

Morning Register Lane County News Service

S. P. Special on Tour
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 31.—Superintendent E. L. King, of the Southern Pacific railroad, accompanied by William Jankle, chief engineer, passed through here on the way to Coquille today. Returning from that place, the train was taken on an inspection trip up the Oakridge line.

Dorothy Hallin Returns
(Register Lane County Special)
SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Aug. 31.—Miss Dorothy Hallin, and her brother, who have been visiting their father at Oakridge, and friends here, left today for their home at Onalaska, Washington. They will return to Eugene, Ore., and together with Mr. Hallin's family, they will come down here to live next year.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)
CRESWELL, Ore., Aug. 31.—Miss Ruth Swire left Saturday morning for Portland to resume her work in the Portland schools. Mrs. Emma Weeks, with her grandson, Henry Schmitt, left for Newport today, where they will spend a couple of weeks enjoying the ocean breezes.

FLORENCE NEWS ITEMS
FLORENCE, Ore., Aug. 31.—Mrs. Ed Schleck and children, who have been living in Florence for the past three years, departed today for Kelso, Wash., to join Mr. Schleck who has been working there for several months.

The government lighthouse tender, Rose, arrived here Wednesday from the north and left Thursday for the vessel delivered supplies to the lighthouse at Heceta on the way down the coast.

Mrs. Robert Shelley and son left today for their home at Multnomah, after a few days' visit here with relatives.

Edwin Kyle went to Eugene on Thursday night and will be there a few days.

Mrs. E. R. McCormack of Hillsboro is visiting relatives on North Fork.

Quite a number of autos from outside points have been seen on the streets of Florence during the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. McClintock of Palo, Iowa, are the guests of Mr. McClintock's sister, Mrs. Yates. Lee Woodworth and Sylvester Tanner made a flying trip to Eugene today.

DODGE BROTHERS
DEALERS SELL
GOOD USED CARS

A Dodge Brothers Motor Car that has run ten or fifteen thousand miles is really just getting started in life. We have several of these right now and we know they are good for thousands of miles more of comfortable, dependable service.

Good Values
for Today—

5-pass. Dodge—Equipped with Hassler shock absorbers. Priced to sell—quick at $550.00

5-pass. Dodge—Late type car; looks 75% new. A bargain.

Dodge Roadster with any amount of extras. A splendid value.

Ford Delivery, electrically equipped. Worth the money.

HATHAWAY MOTOR COMPANY

You'll Be Surprised

SOON

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS
PAINTS
AND VARNISHES
SOLD HERE

We carry a large assortment of Sherwin-Williams Paints, Varnishes, Enamels, Stains, Shellacs, Driers, Fillers, etc.

Stop in and talk Paint with us

Quackenbush's
100 Ninth Avenue East

gene last Tuesday. They made the round trip in less than 12 hours and spent an hour in Eugene. Ralph Peterson returned this week from Klamath Falls, where he has been working for several months.

BLANCHY NEWS NOTES
(Register Lane County Special)
BLANCHY, Ore., Aug. 31.—Mrs. A. L. Taylor, Mrs. C. G. Abbey and children left Wednesday morning for Brookton's mineral baths, at Cloverdale.

E. E. Barrows also motored to Cloverdale to bring his wife and mother-in-law home.

Mrs. D. Bullock came in Monday to visit her parents for a few days. Frank Ellithorpe returned home from Portland Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Slayter and daughter, Merle Harper, Stuart Myers, Mrs. W. E. Slayter and Miss Ida Johnson, motored to Junction City Wednesday for peaches.

Joe Vincent spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hulbert.

Al Sterling of Junction City is helping W. E. Slayter on his new house for a few days.

DAILY MARKET REPORT

OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 31.—San Francisco's sharp decline of 1 1/2c per pound in butter Friday morning tended to send the "chill" down the back of the Portland butter market, and made a few of the jobbers wish that the Portland market had not shown so much strength. But no change in prices will be made at present, as the Portland market is a little short on butter. Now that San Francisco has started down hill, it would not surprise the local trade if he took another slump before recovering. The exact reason for the sharp Southern decline is not yet known here.

Eggs are not moving at all here. Apparently the market has not yet fully recovered from the oversupply of Eastern stuff thrown on it early in the week. Prices, however, are unchanged.

The cheese market is steady, and experiencing the usual pre-holiday business.

GOOD DEMAND FOR POULTRY

There is a lively pre-holiday demand for poultry. Light hens are easy to move at 14c and heavier at 24c. This time is expected to continue Saturday. Meats are just in the opposite condition. Veal is very hard to sell, and much of the stuff arriving is sour. Hogs also move slowly.

WATERMELON MARKET BETTER

The watermelon market was relieved Friday by the arrival of more cars from the South. Call for watermelons has been so brisk the past few warm days that the trade has had difficulty in keeping up with orders. Prices are unchanged. Honeydews, cantaloupes, casabas and ice cream melons are also moving out well.

BRIEF PRODUCE TRADE NOTES

Peach receipts heavy. Prices unchanged. Cantaloupes prices lowered 25c on standards. Huckleberries, 12 1/2c per pound. Tomatoes down to 85c for shipping. Ripe stuff lower. Sweet potatoes, 6c pound.

TOKAY GRAPES ARE IN MARKET

Second shipment of Tokay grapes for

MRS. COFFMAN
ILL SEVEN YEARS

Saved from an Operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sidell, Ill.—"I was a nervous wreck. I was suffering from a pain in my left side, which was almost unbearable, and I could not even let the bed clothing rest on my body at night. I had been sick for seven years, but not so bad until the last eighteen months, and had become so run-down that I cared for nobody, and would rather have died than live. I couldn't do my work without help, and the doctors told me that an operation was all there was left. I would not consent to that, so my husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged me to take it. I have taken fourteen bottles of it and I feel ten years younger. Life is full of hope. I do all my housework and had a large garden this year. I never will be without the Vegetable Compound in the house, and when my two little girls reach womanhood I intend to teach them to take it. I am never too busy to tell some suffering sister of my help, and you can use my name and letter to spread the good news of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."—Mrs. I. M. COFFMAN, R. B. 2, Sidell, Ill.

BIRKENHEAD BEITERATES
CRITICISMS OF WILSON

World Plan Termed "High-Minded But Idealistic"

HONOR EX-CHANCELLOR

Speaking Before Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, Earl Declares No One Can Prevent Statement

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 31.—Repeating his criticisms of Woodrow Wilson made first at Williamstown, Mass., Lord Birkenhead, former lord chancellor of Great Britain, today added that "we could not tell your president his credentials were unacceptable when he came to the peace table although we knew the American people would not back his high-minded but idealistic plan and we found our judgment sustained when the issue was placed before the American nation."

Lord Birkenhead spoke before a luncheon of the Rotary and Kiwanis club.

Wilson Responsible for League
"Without President Wilson many of the elements of the league of nations would never have been written into the treaty, and most certainly article 10, would never have been known," he said.

Lord Birkenhead spoke on the Versailles treaty and the league of nations.

American men stood and sang "God Save the King," for the earl of Birkenhead, who was the guest of honor at the luncheon.

The former lord chancellor of England thanked the Americans and declared he would declare "I shall, with the permission of the officers of your luncheon, cable the king concerning your most gracious act."

Earl Gets Applause
An outburst of applause greeted the earl when he turned the address of Secretary of State Hughes before the convention of the American bar association, as a very memorable speech and when he praised former President Wilson.

The earl's reference to President Wilson was the first public announcement uttered concerning the former chief of the world, who was taken to task for what he had said in a speech at Williamstown last Friday.

"Without retracting one word that I said in my Williamstown speech, I want to say that I have always rendered tribute to the sincerity and nobility which have determined every act of President Wilson," the earl declared. "He has sought nothing but that which was for the good of the world, and I have never said a single word of disparagement of that great man or uttered any belittling his ideals."

Wilson in Advance of Times
"President Wilson, however, was a man who lived far in advance of anything which the political life of the United States would permit," the earl added. The former chancellor declared he was not traveling 14,000 miles to make slighting remarks and admitted he had often been in trouble for his statements, but "no living man in Great Britain or the United States can keep me from saying that which I actually believe and decide to say."

STRIKE OF MINERS
WILL BEGIN TODAY
(Continued from page one)

pressing qualified satisfaction with the percentage increase in contract rates for mining coal. The operators said it would cost the consumer 75 cents more per ton in coal bills and that neither "private persons nor public officials" could assure an absorption of any part of the increase in transportation or distribution. The governor figured the total increased cost to be 50c a ton with 10c to come in reduced profits from the operators.

Treating the governor's third proposal, which in substance asked the union to drop the "check-off" demand, the operators consented to an arrangement by which the union leaders would be permitted to collect union dues in company offices, stating that this was being done now.

The union answer was an argument for the practice by which the employers would be required to hold out union dues from each employee's pay check and turn it over to local unions.

Washington Quiet
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The administration will make no move in the coal situation as long as there exists the basis for further conferences along the line laid out by Governor Pinchot, is was announced officially today after a conference between Chairman Hammond of the coal commission and President Coolidge. The government plan for emergency distribution will be held in abeyance. It was stated, while the miners and operators exhibit a willingness to continue negotiations.

Many Miners Quit
WILKESBARR, Pa., Aug. 31.—Thousands of miners in the Wyoming valley quit work today in obedience to the suspension order issued by the United Mine Workers because of the failure of the union leaders to work out a new wage scale to replace the one which expired tonight.

Smooth Pedestrians Wanted
Roads in the Home counties are said to be particularly bumpy. And in our opinion they will remain so until motorists exercise more discretion in selecting the pedestrians they put down as a top dressing.—The Pasing Show (London).

CHICAGO POTATO BIDS
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Potatoes weak; receipts, 58 cars; total United States shipments, 649. Idaho sacked, Rural, U. S. No. 1, $2.10; U. S. No. 2, $2.05; Minn. sacked, Early Ohio, U. S. No. 1, $1.65; U. S. No. 2, $1.60; Wis. sacked, round white, U. S. No. 1, $1.90; U. S. No. 2, $1.85; Neb. sacked, round white, U. S. No. 1, $2.25; U. S. No. 2, $2.20.

CHICAGO GRAIN FUTURES
(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—European news of a bullish character, along with higher cables, and strength in the box market gave a firm tone to the wheat market today. Toward the close, however, support fell off and values failed to retain an advance established earlier in the day. At the finish, while wheat was unchanged to 1/4c lower, with December 1-4/8c to $1.05, and May $1.10 1/4 to $1.10 3/4-7/8c; corn was up 1/8 to 1 1/8c; oats 1/8 to 1 1/4c higher, and provisions gained 5 to 15c.

KANSAS CITY WHEAT BIDS
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 31.—Wheat, No. 2 hard, $1.04-$1.10; No. 2 red, $1.08-$1.10; Sept. $1.05 asked; Dec. $1.02 1/4; May, $1.01 3/8 split asked. Corn, No. 3 white, $2.02 1/2-2c; No. 2 yellow, $2c; No. 3 yellow, $2.00 1/2-2c; No. 2 mixed, $2c; Sept. 78 7/8 bid; Dec. 63 3/4c asked; May, 64 7/8 split bid.

WORLD'S LARGEST DIRIGIBLE READY TO MAKE FIRST FLIGHT

Here is a photograph of the ZR-1 (Zeppelin Rigid No. 1), taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

Zeppelin Rigid No. 1, taken on the day she was launched from her cradle in the United States naval hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The world's largest dirigible will make her first flight shortly. The ship was assembled under the supervision of Commander R. D. Weyerbecker, United States navy, assisted by Captain Antoine Heine, of the Zeppelin Works, Friedrichshafen, Germany. They are shown in the control basket of the airship.

TODAY!

(at 1:30 P. M.)

ABSOLUTE AUCTION SALE of Valuable Building Sites at

Driverton

(Alder, Mill, 17th to 25th Streets)

Again We Say

This is an absolute unreserved sale
That every lot offered will positively be sold
Without Reserve, Regardless of Price

That Means Bargains

And quite profitable for those who attend and buy

But Remember

This will be a one day sale only;
That today is the only opportunity
you will ever have to buy at your own price

The Sale Takes Place at 1:30 p.m.

On the property, under large tent
At Alder and 22nd Sts.

If you have $25 and can put aside $10 a month this is your opportunity, so attend the sale today and buy.

Barry & Austin

37-9th W. Phone 667

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE THEATRES TODAY.
Helling—Tom Mix in "Just Tony," a whirlwind romance of an unusual horse; comedy, "Cupid's Elephant." Pathe News; one of the beautiful Oregon made Raiser art scenes, "The Royal Chinkook." Topics of the Day.

Rox—Last day, "The Silent Partner," a big new drama of life and Wall Street, featuring Leatrice Joy, Owen Moore and Robert Edison, and adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story by Maxmillian Foster; Rex comedy, "Stick Around," with Ernest Truex; Felix, the animated kiddy, in "Felix in Hollywood"; Rouner, organist, in musical settings on the organ.

Castle—Gloria Swanson in the gorgeous sensation, "Blue Beard's Eighth Wife," her newest and most dazzling creation; comedy, Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven in "Twin Husbands."

Origin of a Great Idea
The cuff on the bottom of trousers came in this way. A Scotchman had been out in a rain and had turned up his trousers at the bottom. When he returned he found he had lost a sixpence. He looked everywhere for it, but in vain. That night, when retiring, the cuff fell out of the fold. The next day he had all the trousers "cuffed," and the tailor, discovering the reason, soon built up a big business.—Christian Advocate.

Prevents Constipation
if properly administered. The best, safest and most scientific method that we have found, is the invention of the eminent Specialist, Charles A. Tyrrell, M.D., of New York city, and is called "J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Call and let us explain it in detail.—Carroll's Pharmacy, 783 Willamette, Eugene; also Junction City.

"J. B. L. CASCADE"

Canning Pears and Peaches

Order your pears where you know you will get the best the market offers. Let us know now how many you want—we will look after the rest. The housewife who plans for next winter will be sure to put up pears several different ways—pickled, preserved and for sauce. Pears add much to the fruit salad, have some on hand for next winter.

The bulk of the Crawford peach crop is gone, but bertas and Muirs will be coming on and many prefer the later varieties. Better hurry with orders.

Home-Grown Muskmelons

You will welcome the news that the delicious home-grown muskmelons are again on the market. If you have never tried any, why not order some today as a treat. This year's crop has a fine flavor.

Canned Grapefruit Has Excellent Flavor

Fresh grapefruit is hard to get at this season. The canned grapefruit is put up in the country where it is grown and retains its natural flavor. One can is equal to three large grapefruits.

Many Vegetables Fresh from Local Gardens

Tomatoes, green peppers, cabbage and onions from the garden. Summer squash in several varieties—crook-neck, golden hubbard, dark hubbard and bannan. Everything for the pickling season—cucumbers, onions, cauliflower and fresh dill. Many other cooling vegetables to choose from. Fresh coconuts are here too. Apples, red raspberries, strawberries, local nectarine, peach plums and white grapes offer a variety of fruit to select from.

Imported Goods Still Winning Favor

Still more people are delighted with the imported Cresca delicacies, and Huntley-Palmers cakes and cookies. Have you tried the delicious breakfast "Acorn" and "Orange quarters" cookies are winning favor for afternoon teas.

The Table Supply Co.

L. D. PIERCE, Proprietor