NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO CRESWELL GRANGE

Nutrition and Dressmaking Classes to Start

STATE LECTURER TALKS

Ways and Means Committee Makes Plans for Play to Be Given on December 18

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., Nov. 28. — Creswell Grange met in regular session Saturday afternoon with over 30 present. Lecturer C. E. Hewitt had written several personal letters of invitation to members who had not been present for some time, which produced good results.

Three new members were elected. They were Thelma Howe, Elizabeth Cooley and Julius Iderhoff. The latter comes from Tualatin Grange.

Mrs. Gertrude Howe reported on the county home economics committee meeting at Eugene last Saturday as did Lecturer Hewitt, who attended a meeting of lecturers at the same time. Mrs. Howe read a letter from Mrs. Harlow, chairman of county home economics committee stating that the state paper offered space for the activities of local home economic committee reports. A letter from County Agent O. S. Fletcher was read offering classes on nutrition led by Miss Case or dressmaking and clothing classes led by Miss Cooley, of the extension department of O. A. C., and the dressmaking classes were chosen.

Stage Hands Appointed

The ways and means committee reported progress on the play to be given December 18 and the stage hands were appointed consisting of C. E. Hewitt, Charles White and H. H. Powers. The stage settings involve considerable carpenter work. Vern Sly was appointed the Grange's representative on the county fair board. The needs of the furniture and equipment for the Junior Grange were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bond were present and each gave talks. Mrs. Bond, state lecturer, reported on the activities of sister Granges. Oregon has been the banner state in organization of new Granges for three years, 26 Granges having been organized, this making 250 in the state at present.

Mrs. C. E. Hewitt read an article on the beginnings of the Grange in the work of Oliver Hudson Kelley and his niece, Miss Carrie A. Hall. A framed picture of Miss Hall was given to the Grange by Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt and appears on the east wall with the picture of the founders.

The Grange decided to give a chicken pie supper on New Year's night at the hall. The next meeting of the Grange will be an all-day session commencing at 10 o'clock Saturday, December 12, at which time initiatory work in the first and second degrees will be given and the annual election of officers held. A dinner at noon will be served.

Mrs. Bond also spoke of the new interest being taken in the Grange at Goshen and in response to her invitation several carloads were pledged to attend the meeting at Goshen next Tuesday evening.

"Go and Sin No More"

Just one of the little mothers of a child born out of wedlock, now in one of the Florence Crittenton homes that offer shelter to the unfortunate in many cities. The founder of these homes was Charles N. Crittenton. Hearing a minister in a New York dive admonish a girl to "go and sin no more," he established the first home forty-three years ago in memory of his daughter, Florence, who died at the age of four.
