

Morning Register Lane County News Service

Ladies' Mission Circle to Meet (Register Lane County Special) VENETA, Ore., Oct. 19.—The Ladies' Mission circle will meet next Thursday, October 25, with Mrs. Ralph McCutcheon. This is a week earlier than the regular time, but Miss Harlow, of Eugene, is expected to be present and address the meeting. A social hour and light refreshments will follow the address. All are welcome.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) CRESWELL, Ore., Oct. 19.—Little Margaret Olson celebrated her birthday number five on Friday afternoon by giving a party to her friends. They played games and had birthday cakes and a most happy time.

The chimney of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bearby burned out Friday evening, giving a spectacular pyrotechnic display that attracted several of the neighbors who came ready to help if needed, but no damage was done.

ELMIRA NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) ELMIRA, Ore., Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moade spent Thursday afternoon at the J. F. Moade home near Bear Creek. They were accompanied home by their little niece, Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Buchanan and daughter, Lucile, spent Wednesday night and Thursday at the R. R. Rust home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moade.

Dorothy Simpson, Nieta and Grandpa Horn returned home Friday from Harrisburg where they have been visiting for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moade motored to Eugene Friday.

Quite a number from Elmira attended the public sale Friday at the C. A. Stephens place near Crow.

J. W. White is reported as no better at this writing. A doctor was summoned from Junction City, but as yet has given no relief.

Warren Lamb returned to Linslaw Thursday to finish building his cabin and do some other work on his homestead.

Mrs. J. C. Horn and her son-in-law, Cliff Freeman, motored to Eugene Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Freeman are staying at Grandpa and Grandma Horn's place during the latter's absence and caring for the property and stock.

Three men who have been camped near Elmira for a day or so, were taken into custody Friday morning. They are supposed to be the men who escaped from the Jackson county jail a few days ago.

CROW NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) CROW, Ore., Oct. 15.—Alice Kraal spent the week-end with relatives at Elmira.

G. L. Holloway, of the firm of Kraal and Holloway, made a business trip to Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. R. L. Hays recently purchased a new Star touring car.

Mary Stephens, Darwin Darnwood and Marion Canaday were absent from school Tuesday.

The Crow high school has announced a hall-entertainment to be given at the Crow hall October 27.

George Butler, who has been hauling lumber for Kraal and Holloway, spent Sunday at Creswell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lord spent Sunday at the C. M. Stephens home.

Obituary Charles Edgar Lambert was born at Danesville, Delaware county, Indiana, July 20, 1865.

Here he lived and spent most of his busy life, until about four years ago, when he came to Oregon, finally settling in Springfield.

He early chose teaching as his profession and taught in Indiana for about twenty years, serving in various capacities, at one time being township trustee at Muncy, Indiana, a position corresponding to our superintendent of schools, and having 33 teachers under his supervision.

For a number of years he also held pastorates of various churches in connection with his school work, being pastor of the United Brethren churches at the following places: Lincolnville, Wabash, Noblesville, Marion and Fortville, all in the state of Indiana.

He was regularly ordained a minister in the United Brethren church nine years ago at Indianapolis, Indiana.

Four years ago he came to Oregon, and was principal of the school at Klamath Falls for two years, and then came to Springfield and served in the schools in a like capacity and for a like period.

This last summer he took some further training at our normal school at Monmouth and was to have continued this winter, having secured a position in the school, but on September 27, only three days after the school opened, he was forced to come home, having taken sick. This sickness proved to be unto death, the end coming on the evening of October 18, at the age of 58 years.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife and four children, resident of this city, and three children resident of Indiana, and one in Wyoming; two brothers in Indiana, one in Los Angeles, Cal., one in New York city, and one sister in Indiana, besides a multitude of friends whom his high ideals and exalted Christian character have won for him.

His life has told for righteousness, and as was said of one long ago, "He, being dead, yet speaketh."

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the home of Mrs. E. G. Buchanan.

Blachly Personal (Register Lane County Special) BLACHLY, Ore., Oct. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Rust, who have been working in California the past three months, came home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown, of Leeds, North Dakota, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barrows. Mrs. Brown is Mr. Barrows' half-sister.

Joe Vincent was a guest Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hulbert.

Frank Ellithorpe was a business visitor in Junction City Tuesday evening.

George Billings, of Lebanon, came in Wednesday evening to visit his mother and family a few days.

Herman Steinhauer and wife, of Greenleaf, passed through Blachly enroute to Junction City for a few days.

Lela Syphers is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Bailey, of Mabel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ferguson and children called on Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hulbert Thursday evening.

CUSHMAN NEWS NOTES (Register Lane County Special) CUSHMAN, Ore., Oct. 19.—Dad Gibbs, George Gibbs and daughter, Lydia, spent the week-end at the ranch at Siltoos.

Mrs. Larsen, of Marshfield, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Saubert, and getting acquainted with her grandson.

Mrs. Burke Wright is in the Mercy hospital in Eugene recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Fete Able and nephew, Harold Able, spent the week-end in North Bend with relatives.

Miss Ethel Erhardt, of Siltoos, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Roy Saubert.

Burke Wright spent a few days in Eugene the first of the week.

The Mary Hanlon arrived here Wednesday and departed Friday evening with a cargo of lumber from the Vaughn and Bester mill at Cushman.

Special Exercises at Church

HARRISBURG, Ore., Oct. 20.—(Special to the Register)—Very special exercises will be rendered at the Church of Christ this Sunday morning when Mrs. Viola F. Knott, wife of Rev. Knott, the pastor, will render the well-known church hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee." At the opening of the preaching services, as a special musical selection, Mrs. Knott is especially well fitted for the rendering of vocal solos. It is also fitting that she is relative of the author of the song, Sarah F. Adams, the relation to the writer of this hymn being direct.

CALF CLUBS WIN AWARDS

HARRISBURG BAYS AND GIRLS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

HARRISBURG, Ore., Oct. 20.—(Special to the Register)—Complete returns of the winners of the local Holstein calf club with their entries at the recent state fair shows the following awards to the Harrisburg boys and girls:

Ted McCart received the third prizes on both the open and the junior bull calf and in the club.

Luella McCart received fourth prize for junior heifer in club.

Edgar Grimes took the third prize for a senior heifer in club.

Randall Grimes was awarded fifth prize for his junior yearling in club.

This year the home calf club was entered at the fair against some of the strongest opposing contenders that has ever been entered, it might be said, at any fair in the Northwest. The interest this year was never more keen among the various raisers of livestock. The exhibitors at the fair were extended an elaborate banquet at which time Governor Pierce gave his hearty approval to the plan of erecting a separate building next year for calf club exhibits.

The winning calf of Ted McCart's has been sold to Eastern Oregon parties for $100.
