

WORK OF LOW PASS BEGIN IN FEW DAYS

Work of surfacing the new road over the summit of the mountains on the Eugene state highway will begin in about ten days. Councilman C. P. Tamm and Councilman F. M. Morse were in charge of the work for A. D. Korn of Portland, who is the contractor.

The crushing of granite has been completed at the foot of the mountain on the east side about 1000 feet. The operations will begin in four days for rock to be crushed for the highway. An engineer visited the site yesterday.

Pastor's Jaw Punched for Kissing Woman

Mrs. Priscilla Hague

Because he gave Mrs. Priscilla Hague, a bride of a few weeks, a kiss of "fatherly affection," Rev. George L. Payne, prominent Boston clergyman, was punched in the jaw by her husband, Lieutenant Wesley McLaren Hague, U. S. navy. Dr. Payne performed the wedding ceremony for the Hagues. He was badly cut in the encounter with the late naval officer.

well with the local audience which gave several numbers enthusiastic applause.

As the porter, James Jackson, with a lot of dancing ability and good powers of voice and mimicry, made a decided hit. Several of the lesser stars of the cast showed to good advantage in dancing acts which featured the bill. The costumes and staging effects were well carried out.

"Shuffle Along" has been played for two solid years on the New York stage and has had long showings in all the big cities of the United States. On the Western tour the company has a cast of 40 singing, dancing players that laugh their way into the good graces of their audiences. The show excels many of its kind which leave the cities to take the road.

TEACHERS NOT NAMED COMMITTEE TO MAKE ANNOUNCEMENT LATER

The teachers' committee of the city school board held a meeting last night in Superintendent Glenn's office to look over a number of applications of persons to fill vacancies in the teaching corps, but no recommendations were made at this meeting. It was announced.

The board will meet as a whole next Monday night at which time it is expected that several of the applicants will be recommended for positions.

AMUSEMENTS

Ernest Torrence and Barbara La Marr in "The Brass Bottle"

AT THE THEATRES TODAY

Hollis—Hollis Gibson in his latest rousing Western, "Shooting For Love"; a delightful two-act classic, "The Price of Progress," made by the Kaiser Art studios, Portland; Pathé Comedy; Pathé News; Topics of the Day.

Castles—Roy Stewart, Marguerite de la Motte and Noah Terry in "The Sagebrusher," by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon"; also "Felix," the comedy kitty in new antics; special musical score.

Rex—Last day, Maurice Tourneur's super-novelty, "The Brass Bottle," a comedy-dramatic mixture of mirth, mystery and magnificence, with Harry Myers (the Conquistador, Yankee), Barbara La Marr, Tully Marshall, Ernest Torrence and Ford Sterling; Gale C. Willer's new comedy, "When Gals and Hurricanes Meet"; Rosner, organist, in "King Tut" settings.

Continuing — Rex Ingram's production, "The Prisoner of Zenda"; Viola Dana in "A Noise in Nowhere"; Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mark of Zorro"; Agnes Ayers, "The Heart Raider"; Betty Compson, "The Woman With Four Faces"; Booth Tarkington's "Parade"; and Sam's Gloria Swanson and Rodolph Valentino in "Beyond the Rocks."

of the firm of contractors placing the pavement, was present, also J. W. Hyett and Dr. Scarborough.

The matter of Front street and Oregon avenue intersection was discussed and the best solution was a pavement of the entire intersection which would afford the least variance from grade of any other method. The council voted to pave it and a committee of C. E. Leabo and J. W. Hyett was appointed to represent the town in negotiations with the contractors to complete the work. The time being so limited as the contractors expect to be through with the pavement by Monday evening required quick action and the necessity being so urgent the best interests of the town were conserved in this conclusion. This will also be a beginning and leave the crossing in condition to match future paving of Oregon avenue when that is undertaken.

RECITAL STAGED BY MISS ELIZABETH TRYON

Presbyterian Church at Creswell Comfortably Filled with Patrons and Friends

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., July 20. —The Presbyterian church was comfortably filled Thursday evening with friends of Miss Elizabeth Tryon and her music pupils, a program being rendered by the pupils that was a credit not only to themselves but to their teacher as well. Each participant went to the platform announced the pieces they intended to play, naming the author, proceeded to the piano and played it. This feature of ease in public appearance is one of delightful attraction to the audience and of lasting benefit to the performer. The company was pleasantly seated by most courteous ushers who were Miss Elida Maaranen, June Mooney, Ethel Hedgpeth and Nieta Ziniker.

At the close of the recital Miss Tryon in a few well chosen words thanked the audience for their attendance and attention and spoke of the permanent influence and uplift of music in the lives of the young people. The attractive program consisted of individual numbers, duets and trios which afforded a fine variety and the piano often reflected the spirit of the program in its message of harmony. The program given was as follows:

My First Duet—Presser, Helen and Stella Maaranen.

Hop Scotch — Presser, Helen and Stella.

Duet in C—Presser, Nadine and Mary Miller.

Playing Tag — Presser, Ruth Quinn.

Ghost in the Chimney — Harthan; The Dolls Waits—Harthan, Vivian and Marie Ogram.

Sing a Song of Sixpence—Livsey, Vera Beck.

Dolly Lost — Gaynor; Dolly Found—Gaynor, Velma Holbrook, The Little Rogue — Sartorio, Howard McGee.

Pink, Op. 721, No. 1—Sartorio, Agnes Jackson.

What! The Squirrel Said — Crann; The Frightened Cloud—Gramm, Clifford Travillion.

A Summer Day — Porter; The Orioles Lullaby—Hipsler; Merle Hedgpeth.

Little Boy Scout—Terry, Wayne McGee.

Flag Day March—Fearis, Estol Sly.

Trio Jolly Play Fellows—Jerman, Robert Olson, Clifford Travillion, Wayne McGee.

Lullaby—Dutton; La Diabolique—Laybach, Mary Miller.

In Merry Harvest Time—Roife, Stella Maaranen.

Blackhawk Waits—Walsh, Helen McGee.

Crack the Whip—Bixby, Ama Morris.

The Boy and the Cuckoo — Lange; The Meadows—Thompson; Gether Hubbard.

Robin Goodfellow—Loth; Guy Katyd's March—Hewitt; Laura Tennis.

Invitation—R. Friml; Rub-a-Dub Dub—Hamer, Robert Olson.
