

CHURCHES

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL—Corner of Seventh avenue and Olive street. Rev. Frederick G. Jennings, rector. The fourth Sunday in advent. Holy communion at 8 a. m. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 11 a. m. Evening prayer and address at 7:30 p. m.

TRINITY LUTHERAN—Sixth and Pearl. Services in the American language 11 a. m. Sermon by Rev. J. O. Houtgen. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Christmas tree and children's program, Christmas day, evening 7:30. Mrs. Elmer Gilbertson, superintendent.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST—Seventh and Charnelton. T. M. Langberg, pastor. 8:10 a. m. Sabbath school. 9:45 a. m. Church service. 11 a. m. Young peoples' meeting. 3 p. m. Prayer meeting. Wednesday 8 p. m. No meeting Sunday evening. Public invited to all meetings.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS—Meet every Sunday at 1551 High street at 2:30 p. m. for class study. J. C. Watt of Los Angeles, Cal. will give a public address on December 22, at 7:30 p. m. Watch the papers for further announcement for the subject of his address and the place of meeting.

FREE METHODIST—One block west of Greenwood school west, Springfield. H. A. Hammer, pastor. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. by the district. Elder, W. E. Goode. Preaching 2:30 p. m. Young peoples' meeting at 7 p. m. and preaching at 8 p. m. Tuesday December 22, Christmas program, 7:30 p. m. A cordial welcome to all our services.

FIRST UNITARIAN—East Eleventh avenue and Ferry street. Morning service at 10:45 o'clock. A special Christmas service has been arranged with a sermon by the pastor, Frank Fay Eddy, on "The Christ Message of the Ages." There will be a program of Christmas music rendered by Robert McKnight and Adelaide Johnson. The church school will meet at the close of the morning service. "From Moses to Joshua" will be the subject of the talk in the adult class led by the pastor.

FAIRMOUNT CHRISTIAN—Location in East Eugene at Seventeenth and Columbia streets. R. L. Dunn, minister. Regular services each Sunday at usual hours of 9:45 for Bible school and worship and sermon at 11:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor and preaching at 6:30 and 7:30 respectively. The evening service will deal with God's unbreakable gift. Mrs. Dunn will bring the sermon message in the evening service. Good music at all services under the leadership of Howard Smith. Always a welcome for strangers.

GRACE LUTHERAN—Corner Eleventh avenue and Ferry street. R. Trautman, pastor. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Divine service, 11 a. m., with sermon on the subject, "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord." Rehearsal for the children's Christmas program 2:30 p. m. The program, entitled, "The Christ Child," will be given Thursday evening at 7:30 by the children of the Sunday school, assisted by the octet. Christmas services on Friday morning, German at 10 o'clock and English at 11 o'clock. A cordial welcome to worship with us and we believe that many will find the Christ Child in all who have no other church connections.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL—J. Franklin Haas, Minister. Pastors morning sermon at eleven on the theme "America and the Purpose of God." This will be a Christmas sermon. The evening message will be on the subject, "What Christmas Means." Congregational singing of Christmas hymns before the sermon. The Epworth League has a Christmas Carol service at 6:30. The Wesley club will have Henry Norton as leader, with the theme "Christmas Customs." Music for the day arranged by John Stark Evans as follows: Morning at 11, Anthem, "Hark, What Mean Those Holy Voices," Henrich, Mr. Carr, ladies' quartet and choir. Anthem, "Hallelujah Chorus," Handel, the choir. Evening at 7:30, solo, "The Star of Bethlehem," Caro Roma, Mr. Bryson.

BIBLE STANDARD TEMPLE—Fred L. Hornsbuh pastor. Our Sunday services are held in the armory at Seventh and Oak. Week day services at the old location at Seventh and Pearl. At your leisure take a quiet in the new church, denominated, "The Light House Temple" at Twelfth and Oak. The laborers are sparing neither time nor ability in making it a temple for the Lord. Inside decorations are taking form and the work is progressing. Sunday school at the armory at 10 o'clock. Attendance and interest is increasing. Preaching at 11 on "The Bridge, the Tribulation Saints." At 2:30 Ensign Anthony will preach his "Banner" sermon. Hear him. At 5:30 the Crusaders have their young people's meeting at the old location. Join their happy number. Then at 7:30 begins the big service of the day. Orchestra, special selections, good singing and preaching will feature the evening service. The sermon will be on the "Destiny of Man." You will make no mistake by coming to the armory for divine worship. "Come, thou with us and we will do thee good." Everybody enjoys our old fashioned meetings. Come once and you are very apt to come again.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST—Corner of Twelfth and Oak streets. Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock; Wednesday evening testimony meeting at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. The reading room at 312 McMorran and Washburne buildings, corner of Eighth and Willamette streets, is open daily to the public from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sunday and holidays from 2 to 5 p. m. Wednesday to 5 p. m. The subject of the lesson-sermon for Sunday, "Is the Universe, Inevitable Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" All are cordially invited to attend the church services and to visit the reading room.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—9:45 church school. 11 a. m. Christmas sermon and music. Theme: "Chimes of Jesus." Music: Anthem, "There Were Shepherds," "Gloria to Heaven's Eternal King." Meyer-Helmund, Clara Whitton. 5 p. m. (notice the change of time to five o'clock.) Pageant: "The Adoration of the Kings and Shepherds" with a candle lighting service, Carols, and caste as follows: Twelve angels; three kings; shepherds; Mary; Joseph and the child; attendants. A chaste, spiritual and intensely beautiful service. Wednesday at 7:15 Christmas eve, gathering with Christmas stories, carols, Santa Claus, treat, and general merriment. Under the auspices of the church school.

FIRST BAPTIST—(Of Cottage Grove) Chapel car. "Good Will" one block north of S. station. Rev. J. D. Chappelle missionary in charge. Rev. J. C. Orr, Pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. classes for all. Sunday December 20 is a big day, we have looked forward to and planned for this day several weeks. Rev. J. D. Chappelle will preach at the morning service, taking as his subject, "The Right Use of a Wagon Life." After the morning sermon the right hand of fellowship will be extended to those wishing to unite with the church. We have set the goal at 25 and we believe that many will unite with the church. Sunday evening at 7:30 the Christmas program in tableau pictures, ten acts, showing Christ in prophecy from the garden to the hill tops at Bethlehem on the first Christmas night. The B. Y. P. U. meeting will be dismissed this evening in order that the young people might have plenty of time in preparing for the evening program. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN—Tenth and Pearl. Rev. A. H. Saunders, pastor. Rev. Bruce J. Giffen, university pastor. Sabbath school at 9:45 p. m. H. A. Soule, general superintendent. The Christmas worship service will be held at 11 a. m. The Christmas music by the quartet and vested choir will consist of the anthems, "O Babe Divine," Hamblen, "The Little Christ Child," Russell, and the quartet will sing "The First Christmas," Barnby. At 4 p. m. the quartet, consisting of Prof. J. B. Siefert, Mrs. T. A. Pearson, Mrs. W. W. Wyatt and Prof. David Jones, and the vested choir will sing the Cantata, "The Coming of the King," Dudley Buck. There will be no evening service on the evening of the Christmas story. The Westminister league will meet as usual in the church at 6:30. John Dodds will lead the meeting, the subject for discussion being, "Why did Jesus come into the World?" There will be special music and final practice for the caroling. The Christmas Endeavor will not meet because of the afternoon service. The Christmas program will be given on Wednesday evening at 7:30. A beautiful and unique feature of the service will be a tableau entitled "The Christmas Story," which will include solos and duets. The children will also have part in the service. On Christmas eve, the Westminister league young people will sing carols at the home of sock and shut-ins. The monthly meeting of the missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. Andrews, 1255 Mill street on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. S. D. Allen will talk on southern missions. Miss Mary McCormick will have charge of the Bible lesson. We extend a cordial invitation to all who are not associated with any other church to worship with us during the glad Christmas season.

FIRST CHRISTIAN—Oak and Eleventh streets. E. V. Sifers, pastor. Last Sunday 8:15 service present at Sunday school. The Sunday many of the students are gone, hence the necessity of every member in the city attending. If a good showing is made we will exceed the total of last year. Then, too, it is the day when the Christmas sermon is preached, a service that each member should enjoy. The subject is, "Every Christian." The music of the morning is all Christmas music. Do not miss the morning service. The evening is given over to the children of the Sunday school and a program will be presented by them. The offering of the evening is for benevolence. We are all in the spirit of giving, and a good offering will be presented for the orphan children. These programs by the children are always enjoyed. We are closing our best year in the church's history. Let the last two Sundays be outstanding ones. "Loyalty Sunday" was a wonderful success. We are expecting those who did not make their pledges for the year 1925 to do so this Sunday or next at the latest. We invite all who care to do so, and who are not lined up with other churches of the city, to join with us in the observance of Christmas spirit. We wish for the city of Eugene a most happy Christmas time.

FIRST BAPTIST—C. L. Travin, minister. Last Thursday evening the church voted to reject the building plans previously adopted and authorized the committee to proceed with the drafting of new plans. It is believed that a more compact, and therefore less expensive building can be planned, accommodating practically as many people as were provided for in the first plans. The location at Ninth and High street was again favored by vote of the church. In the meantime we still extend to you a cordial welcome at the old church on the corner of Eighth and Pearl. Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the everlasting question that baffles a satisfactory answer, "Who is This?" or "What Think Ye of Christ?" In the evening twenty five children and young people will render "A Christmas Message of Peace and Good Will." The pastor will speak briefly on, "We Have Seen His Star." Future events to bear in mind: An old fashioned New Years' dinner at the church without price. A great feast of our own trees. An address by Dr. Bryant of Corvallis. Beginning the first Sunday in January a series of gospel meetings. The pastor preaching and Prof. Fisher of Chicago leading the singing.

FAIRMOUNT PRESBYTERIAN—Villard Boulevard and Fifteenth street. The program for Sunday morning will be largely a program of music. Mrs. Donald Morgan and Mildred Moody made their report of the two days spent at the university campus. Each spoke highly of the entertainment given them at Hendricks and Friendly halls and of the many interesting and instructive lectures presented. Many good points were made concerning the editing and preparation of news, making the most of the high school assembly, student leadership and higher education in general. One of the students had this to tell: We were represented by three students as you know. Each conference high school delegate was targeted with a ribbon in the ear, secretary, editor or president, the latter meaning of the student body. Harrisburg delegates all wore the president ribbon which led to some wonderment as to what high school class officers at H. S. employ. A special number rendered at the opening exercises Monday morning was a piano solo by Mildred Moody of the junior class. The primary boys and girls have been making Christmas cards this week night at the church. Christmas tree and a playful cantata "Santa Claus Doings" with good things for all the children. Look for full announcement later.

DR. TRAVIN IS PRAISED

SUCCESS AT McMinnville GREAT, SAYS ADMIRER

Many Regard Him as Best Preacher in Entire Northwest, Asserts Dr. Riley in The Baptist

DR. LEONARD W. RILEY (In The Baptist)

Dr. Charles L. Travin has accepted the call of the First church of Eugene, where he has served as acting pastor for the past two months following the summer of study at the University of Chicago. The church endorsed Doctor Travin's conditions of acceptance which include the promotion of an evangelistic program at the beginning of the erection of a new building, the securing of a pastor's assistant, and provision in the budget for the attendance of the pastor at the meetings of the Northern Baptist convention. The First church at Eugene is the largest in Oregon outside of Portland. The membership is now 324. Unity have been received during the past months and $82 had been pledged to the Lone Star fund. The evangelistic campaign will begin in January with Doctor Travin as preacher. Dr. Travin came to McMinnville, November 1, 1917, thus almost completing eight year in this pastorate. The McMinnville church has prospered under his leadership and now has a membership of 405. The most significant gain has been in the matter of benevolence, a total of more than $6000 annually in recent years as compared with $2500 in the year 1917. The total for all purposes now exceeds $10,000 as compared with about $6000 in 1917. Being the seat of the Baptist college of the Pacific Northwest, this church has offered to the city an exceptional opportunity for the exercise of his unusual gifts as pastor and preacher. There are those who regard him as the best preacher we have in the Northwest today. Doctor Travin graduated from Franklin college in 1896 and from Cross Theological seminary two years later. The first eight years of his ministry were spent in West Virginia, the next three and a half years in Pennsylvania and the next six years in Idaho as its pastor of the First church, Boise. He is the type of leader and preacher needed by our churches in these modern days and unquestionably will do a great work in Eugene, which is the seat of our state university and a rapidly growing community.

Harrisburg School Notes

Sophs Gather Mistletoe. Christmas Program Booked. Conference Meet Profitably. Hoop Teams Start Grind.

HARRISBURG, Ore., Dec. 18.—(Special to the Register)—Two of the sophomore boys were excited Friday afternoon to go in search of the elusive mistletoe. They brought back a generous supply but journeyed to the foothills before finding it. One of the boys also brought back a badly scratched hand the result of a hawk's struggle. They had winged the bird and were planning to domesticate it but the bird won out and is still a citizen of the wild.

The forenoon class periods were changed Thursday and Friday, third was changed to first, fourth to second, first to third, second to fourth.

Numerous sales of candy, salad and ice cream have been held at school this week. A regular dinner was served Thursday noon by the domestic science classes.

Wilma Falk, freshman, has returned to her studies after an absence occasioned by sickness.

Class reporters who have been appointed and served are Edgar Grimes, Mable Smith, Dorothy Barnus, Donald Morgan. Freshman reporter for the coming week, Nora Beeson.

The first interclass basketball game of the week occurred after school hours Monday. The contestants were the sophomores and seniors and the two year olds won the game 23 to 6.

The first outside game of the season is to be played at Coburg, Friday evening. The local team is anxious to try out its newest sport with other than home talent.

The grade school will give a Christmas program in the Christian church, Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 for which each grade has prepared two or three numbers. Several of the children are out because of illness and practice has been delayed somewhat and some changes made. Each room is to have its own tree. An usual, many of which are already placed and partly decorated.

Robert Rambo is a new first grader this week, his parents moving into town because of the line construction work now in process here.

Alce Murphy concluded her conference report Monday and the two following days Donald Morgan and Mildred Moody made their report of the two days spent at the university campus. Each spoke highly of the entertainment given them at Hendricks and Friendly halls and of the many interesting and instructive lectures presented. Many good points were made concerning the editing and preparation of news, making the most of the high school assembly, student leadership and higher education in general. One of the students had this to tell: We were represented by three students as you know. Each conference high school delegate was targeted with a ribbon in the ear, secretary, editor or president, the latter meaning of the student body. Harrisburg delegates all wore the president ribbon which led to some wonderment as to what high school class officers at H. S. employ.

A special number rendered at the opening exercises Monday morning was a piano solo by Mildred Moody of the junior class.

The primary boys and girls have been making Christmas cards this week night at the church. Christmas tree and a playful cantata "Santa Claus Doings" with good things for all the children. Look for full announcement later.

Miss Cunningham's pupils were obliged to make three drawings of names for the Christmas gift giving. This was due to absence and returns.

Reading of the high school constitution Tuesday and fire drill Thursday.

Melvin Burnett, Charles Morris, and Ruth Elliott are all absent from the fifth grade because of chicken pox.

Harold Weber, president of the student body last year, and a freshman at the O. A. C. visited school Thursday.

Two of the high school teachers were home over the week-end. Mr. Willard at his home in Dayton and Miss Sink at her home in Portland.

Six members of the United States history class had a debate scheduled for last Friday's class period. One debater on each side of the chosen question failed to appear because of absence. The question argued was: Resolved, "The an aviation department should be created by the government." Frances Stroda and Alice Murphy talked for the affirmative while Roverta Bronson and Bilyen upheld the negative. Julia Burgess and Deryl Hinton acting as timers, and the other nineteen members of the class were the judges. They decided 15 to 4 in favor of the department being established. This would indicate that young America means to fly rather than crawl.

Several of the high school boys were engaged Saturday in marking the month's dishes in the new playhouse floor. The squad is now practicing every evening. The girls held their first practice Tuesday evening.

It is reported that some of the high school students are falling into the bad habit of cutting classes.

all the menial tasks in her own kitchenette. This, in her new film scene.

Boiled Shoe is Morsel

Charlie Chaplin Performs This Gustatory Feat in Scene From the "Gold Rush" When Stormbound in Cabin.

Corinne Griffith and her company is transferring her picture activities from the United studios to the Metropolitan studios, where she will occupy stables and offices similar to the Harold Lloyd company.

Lloyd Hughes, dressed in a high silk hat and evening clothes spent several days in jail recently. He went through the ordeal for the sake of a number of important scenes in which he is co-featured with Mary Astor.

Victor McLaglen stands six feet three inches in his stocking feet. He has lived in twenty-three countries during his still young life. He has been chief of police of Baghdad, a major in the British army, a member of the King's own guard in England, and a prize fighter of repute.

Doris Kenyon, Mae Allison, Milton Sills, George Fawcett and Victor McLaglen were the guests of honor at a dance given last week in Birmingham, Alabama, by the Axi club, the leading social organization of that city.

Richard Barthelmess, who has been in the picture business for many years, is washing her own dishes now.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess Plays in Pushcart Florist Role

Many fans no doubt felt that Richard Barthelmess had about exhausted every possibility recently in the way of varied characterizations when he appeared on the silver sheet as a "gob" in the navy and a West Point cadet, but Dick is to be seen in a role decidedly original—that of a young Italian florist who peddles his fragile wares from a pushcart in New York's great foreign melting pot, better known as the East Side.

In this picture Barthelmess is said to give one of the most human portrayals of his long and successful career. Dorothy Gish plays opposite him. Kenneth Webb directed.

Surely Barthelmess, with his past delineations of the Chinaman, the backwoods boy, the American dandy of the nineteenth century, the Dutch soldier of fortune of Cromwell's time and the sailor of the square-rigger of two decades ago, is one of the most versatile of any of our present day screen stars.

Anna Q. Nilsson, in a Venetian film wears an evening gown of genuine distinction. It features side trains and pearl trimming in elaborate detail. A large ostrich fan carries out the exotic appeal of the costume.

Colleen Moore in her latest film, wears an evening wrap which features the season's choice of moire for its smartest formal wraps. Wide knotted ostrich forms a becoming collar and banding down the center front. Miss Moore, who wears clothes of the modern debut with an air of chic, has seen a rather bouffant frock of it gaily dotted with roses to be worn beneath her wrap.

Constance Talmadge has limited opportunities to add the mode in her newest picture, a favorite of the European elite wears several gowns and a of distinctly Parisian inspired. A charming little suit of met material banded with velvet collared in the same black velvet, achieves distinction in new note of furled cuffs—very broad.

Barthelmess plays in "The Beautiful City" as a florist who peddles his fragile wares from a pushcart in New York's great foreign melting pot, better known as the East Side.

In this picture Barthelmess is said to give one of the most human portrayals of his long and successful career. Dorothy Gish plays opposite him. Kenneth Webb directed.

Surely Barthelmess, with his past delineations of the Chinaman, the backwoods boy, the American dandy of the nineteenth century, the Dutch soldier of fortune of Cromwell's time and the sailor of the square-rigger of two decades ago, is one of the most versatile of any of our present day screen stars.

Anna Q. Nilsson, in a Venetian film wears an evening gown of genuine distinction. It features side trains and pearl trimming in elaborate detail. A large ostrich fan carries out the exotic appeal of the costume.

Colleen Moore in her latest film, wears an evening wrap which features the season's choice of moire for its smartest formal wraps. Wide knotted ostrich forms a becoming collar and banding down the center front. Miss Moore, who wears clothes of the modern debut with an air of chic, has seen a rather bouffant frock of it gaily dotted with roses to be worn beneath her wrap.

Constance Talmadge has limited opportunities to add the mode in her newest picture, a favorite of the European elite wears several gowns and a of distinctly Parisian inspired. A charming little suit of met material banded with velvet collared in the same black velvet, achieves distinction in new note of furled cuffs—very broad.

Barthelmess plays in "The Beautiful City" as a florist who peddles his fragile wares from a pushcart in New York's great foreign melting pot, better known as the East Side.

FREE!

Genuine Sterling
SILVER THIMBLE

With each purchase made at this store during the next four days—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—whether large or small, will be given away

Absolutely Free!

The Silver Thimble itself will make a nice little gift.

Ask for It

Skeie's Jewelry Store
927 Willamette

Late Styles in Film

Anna Q. Nilsson, in a Venetian film wears an evening gown of genuine distinction. It features side trains and pearl trimming in elaborate detail. A large ostrich fan carries out the exotic appeal of the costume.

Colleen Moore in her latest film, wears an evening wrap which features the season's choice of moire for its smartest formal wraps. Wide knotted ostrich forms a becoming collar and banding down the center front. Miss Moore, who wears clothes of the modern debut with an air of chic, has seen a rather bouffant frock of it gaily dotted with roses to be worn beneath her wrap.

Constance Talmadge has limited opportunities to add the mode in her newest picture, a favorite of the European elite wears several gowns and a of distinctly Parisian inspired. A charming little suit of met material banded with velvet collared in the same black velvet, achieves distinction in new note of furled cuffs—very broad.

Barthelmess plays in "The Beautiful City" as a florist who peddles his fragile wares from a pushcart in New York's great foreign melting pot, better known as the East Side.

In this picture Barthelmess is said to give one of the most human portrayals of his long and successful career. Dorothy Gish plays opposite him. Kenneth Webb directed.

Surely Barthelmess, with his past delineations of the Chinaman, the backwoods boy, the American dandy of the nineteenth century, the Dutch soldier of fortune of Cromwell's time and the sailor of

Flashes From the Screen

Edwin Carewe, before his departure to the Atlantic seaboard, announced that he had plans in progress for the making of a photoplay which will cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000. It is the adaptation of a well-known story by a foreign master, he said, but refused to divulge the author's name, saying he held it back for a "surprise."

Anna Q. Nilsson is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Barthelmess is washing her own dishes now. She has been in the picture business for many years.

Christmas Gift Suggestions

You'll be delighted with the wonderful service provided by You'll find this mark on—

L. & H. Electrics

Electric Ranges
Toasters
Table Stoves
Heaters

Waffle Irons
Curling Irons
Domestic Irons
Hot Plates

Heating Pads
Testing Ovens
Urns and Heaters

H. W. White Electric Co.

878 Willamette
Telephone 25

THEY ALL ENJOY

The Services at the Armory

"THE BRIDE, THE 144,000" at 11.

Ensign Anthony preaches at 2:30

"THE DESTINY OF MAN" at 7:30

"Coming of the King"

A Christmas Cantata by Dudley Buck, will be sung by CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH QUARTET and Vested Chorus of 40 voices.

The quartet consists of Mrs. A. T. Pearson (soprano), Mrs. W. W. Wyatt (contralto), Mr. David J. Jones (bass) and Prof. John B. Siefert (tenor, director). This will be one of the fine musical events of the Christmas season.

at CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH on Sunday December 20 at 4:00 p. m.

At 11:00 a. m.—Christmas services with special music by quartet and chorus. Sermon by the pastor—"The Christmas Message."

Wednesday at 7:30—Christmas Festival with tree and treat for children. Tableau with vocal solos—"The Christmas Story." Central Church extends the season's greeting and a cordial invitation to all our services to the people of Eugene.

REV. A. H. SAUNDERS, minister 10th and Pearl Sts.