut down until after the fourth.

The farmers' union is planning a supper and program for the next meeting night, July 11.

Charley found and returned Saturday to the state hospital at Salem.

Eugene Collection Agency No collection, no fee; no entry fee or dues. W. H. Blowers. 11-13-21

Calapooya makes you healthy. Keep a case in your home. Phone 308. 6-22-10 Mon

Ask Henry Tromp for information about life insurance. 7-1-1f

DAILY MARKET REPORT OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE PORTLAND, Ore., July 5.—Portland butter market is suffering from an over-supply of undergrade stock.

POULTRY DEM