

Summer Manhattans

THEY'RE the best looking lot of shirts you've ever seen; it's hard to believe that they're more beautiful than last year's—but they are. See those of Manhattan woven fabric; they're especially

$4.00

Others $2.50 to $5.00

Wade Bros.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

PORTLAND ON RAMPAGE DRUBS LOWLY OAKLAND

Outfield and Outfield Rivals at Every Stage

FRISCO WINS OVER BEES

Los Angeles Outfits Sacramento But Senators Run Bases Well and Make Hits Count

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

W. L. P. C.
San Francisco	63 37 639
Sacramento	54 43 557
Portland	50 48 510
Los Angeles	47 48 495
Seattle	45 49 479
Salt Lake	45 51 469
Vernon	45 51 469
Oakland	38 57 490

OAKLAND, Cal., July 10.—Portland defeated Oakland here today 16 to 5. The Beavers outthrew and outfielded the Oaks throughout the game. McCann, Beavers, obtained a home run in the third. Mails was relieved by Murchio in the fourth, who in turn was relieved by Wells in the fifth. Branzell in piloting the Beavers in the absence of Manager Middleton who was suspended for ten days by William H. McCarthy, league president. The suspension was the outgrowth of an argument between Middleton and Umpire Ed Finney in Portland last Sunday.

The score: R. H. E.
Portland 16 17 3
Oakland 5 12 3
Batteries: Yarrison and Daly, Mails, Murchio, Wells and Baker.

Seals Put Bees to Rout

SALT LAKE CITY, July 10.—The Seals defeated the Bees in the opening game of the series, 13 to 8, today. Singleton lost control in the seventh and the Seals combined hits with walks for six runs. The start of the game was delayed an hour and a half vainly waiting the arrival of the Seals' uniforms, delayed in transit. When the suits did not arrive the Seals appeared in Salt Lake road uniforms.

The score: R. H. E.
San Francisco 13 17 2
Salt Lake 8 16 1
Batteries: Shea, McWeeney and Agnew; Singleton, Croumpler and Peters.

Sacramento Beats Los Angeles

SACRAMENTO, July 10.—Los Angeles outthrew Sacramento in today's opening tilt staged at Moreland field, but the Solons outran the Angels, and the fact of a costly error by McAuley in the first inning tells the story of Ken Penner's victory over George Lyons, score 4 to 3. Kopp opened the first period with a safe click infield, was safe at second when McAuley dropped Krug's throw, fielders' choice, off Hemingway, went to third on Cochran's sacrifice and Mollwitz punched them both in with a double to right.

The score: R. H. E.
Chicago 4 4 3
Brooklyn 0 13 3
Batteries: Keene, Fumell, Cheever and O'Connell; Hartnett, Henry and Taylor.

JOHNS, SCOTT IN FINAL

NORTHERN RAQUETEERS WIN OVER CREAM OF COAST

PORTLAND, Ore., July 10.—Van Dyke Johns, of Seattle, and Wallace Scott, of Tacoma, will play for the Pacific Northwest sectional championship Thursday on the Multnomah club courts. By playing consistently since the tournament started Monday morning, the two Northern players eliminated the cream of the Northwest racket stars in their scramble for the championship.

Scott's playing was especially noteworthy as he eliminated Leon De Turenne, of Seattle, leading in a sensational three-set match, ranking Northwest player in 1922, in which the first set went to 12 games and the second to 16. The final score was 7-5, 9-7, 6-3.

CHICAGO, July 10.—New York got the breaks today and defeated Chicago 3 to 2 in a pitching duel between Cvergros and Jones.

Cvergros was largely responsible for his own defeat, as he intercepted a throw to the plate which permitted Ward to score from first on Smith's double and after a 20-minute rain the little Chicago southpaw lost control of the ball, one of his passes in the seventh inning paving the way for the winning run.

The score: R. H. E.
New York 3 7 1
Chicago 2 6 2
Batteries: Jones and Hofmann; Cvergros and Schaik.

Shocker Puzzles Senators

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Urban Shocker held Washington to four hits today and St. Louis defeated the Senators 9 to 1. It was Shocker's thirteenth victory of the season. He is the first major league pitcher to win 13 games this year.

The Browns pounded Zahnizer for 18 hits, Goshen, Williams and Severide, smashed out circuit drives, the latter's coming with

50 GOOD CIGARETTES 10¢

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM TOBACCO

Where to buy U.S. Tires

T. L. Ohlsen Tire Co., Eugene, Ore.

Peterson Bros. Service Station, Eugene, Ore.

Where to buy U.S. Tires

T. L. Ohlsen Tire Co., Eugene, Ore.

Peterson Bros. Service Station, Eugene, Ore.

Where to buy U.S. Tires

T. L. Ohlsen Tire Co., Eugene, Ore.

Peterson Bros. Service Station, Eugene, Ore.

Where to buy U.S. Tires

T. L. Ohlsen Tire Co., Eugene, Ore.

Peterson Bros. Service Station, Eugene, Ore.

the bases filled in the fourth inning.

The score: R. H. E.
Washington 1 4 2
St. Louis 9 13 0
Batteries: Zahnizer and Ruel; Shocker and Severide.

Cleveland Defeats Athletics

CLEVELAND, July 10.—Cleveland took the first game of the series from Philadelphia, 4 to 2, for the possession of second place. Uhl's outpitching Heimach. Shortstop Sewell was the big factor in the victory, driving in three of Cleveland's four runs and starring in the field. Umpire "Tommy" Connelly was called to his home in Natick, Mass., in the eighth inning, receiving a wire that his sister had died.

The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 3 8 0
Cleveland 4 8 1
Batteries: Heimach and Brugg; Uhl and Myatt.

Wendling-Springfield NEW BALL COMBINATION

Mill Towns Team Takes Place of Sutherlin in League

Decision to consolidate the Wendling-Springfield ball teams to take the place of Sutherlin, which dropped out of the upper valley league, was made last night at a meeting of interested sportsmen in the chamber of commerce building here, thus ending the quandary which has existed as to what the status of the league would be. Six clubs will now finish the season during which eight more games will be played by four of the teams, while Springfield plays seven and Cottage Grove nine. Standing of the Wendling-Springfield club will be the same as that of the latter, 555 per cent, while Wendling's score will not be considered.

The new arrangement will doubtless tighten up the race for the pennant since Sutherlin was notably a weak club and the remaining teams will be more closely matched.

The schedule for next Sunday follows: Roseburg, Hillsboro, Springfield at Springfield, Junction City at Eugene, and Harrisburg at Cottage Grove.

The standing of the teams are:

W. L. P. C.
Eugene	7 1 875
Cottage Grove	6 7 853
Roseburg	5 3 825
Harrisburg	5 3 825
Springfield	5 4 555
Junction City	3 5 375

POSTOFFICE TEAM WINS

FRUITGROWERS NINE ROUTED IN TWILIGHT GAME

The Postoffice nine took the measure of the Eugene Fruitgrowers in the twilight game at the fair grounds last night, defeating the latter aggregation, 8 to 1. The grovers, who are a new team in the league, were unable to fathom the offerings of Campbell, twirling for the postal men, and save for a run which came in the fifth, were held scoreless. The Postoffice tallied three times in the first and made a quintet of runs in the third.

Batteries for the Fruitgrowers were Hewitt and Kepp while Campbell pitched for the Postoffice and Ward received.

The next game comes Friday when the Fruitgrowers men tangle with the Garage men.

DEMPSEY READY TO GO

CHAMP WILL MEET ANYONE KEARNS PICKS OUT

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion arrived in Los Angeles today for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends. He said he was "feeling fine" and that he was ready to meet anyone his manager, Jack Kearns, picked for him.

Dempsey said he was sorry he would be unable to attend the bout between Jess Willard and Luis Angel Firpo at Jersey City Thursday night. However, he said, Kearns would be at the ring-side.

Dempsey refused to try to pick the winner of the Willard-Firpo bout and said he never attempts to guess the winner of matches where the principals are possible contenders for the championship. However, he did say he believed Firpo would have to beat Willard inside of five or six rounds if he expected to win.

GOLF DREAM COMES TRUE

JOE KIRKWOOD PLAYS PERFECT GAME AT INWOOD

(By The Associated Press)

INWOOD, N. Y., July 10.—All last night Joe Kirkwood, a droll sort of a fellow from the Antipodes, golfed in his sleep. He strolled across green fairways, driving lit-

GRAHAM'S Banner Shoe Sale

Begins
This Morning

SHOES LIKE PICTURE
$8.50 Patent Leather Oxfords for Women
$3.85 Pair

Bring the family along—fit everyone out with good, seasonable, high-grade shoes at ridiculously low prices. Remember this—quality is always given first consideration by Graham when buying shoes for his trade, and it is this same high-grade shoe now going out at great money-saving prices.

SHOES LIKE PICTURE
$6.00 Brown Calf Oxfords for Men
$3.85 Pair

Here's a Mere Sample of the Bargains

Women's French Heel Lace Shoes, pair	95c	Men's $6.50 Sport Oxfords, pair	$3.85
Women's White Reinskin Shoes, pair	$2.85	Men's $7.00 Street Shoes, pair	$4.70
Women's $5.00 to $8.00 White Oxfords, pair	$2.35	Men's $7.00 Brown Kid Oxfords	$5.65
Women's $6.00 Sport Oxfords, pair	$3.65	Men's $4.00 Calf Shoes, pair	$3.20
Women's $6.50 to $9.00 Street Pumps, pair	$3.85	Men's Army Marching Shoes	$4.45
Women's $5.00 to $7.50 Patent Pumps, pair	$3.85	Narrow Toe Street Shoes	$1.85

Hundreds of Other Shoe Values Equally Attractive — Children's, Misses' and Boys'

Shoes at Sacrifice Prices

In Eugene It's Graham's For Shoes
Willamette Street

828

828

the white balls with deadly accuracy. On the greens he sunk long putts. Sometimes he encountered traps but pitched from close to the cups. Just before sleep left him this morning he walked across adjoining beds into the Inwood club dormitory, dreaming he was pushing his way through a large cheering gallery.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in a card of 144. He was around in the morning in 70, two under par, and his afternoon card was 74; two above. He was ten strokes better than any of the other 150 who finished within the limit of 150 to qualify.

The dream came true today in the second qualifying round for the national open championship. With Jess Sweetser, amateur champion, for a partner, Kirkwood played a perfect game on his two trips over the course, turning in