CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Coburg Couple Here—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stoneburg of Coburg were in the city yesterday on business.

• • •

Eugene Hospital Report—Admitted: John Pruett, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Wesley Whittaker, Mapleton; Omar Crist, Veneta.

• • •

Mrs. Jennings and Son Return—Mrs. F. G. Jennings and son, Frederick Sherwood, have returned from a visit in Coquille.

• • •

Here from Junction City—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stogsdill of Junction City were among out-of-town visitors in Eugene yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Bryson Returns—Mrs. R. S. Bryson has returned from Corvallis where she was a witness for the county in the overtime wage case.

• • •

Local Doctor Returns—Dr. L. Kent of Eugene, who was in Linn county on business yesterday, returned to the city in the afternoon.

• • •

River Road Team Wins—The River Road basketball team defeated the Roosevelt junior high school Wednesday night by a score of 14 to 4.

• • •

Harry Briggs Here—Harry Briggs remembered here as a former chief of the fire department is here from Portland for a day or so.

• • •

Ralph Jackson in City—Ralph Jackson, formerly deputy county clerk here, now employed in the office of the state industrial accident commission at Salem, is here for a day or so.

• • •

Rev. J. S. McCallum Here—Rev. J. S. McCallum, formerly pastor of the First Christian church here, is in the city from Seattle where he has charge of the branch of the Eugene Bible university.

• • •

Drunk Is Fined $25—William Allison was fined $25 in police court yesterday for being drunk. He said he had no money and was turned over to the police to work the fine out on the streets.

• • •

Coburg Man Returns—George Smith, prominent farmer of the Coburg district, has returned to his home after a visit in Seattle, Wash., with relatives. Mr. Smith passed through Eugene yesterday.

• • •

Springfield Lions to Take Part—The Springfield Lions yesterday sent word to W. C. Yoran, chairman of the committee, that they will put on a number at the Salvation Army charity fund entertainment at the armory tonight.

• • •

Forest Men to Take Vacations—[illegible] A. Carter ranger in the Cascade national forest at Oakridge, leaves soon for Detroit, Mich., and R. F. Grefe, in charge of trail and road work in the same forest leaves for Des Moines, Iowa, on their annual vacations.

• • •

Word of Death Received—Word of the death of Dr. H. H. Wilcox of Hot Springs, South Dakota, brother-in-law of Mrs. E. Eugene Chadwick and Fred Hydorn of this city, was received here yesterday. Dr. Wilcox had resided in South Dakota a number of years.

• • •

Mrs. Kellems To Speak—Mrs. [illegible] Kellems of the Eugene Bible university faculty will deliver the morning message at the Christian church at Franklin, Sunday, December 13. Her subject will be "Stewardship." On Sunday evening she will give her lecture on Palestine.

• • •

Band Will Elect Officers—The I. O. O. F. band will be reorganized and the members will elect officers shortly after the first of the year, it was announced yesterday by Alfred J. Corwin, bandmaster. Dates will also be arranged for a series of concerts next spring.

• • •

Christmas Party to Be Held Tonight—Canton Hovey of the Odd Fellows and McLaughlin auxiliary will hold a Christmas party in the I. O. O. F. temple tonight. A banquet will be held at 6:30 and following there will be a Christmas tree. Each member is asked to bring a small present.

• • •

Boy to Be Brought Back—The police Wednesday night received a message from the Albany police stating that Fred Bauer, 14, of 1448 [illegible] avenue west, had been detained there, having left home and ridden that far on his bicycle. His father, Godfrey Bauer, went there after him yesterday.

• • •

Knight Templays Elect—A. J. [illegible] has been elected eminent commander of Ivanhoe Commandery, and other officers are: generalissimo, F. C. Heffron; captain general, A. E. Roberts; treasurer, Darwin Bristow; recorder, George [illegible] Dorris; senior warden, O. M. [illegible]; junior warden, Rev. Frederick G. Jennings.

• • •

Oregonian Home Again—B. J. [illegible] an Oregonian who answered the call to Florida has changed his license plates on his automobile again for Oregon numerals. Mr. Averill applied at the office of the Lane county sheriff yesterday and remarked that Florida held no charms for him despite the glamor and attraction of billions made over night.

• • •

Dean Allen Writes Reports—Dean Eric W. Allen, head of the school of journalism at the university, is writing two reports to be read at a meeting of the American association of teachers of journalism at Columbia university, New York City December 28 to 31. Dean Allen is a member of the committee on fraternities, and the committee on salaries. He will send his reports to New York where another member of the association will read the papers to the group.

• • •

Miss Lewis Chairman—Imogene Lewis, Portland senior at the university, has been appointed general chairman of the annual Christmas college ball which is given in Portland each year by the Women's league and provides funds for the foreign scholarship which is awarded some woman student in a foreign country each year. This year the ball will be held December 28 at Multnomah hotel. All members assisting on the committee are from Portland and committees and members are: patronesses, Edna Ellen Bell, chairman; [illegible] Ellen La Moree, Catherine [illegible] and Roberta Douty; finance, Elizabeth Talbot, chairman; Katherine Lauderdale and Frances Plimpton; publicity, Anne Wentworth, chairman; Helen Manary and Lois Scoffern.

• • •

Halsey Man Here—O. F. Neal, resident of Halsey, was in the city attending the business affairs yesterday.

• • •

Rube Montgomery in City—Rube Montgomery of McKenzie Bridge was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

• • •

Banker Returns to City—P. E. Snodgrass, president of the First National bank, has returned from Swisshome where he went on business.

• • •

Visiting With Parents—Claud Bond of Rupert, Idaho, is visiting in Eugene with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bond, 869 Fourth avenue west.

• • •

Physician Goes to Portland—Dr. A. F. Sether left for Portland yesterday to attend to business affairs. He is expected to be gone several days.

• • •

Pike Released on Bail—George Pike, arrested Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Van Svarverud on a charge of damaging government mail boxes, was released yesterday on bail.

• • •

Store-Cafe Is Sold—The Emergency store and combined cafe, owned by Theodore Foreier, was sold yesterday through the Sam Rugh Realty company to Helen Farnham, who intends to enlarge the place.

• • •

Property Inventory Filed—The estate of W. H. Anderson, deceased, is valued at $7336.90, according to the inventory of the appraisers, W. T. Gordon, A. A. Rogers and Darwin Bristow, filed in probate court.

• • •

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: William Hicks, city; Mrs. R. A. Moore, Elkton; Mrs. F. A. Bemis, Roseburg; Mrs. Harry Thienes, Walterville. Dismissed: J. A. Springate, Harrisburg; Loren Herbert, Noti; Mrs. L. E. Stone, Springfield.

• • •

Lane County Case Still on Trial—The case against Lane county in which a number of former road workers are seeking overtime pay, is expected to be finished the last of the week, according to Lane county witnesses, who have been in Corvallis most of the week.

• • •

Load Limit Notice Placed—The county court has caused to be placed at the enrances to the Kelly bridge on Row river, east of Cottage Grove, notices of the limit of loads that may be hauled over the span. While the bridge is said to be in fair condition, it is necessary to limit the loads in order to protect it.

• • •

Charles Carlson Released—Charles Carlson, who was locked up in jail with Floyd Raze, charged with possession of liquor, was released yesterday as no charge had been placed against him. Carlson, it is alleged, was with Raze when the latter drove to a cache of liquor near Irving Wednesday.

• • •

Illness Is Undetermined—Although a process of elimination has discarded some of the illnesses that might have afflicted Mrs. D. T. Awbry, who is in a hospital in Portland, the exact nature of her ailment has not yet been determined, it was reported yesterday. Mr. Awbry returned to Eugene from Portland yesterday.

• • •

Night Class Addressed—F. E. Price, soil specialist of the extension division of the state college, and O. S. Fletcher, county agent, were at the Dorena community hall east of Cottage Grove last night addressing members of the night class in agriculture being conducted there by Professor White, Smith-Hughes teacher at the Cottage Grove high school.

• • •

W. A. Mabey to Have Sale—W. A. Mabey, who lives two and a half miles west of Creswell on the Cloverdale road, is advertising a public sale of his stock and farming implements December 15 at 10 a. m. He has sold his farm and says he intends to dispose of all its equipment. He advertises a free lunch at noon. J. K. Greer will be the auctioneer and the Creswell Fruit Growers' bank will act as clerk.

• • •

Local Men at Meeting—George A. Dorris and Ben F. Dorris of Eugene are taking an active part in the annual meeting of the Western Walnut Growers' association at McMinnville. J. O. Holt, manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association, left for the meeting yesterday. Ben Dorris has been named one of the judges of filbert displays and will give a talk on "drying filberts." George Dorris is a member of the committee that will select the place of the next meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

REV. J. SAMS OF COTTAGE Grove will preach in the Fall Creek school house Saturday at 7:30 p. m. and Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

THE WILLARD P.-T. A. WILL meet this afternoon at 3:15. Miss Laura McIntyre, fifth grade teacher, will have charge of the program. The new rest room will be ready for inspection. All are invited.

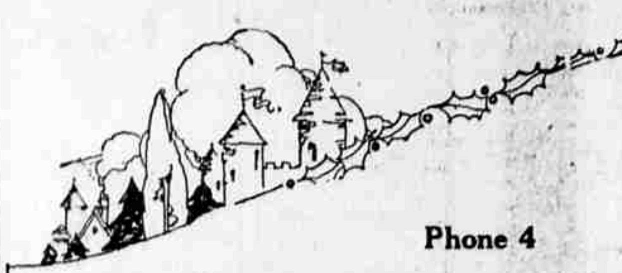
THE LADIES' AID OF THE Fairmount Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. L. Winterberger, 1498 Villard street, Friday afternoon at 2:30. This is the annual Christmas party and members and friends are urged to be present.

THE OREGON LEWIS AND Clark chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at the home of Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, 2045 Potter street, Friday at 2:30. Dr. James Gilbert will speak on the present-day problem of the nation.

THE LADIES OF THE GRAND Army will hold their regular meeting Friday, December 11, at 2 o'clock. A large attendance is requested as there is to be initiation, election of officers, balloting on candidates and other business.

THE FOURSQUARE GOSPEL church has moved from their tent at Tenth and Charnelton to the Frank hall, 90 east Ninth. Services will be conducted as usual. Sunday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. also Tuesday and Friday at 7:30 p. m.

12-11-3



Phone 4

McMorran & Washburne Store

FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

Eugene's Own Cheery Christmas Store

Phone 4

Imported Wool Scarfs
$1.95 and $2.95

Dozens and dozens of mighty good looking scarfs at these low prices. Beautiful plaids and stripes in deep rich colorings. Many an appreciative expression will be your reward if you give a wool scarf.

Silk Scarfs, $1.29 to $3.50

Silk Lounging Robes
$21.50

Luxurious silk brocaded lounging robes with handsome corded silk collars and cuffs and silk cords. Such a gift will prove your thoughts are concerned with his real comfort. All packed in handsome Christmas box.

Warm Flannel Pajamas
$3.00

They're Brighton-Carsbad make which means worlds to him when he examines the label. Superior workmanship and quality in every instance and they cost no more. You'll like the choice of neat patterns and colors.

Box Of Rayon Hose
3 pair $1.75

Good looking—perfect fitting and very comfortable silky rayon hose with reinforced feet. Colors of black cordovan, gunmetal. All neatly packed in a holly box for gift giving. If in doubt about his size they may be exchanged after Christmas.

When in Doubt Give a M. & W. Gift Order!

Let Us Help You Choose His Gift

When in Doubt Give a M. & W. Gift Order!

Puzzled over his gift? On this page are just a few suggestions from Eugene's own cheery Christmas store and we are prepared to offer many more helpful suggestions to Christmas shoppers. Choose something to wear and you choose a gift you know will give pleasure. The M. & W. label does mean a lot to particular men, too, for it most surely stamps "quality" on the remembrance.

It Won't Tip!

This is the new ashstand that won't tip—and can't spill its contents! Cigar and cigarette stubs, matches and ashes go down the hollow tube to the base where they are confined from sight and smell—insurance against burned rugs and floors. The

SMOKADOR
Ashless Ashstand

is scientifically built. It has already replaced thousands of the old, out-of-date, unsanitary, muss-distributing ashstands which have served only as an annoyance. In well appointed homes, offices, clubs and hotels you will find SMOKADOR Ashless Ashstands—keeping the rooms free from the smokers' debris. Come and let us show you the SMOKADOR Ashstand.

Just in Time for Christmas Gift Buying Comes This Welcome

Sale of Collar Attached Shirts

$2.50 and $3 values at one low price

$1.85

Box of 3 shirts for $5.35

A demonstration of the willingness and ability of Eugene's own store to offer superior values

A demonstration that is going to win a lot of friends for us! Every one of these shirts was bought to sell at much more! If marked in a regular way they would be $2.50 and $3. As a special inducement to Christmas gift buyers we have underpriced the entire lot at $1.85 each or 3 for $5.35.

Women who are puzzled what to give men folks could scarce find a gift more welcome than a box of three of these shirts.

Correctly sized, carefully made with all the exacting care of a custom tailor. Sturdy, beautiful fabrics such as genuine English broadcloth, Ivanhoe flannels, fine madras and high count percales. Plain colors of white, tan and gray and an excellent choice of neat striped and checked patterns. Please note particularly—every shirt is guaranteed fast color! All fresh and crisp and new! Early shoppers will of course secure better selections!

For Boys—

Hundreds of good looking ties in colors boys prefer —four-in-hand and bow ties at 50c each.

Socks to wear with longies, 65c.
Little Paris Garters, 50c
Belts, 50c to 85c
Kaynee Blouses, $1.25
Kaynee Shirts, $1.50
Pajamas, $2.00.
Caps, $1.25
Sweaters $4.50
Cuff Links, 50c
Bath Robes, $3.95
Wool Scarfs, $1.00
Gauntlet Gloves, $1.25

Pack Up Your Best Christmas Wishes in a Gift of McMorran & Washburne Luggage

A Feature Selling of High Grade Cowhide Handbags

Made to Sell at $25—Special $18.75

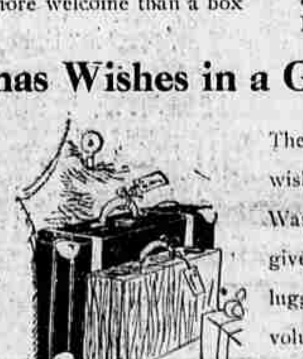
Fine hand boarded cowhide bags—sewed frame—double handles, full leather lined. Heavy padded leather corners. 20 inch size. Brass trimmings. Cowhide in black and brown and genuine walrus in black.

Overnight Cases

Of First Quality Dupont

$12.50

Such a handy little size for short trips. Full lined with brocade sateen in pretty colors. Polished brass trimmings. 6 compartments.



There is something sturdy and lasting about a Christmas wish expressed with a fine piece of luggage. McMorran & Washburne luggage! Indeed a gift to ever remind one of the giver. We are showing a particularly excellent group of luggage of every description—from a compact hat box to a voluminous trunk one could almost live in. You will be surprised and delighted with the pricings!

Hartman and Indestructo Wardrobe Trunks in Many Sizes and Styles $42.50 to $85.00

Steamer Trunks, $12.50 — Hat Boxes, $6.50
Army Lockers, $13.50 — Suit Cases, $7.50 to $25
Dress Trunks, $12.50 to $22.50
Fitted Cases, $12.50 to $40

See Christmas Window Display of Luggage

Any Man

could not help but deeply appreciate a Hickok set consisting of buckle, belt and beltogram. Exclusive designs, rich, long wearing quality and boxed like a rare jewel in keeping with the holiday spirit.

$3.00 and $4.00