

Morning Register Lane County News Service

Simmons Garage Opens
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—The new garage on Main street between Third and Fourth streets, which will handle Ford supplies, was opened by E. C. Simmons, company of Eugene yesterday. A complete line of Ford products will be carried and repair work will also be done.

C. W. Hodgson Visits Here
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—C. W. Hodgson and daughter, Anna, of Pine City, Washington, are visiting here at the home of Miss Mary Roberts, city librarian. Mr. Hodgson and daughter are on their way to California where they will make their home.

City Recorder on Trip
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—J. W. Coffin, city recorder and police judge, is leaving in the morning with his wife and son, Herbert, for Portland, where Mr. and Mrs. Coffin will remain until the middle of next week. The judge expects to be back at work about Wednesday.

Bridge to Close Tomorrow
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—The big county bridge which connects Springfield with the Pacific highway is to be closed for repairs Monday morning. It is announced. Material for the work is already on the ground, and is expected to take a month to complete the repairs. The bridge has become quite ratty, and has been in need of repair for some time. It is also possible that the approach to the bridge will be paved at this time, but this has not yet been assured.

Orient Orders Received
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—An order from the Orient for 5000 barrels of flour has been received.

received by the Springfield Mill and Grain company here, and the work on the order has already started. Inquiries for local milling products have been received from many parts of the country. It is reported, and this has served to strengthen the market, and the farmers are getting a little more for their grain than was expected. The crop is not as plentiful as was predicted, states G. G. Bushman, manager of the Springfield Mill and Grain company, and considerable foreign matter is found in it.

Charles Humphreys Has Operation
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—Little Charles Humphreys, son of Roy Humphreys, cashier of the Southern Pacific office here, underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils at Eugene yesterday. He is getting along nicely, physicians report.

S. P. Agent Back at Work
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—Carl Olson, who has been absent from the Southern Pacific station here for the past month, today resumed his position as agent here. Geo. Godfrey, who has been taking his place, has gone back to his job as operator.

American Legion Meets
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—The American Legion of this city met last night at the Odd Fellows' hall and transacted regular business. A discussion of the coming convention at Seaside was the principal topic of the evening. Oswald Olson, commander, and M. B. Huntley have been elected to represent the local post.

Building Committee to Report
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—The building committee of the First Christian church of this city will report at the regular church meeting tomorrow, and plans for a new church will be discussed in place of the regular services. The church building was burned recently and the congregation has been without a regular home. Members of the committee are S. G. Mosher, W. J. Lapsley and M. J. Mosher.

Mrs. Tompsett Returning
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—Mrs. John Tompsett, who for the past month has been visiting friends and relatives in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and in Washington, is expected to return to her home Monday or Tuesday. Mrs. Tompsett writes that she has had a very enjoyable visit, and the trip has been pleasant.

Springfield News Moves
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—The Willamette Press today moved into its new home on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, and from now on the paper will be issued from the new place.

there. A crew of men were busy all day moving the various equipment of the shop to the new location, and the shop will now be a model printing establishment in every way. The firm announces. The Willamette Press publishes the Springfield News, one of the leading weeklies of Oregon.

MISS DRISCOLL LEADING
COUNT IS CLOSE IN CONTEST FOR BATHING BEAUTY

(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—Miss Pauline Driscoll, of this city, is leading in the contest for the selection of a bathing beauty to represent the local American Legion at Seaside September 6, 7 and 8. Miss Driscoll has a total of 555 votes at the last counting of the judges, and the other candidates range as follows:
Ellen Tompsett 535
Alice Mortensen 525
Crystal Bryan 525
Alice Tompsett 510
All organizations have not nominated so there is still a chance for other girls to be in the contest. Miss Alice Tompsett is the 4-L candidate. Miss Alice Mortensen was endorsed by the I. O. O. F. after her nomination by an individual, and Ellen Tompsett, Crystal Bryan and Pauline Driscoll were nominated by individuals.
The winning beauty will be given a bathing suit by the local post of the American Legion, and all her expenses will be paid to Seaside, accompanying the representatives from the Legion and the auxiliary.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 18.—Legal Scott, pharmacist of Ketchikan, is spending a few days in Portland visiting friends.

Mrs. M. H. White, of Myrtle Point, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dan Driscoll, of this city, left yesterday for the southern city.
Charles Taylor, of Thurston, was in town on business today. He was accompanied by Mrs. Taylor. George Platt, a farmer who lives in the vicinity of Thurston, came down to purchase supplies this morning.

V. G. Kennedy, who lives at Oakridge, was in town on business today. He reports a great deal of activity at Oakridge now that the hunting season is about to open. Deer are reported to be plentiful about there, he says, and many hunters are expected to "hit the trail" the first thing Monday morning.

John Currie and wife, of Leno, were in town today to do some shopping and to visit friends.
V. L. Hucks, a farmer of Lowell, was here this morning to purchase harvest supplies.
Thomas Solon, of Camp Creek, was in the city today purchasing supplies for his harvest. He reports that his grain is unusually heavy this year, and expects a bumper crop.

Several cars are spending the week-end at the auto camp near to the river on Mill street. The grass at the camp is still green and the shady camping places are cool and comfortable.
Mrs. Mary Marshall, of Hoven, Kansas, who has been visiting at the home of G. G. Bushman for the past week, left for the east yesterday. She intends to visit friends along the way to her home.

A car of flour and feed was shipped to Coquille, another to Marshfield and a third to Powers by the Springfield Mill and Grain company today. Three cars of Turkey Red wheat from Montana were received this week, the firm announces, and this will be used in their hard wheat blend flour.
J. C. Stapleton, of Alvadore, was in the city purchasing supplies for his mercantile establishment at that place today.

J. P. Jacobson, merchant of Alvadore, came to town today on business. He purchased supplies for his store at that place.
J. T. Moore, of Mohawk, came in today for supplies and to visit friends here.

Joe Looney, farmer who lives near Junction City, was here this morning arranging for the disposal of his grain crop and transacting business.

Rosa Mathews, of Thurston, was a business visitor this morning.
Jack Pullen, truck driver for F. E. Blair mercantile establishment at Lowell, was in the city this afternoon. He returned with a load of supplies.

E. M. Copenhaver, of Creswell, came in today to transact business.
Mrs. R. E. Hill, wife of the merchant at Mohawk, was in town today to attend to business matters and to visit friends.

Miss Howard, of near Junction City, was in town to purchase harvest supplies to be used for grain harvest on the Howard farm.

Robert Vitus, of Mohawk, was in town today to purchase supplies. Cowboy Elliot, a traveling salesman, will present his educated horse at the Bell theatre Monday evening.

Rev. Luther, of the Baptist church, has been engaged for an indefinite period as pastor of the church. It was decided to take the action rather than award a call every year, in view of the fact that Rev. Luther is considered very efficient and is popular with his congregation.

CRESWELL WOMAN DIES

MRS. IDA H. PHILLIPS DIES FRIDAY AT AGE OF 68

(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Ida Phillips died at the Goshen hospital Friday, August 17, at the age of 68 years. Her husband, Sam Phillips, two sisters and one brother survive her. Mrs. S. L. Hart lives at Lebanon; Mrs. Elsie White at Los Angeles, and J. H. Gilmore, at Creswell. She was married August 5, 1883, and came to Creswell in 1888 from California. She has lived on their farm here since that time.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the Scherling chapel in Creswell. Rev. J. L. Stratford officiating. Interment will be made in the Creswell cemetery.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., Aug. 18.—Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Maargen entertained a couple of automobile loads of Eugene friends at the river with a picnic dinner. Miss Evelyn York is visiting Miss Margaret Land at Cottage Grove this week.

Francis Everson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson, accidentally cut his leg with an ax Friday afternoon while chopping wood.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Richardson and son, James Richardson, and friend, Mr. Fletcher, returned Friday afternoon from McCrede springs where they had spent a few days camping out.

James Richardson and friend, Mr. Fletcher, started on their return trip to Tacoma Saturday morning after a two weeks' vacation. They are in the employ of the Fisher Flouring Mill company.

Lucile Evelyn Kent is the name of the daughter who arrived at the Kent home Thursday evening.

D. Harley Benedict, of Vancouver, Wash., and family and Chauncey C. Benedict, of Portland, with his family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Newhall this week. They returned Friday, making the trip by motor.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. K. B. Melton on Wednesday and elected officers. Mrs. Mary Howe was again chosen president. Other officers named were, vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Dargatzis; secretary, Mrs. E. Harding; and vice-president from the Presbyterian church, Miss E. M. Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Thompson; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. R. Beatty.

The ladies of the Methodist church held a food sale at the hardware building Saturday morning.

The work of firing approaches to the cannery has been completed. They are now in excellent condition. The force is canning blackberries, days of receiving being Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday forenoon. During canning days sweet corn is also being handled.

CROW NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)
CROW, Ore., Aug. 18.—Alice Kraal returned Thursday evening from a few days' visit with relatives at Noti.

Several families from Crow and vicinity attended the funeral services of Mrs. E. M. Sutherland at Noti Sunday, August 12.

A. J. Kraal made a business trip to Eugene Wednesday.

Willis Frady, of Eugene, called at the Kraal and Holloway mill on Business Friday.

Lila Johnson, of Ashland, was a visitor at the C. M. Stephens home the past week.

Mrs. Rachel Layne, of Eugene, is visiting at the home of her son, H. J. Layne.

Frances and Hazel Huffman visited Flora Jenkins Thursday.

The J. V. Jenkins family made a business trip to Poverty canyon Friday afternoon.

FRANKLIN NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)
FRANKLIN, Ore., Aug. 18.—Grover Mack and family have been enjoying the company of his mother, brother and sister, who have been visiting at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bamberg and children of Eldorado, Ore., arrived last week for a visit with his father, Rev. Bamberg and family.

Miss Vera Bryant, of Eugene, spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bryant.

Mrs. Sarah Bryant is keeping house for J. A. Richardson, while Mrs. Richardson is cooking at Cheshire for men working on the road.

Nels Richardson is working at the Swafford mill.

Lawrence Leavelle word last week of the death of his mother at Portland, for which place he left immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Chess Kirk went to Junction City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keiser were out from Wendling Sunday.

W. A. McGillis is enjoying a visit from his brother from Bismarck, North Dakota.

Oscar Bateman and family are gone on a visit to Vancouver and Seattle.

Mrs. Ed Young and Miss Maude were Junction City visitors Thursday evening.

The Drew threshing machine came from east of Long Tom Tuesday afternoon and is now at the W. A. McGillis farm.

Mrs. Arda Curry, of North Bend, Mrs. Golda Keiser and Mrs. Ethel Shelly of Portland, were here last week to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Bertha Shove, who was buried here Thursday of last week.

PAVING NOW COMPLETED
HARRISBURG-HALEY, ROAD OPENS SEPTEMBER 12

(Special to the Register)—The Pacific highway is now paved the entire eight and one-half miles between Harrisburg and Haley Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 the last wheel full of cement was poured into the paving and the highway between the two towns was completed. Save for the Scandia com-

To the People of Eugene

This is an Announcement of Unusual Interest
Read it and Read it Well

We Have Received Instructions to Sell at

Absolute Auction Sale

To the highest bidders, without reserve

A Number of Choice Home Sites in the Beautiful

Driverton Addition

Which is unquestionably one of the best located residence sections of Eugene.

Our instructions are to positively sell every lot offered to the highest bidder without reserve, regardless of price. Exceptionally easy terms of payment will be offered and a certificate of title will be issued free with every lot.

Driverton is bounded by Alder, Mill, 17th and 25th streets. It is well built up on three sides with artistic homes and being in the heart and almost surrounded by improvements is bound to experience rapid development in the immediate future.

This is an Absolute Unreserved Sale
Every Lot Offered will Positively be Sold
Regardless of Price

Send for Free Illustrated Book-Map Today

Barry & Austin

33 W. 9th St.

Phone 121

The Musical Department Store 9th Street Music Store Eugene Music Shop

Phonographs and Pianos

Phonographs and Pianos — Payments Like Rent

$25.00 down — $3.00 a week

—Delivers a beautiful piano to your home—guaranteed 10 long years—think of it! Pay like rent. Come in and try one.

Used Pianos—Now in Stock $175 and Up

Cut out and mail to Eugene Music Shop, Eugene, Oregon. I am interested in used piano..... New piano..... Phonograph at about $..... Please call or send literature

My name is.....

My address is.....

NOTE:—See our special console model phonograph. Regular $150.00. This week only $115.00

A model for every kitchen

LANG 1923 models are made in a size and type for every stove use. Every patented feature is absolutely original and exclusive. Every woman who has used a LANG knows what real pleasure kitchen work can be. Fuel lasts longer, heat distributes more evenly, baking is more perfect. Also the LANG fits in with the surroundings of every kitchen, is good-looking and durable.

Call at our store and let us show you a "better" stove. A demonstration will convince you that your next stove will be a LANG.

Charlet's Complete Home Furnisher
Lane County Distributor

33-47 W. 8th

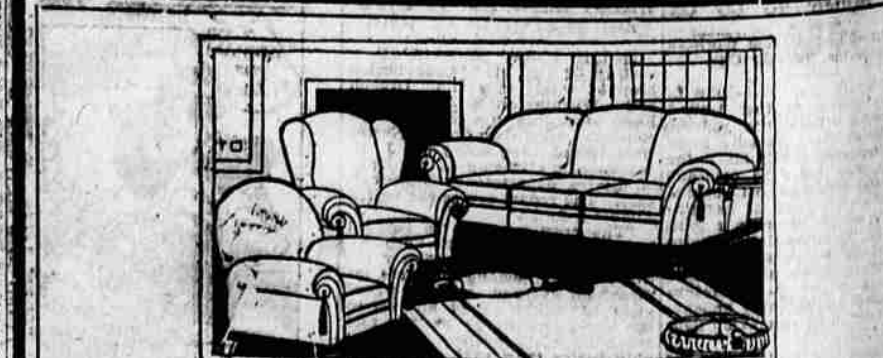

Phone 1122

LANG STOVES

Bids Wanted
Sealed bids will be received until 2 p. m., Aug. 23, for installation of a furnace heating plant in Creswell school building, Dist. No. 40, Creswell, Oregon. Plans and specifications are with the chairman of the board at Creswell. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. M. E. TRYON, Clerk. 8-14-10

No Collection; No Charge
L. M. Travis, Inc. The most efficient collection agency in the upper Willamette valley began in 1901, and now employs five trained assistants. Our plan is used extensively in Lane County by the Oregon-Washington Collection Agency Assn. of Oregon. We collect for anybody, anywhere, and remit every penny. No collection; no charge.

Ask Henry Trump for information about life insurance 7-1-14

ORDER SPECIAL FURNITURE NOW

If you are wanting something special in tapestry or rugs, or any piece of furniture, don't wait until the fall rush, but give us your orders now. Come in and see the beautiful davenport and matching chairs now on display—if we haven't what you want we can order it, and get more prompt delivery by ordering early.

See our complete line of rugs and floor coverings
EASY PAYMENT PLAN — USE YOUR CREDIT

Applegate Furniture Co.
Heilig Theatre Bldg.