Hardware Team Takes Fruit Men Into Camp Score Is 8-5 In Twilight League Contest

Five runs scored in the first inning by the Hardware men in their Twilight league game last night proved too much for the Eugene Hardware team to overcome, although they made a similar number while their opponents were in charge of the club yesterday.

Loss of players from the club together with the accident to Kermit Russell, pitching ace on the Eugene nine, are the causes given for the action.

Russell had a long gash cut in his left hand yesterday when an ax with which he was cutting wood, glanced striking him in the palm of the hand. Seventeen stitches were taken in it at the Springfield hospital.

The forfeit will even up the league race as it drops Eugene below Roseburg providing the latter wins its Sunday game. Junction City will also have a chance to win the pennant, with the new standing.

KNOCKOUT PREDICTED IN LEONARD-TENDLER BOUT

Both Fighters, Now In Fine Shape, Expect Victory

NEW YORK, July 20.—Followers of both Benny Leonard, champion, and Lew Tandler, Philadelphia challenger, predict that their fight next Monday night at the Yankee stadium for the world's lightweight championship title will end in a knockout.

Tandler's end in a knockout, Leonard's end in a knockout, the blow that had Leonard back on his heels in their battle at Boyle's Thirty Acres a year ago, is working to perfection, according to advices from the challenger's training camp at Deane, N. J. He is confident it will bring him to his long-sought goal, the lightweight throne.

Leonard, however, at his quarters in Tannerville, N. Y., believes he has perfected a style of battle calculated to offset Tandler's portside advantage. He has trained daily for a month.

The champion declared today he was in the best condition of his career, and while he expected a stiff fight, expressed confidence in his ability to end it before the limit of 15 rounds. He will close his training grind tomorrow and return to New York.

Leonard expects to scale a pound under the lightweight limit when he and Tandler weigh in at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

Matchmaker Jimmy Johnston, of the Cromwell A. C., announced today that three hundred ushers and 500 special policemen will handle the crowd at the Yankee stadium, which is expected to eclipse all former records for a lightweight title match.
