

Interesting News Notes From the Schools of Eugene and Many Upper Willamette Valley Communities

University High News Notes

The Day of Thanksgiving. Final Exams December First. Program at Music Building. King Cotton Holds Reign.

News Staff Editor... William Black. Assistant Editor... Katherine Morse. Business Manager... Robert Goodall.

In English class. We study so hard. To beat the mass. That writes for the Guard.

They're pretty keen. But we are keener. Their stories are mean. But ours are meaner.

Once each year all America gives thanks to the God who has watched over them and their country.

So eager was the individual to become educated that he persistently came promptly to school every morning and entered each class as though searching for the most desirable one.

But as University High school has a waiting list, and Spot's name was not at the top, he was repeatedly put out of the building.

The sixth annual high school conference which is always held in Eugene, is to convene on the campus December 3rd and 4th of this year.

A net profit of $5.50 was made by the five girls of the junior class who sold candy at the public market last Saturday.

Students of the eight o'clock biology class conducted by E. R. Means, migrated to Deady hall Monday morning.

The basket ball squad has been practicing hard lately, getting ready for the new coach, who will take charge next Tuesday.

Volley ball was started in the eleventh and twelfth grade gym classes under the supervision of Miss Darvaut.

Projects are the topic of the day in the eight o'clock general science class under the supervision of Lewis H. Carlson.

Hand colored slides, showing Oregon's native birds, were shown in both biology classes last Wednesday.

The seventh and eighth grades are giving a bookshelf play, December 3, and every one is to represent a character in some book.

Those on the program committee are: Harriet Brigham, Chairman, Donald Goodall, Madeline Gilbert, and Selwyn Myers.

The cast for "Overtones" a one act play to be given later in the year, has been chosen by Mrs. Assenheimer and Miss Booth.

King Cotton with all his subjects ruled supreme in the assembly room at one o'clock Tuesday.

A very ill tempered law entered under the name of Mr. Fugate the slave law, but was immediately annulled by the sergeant-at-arms.

John Brown told of his attack on the arsenal at Harper's Ferry. The king ordered him to hang on a rope until dead or black and blue in the face.

The court threw the sentenced man perfumed wisps of handkerchiefs. The Civil war entered with a little noise as could be expected for one of such proportions.

"The Americans in France" is a set of slides shown to the eighth grade American history class under the supervision of Miss Klocker.

The boys physics class of University high school have decided to build models of dirigibles, airplanes, submarines, etc.

So eager was the individual to become educated that he persistently came promptly to school every morning and entered each class as though searching for the most desirable one.

Plans for the improvement of stage facilities in the auditorium are under way. New and more convenient exits are being planned.

The students in Mr. Wooten's two o'clock United States history class have been requested to subscribe to the Literary Digest.

Each Saturday until after Christmas sales of different kinds will be given by groups from the junior class. This money is being earned to pay for settings and lighting effects for "the junior scrap bag."

More interest must be shown in the girl's basketball, or practice will have to be discontinued as enough players have not turned out to make a team.

Three minute tests are being given to the pupils of the first year typing classes. To have one's name on the honor roll one must write for three minutes with one or no mistakes.

Thanksgiving menus in French were brought to class Tuesday by the students of junior I French. Some of the menus along with diagrams of tables set for the festive occasion were put on the black board.

Special pictures of France, obtained from Mrs. Edith Pattee, head of the language department, were shown to the members of the seventh grade geography class.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The first year Latin class under the supervision of Miss Kaufman, could be heard breaking forth into song Wednesday morning at eight o'clock.

A special talk was given by Erimadane Rorer, Wednesday, in the senior III French class, on French customs. Some of the facts included were table manners, serving food, etc.

Fred Huntington, a member of the junior class is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at his home in Mapleton.

During the summer Fred became acquainted with some of the Scouts, in the Scout camp across the river, who attended the University high school.

Plans for the improvement of stage facilities in the auditorium are under way. New and more convenient exits are being planned.

The students in Mr. Wooten's two o'clock United States history class have been requested to subscribe to the Literary Digest.

Each Saturday until after Christmas sales of different kinds will be given by groups from the junior class. This money is being earned to pay for settings and lighting effects for "the junior scrap bag."

More interest must be shown in the girl's basketball, or practice will have to be discontinued as enough players have not turned out to make a team.

Three minute tests are being given to the pupils of the first year typing classes. To have one's name on the honor roll one must write for three minutes with one or no mistakes.

Thanksgiving menus in French were brought to class Tuesday by the students of junior I French. Some of the menus along with diagrams of tables set for the festive occasion were put on the black board.

Special pictures of France, obtained from Mrs. Edith Pattee, head of the language department, were shown to the members of the seventh grade geography class.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

Girls Debate Oxford Boys

Louise McCabe, White Plains, N. Y., Elizabeth Sweeney, Washington, and Laura Kramer, Chicago, have been picked at Wellesley College to argue with the Oxford University wranglers.

spend Thanksgiving vacation with her parents and friends. She will return to Eugene next Sunday night.

"And the huge and fierce nail didn't fly gracefully at the lock, and didn't even pry upon it until the lock was stricken unto defeat, and didn't loosen its hold upon the clasp, whereupon the mysterious commander at the nail was allowed free entrance upon the interior of the University high school gym."

However if the identity of the marauder can be determined he is likely to find himself in trouble, for although there was no school equipment in the gym at the time, the offense is a serious one, and is punishable by the law.

The attendance of all rooms has The English classes are beginning to study new classics, seniors, "Henry Bonford," juniors, "The Comedy of the Tempest," sophomores, "The Ancient Mariner," and the freshmen, "The Lady of the Lake."

The short vacation during Thanksgiving, may come quite handy since the teachers are in English-I have been learning Keat's Robin Hood as December's memory selection. The class found some stories about the famous outlaw interesting to read in class.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Hoop Team Makes Showing. Whooping Cough Epidemic. English Classes Study Classics. Oregon History Delivered Into.

Register Lane County Special) WALKER, Ore., Nov. 28.—School is closed this week because of a case of scarlet fever in Saginaw. It will continue Monday if no new cases develop.

The basketball teams are very much elated over the result of their first basketball games in the home gym. The girls won over the Drain high school girls 18 to 11.

"Hurrah! for a gym floor!" This is the glad cry of the students who have been playing on the dirt floor for four years. The gymnasium has never been finished and at a school meeting Monday night it was voted to floor it, better cracks and put in windows.

The students have been working and boosting and the student body will contribute a certain sum for one or two years. We only hope

The short vacation during Thanksgiving, may come quite handy since the teachers are in English-I have been learning Keat's Robin Hood as December's memory selection. The class found some stories about the famous outlaw interesting to read in class.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

need of a little time to regain their voices that they have about worn out trying to make themselves heard above the coughing.

been quite irregular during the last couple of weeks on account of the whooping cough.

The sixth and seventh grades are diligently working together on the study of the history of Oregon.

The fifth and sixth grade physiology classes are constructing appropriate posters to emphasize the work that they pass over.

The teachers returned from the institute with numerous new ideas, some of which they are practicing on the pupils and students who are standing the tests admirably.

There are several severe colds among the children of the primary room, but at this time there has been no whooping cough reported.

The children of the primary room had a Halloween party, games were played in the room which was formally decorated by the children. The fourth grade had a sand table arranged for Halloween.

Good English week was observed in the primary room. One feature being a barrel of red paint which was made with red crayons, into this barrel was put the names of those who used a word improperly.

Robert Dale of the third grade was run over by a car as he was getting out of the school bus. Fortunately he was only slightly injured.

Scarlet Fever Near Prevalent. Hoop Teams Make Showing. New Gym Floor Assured. Literary Society to Meet.

Register Lane County Special) WALKER, Ore., Nov. 28.—School is closed this week because of a case of scarlet fever in Saginaw. It will continue Monday if no new cases develop.

The basketball teams are very much elated over the result of their first basketball games in the home gym. The girls won over the Drain high school girls 18 to 11.

"Hurrah! for a gym floor!" This is the glad cry of the students who have been playing on the dirt floor for four years. The gymnasium has never been finished and at a school meeting Monday night it was voted to floor it, better cracks and put in windows.

The students have been working and boosting and the student body will contribute a certain sum for one or two years. We only hope

The short vacation during Thanksgiving, may come quite handy since the teachers are in English-I have been learning Keat's Robin Hood as December's memory selection. The class found some stories about the famous outlaw interesting to read in class.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

the contractor moves so we can use the floor this winter.

Three basketball games in one night! The Oregon boys and girls high school teams and Elmira outsiders will play the Walker high school team and outsiders in the Walker gym Wednesday night, November 2.

The boys team is Ben Catter, captain; Lawrence Porter, Lloyd Walford, Hubert Allen and Donald Wittler and Marlon Witt subalterns. The girls team is Gwendolyn Haight captain, and Evelyn Bonston, forward; Gerald Adney, jumping center; Hazel Miller, running center; and Ruby Wietz and Alice Kunt, guards with Frances Schmidt and Audrey Walford substitutes.

Evelyn Bonston has been absent from school for two weeks with the whooping cough.

The literary society will hold its next meeting, December 4, a candy sale by the high school girls and a program is promised by the committee, Mrs. Ethel Nixon, Mrs. Maudie Cornutt and Mrs. Ida Johnson.

Hazel Miller spent Thursday and Friday with Agnes Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lidge, teachers, are spending the week with their parents in Salem.

The school picture which was taken last week has been received and we wish to say it is good except for one thing. The exception is the fact that Adrian Cornutt moved and got credit for three classes while the rest only got one.

On A Rainy Wash Day "Into each life, some rain must fall. Some days must be dark and dreary."

To double the capacity of your indoor clothesline, on a rainy wash day, use coat hangers. Put the wet clothes on these and hang the hangers on the clothesline. To keep them from all slipping down together at the lowest point of your line, use clothespins to separate them.

Register Lane County Special) WALKER, Ore., Nov. 28.—School is closed this week because of a case of scarlet fever in Saginaw. It will continue Monday if no new cases develop.

The basketball teams are very much elated over the result of their first basketball games in the home gym. The girls won over the Drain high school girls 18 to 11.

"Hurrah! for a gym floor!" This is the glad cry of the students who have been playing on the dirt floor for four years. The gymnasium has never been finished and at a school meeting Monday night it was voted to floor it, better cracks and put in windows.

The students have been working and boosting and the student body will contribute a certain sum for one or two years. We only hope

The short vacation during Thanksgiving, may come quite handy since the teachers are in English-I have been learning Keat's Robin Hood as December's memory selection. The class found some stories about the famous outlaw interesting to read in class.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Elmira High School

School Carnival is being held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Greated by the body of Shakespearean Public School to entertain.

Register Lane County Special) WALKER, Ore., Nov. 28.—School is closed this week because of a case of scarlet fever in Saginaw. It will continue Monday if no new cases develop.

The basketball teams are very much elated over the result of their first basketball games in the home gym. The girls won over the Drain high school girls 18 to 11.

"Hurrah! for a gym floor!" This is the glad cry of the students who have been playing on the dirt floor for four years. The gymnasium has never been finished and at a school meeting Monday night it was voted to floor it, better cracks and put in windows.

The students have been working and boosting and the student body will contribute a certain sum for one or two years. We only hope

The short vacation during Thanksgiving, may come quite handy since the teachers are in English-I have been learning Keat's Robin Hood as December's memory selection. The class found some stories about the famous outlaw interesting to read in class.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

Buttering the nose of the cream pitcher prevents the cream from dripping and making spots on the table cloth.

The first match games of the basket-ball season have been scheduled for Friday when both the boys' and girls' teams will meet Elmira. The game will be played in the hall at Thurston.

The civics class has been debating on questions of school government. For example, "Resolved, that no student having a grade of below 90 in citizenship should represent Thurston high school in any inter-school activity."

PUBLIC SALE Monday, Nov. 30

The M. O. Banich property, situated on Matilda Golf farm, 5 1/2 miles southeast of Harrisburg, on the power-line road and 5 miles north of Colburg. About 125 head of good ewes. 30 cows milking now, giving 80 gallons of milk per day. 6 cows coming fresh soon, all good milkers, 3 to 8 year old. The herd is composed of registered and grade Holsteins, registered and grade Red Polled, grade Jerseys and grade Duchams. Also 13 heifers, yearling and 2 year-olds; some to freshen soon—tuberculin test 3 head of good work horses. About 40 tons of baled hay; 500 bushels oats. Wagons, plows, harrows, harness and general equipment. 1 12-20 Rumely Tractor. Three-bottom disc plow. 1 tractor disc harrow.

Sale will Commence at 10 o'Clock A. M. TERMS—All sums of $20 and under, cash. On sums of $20 six months time will be given on notes, with approved security, bearing 8 per cent interest. No property to be removed until settled for.

Harrisburg National Bank Charles Sterling Matilda Gordon

Send Us Winter Cleaning Now!

Is your fur coat ready? And had you thought to have those other heavy winter things - - - father's overcoat, children's togs? A thorough going-over here at our plant will put them in condition for another season of strenuous wear. Just think what we may save you!

Phone 220 City Cleaners

Eulano Restaurant