THEATRE MAN VISITS

PROPOSED SHOWHOUSE AT SPRINGFIELD VIEWED

No Contract Yet Signed But Heilig People May Take Over Business Says One of Builders

(Register Lane County Special)

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Dec. 1.—Plans for the proposed new theatre to be erected on Main street here by L. K. Page and J. A. Seavey were gone over today by the prospective builders and C. W. McKee of Seattle, general manager of the Heilig chain of theatres. The possibility of the Heilig company taking over the showhouse on completion was the reason for the visit today by the company manager.

A contract has not yet been signed with the theatre company, said Mr. Seavey this evening. Mr. McKee left this evening for Portland after conferring with city authorities to find out what legal action would be necessary before the building work is started. Though no action was taken by the company head, it is hoped by Mr. Seavey and Mr. Page that the company will have charge of the operation of the showhouse.

The city council met tonight at a special meeting at which Mr. McKee was present. They took no official action on the theatre plans but will investigate the legal steps that will be necessary before they can give the builders and operators permits.

F. Manson White, Portland archihas completed the plans for the structure which will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. The lower floor and balcony will have a combined seating capacity of 1000.

DAILY MARKET REPORT

(Oregon Journal Market Review)

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—Further recession in the price of fresh egg extras was shown on the Dairy exchange for the session. The downward trend of the egg market has been continued for some days and leaders of the trade, while not a unit in the matter, generally forecast continued losses until the low point of the storage period is reached.

Fifty-cent extras on the exchange was the latest price named there, but even that price is not maintained entirely on the open market. Some sellers are getting the top price named, but others claim it is impossible to move their accumulating surplus without shading values 1c to 2c a dozen.

Receipts of fresh eggs are gaining here and similar reports are coming from practically all Pacific slope points. In fact, the entire country is getting more fresh eggs now than during any recent week.

Storage egg situation is in very bad shape, with practically no established prices.

Cube Butter Market Weaker

Market for cube butter continues to reflect weakness, the day's trading on the dairy exchange to some extent following the loss in the print market. Extras and standards were each down 1c with prime first ¼c off.

Turkey Situation Very Slow

Trading in the turkey market is today on such a limited basis as to make it impossible to definitely establish quotations. Sales are shown from 35c to 38c pound for the best dressed stock, but not enough moving to tell exactly what the market is.

Chicken Demand About Same

Market for live chickens continues to move within practically the same price limits shown during the last 10 days. Movement is ambient of the market appeared [illegible] though mixed. There is a weak tone in dressed geese which are nominally quoted at 23@25c pound.

Dressed Hog Trade Improved

With the higher priced live hogs in the stockyards and with packers less keen about giving their stocks away, the market for country-killed stuff is firmer and slightly higher with an extreme of 16½c pound. Veal are just about steady with most tops at 16c pound.

Cranberry Trade Dragging

While business appears of quite fair volume, prices on cranberries are much mixed here. While most of the trade appears anxious to support values, one or two houses continue to knock values whenever they see a competitor selling a box or so. Sales generally $4.00@$4.25 box; few, $4.50@$4.75 box.

Brief Notes of Wholesale Trade

Considerable weakness shown for beans, efforts of californians to hold up values failed because of the excellent Idaho stock arriving.

Famous brand of Porto Rico sweet potatoes in; sales $2.50 hamper.

Sweet potatoes up in the South.

Practically no fresh halibut being offered; storage at 19c pound.

A few fancy Columbia river steelhead salmon being offered at 20c pound with silvers 18c, frozen Chinook 14c pound.

Potato buying very slow in country; limited carload business at $2.50, still fewer $2.75 cental.

Shippers' Weather Notice

Weather bureau advised Tuesday: Protect shipments during the next 36 hours against the following minimum temperatures: Going north to Seattle, 18 degrees; northeast to Spokane, 26 degrees; east to Baker, 30 degrees, and south to Ashland, 32 degrees. Minimum temperature at Portland tonight, about 46 degrees.

Chocolate Date Muffins

FRANKLY, isn't your hostess-heart a bit weary of serving the usual run of sandwiches, toast and cake? Then take heart—for here's something refreshingly new—

Chocolate Date Muffins! Richer than ordinary muffins, but not so rich as cake. Served with a tart jam or marmalade—they're different from any muffins you've ever tasted. And they're quick to make because you sift all the dry ingredients together.

If you've never tried the instant-ready magic of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate in biscuit and muffin mixtures—try the recipe at the right and see!

1

Because it takes the place of cocoa, unsweetened and sweetened cake chocolate, Ghirardelli's is all-in-one!

With jam or marmalade—um!

2 cups flour
½ cup sugar
3½ cup Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
½ cup melted shortening (use half butter)
2 eggs
¾ cup dates cut in small pieces

Sift dry ingredients twice, saving 1 tablespoon flour with which to dredge dates. Stir in milk, shortening and dates. Fold in lightly beaten eggs. Bake in small, well greased muffin tins in moderate oven (about 350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. This recipe makes 18 muffins.
