

A Month-End CLEARANCE

Women's Apparel

Exceptional Values in Every Department

Large sale of just the warm-weather apparel that you will naturally choose and for August, is the apparel that composes the July month-end sale.

Frocks—wash skirts—vacation sweaters—in fact, every item for summer is offered at a reduced price.

LARGE'S
865 Willamette Street

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

For Roseburg—William Roseburg, of this city, is leaving for Roseburg where he plans to stay for the next several days.

In Lebanon—Mrs. L. M. of Eugene, is spending the week in Lebanon visiting her mother and Mrs. R. C.

Report for Week-End—Carl R. Baker and Carl Copey are Eugeneans who will motor to Newport this week-end to spend the week-end.

Miss Moe Monday—Eating and merry making will be the order of the day at the convention of the A. O. U. M. W. of Eugene, at the regular meeting of August, at the regular at Fairfield, Iowa, where his family has been for some time. They will also return to Eugene about September 1.

Freeland Back from Vacation—G. H. Freeland has returned from a fortnight's vacation trip in California where he visited friends at San Francisco and Sacramento.

Married by Justice Wells—Argyle P. Smith and Letha M. Holman, the former of Wilson county, Kansas, and the latter a Eugene resident, were married Wednesday by Justice James G. Wells.

Building Permit Issued—A building permit for the remodeling of a residence at 692 Eighth avenue west at an estimated cost of $200 was issued at the office of the city building inspector, H. H. Hollis, is having the house remodeled.

Exchange Property—A deal just completed through the Melvin Hansen Realty company transfers a six-acre suburban home owned by Thomas Clark east of Springfield to P. J. Paluhik in return for acreage owned by the latter near Sutherlin.

Piano Recital Announced—The graduating piano recital of Fred E. Morris, University of Oregon student in the music department, will be given Thursday evening, August 2, in alumni hall on the campus. The program will be announced at a later date.

Assumed Business Name Is Filed—The assumed business name of the Oregon Seed company of Junction City has been filed at the office of the Lane county clerk, T. C. Williams and D. E. Kervin are the owners of the concern which will handle seed and feeds and operate a feed barn.

Campers Must Obtain Permits in Forenoon—Visitors to the Cascade national forest district who contemplate week-end trips and desire camp fire permits are requested to obtain them Saturday forenoon at the office of the Cascade reserve as the office will be closed in the afternoon, is the report.

Hurt When Crowbar Slips—Jerry Gorski, employe of Jones and Baceley at Crow, sustained a sprained back and bruised chest yesterday morning when a crowbar slipped from his grasp and struck him in the chest. He came to Eugene for medical attention.

Portland Visitor Leaves—Miss Jessie Dick has returned to her home at Portland after a vacation visit of a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dick, of the city. Miss Dick is to be married at Portland August 11 to Claude Green, of that city. The couple will make their home at Portland.

Local Property Bought—D. O. Shuey, of the postoffice, has just bought the home of F. O. Taylor at 1677 Lincoln street and will take possession about August 1 and Mr. Taylor will move into his new home that he just finished on the same street just a block north of where he is now living. The deal was handled through the W. B. Cooper real estate office.

Come Here to Make Home—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shoultz and two children have arrived in Eugene from their former home in Spokane, Washington. They have purchased a property on Fairmount avenue and are moving there now. Mr. Shoultz is foreman in charge of the plastering work on the Eugene Bible university hospital being constructed on Eleventh avenue.

Trainmen to Picnic—Extensive plans for the entertainment of the Southern Pacific employes at the annual event to be held at Albany August 4, are under way, according to word received by local railroad employes. It is expected that at least 2500 trainmen will be present for the affair which will be held at Bryant park. A dancing platform is to be erected for the event, is the report.

To Occupy New Office—Potter, Foster and Imme, Eugene law firm, expect to be located in their new offices over the Seimmetts building about August 1. Moving of books has begun and desks and office equipment will be moved within the next week. The new office will contain a suite of rooms including a large reception room, library and filing room and three private offices for the firm.

Missourian Wants Data on Eugene—Peculiar, Missouri, is the home of a correspondent of the Eugene chamber of commerce who desires information concerning Eugene, its climate, university and business opportunities and also asks for a catalogue of the U. of O. The Peculiar man states that he is very much interested in the unique city of Eugene. Peculiar is in Cass county, according to the word sent from Missouri.

Local Boy Is Promoted—Fred Lundy, son of Mrs. A. True Lundy of this city, who recently obtained a position in a toy factory at Oakland, California, has been promoted and is now engaged in the art department of the concern, according to word received by his mother here. Lundy is a Eugene high school boy and is well known here for his art work. He writes that his present work is easy for him, "just like whitewashing a fence," is his report on his activity in painting dolls' faces.

Jail Sentence Given Drunk—Richard Argon, Spaniard, born in Madrid, Spain, but a resident at North, coming from the Argentine republic, let the foreign blood get the better of him July 18 and engaged in an old-fashioned drunk. He pleaded not guilty in justice court here but yesterday changed his mind and admitted the crime. Justice James G. Wells fined the Spaniard $50 and costs. Having no ready money, Argon is soliciting on his fate while spending a summer outing of 25 days in the Lane county jail.

Blacksmith Shop to Move Next Week—The Robnett blacksmith shop which has been established on Pearl street between Eighth and Ninth avenues east will move next week to the new building now being constructed by F. L. Chambers on Eighth avenue east. The roof of the new building of corrugated iron is now being placed on the frame and it is expected that the place will be ready for occupancy by Monday. The present quarters of the blacksmith shop on Pearl street will soon be used to make way for a new building.

Jasper Merchant Calls—On a short business trip from Jasper yesterday was F. S. Jackson, who owns a store in that town.

Will Locate Here—John Peterson and family arrived in their car Thursday from North Dakota and plan to make their home in or near Eugene.

Returns to Halsey Home—Mrs. M. D. Settle, of Halsey, returned to her home yesterday after completion of a mastoid operation performed here recently.

Leaving for Newport—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tromp accompanied by Miss Edith Dunn will leave today by motor for Newport where they will visit for the next few days.

Here from Waterville—Mrs. Mary A. Millican, accompanied by Mrs. Lester Millican, was in from her home at Waterville yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. George N. McLean, of Eugene.

Were Married Here Yesterday—Thomas I. Walker and Gladys M. Wells, both of Eugene, were married by Justice of the Peace Jesse G. Wells here yesterday. They will make their home in this city.

Returns from Vacation—Miss Amelia Matzen, stenographer at the office of the district attorney, has returned after a vacation of two weeks spent at her home at Grand Point. Miss Matzen will assume her duties at the courthouse next Monday.

Locate Near Lorane—In town for a short time yesterday was D. B. Harry, formerly from Yakima, Washington, but now owner of a place in the Lorane district. Harry Parch, who lives near Yakima, was in with his brother, being here for a few days this month.

Bank Staff to Picnic at Coburg Bridge—Coburg bridge will be the scene of the picnic of the staff of the First National bank Monday evening, according to the committee in charge of the arrangements for the outing. A very promising program with plenty of entertainment is planned, is the report.

School Report Is Being Prepared—The annual report of the Lane county schools, is now in process of preparation at the office of E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools, and is expected to be ready to be issued some time next week, according to the superintendent. Data on the work of all the county schools during the year is being compiled for the annual report.

Moves Office After 20 Years—For 20 years Frank A. Tripp has held his office in the McMorran and Washburn building, in fact ever since Mr. Tripp located in Oregon in 1903 he has been in that location. Yesterday, however, he was moving to the offices of H. McKinley with whom he was an associate, over the First National bank building. Mr. Tripp handles timber lands, insurance and stock timber cruising.

Baseball Meeting Not Held—Failure of a sufficient number of baseball fans to get together at one time prevented any meeting last night, with the purpose of re-establishing the defunct Eugene club in the Upper Willamette Valley league. A number of interested parties came at different times during the evening but never in sufficient number to warrant any action. Unless some move is made soon, the Eugene club will continue the sleep of disruption caused by the desertion of players to teams paying larger salaries.

School May Have Heating Plant—Plans for the installation of a modern heating plant at the school at Creswell are being considered by the directors of that district according to R. F. Scott, school official, who was here yesterday to confer with E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools. The Creswell school has eight rooms and during the winter months the building is heated by eight stoves and the bringing of wood to keep the fires going is considerable of a task, according to Mr. Scott, who

Too Poor to Pay for a Funeral

The agony of Germany is best pictured by the above photograph showing members of a middle-class Berlin family carrying the body of their child to a cemetery for burial. With the mark selling at nearly 200,000 to the dollar, public funerals are too expensive for them.

states that the directors believe that the installation of the central plant for heating is necessary.

In Portland for Month—Miss Clara Whitten left yesterday morning for Portland where she expects to spend the greater portion of August visiting friends.

Visits from Brownsville—E. E. White, who owns and manages the White hardware store in Brownsville, was a business caller in the city yesterday afternoon.

Marriage License Is Issued—A marriage license was issued yesterday at the office of the county clerk to Francis J. Crittiser and Frances J. Miller, both of Eugene.

School Houses Are Inspected—E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools, spent yesterday inspecting the new school building that is planned for the Blue River district.

Stop Enroute to Springs—Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Parker, of Philomath, stopped for a few hours in Eugene yesterday on their way to spend a vacation period at Belknap Springs.

Party to Morrow Night—Mr. and Mrs. John Bell and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel leave tomorrow morning on a 10-day motor trip through Washington and British Columbia.

Fall Creek People in Town—Verne Hucka and family, who live up Fall Creek near the reservation property, were in Eugene yesterday on one of their somewhat irregular visits to the city.

Estate Is Probated—The estate of W. S. Westrope has been probated. The estate consists of about $4000 in real and personal property. Appraisers are Darwin Hristow, O. A. Houghum and W. T. Gordon.

Leaving on Week-End Trip—E. J. Relyea, motor route 8, was in Eugene yesterday to obtain a camp fire permit at the office of the Cascade national forest. A week-end camping trip on the upper river is planned.

Buy 40-Acre Farm—F. M. Cook, of Portland, has purchased from Mark Trunell a 40-acre farm located on the Elmira road and will move there within the next 30 days. The deal was handled by the Melvin Hansen Realty company.

Forest Ranger Moves Here—M. S. Durbin, who has been in charge of a district of the Siuslaw national forest with headquarters at Walport, is moving with his family to this city, where he will make his home. Mr. Durbin will work out from the local office hereafter.

Here from Albany—Oscar Powell and son, Delta Powell, of Albany are here to spend the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burr E. Fisher, Nineteenth avenue east. A trip up the McKenzie is planned for the week-end. Visitors from Arizona who are also at the Fisher home for a few days on their way north will also make the river trip.

Bank Staff to Have Entertainment—Song, music and entertainment are a few of the features planned for the picnic of the First National bank staff at the outing planned for the organization next Monday evening. A quartet of bank employes are having nightly rehearsals in preparation for the gala event. The place of the gathering has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Guiley Returns—Mrs. M. E. Guiley returned the first part of this week from a three weeks' visit in Ashland and other southern places including Crater lake and the Oregon caves. On the return trip she was accompanied by her son, Glen, who went on to Longview, Washington. From that place he returned to Eugene Thursday. He states that there is much construction work being rushed at Longview.

Lands Lizzie Lundy—"Have crossed five mountain ranges and Lizzie leads them all in hard going," is the postal card eulogium of the Ford car received by the E. C. Simmons company here from James L. Furlish, of Ada, who, with his family, have arrived on an overland trip to Central City, Iowa. But one puncture in 3287

Headquarters for Jantzen Swimming Suits

Today--a Sensational Sale of 300 Lovely Wash Frocks

Half-Price

Frankly, we're overstocked. Owing to a backward spring and summer season we've too many wash frocks for this time of the year. Think of it! Your unrestricted choice of the entire stock of over 300 beautiful new wash dresses at just half the original markings which, by the way, are very moderate.

300 Charming Summer Frocks of
LINEN, TISSUE GINGHAMS, ORGANDIE, NORMANDIE, VOILE,
FRENCH RATINE, SCOTCH GINGHAM

This announcement will bring hundreds of women to this sale Saturday. You are urged to come early for the better selections.

In Every Case the Sale Price is Way Less Than Actual Cost!

Regular Prices $3.95 to $25.00
Sale Prices $1.98 to $12.50

Entire Stock Included! Nothing Reserved!

Please note that at these low sale prices we cannot exchange credit or refund any wash dress. Any alterations must be charged for. All sales final.

See Mr. Morran & Washburn Store Phone 4
Windows FOR STYLE, QUALITY & ECONOMY

miles, states Mr. Furnish in his card. Wonderful time to make a trip and a wonderful lot of good experiences are other adjectives he uses in describing his outing.

Turnbull to Portland—George Turnbull, professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, left yesterday morning for Portland and will return tomorrow.

Dr. Burnett on Vacation—Dr. R. T. Burnett and family, left early yesterday morning for Southern Oregon where they will visit the various scenic points on a vacation outing.

To Take Portland Position—Miss Lulu Gordon, for the past year bookkeeper at Wade's, leaves today for Portland, where she will take vacation with a wholesale grocery concern.

To Attend Buyers' Meet—To attend a buyers' week at Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill, of the Eugene variety store, left the middle of the week for that city. They will return by way of Colorado.

Here to Locate—John Peterson and family, who formerly claimed Ransom county, North Dakota, as their home locality, arrived in Eugene Wednesday with the expectation of making this district their permanent home.

Buy Jeffries Home—Karl Klem has bought the Jeffries home, corner of First avenue and Washington street, and will move here soon from North Dakota. The sale was made by the Melvin Hansen Realty company.

Back from Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Yates of the Price shoe store, Mrs. Marie Bridgford of New York city, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kompp of Eugene, have returned from a two weeks' vacation trip to Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

Local Man Gets State Position—Ralph Jackson, former deputy county clerk of Lane, has been appointed to a position under Dillard A. Elkins in the state industrial accident department at Salem. Mr. Jackson is leaving for Salem where he will make his home.

Road Crew Is Relieved—A county road crew of 15 men which has been at work on the project near Spencer creek has been relieved of duty until after the harvest, according to the report of Commissioner Sharp. A county prison crew will remain at work on the job and rock will be available for crushing when the work is resumed, the commissioner states.

Calkins Back Tomorrow—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins are expected home tomorrow from a trip to Seattle where they visited their son, Lieutenant Russell D. Calkins, former Eugene lawyer now in the United States navy on the battleship Texas. The Calkins also were able to see President and Mrs. Harding when they arrived Friday from their Alaskan trip.

Steam Roller Purchased—A steam roller, which will be fitted for scarifying work, is now in the possession of the county and in use on the Veneta road. It is believed that this was a move for economy inasmuch as the old gasoline roller was turned in, and the scarifier may be operated by one man. County Commissioner Sharp believes that maintenance of roads is a bigger job than road construction.

Tonels Removed—Operation for the removal of tonels was performed on John Wright, of Junction City, here yesterday morning.

Return to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boney, Miss Mae Kinsey and Miss Lulu Curran left yesterday for Portland after spending the first of the week in Eugene.

Visits at Springfield—Robert Ward, of Springfield, has gone back to Portland after a few days spent at his home in that city. He has been in Portland for a month receiving medical treatment.

To Crater Lake on Vacation—Frank Wallace of the United States cigar store, with his wife, left yesterday morning for a fortnight's vacation trip. Crater lake will be one of the spots they will visit.

September 17 Schools to Open—September 17 is the date set for the opening of the Eugene city schools, it was announced yesterday by Superintendent Joseph T. Glenn. This is a week later than last year's opening date.

Motor Law Violators Fined—Violators of the motor laws had a hard day in the court of Judge Alta King yesterday following a campaign the previous night by C. A. Cornell, traffic officer. The following were in court yesterday and were assessed: G. N. McLean, J. K. Hall, R. H. Wheeler, Frank Eberhart, C. J. Howe, F. I. Kinney.

R. F. Brabham, Eugene Howe, for failing to have lights on their bicycles, E. L. Winter, Ed Ebbell and D. W. Frairie were fined.

Nurse on Vacation—Miss Vera McConnell, nurse at the Merry hospital, leaves today for the second week of her vacation, which she will spend up the Columbia highway and near Mt. Hood. The past week Miss McConnell was at the Newport beach.

Navigation Company Files Suit—The Umpqua Steam River Navigation company is plaintiff in a suit filed yesterday at the office of the county clerk against Kenneth McCormack and Elmer Johnson, doing business as McCormack and Johnson. The plaintiff sues to recover $180 as the result of damages alleged to have been done by a barge rented to the defendants last January. A rental of $50 was paid for the use of the barge three days, according to the complaint.

Notify People About Harding—Special means were adopted last night to notify Eugene citizens that Mr. Harding would stop here this morning at 5:40 o'clock. The news did not come until early yesterday evening so it was announced in all local theatres, posted on Willamette street bulletins and the motorcycle police used a megaphone to let pedestrians know that Mr. Harding's plane would be telephoned out all country telephone lines to allow Lane county residents the opportunity of seeing the President.

The Mine With the Iron Door

Harold Bell Wright's New Book, just published, and now on sale.

Face to Face with Satan, the Billy Sunday Book.

Full of Kick and Go, just like Billy. You will want to keep his sayings. North of 36, by Emerson Hough. Black Oxen, by Gertrude Atherton.

Breaking Point, by Mary Rinehart. And a great many other of the latest books at

Cresseys'

600 Willamette St., Between 6th and 7th
The Best Place to Trade After All

get your Jantzen here today!

here comes the steam roller on STRAWS! ----

1/2 off

every hat in Green Merrell's stock

we don't care a straw what anybody else does - - - we're not going to carry over a single straw hat of ours.

out they go - - - in you come for a fine 50% saving on a mighty clever straw which will be in good style and taste all next summer.

all sizes, $3.4 to as big as they make 'em!

shoot quick - - - while the game's plentiful.

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear
"one of Eugene's best stores"