

Fall WRAPS

That Will Lead the Way for Style ::::

There's a certain swing about many of the New Fall Wraps that admirably lends their use to either dress or sports wear.

Many of them are fur-trimmed and three-quarter length. There's a full measure of comfort and fashion—rightness in their widely flared lines.

LARGE'S

865 Willamette Street

Florence Is Waiting for You—Join the Excursion, Enjoy the Sea Food Dinner

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Visit Few Days in Portland — Miss Sarah and Florence LeVan left yesterday for a few days' visit in Portland.

visiting for a few days at the home of her uncle, E. L. Knapp, on South Alder street.

Dan Holbridge in City — Dan Holbridge, well-known farmer of Ester, was a business visitor in Eugene yesterday.

Montana People Here — Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoover, of Lewiston, Mont., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Heard.

Speeder Is Fined — J. E. Sheridan was fined $15 in the city court yesterday for speeding his car on Eighth avenue.

Attends Presbytery — Rev. Wm. J. Large leaves this morning for Brownsville, where he will attend a meeting of the Willamette presbytery.

Stratton Drives to Portland — L. D. Stratton, of Deadwood, S. D., went to Portland in his car yesterday, expecting to return today.

Here from McKenzie Bridge — Harry G. Hayes, veteran trapper and guide of the upper McKenzie river district, was a Eugene business visitor yesterday.

Visiting at Newport — Will Landra, of the Gray's Cash and Carry store here, accompanied by his family, is at Newport on a vacation of a week.

New Feed Chopper Is Ready — The new feed chopper installed at the Grangers' Eugene warehouse is now ready for operation and will probably be started today, according to W. R. Lord, manager.

Visits Uncle Here — Miss Margaret Knapp, of Aurora, Ore., is visiting for a few days at the home of her uncle, E. L. Knapp, on South Alder street.

Florence Is Waiting for You—Join the Excursion, Enjoy the Sea Food Dinner

there is only one way for a straw to blow this week
----- OUT!

Saturday - - - - the 15th - - - - is the last day for any man for any straw.

Sunday - - - every neighbor - - - every one of your friends - - - every man you like - - - every man you don't speak to - - - will be wearing a Fall hat - - - and with all this competition - - - yours should be a new one.

beginning at the bottom price, $4, we start a style bombardment - - - and becoming you is our forte. all the new shades - - - we need them to go with all these new Fall suits.

new Schoble Fall Hats $4 to $10

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear
"one of Eugene's best stores"

The chopper is one of the most modern type and will add much to the facilities of the local warehouse, Mr. Lord states.

Mrs. Poe and Son Here — Mrs. H. E. Poe, wife of a lumberman at Penn, accompanied by her son, arrived here yesterday and is at the Smeed.

Visit at Seaside — Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Barrett are on a vacation of two weeks at Seaside and Portland and plan to return here the latter part of next week.

On Business Trip to Salem — E. C. Wilfert, proprietor of the Mo-lawk wood yard, spent yesterday on a business trip to Salem and returned here last evening.

One Marriage License Issued — A marriage license was issued at the office of County Clerk Bryson yesterday to Walter L. Perry and Blanche E. Meany, both of Eugene.

Forest Service Employee Here — Felix Sparks, who has charge of the office work of the forest service at McKenzie Bridge, was here yesterday to have some dental work done.

Grass on Vagrant Lots Burned — The Southern Pacific company yesterday had a crew of men at work burning the dry grass on its vacant lots at Eleventh avenue and Olive street.

E. B. Kingman to Return Saturday — E. B. Kingman, local timber dealer, who has been in California on a business trip for the past several days, is expected to return here Saturday.

Teacher in High School Here — Mrs. Mary Hahn, teacher in the Walker high school, was a visitor in Eugene yesterday. She was graduated from the state college at Corvallis last June.

Here from Marcola — Mrs. John Holstrom, of Marcola, was a local business visitor yesterday. Mrs. Holstrom has just returned after a visit of a week at Battle Ground, Wash., and at Portland.

Leaves for Eastern Oregon — D. C. Wheat, accompanied by his wife, has left for Eastern Oregon where he has farming interests and during the next two weeks will look after the harvesting of his crops.

Not a Stockman Here — D. C. Evans, of Noll, raises fine livestock and much of it at a high price. He was in the city from his place yesterday and inquired about entries at the county fair.

Florence Jaunt Boosted at Cottage Grove — J. S. Magidary and Melvin Hansen were at Cottage Grove yesterday to boost the sale of tickets for the annual excursion to Florence which is scheduled for tomorrow.

Rev. A. L. Crim Here — Rev. A. L. Crim, formerly pastor of the First Christian church, is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Carl Keopke. He will speak at the prayer meeting at the Christian church tonight.

Archibald Knowles Hurt — Archibald Knowles, of Cottage Grove, is in the city for a few days. He is walking with a crutch as a result of injuring a muscle in one of his legs while performing athletic stunts at London springs a few days ago.

Western Lane Resident in City — Charles Beers, of Indian creek valley, was an arrival in the city yesterday. Mr. Beers is one of the leading citizens of that locality. He conferred with the county court yesterday afternoon regarding roads and bridges.

New Motorcycle Arrives — A model of the new Ace motorcycle which will be handled here by the Smith Cycle company has arrived and will be on display at the local establishment in the near future, according to Yale Smith, proprietor.

Marshfield Visitor Leaves — Mrs. C. F. Doane, of Marshfield, who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, left yesterday for her home. Mrs. Doane has been the guest here of her mother, Mrs. Madge Worley, 1907 Third avenue west.

Curry County Visitors Leave — Mr. and Mrs. William Hurst, of Port Orford, Curry county, who spent several days here last week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pursley, were here yesterday on their return from Portland on their way to their home.

Back from Alaska — Willie Kays and Kenneth Moore, of this city, returned yesterday from Alaska where they spent the summer months at Ketchikan working in the salmon industry. Kays is leaving for Los Angeles where he will enter an optical school.

Church Is Being Repainted — Work on the repainting and repair of the Evangelical church at the corner of Blair boulevard and Sixth avenue west, is nearing completion. The church will have an attractive appearance both interior and exterior with the new improvements, church officials report.

Dalton to Leave for Portland — R. Dalton, interne at the Eugene hospital, is leaving for Portland where he will enter the University of Oregon medical school. Donald Lawson, of Portland, student at the University of Oregon here, has joined the Eugene hospital staff as interne.

New Home to Be Built — Hugh Ford will start work on the construction of a new home at the site recently purchased at Twenty-second avenue and Potter street from the Lane County Investment company. The sale of the lot was handled by G. E. Lehman, of the Prescott Realty company.

Here from California — Mr. and Mrs. Marion Watson, of Santa Anna, California, have arrived here to spend a month or more visiting with their son, Larry Watson. Mr. Watson is a friend of Dan Masters, of this city, they having both been members of the Elks' band at Santa Anna when Mr. Masters made his home in California.

Here from Reed — Mr. and Mrs. George Beard, of the Reed district, were local visitors yesterday. A new home now under construction on the Beard farm is nearing completion. About a year ago the Beard home was destroyed by fire.

Here from Gold Hill — Mrs. Ella Short, of Gold Hill, arrived here yesterday to visit with Mrs. H. Hendershot for an indefinite stay.

Oakridge Lumberman Here — J. E. Carillo, formerly road foreman for the government above Oakridge and now engaged in the lumber business near there, is in the city for a day or so.

Farm Tract Purchased — James D. Nichol, of Walton, has sold his farm tract of several acres in that vicinity to Charles A. Davis. Mr. Nichol is purchasing a new farm of about 40 acres in the Walton district.

Discharged from Mercy Hospital — Patients discharged yesterday from the Mercy hospital were Burl Green of Marcola, Mrs. Frances Baker of Springfield and Mrs. Eleanor Chisum and infant daughter of Eugene.

Lost Creek People Here — Ira Mathews and family and William Mathews, of the Lost Creek valley, were in the city yesterday. They report that logging and milling operations are still quite active in that locality.

Returns from Coast Visit — Miss Cecile McAllister, daughter of Professor E. H. McAllister, has returned after a trip of three weeks spent at Pacific City and at Portland where she visited with friends.

Black Bear Killed — George Roemhill, of Lorne, yesterday brought to Eugene the carcass of a small black bear which he caught in a trap on the headwaters of the Siuslaw river. The animal weighed about 250 pounds.

Californians Move Here — C. H. Lake and son, Preston Lake, wife and son, formerly of Escondido, California, have moved to Eugene and purchased the property at 1361 Pearl street where they will reside. Mr. Lake has also purchased other property here.

Hospital Superintendent Returns — Miss Katherine Talty, superintendent of the Eugene hospital, has returned to duty after a vacation trip of two weeks visiting at Portland and Seaside. Mrs. Ruth Sigman has been in charge of the hospital during the absence of Miss Talty.

Report of Loss Is Made — Dr. R. H. Fields reported to the police last night that he had left a pilot light for an automobile on the curb near his car while it was parked on Eighth avenue west near William street and that during his absence the light had been taken.

Returns from Michigan — C. D. Thorpe, debate coach and instructor in public speaking at the University of Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. Thorpe, has returned from Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he has spent the past summer taking advanced work at the University of Michigan.

New Phone Directory Planned — A new telephone directory is being made up for this district by the officials of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The forms will close September 30, according to notices sent out and all subscribers are asked to notify the company of any changes desired in the new publication.

Mill Worker Injured — Mike Robison, an employee of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company at Springfield on the night shift, was brought to the Eugene hospital early this morning suffering from a bruise on the head. It was not known whether the skull was fractured or not. Mr. Robison was conscious only part of the time, was the report.

Sunday School Class Organized — A new Sunday school class for young men has been organized at Central Presbyterian church with a membership at present of 19. Frank Eberhart, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., is temporary teacher of the class until a permanent teacher is appointed, according to announcement of church officials.

Returns from Los Angeles — H. P. Love, of the Love and Barrett department store, returned yesterday from Los Angeles after a visit of about two weeks. Carl Love, his son, who last year was here and attended the Eugene high school, has returned with his father and after a short visit here will leave for Moscow, Idaho, where he will enter the University of Idaho where he will study forestry.

Long Beach Asks Auto D-1 — Word has been received at the Eugene chamber of commerce from the motor laws committee of the Long Beach, California chamber of commerce, requesting data on the auto parking laws of Eugene and information on how the code made with the approval of the public and the merchants. A revision of the motor laws of Long Beach is contemplated, according to the communication received.

Captain McClure to Leave — Captain Walter McClure, United States army, who has been visiting with his mother, Mrs. O. Bennett, of the River road during the summer months, is planning to leave for Camp Benning, Georgia, September 18. Captain McClure is a former University of Oregon student and was prominent in athletics at the local institution. The captain came here from Plattsburg Barracks, New York, on a leave of absence.

Residence Property Is Bought — Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Bouck have purchased the Redmond home at 1784 Columbia street and will make their home there. Mr. and Mrs. Bouck came here from The Dalles and during the summer have attended the special session of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Bouck will teach at the Geary school during the coming year. The Redmonds are building a new home at Seventeenth avenue east and Moss street. The deal was handled by Kelley Branstetter of the Berger Realty office.

Orchestra Leaves for Florence — A local orchestra composed of Alf Dillard, Bert Ruth, Buford Roach and Charles Runyan leave today for Florence where they will play both afternoon and evening during

Florence Is Waiting for You—Join the Excursion, Enjoy the Sea Food Dinner

Order Your Winter Blankets by Mail—We Pay the Postage

Pendleton
Robes

McMorrane Washburne Store

Beacon
Blankets

Thrifty Buyers Will Supply Winter Blanket Needs Now

—And Naturally from the Immense Stocks of This Great Blanket Store.

THE chill of Autumn nights just around the corner. Won't there be plenty of satisfaction in knowing you have plenty of warm, fluffy Blankets to snuggle under? The prudent buyer will surely attend to this important matter right away. We've prepared great stocks of wonderfully fine blankets for your selection. Beautiful colorings in all weights and sizes in cotton, wool mixed and all pure wool. When you compare their splendid qualities with others at same and even higher prices, you will readily see the importance of selecting your blankets at this store.

66x80 Wool Mixed Blankets $4.95 Pair

Soft, fleecy wool mixed Blankets, in handsome big plaids of pink, blue, gray and tan. An extra heavy blanket that will give maximum service and warmth. Priced low at $4.95 pair.

56x80 Woolnap Blankets $6.50 Pair

Warmth without weight is the feature of this splendid woolnap blanket. Shown in beautiful tans and grays with pink or blue ribbon bindings; launder beautifully; full double bed size—$6.50 pair.

72x84 Woolnap Blankets $5.95 Pair

Please note the extra large sizes, 72x84; medium weight woolnap blankets in a variety of handsome blue plaids, tan and blue, and gray and pink combinations. Neatly finished blanket stitch ends—$5.95.

100 Pairs Fine Cotton Double Blankets, Size 54x72, $1.98 Pair

Excellent weight Blankets. Made of finest Sea Island cotton. Colors are gray with pink and blue striped ends, and tan with pink and blue borders.

66x80 Woolnap Blankets $5.75 Pair

Extra heavy weight fine woolnap blankets in handsome large plaids of tan and blue, gray and pink and blue. Neatly finished ends.

70x80 Woolnap Blankets $4.95 Pair

A soft fleecy Blanket of medium weight in a good variety of pretty colorings. Note the extra large size. A splendid value at $4.95 pair.

64x76 Cotton Blankets $2.48

Double Cotton Blankets, good weight. There's a variety of neat colorings. All carefully finished ends. A very satisfactory blanket for a low price—$2.48 pair.

70x80 Cotton Blankets $2.98 Pair

Note the extra large size. This is an extra heavy double Blanket. Colors are gray and tan with contrasting borders. You'll agree the price is low when you see the good quality.

100 Pairs Cotton Sheet Blankets, Size 60x79, at $1.19

Full double bed size Cotton Sheet Blankets of good weight; in colors of brown with pink borders, brown and blue, gray and pink, and gray and blue; neatly stitched ends; underpriced at $1.19 pair. On sale in basement.

Baby Crib Blankets $1.00

Size about 30x40; in pink and blue with pretty designs of bunnies, chicks, etc. Priced low at $1.00 each.

Heavy Crib Blankets $1.75

Size 36x50; heavy "Beacon" Crib Blankets; in a variety of pretty designs and colorings. These pretty baby blankets make splendid gifts.

Pure Virgin Wool "Pendleton" Bed Blankets $10.50

Genuine Yellowstone National Park Blankets, made by the Pendleton Mills. Wonderfully soft and fleecy blankets in white with gayly colored stripes throughout; full double bed size.

60x80 All Pure Wool Blankets $9.00 Pair

In colors of silver, gray and white with blue borders. A fine warm blanket that will give utmost satisfaction.

McMorrane Washburne Store
FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY
LANE COUNTY'S GREAT BLANKET STORE

the three days of the annual western Lane fair which opens today.

Entries coming in — A large number of entries of exhibits for the Lane county fair are coming in every day, according to report at the office of W. A. Ayres, secretary of the fair, at the court-house. Entries are being made in practically every department.

Kerron to Return — S. M. Kerron, city and county health officer, and Mrs. Kerron are expected to return here today after a motor trip of several days in the Coast bay district where they have been the guests of friends.

Whitten Swaffords to Return — Word has been received here by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Whitten Swafford that they will leave Merkel, Texas for their home here today. Mr. and Mrs. Swafford have been visiting relatives of Mr. Swafford in various parts of Texas for the past several weeks.

Business Names Are Filed — The certificate of the assumed business name, Wing Motor company, has been filed for the past several weeks.

(Continued on page 7, column 4)