DAILY MARKET REPORT

(Green Journal Market Service) PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 7.—Declining prices on dairy products at this period of the season are generally due and expected. The cut of 2 cents in the price of prime butter was therefore not a surprise and was put into effect generally at the opening of the week's trading. In some quarters there had been secret buying of prime butter because of the unusual differential that has recently existed between them and cubes.

Increasing output of butter and failure to increase sales are reasons that cannot be ignored in the market for butter at this time. Butter sales have not been keeping pace with production; in fact as the quotations were advanced the demand ebbed. Most of this loss went to the creamery market, the sales of substitutes recently being the greatest of the season. Cutting of butterfat values 2 cents while butter dropped but 2 cents in line with usual conditions when values tend lower.

Export Trade Is Still Weak Trading in the egg market is still of weak character, with general business placed below the established figures on the dairy exchange. The severe losses in the eastern trade have frightened shippers of the coast.

Few Turkeys Are Now Coming Very few turkeys are now arriving along Front street. Receipts are, however, up to all demand. Fancy young turkeys are selling in a limited way as high as 25c pound with fancy hen turkeys at 24 1/2c pound. Ordinary stock is scarcely wanted.

Chicken Demand Still Good Demand for chickens is still of very good character. Both the live and the dressed chicken market remains favorable. Recent top buying prices are generally continued.

Onion Buying Volume Small Very limited buying volume is shown at Willamette valley points. At the moment $1.50 appears to be the general top buying price at country points for early head lots. Selling is fully up to all requirements.

Overripe Apples Are Weaker Because of the presence of much overripe stock in the trade, apples are really weaker here, although very little change in the primary market remains. Dullness is generally noted there, a condition considered timely at this period of the season.

Brief Notes of Wholesale Trade Country-killed calves depressed. Dressed legs considered fully steady at recent prices. Orange prices sharply higher in the South; little change here. Sweet potatoes show further price cutting here. Eastern cranberries quoted earlier here, but still too high considering the quality. Locals are steady at the lower price.

Shippers' Weather Notice Weather bureau advised Monday: Projected shipments during the next 26 hours against the following minimum temperatures: Going north to Seattle, 15 degrees; northeast to Spokane, 39 degrees; east to Baker, 22 degrees; and south to Ashland, 32 degrees. Minimum temperature at Portland tonight, about 42 degrees.
