DAILY MARKET REPORT

OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE
PORTLAND, Ore., July 18.—Market for butter is still inclined to rule practically unchanged in price. Trend of the trade is little different from that shown a week ago, production still being rather liberal for this period of the season, while demand is slow in spots.

Centralizers are still asking as high as 30c per pound for their cube butter, and in occasional lots of selected state butters are quoted as high as 38c, the bulk of the supplies are quoted 2 to 3c below this.

Output of butter here continues much above requirements of the home territory, resulting in excess shipments to the north and south. Most of the business is in the latter direction.

1000 TONS IS SOFT HERE
Despite the efforts of the trade to hold the price, the market for eggs is really soft at this time, with a burdensome surplus at present shown in the home territory. Retail price shading is indicated. General cuts of 10c will be made Thursday morning.

TOMATO MARKET IS LOWER
While supplies of tomatoes from the Dalles are but slightly increased, the market is coming soft with the arrival of additional stocks from California. The latter are of extremely good quality.

FANCY LAMBERT CHERRIES IN.
Very fancy Lambert cherries from the Hood River section were displayed by the Williamette Fruit company, with sales at 15c pound. Some late Dukes are being offered locally around 7 to 8c pound.

PEACH PRICES ABOUT STEADY

OVER SUPPLY OF STRING BEANS
Oversupply of green and wax beans is shown with sales at 5 to 7c per pound to the retailers, growers selling as low as 4c where buyers could be found. The lowest price was for yellow stock.

What Every Woman Wants to Know

FOR the first time, it is possible for you to iron in the ideal way—with no "lumping" or sticking of your starch, and with perfect assurance of always getting the rich, natural linen finish with all your fabrics. Merely ask your grocer for Linit, the new scientific starch discovery.

New Starch Discovery
THIS remarkable starch is made by an improved process that keeps it fluid after it cools. You are never troubled with clotting, smearing or "blistering." Linit penetrates every thread of the fabric, helps prevent wear, and strengthens the material. You will find it a hundred percent easier to iron with Linit. Linit gives ordinary cotton goods that attractive linen finish you admire so much in fabrics that come fresh from the store. And your Linit-starched garments remain clean and fresh much longer.

Linit costs 10c at all grocers
Get a package and begin the modern way of starching your fabrics. Perfection in starching guaranteed or your money refunded. Linit is made by the Corn Products Refining Company—makers of the famous Argo Starch—Karo Syrup and Mazola Salad and Cooking Oil.
