

OCIETY

(Continued from page five)

month be eighty-three years old, has spent most of the past half-century here, save for two trips to his old home in England. After remaining in Wisconsin a short time after his arrival in the United States, Mr. Sneed came directly to Oregon and Eugene, and has watched it grow from almost nothing to the city of today. He is a real pioneer of the valley, and has been actively connected with the growth of the city during his almost-lifetime residence here.

Mrs. Tyson's guests were Mr. Sneed and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sneed.

Ladies of the Orient held an enjoyable social and business session last night in the L. O. O. F. hall.

Completing plans for their annual banquet and arranging details for the affair. Members of St. Mary's Episcopal guild met today afternoon as guests of Mrs. Flora MacDonnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall and their small son Howard, Jr., left Tuesday for Los Angeles, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Hall and Mrs. Agnes Thurlpell of Benton Harbor, Mich. The party made the trip by motor, and in Los Angeles will be guests of Mrs. Howard Hall. The former is a brother of Mr. Winthrop Hall and Mrs. Thurlpell, and the three are enjoying a family reunion for the first time in many years. They will return the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ross gave a Thanksgiving dinner to members of their family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sylvester and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dimond, Verita Sylvester and Gordon Wilson. An enormous turkey was all its trimmings was served for the feast, and radio music and visiting together of the family group made the evening one long to be remembered.

Miss Grace Fisher and Miss Minnie Fisher will return to Eugene today after spending the past several days with friends in Portland.

Miss Ruth DeNette presided over a congenial social luncheon party at her home last Saturday, bidding as guests Miss Florence Bennett, Miss Grace Cobb, and Miss Janet Penfether.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ware and Miss Amy Dunn have been entertaining as their guests over Thanksgiving day, Mrs. E. J. Nettles, formerly of Canton, Ohio, who are planning to make their future home in Albany, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Nettles were members of the faculty of Canton Christian college, and since leaving there have spent some time in London and Vienna.

To be the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hammond, of Medford, over Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fell left by motor Wednesday.

Major and Mrs. W. G. White entertained over Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart and J. W. Stewart of Portland.

Among the families spending Thanksgiving out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberthur, of Astoria, Wednesday, Mr. Oberthur to be the guests of Mrs. Oberthur's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White and little daughter Abbie Jane, who were guests of Mr. Oberthur's parents in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris are among many Eugeneans in Portland with their families, having motored down Wednesday.

Jean Kuykendahl is spending the vacation interval in Portland with her aunt.

Major and Mrs. Harvard Moore left Tuesday for Portland, to spend the Thanksgiving season with Major Moore's father, and Mrs. Moore, Dr. J. S. Moore and Mrs. Walter Gray. Mrs. Moore returned to Eugene yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schneider have just reached their home in Eugene after a month's enjoyable motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hartley have been spending Thanksgiving in Eugene with Mrs. Hartley's mother, Mrs. J. Atkinson.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley have as their guests over Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor White left Friday to spend the week-end in Portland.

Guests of Mrs. J. J. Walton and Miss Pauline Wilson over the holiday are Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Countryman and Mrs. S. Whitmore of Bellingham, Wash.

Miss Henriette Guoy was hostess for Chi Omega alumnae meeting on Friday night at her home.

Dinkston, Mrs. A. R. Paris, Mrs. H. C. Auld, Mrs. Elizabeth Bie, Mrs. Albert Dale, Mrs. Henry Walder, Mrs. Clyde Kellogg, Mrs. Carl Torpington, Mrs. Robert Schiska, Miss Betty Hunter, Miss Lucile Harbaugh, Miss Myrtle Standley, Mrs. W. G. White, Mrs. Mabel Barclay, Corvallis; Mrs. J. J. Hughes, Portland; Mrs. M. H. White, Alameda, Cal.; and Mrs. A. R. Robinson of Herkimer, New York.

Campus students and friends in Eugene are interested in announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Lardy and Mr. Richard Lardy, both former University of Oregon students. The wedding was an event of Saturday. Mrs. Lardy is a member of the university chapter of Alpha Phi sorority, and Mr. Lardy a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Mrs. Albert McMurphy has had as her guest during the week past Mrs. Murcheson of Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Leith Abbott (Vivian Steuding) of Longview, Wash. were in Eugene as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lundy, having come for the Thanksgiving holiday. They were accompanied north by Mrs. Bertha Steuding, who is to make her future home with them in Longview.

Among many Eugene folk who are in Portland for the Thanksgiving interval are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman, who are with Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kiggins who are guests of their parents, Mrs. C. R. Rupert and Mrs. Georgia Tobey.

Last Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. P. X. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Schaefer entertained very pleasantly for a group of friends at the home of the former, carrying on their link in a series of vanishing parties which are being given by the Catholic parish are substituting for their usual winter bazaar.

The chain was started last week by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Campbell, who entertained a group of friends. Five hundred was the evening diversion planned by the hosts Saturday night, their guests numbering Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Steel, Mr. and Mrs. E. DeCout, who is representative of both the University and its students and of the local D. A. R. chapter. A few timely remarks of welcome to the visitors and appreciation of the fact that the daughters while sponsoring the "evening" were in the unique position of being more entertained than entertainers, were given by Mrs. DeCout.

Dr. and Mrs. Orville Waller invited members of their two families to be their guests for dinner and the day on Thanksgiving. In the group were Mrs. O. W. W. R. Nettles, formerly of Canton, Ohio, who are planning to make their future home in Albany, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Nettles were members of the faculty of Canton Christian college, and since leaving there have spent some time in London and Vienna.

Miss Della Peterson of Portland, is being welcomed back in Eugene for a visit, having arrived Wednesday evening. Miss Peterson will remain during the week to come as the guests of Mrs. Peterson's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Low Rowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly entertained at one of many dinner parties which preceded the Assembly club Thanksgiving dance Monday night, bidding Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey were dinner guests Thanksgiving night at their home, entertaining at one of many holiday dinner parties. A green bowl of dwarf yellow chrysanthemums and yellow gerberas, green holders centered a prettily appointed table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hummel, Mr. Emma Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready.

For Fireside club meeting on Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holm had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp and Mr. and Mrs. William Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hobbs and little daughter, who returned to Eugene Friday after spending Thanksgiving in Albany with Mrs. Hobbs' parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp, Lee Rapp and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel celebrated Thanksgiving day together most pleasantly at the Rapp home.

To observe the twenty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peterson and the very first birthday anniversary of Anne Linden Graham, a group of congenial friends met at the Peterson home Monday for a covered dish dinner which was a most enjoyable and most informal family party. A birthday cake with one small candle featured the dinner, at which covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. David Graham, Mr. and Mrs. George Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. T. G. Hendricks, Miss Elma Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston, Miss May Moore, Miss Della Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Low Rowling.

Several families enjoyed a most delightful Thanksgiving day and dinner as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, who entertained at their attractive new home on the millrace. Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Emerson and Kenneth Ables, Mrs. George Hitchcock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Henderson of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Henderson of Hood River arrived in Eugene Wednesday night, to spend most of the winter, and are making their home at 148 east Fourteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardy entertained in a most delightful fashion on Wednesday night at their attractive new home on University street for members of their Wednesday Dinner Club. Making it a holiday celebration, Thanksgiving dinner was a feature, and bridge occupied the evening hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott had as their Thanksgiving dinner guests their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Eric Alieg and their family.

guests including the families of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. George Fitch, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller. Hours of games, charades, dancing and music made a real family party of much happiness for the group.

Miss Betty Pratt and Miss Norma Trumbley spent Thanksgiving at the Chi Omega house in Corvallis, where they attended a dinner dance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Decker were hosts on Thanksgiving day for one of the many joyous holiday family parties which are always a part of the week. The group gathered early and spent afternoon and evening hours together most pleasantly, the number including Dr. and Mrs. James Gilbert and family, Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Kent.

Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hale's sister.

Friday evening, November 27, Four Oaks Grange were hosts to the city last Tuesday evening, in the dining room of the Grange, and State Lecturer Minnie E. Bond and Mr. Bond. A class of 17 candidates were given the third and fourth degree by Willakenzie

Chamber of commerce auxiliary members met Thanksgiving eve for their social evening, and for the program Roma Gross and Alice G. Trivoli, with the group as their accompanist, gave groups of violin selections. Gretchen Wintermeyer and Camille Clemenson danced attractive numbers, with Mr. Russell at the piano.

Whist and refreshments made up the evening pastimes.

On Thanksgiving night at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilchrist entertained the Little Club Around the Corner, whose members found the regular meeting a most pleasant way of spending the holiday evening.

Members of the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their friends spent a very entertaining and instructive evening with members of the Cosmopolitan club and foreign born students of the city last Tuesday evening in the alumni hall of the University woman's building.

The regent of the chapter, Mrs. Crow, was graciously introduced by Mrs. E. DeCout, who is representative of both the University and its students and of the local D. A. R. chapter. A few timely remarks of welcome to the visitors and appreciation of the fact that the daughters while sponsoring the "evening" were in the unique position of being more entertained than entertainers, were given by Mrs. DeCout.

Miss Leota Biggs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Morgan, then rendered a group of three charming vocal solos, which were accompanied by a truly American musical number on the program.

The Cosmopolitan club orchestra, gave an "Overture" with their own accompaniment, and Onofre Hipe, one of the members, followed it by a couple of solos on the saw that were appreciated not only from a musical point of view, but also for their playfulness.

The quartet of Australian students unfortunately simmered down to a duet who kindly and charmingly entertained with a reading of "The Love Serenade" by Mr. Herbert Bass.

The Cosmopolitan club orchestra, gave an "Overture" with their own accompaniment, and Onofre Hipe, one of the members, followed it by a couple of solos on the saw that were appreciated not only from a musical point of view, but also for their playfulness.

Beulah Chen then, next entertained with a most enjoyable and unusual family dinner party, including for Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. George Fitch and her family, and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Dr. and Mrs. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuckels, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Rapp.

Eugene friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore have welcomed them back here for a brief visit over Thanksgiving, while they have been guests of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. A. W. Sims. Mrs. Moore returned to her home in Salem today.

A delightful surprise party was given last Tuesday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. D. A. Bodie Winther, the day being like the birthday of Ovb Winther. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Fogedalen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hulegaard, Mrs. Marguerita, McBoe, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Bodtker, Dr. Winther, Holger Rasmussen, and Benny Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nusbaum entertained most pleasantly at their home Thanksgiving night for the pleasure of Mrs. J. E. C. Cupp, who are leaving soon for a trip to the middle west. Five hundred and dancing occupied the time until late hours when supper was served. Guests included Mrs. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ludford, Miss Fay Maloy and Gerald Preston.

Grange. The ladies of the visiting Grange exemplifying the third degree in a very pleasing and capable manner, and in a most efficient team of the same. Grants made the fourth degree. After the initiation, Grangers and friends to the number of 110 repaired to the dining room, where the ladies of the G. O. of Four Oaks Grange had prepared a banquet, such as only Grangers know how to put on. At a late hour, good nights were said and all departed to their homes more than ever convinced of the solidity of the Grange, and the good that it does do.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pratt presided over one of the week's enjoyable informal dinners, entertaining at their home Tuesday night for Mr. and Mrs. Melville Alton of Oakland, Cal. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, whose guests Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are during this week.

Charmingly informal was the dinner given at the home of Mrs. Jack Bennett, the number including Dr. and Mrs. James Gilbert and family, Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Kent.

Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hale's sister.

Chamber of commerce auxiliary members met Thanksgiving eve for their social evening, and for the program Roma Gross and Alice G. Trivoli, with the group as their accompanist, gave groups of violin selections. Gretchen Wintermeyer and Camille Clemenson danced attractive numbers, with Mr. Russell at the piano.

Whist and refreshments made up the evening pastimes.

On Thanksgiving night at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilchrist entertained the Little Club Around the Corner, whose members found the regular meeting a most pleasant way of spending the holiday evening.

Members of the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their friends spent a very entertaining and instructive evening with members of the Cosmopolitan club and foreign born students of the city last Tuesday evening in the alumni hall of the University woman's building.

The regent of the chapter, Mrs. Crow, was graciously introduced by Mrs. E. DeCout, who is representative of both the University and its students and of the local D. A. R. chapter. A few timely remarks of welcome to the visitors and appreciation of the fact that the daughters while sponsoring the "evening" were in the unique position of being more entertained than entertainers, were given by Mrs. DeCout.

Miss Leota Biggs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Morgan, then rendered a group of three charming vocal solos, which were accompanied by a truly American musical number on the program.

The Cosmopolitan club orchestra, gave an "Overture" with their own accompaniment, and Onofre Hipe, one of the members, followed it by a couple of solos on the saw that were appreciated not only from a musical point of view, but also for their playfulness.

Beulah Chen then, next entertained with a most enjoyable and unusual family dinner party, including for Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. George Fitch and her family, and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Dr. and Mrs. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuckels, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Rapp.

Eugene friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore have welcomed them back here for a brief visit over Thanksgiving, while they have been guests of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. A. W. Sims. Mrs. Moore returned to her home in Salem today.

A delightful surprise party was given last Tuesday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. D. A. Bodie Winther, the day being like the birthday of Ovb Winther. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Fogedalen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hulegaard, Mrs. Marguerita, McBoe, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Bodtker, Dr. Winther, Holger Rasmussen, and Benny Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nusbaum entertained most pleasantly at their home Thanksgiving night for the pleasure of Mrs. J. E. C. Cupp, who are leaving soon for a trip to the middle west. Five hundred and dancing occupied the time until late hours when supper was served. Guests included Mrs. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ludford, Miss Fay Maloy and Gerald Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

quately and the fudge can be fitted out by means of it. The recipient who cuts the candy finds it as fresh as when it was packed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pratt presided over one of the week's enjoyable informal dinners, entertaining at their home Tuesday night for Mr. and Mrs. Melville Alton of Oakland, Cal. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, whose guests Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are during this week.

Charmingly informal was the dinner given at the home of Mrs. Jack Bennett, the number including Dr. and Mrs. James Gilbert and family, Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Kent.

Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hale's sister.

Chamber of commerce auxiliary members met Thanksgiving eve for their social evening, and for the program Roma Gross and Alice G. Trivoli, with the group as their accompanist, gave groups of violin selections. Gretchen Wintermeyer and Camille Clemenson danced attractive numbers, with Mr. Russell at the piano.

Whist and refreshments made up the evening pastimes.

On Thanksgiving night at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilchrist entertained the Little Club Around the Corner, whose members found the regular meeting a most pleasant way of spending the holiday evening.

Members of the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their friends spent a very entertaining and instructive evening with members of the Cosmopolitan club and foreign born students of the city last Tuesday evening in the alumni hall of the University woman's building.

The regent of the chapter, Mrs. Crow, was graciously introduced by Mrs. E. DeCout, who is representative of both the University and its students and of the local D. A. R. chapter. A few timely remarks of welcome to the visitors and appreciation of the fact that the daughters while sponsoring the "evening" were in the unique position of being more entertained than entertainers, were given by Mrs. DeCout.

Miss Leota Biggs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Morgan, then rendered a group of three charming vocal solos, which were accompanied by a truly American musical number on the program.

The Cosmopolitan club orchestra, gave an "Overture" with their own accompaniment, and Onofre Hipe, one of the members, followed it by a couple of solos on the saw that were appreciated not only from a musical point of view, but also for their playfulness.

Beulah Chen then, next entertained with a most enjoyable and unusual family dinner party, including for Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. George Fitch and her family, and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Dr. and Mrs. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuckels, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Rapp.

Eugene friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore have welcomed them back here for a brief visit over Thanksgiving, while they have been guests of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. A. W. Sims. Mrs. Moore returned to her home in Salem today.

A delightful surprise party was given last Tuesday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. D. A. Bodie Winther, the day being like the birthday of Ovb Winther. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Fogedalen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hulegaard, Mrs. Marguerita, McBoe, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Bodtker, Dr. Winther, Holger Rasmussen, and Benny Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nusbaum entertained most pleasantly at their home Thanksgiving night for the pleasure of Mrs. J. E. C. Cupp, who are leaving soon for a trip to the middle west. Five hundred and dancing occupied the time until late hours when supper was served. Guests included Mrs. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ludford, Miss Fay Maloy and Gerald Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

quately and the fudge can be fitted out by means of it. The recipient who cuts the candy finds it as fresh as when it was packed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pratt presided over one of the week's enjoyable informal dinners, entertaining at their home Tuesday night for Mr. and Mrs. Melville Alton of Oakland, Cal. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, whose guests Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are during this week.

Charmingly informal was the dinner given at the home of Mrs. Jack Bennett, the number including Dr. and Mrs. James Gilbert and family, Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Kent.

Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hale's sister.

Chamber of commerce auxiliary members met Thanksgiving eve for their social evening, and for the program Roma Gross and Alice G. Trivoli, with the group as their accompanist, gave groups of violin selections. Gretchen Wintermeyer and Camille Clemenson danced attractive numbers, with Mr. Russell at the piano.

Whist and refreshments made up the evening pastimes.

On Thanksgiving night at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilchrist entertained the Little Club Around the Corner, whose members found the regular meeting a most pleasant way of spending the holiday evening.

Members of the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their friends spent a very entertaining and instructive evening with members of the Cosmopolitan club and foreign born students of the city last Tuesday evening in the alumni hall of the University woman's building.

The regent of the chapter, Mrs. Crow, was graciously introduced by Mrs. E. DeCout, who is representative of both the University and its students and of the local D. A. R. chapter. A few timely remarks of welcome to the visitors and appreciation of the fact that the daughters while sponsoring the "evening" were in the unique position of being more entertained than entertainers, were given by Mrs. DeCout.

Miss Leota Biggs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Morgan, then rendered a group of three charming vocal solos, which were accompanied by a truly American musical number on the program.

The Cosmopolitan club orchestra, gave an "Overture" with their own accompaniment, and Onofre Hipe, one of the members, followed it by a couple of solos on the saw that were appreciated not only from a musical point of view, but also for their playfulness.

Beulah Chen then, next entertained with a most enjoyable and unusual family dinner party, including for Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. George Fitch and her family, and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBauer, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Dr. and Mrs. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuckels, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Rapp.

Eugene friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore have welcomed them back here for a brief visit over Thanksgiving, while they have been guests of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. A. W. Sims. Mrs. Moore returned to her home in Salem today.

A delightful surprise party was given last Tuesday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. D. A. Bodie Winther, the day being like the birthday of Ovb Winther. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Fogedalen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hulegaard, Mrs. Marguerita, McBoe, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Bodtker, Dr. Winther, Holger Rasmussen, and Benny Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nusbaum entertained most pleasantly at their home Thanksgiving night for the pleasure of Mrs. J. E. C. Cupp, who are leaving soon for a trip to the middle west. Five hundred and dancing occupied the time until late hours when supper was served. Guests included Mrs. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ludford, Miss Fay Maloy and Gerald Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher have as their houseguest over the week-end Luther Kirtley of Portland.

Delightfully informal was the evening of bridge on Friday for which Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley were the hosts. In addition to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Johnstone who were here for Thanksgiving.

Provincialism vanishes under the educational influence and wide mailing range of the newspaper; the utilization of gas and electric home conveniences; the broad-mindedness induced by travel; and the limitless scope of the telephone and radio.

Gold Beach—Work begins on last of Roosevelt highway in Coos and Curry counties.

Eugene—Now Lane county market roads are to receive $100,000 for 1925.

Freewater—English buyers here to inspect apples shipped to England.

Sweet Home—Large acreage of sweetberries being planted this fall.

Hood River—Apple tonnage will be about 250 cars above early estimate.

Gold find on Quartz mountains, Klamath county, said to carry $200 a ton in gold and 60 per cent copper.

Klamath Falls claims a population of 10,000.

Fortuitous—Work begins on $500,000 Jensen & Von Herberg garage at Forty-fifth and Sandy.

Mulholland county asked to build Thompson road, at cost of $40,000.

Newberg—Pacific college endowment campaign raises $216,000, with much more in sight.

Portland—First $1,200,000 worth of building suits this year. It employs 400 workers.

Medford—Permits issued for two new churches, Seventh Day Adventist and Christian.

Medic—Postal receipts have almost doubled since 1921.

Cottage Grove—Proposed new Baptist church will cost about $10,000.

Albany—Linn county fair has net balance of $1,500, first profit year.

Corvallis—Theta Delta Nu fraternity will build $135,000 home on college campus.

Last year's building in Portland totaled $29,000,000; this year's will reach $33,000,000.

Lakers—More mining activity is noted in Baker county than for years past.

Carlton—Local factory makes first shipment of copage, to Chicago buyers.

Portland—Eastern buyers buy considerable wool, paying up to 43 cents for the best.

Gold Hill—Placer and quartz mining has great revival, with prospect of profits.

Lumber shipments from the Co-

Unsubsidized total $2,637,314 for the year.

Union county growers are planting head lettuce, that will yield $1,000 a year.

Dufur Falls district, which will build a $100,000 school.