

Morning Register Lane County News Service

Parker Goes Fishing Again (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Jack Parker, of this city, accompanied by Mr. Rosner, musician at the Rex theatre of Eugene, plans to leave this morning for Lake Creek, where the pair will angle for trout. Mr. Parker says he expects to have his usual luck, but will not vouch for the musician's ability. Mr. Parker will join his wife at Lake Creek.

Relatives Surprise Each Other (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Two aunts and a nephew of Miss Mary Roberts of this city, surprised each other here over the Fourth, for all arrived unexpectedly and without the other's knowledge. In the party were N. A. Nickerson, of Chewelah, Wash., who left for Eugene yesterday; Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Russell, of Chewelah, who are going on south by motor; and Mrs. Jules DeMink, of Portland, who left for there yesterday.

Traffic Violator Fined (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — G. H. Bealer, of McKenzie Bridge, was fined $5 in the city court here yesterday for driving past a street car that was discharging passengers. Mr. Bealer pleaded guilty, and paid the fine.

Agent to Take Vacation (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Carl Olson, Southern Pacific agent here, is now taking a vacation for a month or so, during which he plans to get a thorough rest. He will spend the greater part of his time at home here. His place in the station is being taken by George Godfrey, who has been operator, and Homer E. Henry, of Sheehy, Oregon, is taking Mr. Godfrey's place as operator.

"Circle of Life" Girls Leaving (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Vernita Morrison and Emma Travis, of this city, are leaving in the morning for Medford, where they will sell books during the summer. They have just returned from Portland, where they learned how to sell the "Circle of Life" as their books are called. E. E. Morrison will accompany them to the southern city in his automobile.

"Fishing Good" Says Pumphrey (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — James Pumphrey, of this city, and brother Charles, have just returned from a two weeks' fishing trip up the McKenzie river near Finlock. "The fishing's great," says Mr. Pumphrey, "but the catchin's dura poor!" The Pumphrey boys, who are noted as being among the county's leading anglers, had no trouble in pulling in all they could eat, however.

CIVIC PARK APPROVED (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Approval of the city park plan as proposed by the Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, was voted at the meeting of the American Legion held at the Woodman hall last night. The legion will work with the city and with committees and other civic organizations in establishing the park, which is proposed to include playground apparatus, a band stand, baseball grounds, and a picnic grounds.

AMERICAN LEGION TO ASSIST IN WORK AT SPRINGFIELD (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Approval of the city park plan as proposed by the Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, was voted at the meeting of the American Legion held at the Woodman hall last night. The legion will work with the city and with committees and other civic organizations in establishing the park, which is proposed to include playground apparatus, a band stand, baseball grounds, and a picnic grounds.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 7. — Dr. S. A. Danford, of Eugene, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will preach at the Methodist church here tomorrow, it is announced.

Rev. A. G. Sater, pastor of the Christian church here, is expected to return tomorrow from Turner, where a big Christian church convention has been in progress this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Male were among those going from this city to Newport this week. They returned Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tufts, of Grants Pass, were in this city Friday.

Art King, of Portland, was a Springfield visitor Thursday. He was registered at the Hotel Sponer, Roy Adams, of Portland, was in this city Friday on business.

N. L. Knapples and S. O. Dougherty, residents of Portland, were here Thursday and Friday on business.

Mrs. E. B. Fish, of Bandon, was a Springfield visitor Thursday. She was registered at the Hotel Sponer, Roy Adams, of Portland, was in this city Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Driscoll, of Lebanon, was in this city yesterday.

E. Ross Phillips made a business trip to Springfield Thursday. He lives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffin spent this evening in Eugene, where they attended the movies.

J. T. Taylor and R. E. Edwards, of Fall Creek, were in this city on business Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Roy, local realtor, returned to their home here late Thursday evening after spending the Fourth at Newport.

"Dad" Fiegel, well-known resident of Jasper, visited friends here yesterday.

Dorothy Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fisher, of this city, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. Mattison, at Wendling, for a few days. Pete Brown, of Thurston, was in town on business today.

Miss Ellen Tomseth was shopping in Eugene this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Driscoll, of this city, returned yesterday from Myrtle Point, where they have been visiting for several days.

E. G. Sutton and family returned yesterday from a visit of several days at Newport. Enjoyable weather was had during the trip, they report.

Mrs. Zella Cantrell and sons, Cecil and Alvin, are among the Springfield people who enjoyed the Fourth at Newport. They returned yesterday.

J. F. Ketels, of the Ketel's drug store, made a business trip to Eugene yesterday.

B. O. Smith, a resident of Natron, was in town, buying supplies, yesterday.

Walter Platt, of Thurston, came in on business yesterday.

Mrs. W. T. Thompson, of Douglas gardens, was a Springfield visitor today. She reports that the rain will help some of the products of the gardens, but that the cherries suffered a bit from too much moisture.

Jacob Gate, of Camp Creek, was in town today to purchase supplies and transact business.

Ed Reynolds came down from Thurston to transact business today.

Geo. Platt, who lives near Thurston, was visiting friends and transacting business here today.

Fred Clingan, of the Morrison and Clingan feed store, returned from a three day stay at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pandrum, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fandrum and daughter, Gloria, have returned from Newport, where they enjoyed a brief stay.

R. C. Barclay, of the Southern Pacific company, was in the city on business connected with the railroad today.

F. O. Lutz, clerk at the Southern Pacific station here, will leave tomorrow morning for North Bend for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. X-ray equipment that will enable him to take all varieties of pictures is being installed in the office of Dr. Kester here. The equipment will be ready for use in a day or so.

R. H. Schulz, of the Schulz brothers lumber mill, will move some time this week to a location on Fall creek, where it is planned to erect a sawmill.

GRANGES OBSERVE 4TH CROW AND ELMIRA MEMBERS AND OTHERS GATHER (Register Lane County Special) COYOTE, Ore., July 7. — The strangers of Crow and Elmira, with other members of neighboring communities, met at the Coyote ball grounds for celebration. Attorney L. L. Ray, speaker of the day, delivered a very interesting and appropriate address.

Among numbers on the program were: Reading of Declaration of Independence by Mrs. Ernest Field. Recitation, Marjorie Kingsley. Recitation, Byron Kingsley. Reading, "Too Late For the Train"—Mrs. Field.

Also song selections by Crow Grange and audience. The sports of the afternoon were races for men, women and children, after which was played the ball game, Coyotes vs. Lake Creek. Coyotes won.

OKARIDGE CELEBRATED (Register Lane County Special) OKARIDGE, Ore., July 6. — Quite a crowd from the surrounding country gathered here on the Fourth to help Okaridge celebrate and a good time was enjoyed by all. Everything went smoothly all day. In the afternoon the Okaridge boys were defeated in a baseball game by the Cohuz boys.

In the evening the open air dance was thoroughly enjoyed by all and much praise must be given the committee, who worked hard to make the day a success.

OKARIDGE NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) OKARIDGE, Ore., July 6. — Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stevens are enjoying a visit from his sister, of Indiana and also a nephew from Michigan.

E. L. Templeman spent several days in Eugene last week and while there purchased a Jewett car.

Miss May Fenno, a graduate from the University of Oregon, has accepted a position in the E. E. Smith general merchandise store for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cain and children arrived home Friday evening after spending several days in Eugene visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. A. Layne is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Cain, of Lowell.

Mrs. Thiley and daughter, Katherine of Albany, spent Wednesday night in town.

Mr. McClane was a business visitor to Springfield on Tuesday's train.

The people of this place are very grateful for the daily train service which has been established between here and Eugene. The daily service started last Tuesday.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Army Air Chief Becomes Airplane Pilot at 60

Major General Mason M. Patrick

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. The majority of air-ventures are in their early twenties, and it was a belief in the service that older men were not qualified to make good pilots.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Morrill and family motored to Okaridge the Fourth and spent the Fourth and fifth among their friends and neighbors, as they lived up there a (19) years ago.

CAMAS SWALE NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) CAMAS SWALE, Ore., July 7. — Farmers are busy making hay while the sun shines.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Scott and (Continued on Page 4, Column 1.)

DAILY MARKET REPORT PORTLAND, Ore., July 6. — These are prices relative to wholesalers, except as otherwise noted.

Butter—Selling price, box lots—Creamery prices—Prints, extras, 42¢ per lb. for plain wrappers; cubes, extras, 38¢ per lb.; off grade, 25¢ less; dairy (buying price), 30¢ per lb.

Butterfat—Portland delivery basis—No. 1 grade, 41 cents per lb.; No. 2, 38¢ per lb.; No. 1 sans, 35¢ per lb. "A" grade.

Eggs—Buying price, front street (subject to landing)—Mixed color standards—Western Oregon, 24¢ per doz.; pullets, 20¢ per doz.; hens, 25¢ per doz. Selling price (storage pack)—extras, 51¢ doz.; select, 20¢ per doz.; candied, 20¢ per doz.; pullets, 20¢ per doz.

Livestock—Selling prices—Heavy hogs, 22¢ per lb.; light hogs, 14¢ per lb.; broilers, light, 22¢ per lb.; Rock and Reds, heavy, 25¢ per lb.; turkeys, live, (—) per lb.; spring ducks, 22¢ per lb.

Potatoes—Selling price to retailers—Oregon potatoes, $1.50 per cwt.; sweet potatoes, $3.00 per cwt.; new potatoes, 20¢ per lb. 1-2¢ per lb.

Onions—Selling price to retailers—Oregon, $1.50 per cwt.; garlic, 20¢ per lb.; green onions, 25¢ per doz. bunches; new red onions, $2.75 per cwt.; New California yellow, $3.00 per cwt. per cwt.

HOPS, WOOL AND HIDES Hops—1922 crop, nominal, 10¢ per lb. Hides—California, 11¢ lb.; kips, 8-12¢ lb.; green hides, 5-12¢ per lb.; salted, 6-12¢ lb.

Mohair—Nominal, 20¢ per lb. Sheep Pelts—Long dry pelts, 25¢ lb.; short pelts, 25-35¢ lb.; sheep shearings, 5¢ per each; long hair goat pelts, 15¢ lb.; short hair goat pelts, 25¢ per each.

Wool—Fine, 38¢ per lb.; medium, 35¢ per lb.; coarse, 37¢ per lb.; valley fine, 3-5 blood, 35¢ per lb.; medium, 33¢ per lb.; braid, 25¢ lb. Tallow and Grease—No. 1 tallow, 5¢ lb.; No. 2, 4¢ lb.; grease, 5¢ per lb.

1923 pelts, 1-2¢ per lb.; grape root, 4¢ per lb. CATTLE Choice steers, $7.75 to $8.25; medium to good, 7.00 to 7.75; fair to medium, 6.00 to 7.00; common to fair steers, 5.00 to 6.00; choice heifers, 5.50 to 6.00; choice cows and heifers, 5.00 to 5.50; medium to good cows and heifers, 4.50 to 5.00; fair to medium cows and heifers, 3.50 to 4.50; common cows, 2.50 to 3.00; cull cows, 1.50 to 2.50; bulls, 3.00 to 4.00; choice dairy calves, 7.50 to 8.00; prime light, 7.50 to 8.00; medium light calves, 7.00 to 7.50; heavy calves, 6.00 to 7.00.

HOGS Prime light, 8.50 to 9.00; smooth heavy, 230 to 300 lbs., 7.75 to 8.25; 300 lbs. and up, 7.00 to 7.75; rough heavy, 4.50 to 5.00; fat pigs, 8.00 to 8.50; feeder pigs, 8.00 to 8.50; Stags, subject to dockage, 2.50 to 3.00.

HEMP Choice valley lambs, 10.00 to 10.50; medium valley lambs, 9.50 to 10.00; common valley lambs, 7.50 to 9.00; Cull lambs, 6.00 to 7.00; Light yearlings, 7.50 to 8.00; Heavy yearlings, 6.00 to 6.50; Light wethers, 6.00 to 6.50; Heavy wethers, 5.50 to 6.00; Ewes, 1.50 to 2.50.

PORTLAND GRAIN FUTURES (By The Associated Press) PORTLAND, Ore., July 6. — Grain futures: Wheat, soft white, July, $1.07; August, $1.04; Western white, July, $1.07; August, $1.04; Northern hard winter, 2 1/2, $1.03; August, $1.01; Western red, July, August, $1.01; Corn, No. 2 Eastern yellow shipment, July, August, $0.60.

CHICAGO MARKET QUOTATIONS (By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, July 6.—Wheat, No. 3, $1.09; No. 1 hard, $1.04 1-2; Corn, No. 2 mixed, 81 1-4-82; No. 2 yellow, 80-84; Oats, No. 2 white, 40 1-4-41 1-4; No. 3 white, 38 1-4-40 1-4; Rye, none; Barley, 62-68; Timothy seed, $8.00 to $8.50; Clover seed, $15.00 to $17.00; Pork nominal; Lard, $11.15; Hibs, $8.87 to $9.75.

SAN FRANCISCO PRODUCE (By The Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, July 6. —(U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics)—Butter, extra, 45¢; Eggs—Unchanged; Cheese—California flat, 25 1-2¢; California Young America, 23¢; Butterfat—Pound, 48¢ 40¢ f. o. b. San Francisco.

NEW YORK HOPS MARKET NEW YORK, July 6.—Hops—Pacific coast, 1922, 16¢ to 20¢; 1921, 13¢ to 15¢.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET (By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, July 6.—Butter higher; creamery extra, 37 1-2¢; standard, 36 1-2¢; extra firsts, 35 1-2¢ to 36 1-2¢; firsts, 33 1-2¢ to 34 1-2¢; seconds, 32¢ to 33¢; Eggs higher; receipts, 15,659 cases.

GOSHEN PERSONALS (Register Lane County Special) GOSHEN, Ore., July 6.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wettorburg and daughter, Ruth and Betty, of Portland, were visitors at the Dow Moxley home, en route to North Bend.