CRESWELL NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., Aug. 2.—The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting and social afternoon at the home of Miss E. M. Thompson on Wednesday afternoon with twelve ladies present. They voted ten dollars for the orphan home at Corvallis and had a program which was a quiz from the Union Signal magazine. Miss Thompson served grape juice for refreshments and during the social hour recitations were given by Mrs. Ann Sears, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Bearby.

Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Forbes went to Portland Thursday morning with their daughter, Miss Amelia, who is under special treatment of specialist physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosberger and daughter, Thelma, and Jim Hendricks, all of Palo Alto, and Mrs. Gary, of Mayfield, and Harold Humphrey called at George Shauba and James Shauba Monday night. They were making the trip south by auto.

The second flower show of the season under the direction of the Ladies Civic Improvement club will be given Friday afternoon and evening at the old hardware building at which the summer flowers will be shown. Creswell has a fine assortment to pick from and an interesting show can be expected.

B. F. Waite and family, of Ashland, arrived Wednesday evening for a few days' visit with friends. They arrived from North Bend, making the trip by auto. Mr. Waite formerly was the barber at Creswell.

Miss Belle Scott spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Olive Parsons and Miss Elizabeth Willson at Eugene.

J. C. Travillion and Tom White, of Seattle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Travillion Thursday evening. They are on their way to Crater Lake.

Mrs. H. H. Schmitt and daughter, Maxine, are visiting in Eugene for a few days.

Ole Soleim came up Thursday afternoon getting ready to move the cement mixer to their next job up in Washington near Long Beach.

MURRAY PHARMACY HEAD

TAKES UP DUTIES AS MANAGER OF CARROLL STORE

HARRISBURG, Ore., Aug. 2.—(Special to the Register).—The Carroll's pharmacy here is now in charge of a new manager, B. A. Murray, who comes from Sheridan, took up his duties as manager of the store the first of the week. Mr. Murray has been an Oregon boy all his life, receiving all his education in Oregon, graduating from the Oregon Agricultural college. He has been with the leading drug store at Sheridan for the past two years. Lester E. McKellip, who turned the management of the store over to the new proprietor, had been in charge of the business for a little over a year. He had been associated with the store for something like ten years past, gradually working his way up while being employed in the business. And now that he is away from business cares for the present, at least the first thing will be to take a well earned vacation. Mr. McKellip having already gone to Portland for a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. Murray will absent himself from his new duties upon McKellip's return to move his wife and baby to their new home here.

How Stop, Look, Listen
HARRISBURG, Ore., Aug. 2.—(Special to the Register).—With the object of showing his company the head of the best possible protection in the railroad crossing on Main street here, Fred Krueger, Oregon Electric section foreman, kept a record of the traffic over this crossing Sunday before last from the hours of eight in the morning until six in the evening.

All vehicles were counted as well as all pedestrians. The count shows 692 autos to have crossed, 378 people on foot, 21 bicycles, three motorcycles, four horse-drawn vehicles and but two trucks. Of the 692 autos only 260 took the trouble to look when they made the crossing while only 120 of the people on foot looked when they approached the railroad.
