preached at both places Sunday.

Excelsior demand for supplies is showing not only from California but from New York. The latter market demands a grading that is so strict that many are unwilling to ship in that direction. This grading has been carried to such an extent that it no longer represents actual quality beyond a certain point. New York is far more willing to pay for the appearance of the egg shell than for the actual egg; a condition that does not rule in any other market in the world.

BUTTER SITUATION IS FIRM

Excellent trading tone is continuing in the market for butter here, with no further change in the price of either cubes or prints. Shippers to the South complain of very strict grading there.

GOOD CANTALOUPE SELLING

White cantaloupes are being more or less shaded for ordinary to poor quality cantaloupes, fancy offerings from the Tullock, California, section are finding excellent sale as high as $3.75 for standards. There are no Oregon offerings on the wholesale market.

COUNTRY MEATS VERY ROARCE

Great scarcity of country-killed meats is shown in the front street trade, with sales of calves generally as high as $1.75 pound for tops, with fractional business above or below this mark. There are only nominal offerings of dressed hogs and prices are higher.

TOMATO SUPPLIES INCREASED

While reports from The Dalles and Columbia river sections indicate that the bulk of the season for tomatoes is over, increasing supplies from that section are shown here. Sales of No. 1 stock at $1.50-$1.75 box, with No. 2 offerings around $1.00-$1.25.

APPLE SALES ARE GAINING

Increasing sales of early apples are shown in the trade here, with a gain of offerings. Carload lots of California Gravenstein continue to move in this direction, with sales at $2.50-$2.75 for best stock. Local Astorian are moving generally at $1.25 for jumbo packs, although a fraction more is being asked for fancy goods.

MAY'S WONDERFUL REMEDY FOR STOMACH

Woman Thinks She Can't Talk Enough

"I had gallstones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas, colic and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took May's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—At All Druggists.
