

Cotton Lingerie

Make Warm Days Seem Cooler

Combinations — Gowns —
Knickers and Petticoats.

The summer wardrobe would not be complete without a vast supply of cool, crisp Lingerie.

This is a splendid time for women to secure dainty and cool undergarments to wear through the remaining warm days.

The choicest pieces are here at very attractive prices—

89c to $2.50

LARGE'S

865 Willamette Street

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Mr. Hurd and Children at Newport—Mrs. Wayne Hurd and two children of this city, are at Newport for a week.

Spent Week at Newport—Mrs. L. H. Stratton and daughter, Ulaia, left last Sunday to spend a week at Newport beach and vicinity.

Plan Trip to Shequah Springs—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Osburn, proprietors of the Osburn hotel, are planning to leave the latter part of the week for Shequah Springs.

Left for Portland Tomorrow—Mrs. Leland R. Sackett and two children leave tomorrow morning for Portland where they will make their home. Mr. Sackett preceded them two weeks ago to take up his work in the office of John M. Scott, assistant traffic manager of the Southern Pacific company.

Webster L. Kincaid Here—Webster L. Kincaid, Portland realtor, who has considerable property interests in this city, is a local business visitor. Plans for a new building on Ninth avenue east between Oak and Pearl streets which is being promoted by Mr. Webster will be ready in the near future, he states.

Presbyterian Pastor Committee Meets—No definite decision has yet been reached in regard to extending a call to another pastor for the Central Presbyterian church of this city to fill the vacancy as a result of the resignation of William Moll case, in the announcement last evening following a meeting of the church committee in charge of obtaining a new minister.

State Labor Commissioner Here—C. H. Gram, state labor commissioner, was in the city yesterday and accompanied County Judge C. P. Bernard to Cottage Grove, where he inspected the boiler at the Boyd rock pit and crusher operated by the county. A few minor changes were suggested by the commissioner.

Weather Cool at Newport—While the temperature has been very high in Eugene during the past three days the weather has been cool at Newport, Eugeneans who have been there recently say Sunday and Monday the wind blew pretty hard and the temperature was 15 or 20 degrees lower than here.

Administratrix Appointed—Mabel Alstatt yesterday was appointed by Probate Judge Richard administratrix of the estate of Benjamin D. Stephenson, who died at Nevada, Mo., July 18, leaving property of the estimated value of $5,000 in Lane county, Cottage Grove being the place of residence. Appraisers appointed are Worth Harvey, John Durham, and John Nokes.

Admitted to Mercy Hospital—Patients admitted yesterday to the Mercy hospital included Mrs. Victor Kleck, Junction City; Mrs. A. Workman, Eugene; Mrs. J. Hay, Eugene; Mrs. Harry Mathew, Moscow, Idaho; Mrs. L. Bauman and

Work on Start on New Salesroom—The installation of a new plate glass front at the Willamette street property taken over from the Lake monument works by the E. C. Simmons Ford motor agency, will start September 1, according to Mr. Simmons. The lot in the rear of the place will be filled in order to run cars from the present quarters to the new salesroom.

Eugene People Numerous at Newport—The proprietor of one of the leading hotels at Newport stated Sunday that more Eugene people have registered at that house than from any other city in Oregon during the past summer. The hotels there are all enjoying a big business this year, due to the completion of the road which is now in good condition all the way from Corvallis.

Clinton Howard Returns to School—Clinton Howard, a prominent student in the school of Journalism at the university has arrived and plans to register at the opening of school. Howard was a member of the Emerald staff last year, and held the position of feature editor on the Sunday edition. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalism fraternity.

Membership Committee Has Meeting—A discussion for plans to increase the membership of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at a session of the membership committee of the association, headed by Fred Stickle. A canvass will be held later in the year and it is hoped to bring the enrollment up to a point on a par with other associations organized in cities with populations about the same as Eugene, the committee reports.

Leaving for Portland—W. R. Huok, who has been employed as locomotive engineer at the Booth-Kelly line at Wendling, is leaving for Portland where he has accepted a position with the Willamette Iron and Steel works and will be on the road as salesman for the firm demonstrating the locomotives

Infant daughter, Cheshire, Patient—Admitted were George Kelsay, Eugene, and Martin Hansen, Eugene.

Here from Wendling District—John Downing, who is engaged in the dairy business in the vicinity of Wendling, was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Returns from Tillamook—Mrs. Jesse G. Wells has returned after a visit of about six weeks at the Wells summer home at Oceanside in Tillamook county.

Davis Home from Outing—E. R. Davis, steward at the chamber of commerce, is home from a month's outing at McCredle Springs and vicinity. He expects to go back in a few days to take a deer hunt with Jap Hills.

Fine Home Sold—L. H. Dory has sold his fine home to Dan E. Johnson of the Fair West Manufacturing company, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Johnson is from Albany. W. B. Cooper made the deal.

Returns from Outing—C. D. Donahue, of the Eugene hospital staff, accompanied by his wife and his mother, has returned after an outing of about two weeks in the vicinity of Silettoos lake.

I. P. Hewitt Here—I. P. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Eugene, but now living at Everett, Washington, is here for a few days looking after property he owns here. Mr. Hewitt is now in charge of all boy scout work in Everett.

Returns from Coos Bay District—W. E. Hodges, proprietor of the Eugene Steam laundry, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, has returned from a vacation trip by motor to Marshfield, Bandon, and other points in the Coos bay district.

Funeral of Drowned Boys to Be Held Thursday—The funeral of Cash and Clarence Willis, who were drowned near Cottage Grove Saturday night and whose bodies were found Sunday night, will be held at the Catholic church there Thursday at 9:30 A. M., by Rev. Father Curley, of Eugene.

Local Stockman in Hospital—Charles Taylor, local stock buyer, is at the Eugene hospital to undergo an operation today and will be confined for the next several days, according to a report from the hospital.

Wood Alcohol Drinker Released—Knut Anderson arrested a week ago while drunk on wood alcohol, was released from the county jail yesterday. He would go back to work in the logging camps and let the poison alone.

Man Has Hand Injured—J. B. Pruitt, employee of the Harry Busch road crew of Mabel, is receiving treatment for an injured hand as the result of being knocked down by a tourist car while he was at work on the highway.

Ralph Russell and Family Here—Ralph Russell, a former Morning Register typewriter operator, now employed at The Tallies, is here with his family on a vacation, having driven over from the eastern Oregon town in their car.

Party Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. George W. Mason and daughters Ruth and Edith, Miss Dorothy Knowles and her daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will spend about two weeks in the south.

Contributions Employees Return from Newport—Miss Amelia Metzger, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Johnston, and Miss Ethelyn Powers, employee in the office of County Assessor H. E. Walker, were at Newport over the week-end.

Schwering at Summer Cottage—H. A. Schwering, of the Schwering and Spicer barber shop on Ninth avenue east, is at his summer cottage at Belknap's bridge. He recently suffered an injury in an automobile accident, and has gone to the mountains to recuperate.

Daughter to Attend School—Mrs. Della Nichols, president of the Shady Brook Improvement club, of Gold Beach, is in town arranging for her daughter to enter the Methodist church. She states that library work of the club has been very successful and is greatly appreciated.

Myron Getchell Leaves—Myron Getchell, after a visit of three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Getchell, has left for Urbana, Ill., where he is employed in the library of the state university. His parents accompanied him as far as Portland and will visit there and drive to Seaside.

Work on Start on New Salesroom—The installation of a new plate glass front at the Willamette street property taken over from the Lake monument works by the E. C. Simmons Ford motor agency, will start September 1, according to Mr. Simmons. The lot in the rear of the place will be filled in order to run cars from the present quarters to the new salesroom.

Eugene People Numerous at Newport—The proprietor of one of the leading hotels at Newport stated Sunday that more Eugene people have registered at that house than from any other city in Oregon during the past summer. The hotels there are all enjoying a big business this year, due to the completion of the road which is now in good condition all the way from Corvallis.

Clinton Howard Returns to School—Clinton Howard, a prominent student in the school of Journalism at the university has arrived and plans to register at the opening of school. Howard was a member of the Emerald staff last year, and held the position of feature editor on the Sunday edition. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalism fraternity.

Membership Committee Has Meeting—A discussion for plans to increase the membership of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at a session of the membership committee of the association, headed by Fred Stickle. A canvass will be held later in the year and it is hoped to bring the enrollment up to a point on a par with other associations organized in cities with populations about the same as Eugene, the committee reports.

Leaving for Portland—W. R. Huok, who has been employed as locomotive engineer at the Booth-Kelly line at Wendling, is leaving for Portland where he has accepted a position with the Willamette Iron and Steel works and will be on the road as salesman for the firm demonstrating the locomotives

Infant daughter, Cheshire, Patient—Admitted were George Kelsay, Eugene, and Martin Hansen, Eugene.

Here from Wendling District—John Downing, who is engaged in the dairy business in the vicinity of Wendling, was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Returns from Tillamook—Mrs. Jesse G. Wells has returned after a visit of about six weeks at the Wells summer home at Oceanside in Tillamook county.

Davis Home from Outing—E. R. Davis, steward at the chamber of commerce, is home from a month's outing at McCredle Springs and vicinity. He expects to go back in a few days to take a deer hunt with Jap Hills.

Fine Home Sold—L. H. Dory has sold his fine home to Dan E. Johnson of the Fair West Manufacturing company, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Johnson is from Albany. W. B. Cooper made the deal.

Returns from Outing—C. D. Donahue, of the Eugene hospital staff, accompanied by his wife and his mother, has returned after an outing of about two weeks in the vicinity of Silettoos lake.

I. P. Hewitt Here—I. P. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Eugene, but now living at Everett, Washington, is here for a few days looking after property he owns here. Mr. Hewitt is now in charge of all boy scout work in Everett.

Returns from Coos Bay District—W. E. Hodges, proprietor of the Eugene Steam laundry, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, has returned from a vacation trip by motor to Marshfield, Bandon, and other points in the Coos bay district.

Funeral of Drowned Boys to Be Held Thursday—The funeral of Cash and Clarence Willis, who were drowned near Cottage Grove Saturday night and whose bodies were found Sunday night, will be held at the Catholic church there Thursday at 9:30 A. M., by Rev. Father Curley, of Eugene.

Local Stockman in Hospital—Charles Taylor, local stock buyer, is at the Eugene hospital to undergo an operation today and will be confined for the next several days, according to a report from the hospital.

Wood Alcohol Drinker Released—Knut Anderson arrested a week ago while drunk on wood alcohol, was released from the county jail yesterday. He would go back to work in the logging camps and let the poison alone.

Man Has Hand Injured—J. B. Pruitt, employee of the Harry Busch road crew of Mabel, is receiving treatment for an injured hand as the result of being knocked down by a tourist car while he was at work on the highway.

Ralph Russell and Family Here—Ralph Russell, a former Morning Register typewriter operator, now employed at The Tallies, is here with his family on a vacation, having driven over from the eastern Oregon town in their car.

Party Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. George W. Mason and daughters Ruth and Edith, Miss Dorothy Knowles and her daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will spend about two weeks in the south.

Contributions Employees Return from Newport—Miss Amelia Metzger, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Johnston, and Miss Ethelyn Powers, employee in the office of County Assessor H. E. Walker, were at Newport over the week-end.

Schwering at Summer Cottage—H. A. Schwering, of the Schwering and Spicer barber shop on Ninth avenue east, is at his summer cottage at Belknap's bridge. He recently suffered an injury in an automobile accident, and has gone to the mountains to recuperate.

Daughter to Attend School—Mrs. Della Nichols, president of the Shady Brook Improvement club, of Gold Beach, is in town arranging for her daughter to enter the Methodist church. She states that library work of the club has been very successful and is greatly appreciated.

Myron Getchell Leaves—Myron Getchell, after a visit of three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Getchell, has left for Urbana, Ill., where he is employed in the library of the state university. His parents accompanied him as far as Portland and will visit there and drive to Seaside.

Work on Start on New Salesroom—The installation of a new plate glass front at the Willamette street property taken over from the Lake monument works by the E. C. Simmons Ford motor agency, will start September 1, according to Mr. Simmons. The lot in the rear of the place will be filled in order to run cars from the present quarters to the new salesroom.

Eugene People Numerous at Newport—The proprietor of one of the leading hotels at Newport stated Sunday that more Eugene people have registered at that house than from any other city in Oregon during the past summer. The hotels there are all enjoying a big business this year, due to the completion of the road which is now in good condition all the way from Corvallis.

Clinton Howard Returns to School—Clinton Howard, a prominent student in the school of Journalism at the university has arrived and plans to register at the opening of school. Howard was a member of the Emerald staff last year, and held the position of feature editor on the Sunday edition. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalism fraternity.

Membership Committee Has Meeting—A discussion for plans to increase the membership of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at a session of the membership committee of the association, headed by Fred Stickle. A canvass will be held later in the year and it is hoped to bring the enrollment up to a point on a par with other associations organized in cities with populations about the same as Eugene, the committee reports.

Leaving for Portland—W. R. Huok, who has been employed as locomotive engineer at the Booth-Kelly line at Wendling, is leaving for Portland where he has accepted a position with the Willamette Iron and Steel works and will be on the road as salesman for the firm demonstrating the locomotives

Infant daughter, Cheshire, Patient—Admitted were George Kelsay, Eugene, and Martin Hansen, Eugene.

Here from Wendling District—John Downing, who is engaged in the dairy business in the vicinity of Wendling, was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Returns from Tillamook—Mrs. Jesse G. Wells has returned after a visit of about six weeks at the Wells summer home at Oceanside in Tillamook county.

Davis Home from Outing—E. R. Davis, steward at the chamber of commerce, is home from a month's outing at McCredle Springs and vicinity. He expects to go back in a few days to take a deer hunt with Jap Hills.

Fine Home Sold—L. H. Dory has sold his fine home to Dan E. Johnson of the Fair West Manufacturing company, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Johnson is from Albany. W. B. Cooper made the deal.

Returns from Outing—C. D. Donahue, of the Eugene hospital staff, accompanied by his wife and his mother, has returned after an outing of about two weeks in the vicinity of Silettoos lake.

I. P. Hewitt Here—I. P. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Eugene, but now living at Everett, Washington, is here for a few days looking after property he owns here. Mr. Hewitt is now in charge of all boy scout work in Everett.

Returns from Coos Bay District—W. E. Hodges, proprietor of the Eugene Steam laundry, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, has returned from a vacation trip by motor to Marshfield, Bandon, and other points in the Coos bay district.

Funeral of Drowned Boys to Be Held Thursday—The funeral of Cash and Clarence Willis, who were drowned near Cottage Grove Saturday night and whose bodies were found Sunday night, will be held at the Catholic church there Thursday at 9:30 A. M., by Rev. Father Curley, of Eugene.

Local Stockman in Hospital—Charles Taylor, local stock buyer, is at the Eugene hospital to undergo an operation today and will be confined for the next several days, according to a report from the hospital.

Wood Alcohol Drinker Released—Knut Anderson arrested a week ago while drunk on wood alcohol, was released from the county jail yesterday. He would go back to work in the logging camps and let the poison alone.

Man Has Hand Injured—J. B. Pruitt, employee of the Harry Busch road crew of Mabel, is receiving treatment for an injured hand as the result of being knocked down by a tourist car while he was at work on the highway.

Ralph Russell and Family Here—Ralph Russell, a former Morning Register typewriter operator, now employed at The Tallies, is here with his family on a vacation, having driven over from the eastern Oregon town in their car.

Party Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. George W. Mason and daughters Ruth and Edith, Miss Dorothy Knowles and her daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will spend about two weeks in the south.

Contributions Employees Return from Newport—Miss Amelia Metzger, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Johnston, and Miss Ethelyn Powers, employee in the office of County Assessor H. E. Walker, were at Newport over the week-end.

Schwering at Summer Cottage—H. A. Schwering, of the Schwering and Spicer barber shop on Ninth avenue east, is at his summer cottage at Belknap's bridge. He recently suffered an injury in an automobile accident, and has gone to the mountains to recuperate.

Daughter to Attend School—Mrs. Della Nichols, president of the Shady Brook Improvement club, of Gold Beach, is in town arranging for her daughter to enter the Methodist church. She states that library work of the club has been very successful and is greatly appreciated.

Myron Getchell Leaves—Myron Getchell, after a visit of three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Getchell, has left for Urbana, Ill., where he is employed in the library of the state university. His parents accompanied him as far as Portland and will visit there and drive to Seaside.

Work on Start on New Salesroom—The installation of a new plate glass front at the Willamette street property taken over from the Lake monument works by the E. C. Simmons Ford motor agency, will start September 1, according to Mr. Simmons. The lot in the rear of the place will be filled in order to run cars from the present quarters to the new salesroom.

Eugene People Numerous at Newport—The proprietor of one of the leading hotels at Newport stated Sunday that more Eugene people have registered at that house than from any other city in Oregon during the past summer. The hotels there are all enjoying a big business this year, due to the completion of the road which is now in good condition all the way from Corvallis.

Clinton Howard Returns to School—Clinton Howard, a prominent student in the school of Journalism at the university has arrived and plans to register at the opening of school. Howard was a member of the Emerald staff last year, and held the position of feature editor on the Sunday edition. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalism fraternity.

Membership Committee Has Meeting—A discussion for plans to increase the membership of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at a session of the membership committee of the association, headed by Fred Stickle. A canvass will be held later in the year and it is hoped to bring the enrollment up to a point on a par with other associations organized in cities with populations about the same as Eugene, the committee reports.

Leaving for Portland—W. R. Huok, who has been employed as locomotive engineer at the Booth-Kelly line at Wendling, is leaving for Portland where he has accepted a position with the Willamette Iron and Steel works and will be on the road as salesman for the firm demonstrating the locomotives

Infant daughter, Cheshire, Patient—Admitted were George Kelsay, Eugene, and Martin Hansen, Eugene.

Here from Wendling District—John Downing, who is engaged in the dairy business in the vicinity of Wendling, was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Returns from Tillamook—Mrs. Jesse G. Wells has returned after a visit of about six weeks at the Wells summer home at Oceanside in Tillamook county.

Davis Home from Outing—E. R. Davis, steward at the chamber of commerce, is home from a month's outing at McCredle Springs and vicinity. He expects to go back in a few days to take a deer hunt with Jap Hills.

Fine Home Sold—L. H. Dory has sold his fine home to Dan E. Johnson of the Fair West Manufacturing company, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Johnson is from Albany. W. B. Cooper made the deal.

Returns from Outing—C. D. Donahue, of the Eugene hospital staff, accompanied by his wife and his mother, has returned after an outing of about two weeks in the vicinity of Silettoos lake.

I. P. Hewitt Here—I. P. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Eugene, but now living at Everett, Washington, is here for a few days looking after property he owns here. Mr. Hewitt is now in charge of all boy scout work in Everett.

Returns from Coos Bay District—W. E. Hodges, proprietor of the Eugene Steam laundry, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, has returned from a vacation trip by motor to Marshfield, Bandon, and other points in the Coos bay district.

Funeral of Drowned Boys to Be Held Thursday—The funeral of Cash and Clarence Willis, who were drowned near Cottage Grove Saturday night and whose bodies were found Sunday night, will be held at the Catholic church there Thursday at 9:30 A. M., by Rev. Father Curley, of Eugene.

Local Stockman in Hospital—Charles Taylor, local stock buyer, is at the Eugene hospital to undergo an operation today and will be confined for the next several days, according to a report from the hospital.

Wood Alcohol Drinker Released—Knut Anderson arrested a week ago while drunk on wood alcohol, was released from the county jail yesterday. He would go back to work in the logging camps and let the poison alone.

Man Has Hand Injured—J. B. Pruitt, employee of the Harry Busch road crew of Mabel, is receiving treatment for an injured hand as the result of being knocked down by a tourist car while he was at work on the highway.

Ralph Russell and Family Here—Ralph Russell, a former Morning Register typewriter operator, now employed at The Tallies, is here with his family on a vacation, having driven over from the eastern Oregon town in their car.

Party Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. George W. Mason and daughters Ruth and Edith, Miss Dorothy Knowles and her daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will spend about two weeks in the south.

Contributions Employees Return from Newport—Miss Amelia Metzger, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Johnston, and Miss Ethelyn Powers, employee in the office of County Assessor H. E. Walker, were at Newport over the week-end.

Schwering at Summer Cottage—H. A. Schwering, of the Schwering and Spicer barber shop on Ninth avenue east, is at his summer cottage at Belknap's bridge. He recently suffered an injury in an automobile accident, and has gone to the mountains to recuperate.

Daughter to Attend School—Mrs. Della Nichols, president of the Shady Brook Improvement club, of Gold Beach, is in town arranging for her daughter to enter the Methodist church. She states that library work of the club has been very successful and is greatly appreciated.

Myron Getchell Leaves—Myron Getchell, after a visit of three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Getchell, has left for Urbana, Ill., where he is employed in the library of the state university. His parents accompanied him as far as Portland and will visit there and drive to Seaside.

Work on Start on New Salesroom—The installation of a new plate glass front at the Willamette street property taken over from the Lake monument works by the E. C. Simmons Ford motor agency, will start September 1, according to Mr. Simmons. The lot in the rear of the place will be filled in order to run cars from the present quarters to the new salesroom.

Eugene People Numerous at Newport—The proprietor of one of the leading hotels at Newport stated Sunday that more Eugene people have registered at that house than from any other city in Oregon during the past summer. The hotels there are all enjoying a big business this year, due to the completion of the road which is now in good condition all the way from Corvallis.

Clinton Howard Returns to School—Clinton Howard, a prominent student in the school of Journalism at the university has arrived and plans to register at the opening of school. Howard was a member of the Emerald staff last year, and held the position of feature editor on the Sunday edition. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalism fraternity.

Membership Committee Has Meeting—A discussion for plans to increase the membership of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at a session of the membership committee of the association, headed by Fred Stickle. A canvass will be held later in the year and it is hoped to bring the enrollment up to a point on a par with other associations organized in cities with populations about the same as Eugene, the committee reports.

Leaving for Portland—W. R. Huok, who has been employed as locomotive engineer at the Booth-Kelly line at Wendling, is leaving for Portland where he has accepted a position with the Willamette Iron and Steel works and will be on the road as salesman for the firm demonstrating the locomotives

Infant daughter, Cheshire, Patient—Admitted were George Kelsay, Eugene, and Martin Hansen, Eugene.

Here from Wendling District—John Downing, who is engaged in the dairy business in the vicinity of Wendling, was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Returns from Tillamook—Mrs. Jesse G. Wells has returned after a visit of about six weeks at the Wells summer home at Oceanside in Tillamook county.

Davis Home from Outing—E. R. Davis, steward at the chamber of commerce, is home from a month's outing at McCredle Springs and vicinity. He expects to go back in a few days to take a deer hunt with Jap Hills.

Fine Home Sold—L. H. Dory has sold his fine home to Dan E. Johnson of the Fair West Manufacturing company, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Johnson is from Albany. W. B. Cooper made the deal.

Returns from Outing—C. D. Donahue, of the Eugene hospital staff, accompanied by his wife and his mother, has returned after an outing of about two weeks in the vicinity of Silettoos lake.

I. P. Hewitt Here—I. P. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Eugene, but now living at Everett, Washington, is here for a few days looking after property he owns here. Mr. Hewitt is now in charge of all boy scout work in Everett.

Returns from Coos Bay District—W. E. Hodges, proprietor of the Eugene Steam laundry, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, has returned from a vacation trip by motor to Marshfield, Bandon, and other points in the Coos bay district.

Funeral of Drowned Boys to Be Held Thursday—The funeral of Cash and Clarence Willis, who were drowned near Cottage Grove Saturday night and whose bodies were found Sunday night, will be held at the Catholic church there Thursday at 9:30 A. M., by Rev. Father Curley, of Eugene.

Local Stockman in Hospital—Charles Taylor, local stock buyer, is at the Eugene hospital to undergo an operation today and will be confined for the next several days, according to a report from the hospital.

Wood Alcohol Drinker Released—Knut Anderson arrested a week ago while drunk on wood alcohol, was released from the county jail yesterday. He would go back to work in the logging camps and let the poison alone.

Man Has Hand Injured—J. B. Pruitt, employee of the Harry Busch road crew of Mabel, is receiving treatment for an injured hand as the result of being knocked down by a tourist car while he was at work on the highway.

Ralph Russell and Family Here—Ralph Russell, a former Morning Register typewriter operator, now employed at The Tallies, is here with his family on a vacation, having driven over from the eastern Oregon town in their car.

Party Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. George W. Mason and daughters Ruth and Edith, Miss Dorothy Knowles and her daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will spend about two weeks in the south.

Contributions Employees Return from Newport—Miss Amelia Metzger, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Johnston, and Miss Ethelyn Powers, employee in the office of County Assessor H. E. Walker, were at Newport over the week-end.

Schwering at Summer Cottage—H. A. Schwering, of the Schwering and Spicer barber shop on Ninth avenue east, is at his summer cottage at Belknap's bridge. He recently suffered an injury in an automobile