TOLERANCE GREAT NEED

REV. HAAS TALKS ON WORLD PEACE AT Y. M. C. A.

Spirit of Christmas Big Factor in Establishment of International Good Will

That the world must learn to have tolerance in the communities before it can expect international peace was the thought expressed at a membership dinner at the Y. M. C. A. last night by Rev. J. Franklin Haas, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, speaker of the evening.

The spirit of Christmas, as it is applied toward the establishment of world peace was a great factor, Rev. Haas said. Intolerance, hatred, envy, greed, must be before the inevitable dove, he intimated.

Approximately 50 members of the Y. M. C. A. were present at the dinner. Music was furnished by the Eugene High school quartet. Community singing was led by C. H. Hogart.

The membership committee reported that nine new members had been secured in the last month. This brings the membership up to about 395, according to Frank Eberhart, general secretary.

SCHOOL PLAY IS SUCCESS

GROSS RECEIPTS AT EUGENE HIGH ARE $109

Performance Profitable Says Principal; Candy Sales Help Build Up Returns

Before a good sized audience, members of the dramatic club of the Eugene high school last night presented "The Ghost Story" and "The Intimate Strangers."

Receipts of the show amounted to $109, according to a report made by P. E. Christensen, principal. This amount was realized both from the sale of tickets and the sale of candy between acts.

The high school orchestra played during intermissions.

"The performance was profitable in that after we have paid expenses of the show we will still have a substantial sum left," said Christensen. "The sale of candy helped build up the returns. The show was a success from every angle."

BANK PARTY IS TODAY

NO BUSINESS WILL BE CONDUCTED AFTER NOON

The First National bank will be open at the regular hours for Saturday business at 10 o'clock this morning, and will close the books at noon.
