(Continued from page one) The E. club met for the last time of the current year on Monday at the club rooms. Christmas and holly made bright holiday decorations. The chairman of the recent Christmas committee, Mrs. Vern Hart, reported a sum of $131.50 was in the Elk's Christmas fund. Mr. F. L. Chambers and Mrs. E. Lee will serve as hostesses at the next meeting on January 13. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lee will be the guests for Christmas dinner at their daughter, Mrs. C. D. Hughes of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hanns have their guests for the Christmas dinner this week. Mrs. J. E. Wilson for the holiday season. The Near East, in several most interesting aspects, was the meeting for Fortnightly club Thursday with Mrs. E. O. Foster as chairman. Mrs. Mitchell leading in the reading and discussion. The three papers read dealt interestingly with European conditions in India, awakened nationalisms and Gandhi as a leader of non-resistance. Three federations of women's societies, which was to have been the week past, will be issued on January 15, when E. A. Parsons of the University of Oregon will talk on crime prevention. A review of Cymbeline, with reports by members of the club, composed the week's program on Monday. Mrs. Nelson led in the study. The Y. W. C. A. auxiliary of the Methodist church met last week with Mrs. H. H. McCord, Mrs. Otto Koppe, Mrs. L. C. Mrs. A. A. Hoover, Mrs. A. A. and Mrs. H. Wagoner as hostesses at the McDonald home. Mr. H. D. Smartt and Mrs. Norman Moody led the devotion and study hour. Recently the auxiliary and the Y. W. C. A. society joined in their annual dinner for members of the church. The dinner was in the church parlors, and holiday decorations were used. Friends of Miss Margaret Chase of Oregon City are much interested in news of her marriage which was solemnized in the Episcopal church in Oregon City. Mr. Walter Banks and Mrs. Corde were hostesses Monday for the regular meeting of the Gamma alumnae, decorated by supper, as the evening's program. An annual event for Thimble members, which has occurred for the Christmas season for a number of years, was the Christmas party and party for which members gathered on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. Chambers entertained this particular group in their new home for the first time. For the occasion had arranged for the most attractively with a Christmas dinner table was decorated with holly and poinsettias. During the dinner hour Mrs. Dick Dunn presided as toastmaster, calling on Mrs. Davis, Mrs. C. H. Willoughby and a group and what occupied the evening hours, and a gay Christmas yielded gifts for each of the most congenial group. The program of a Christmas carol and song was completed. This was an occasion for the club members and their guests, who numbered Miss Maudie Kerns, Miss Lann, Miss Mabel Simons, Mrs. Adelaide Lilly and Mrs. Charles Chambers. Eugene friends of Mr. and Mrs. Yoran are anxiously awaiting news from the bedside of the Yoran, who was yesterday in a serious condition in a California hospital following a motor accident this week. Mr. and Mrs. Yoran had left Eugene recently to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Lucille Yoran Sweeh. Mrs. Warren Smith is receiving the condolences of friends on the death of her father, Thomas Emmet Kilson of Pasadena, which occurred on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Ellison had spent several summers in Eugene and numbers of friends were most sorry to hear of his passing. Eugene friends of Miss Mildred Baldwin and L. P. Lemon are much interested in news of their engagement and approaching marriage during the Christmas season. The news was told the week past. Miss Baldwin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Baldwin. She formerly attended the University of Oregon where she is a member of Tau Nu sorority. While residing in Eugene Miss Baldwin was prominent in musical circles. Mr. Lemon is also a former university student and a member of Theta Chi fraternity. Miss Ena Eldredge has left for Independence, Kansas, where she will spend the holiday vacation with friends. Miss Lulah McMurphy is one of several Eugene maids who will spend the holidays out of town, planning to leave tomorrow for Seattle to be the guest of friends. Mrs. Albert McMurphy has as her guest Mrs. Mary Murcheson of Vancouver, B. C. who is en route to her home after a visit in California. Mrs. Arthur Striker planned a surprise for her mother, Mrs. M. Gilbert, the event being Mrs. Gilbert's birthday. Those invited were Mrs. W. S. Humphrey, Mrs. E. A. Farrington, Mrs. Margaret Edmonson, Iris Edmonson, Myra Calif, Martha Calif, Minnie Harlow, Mrs. L. A. Crow, and Mrs. Arthur Striker and two daughters Marcella and Bobby. Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Fields were hosts on Wednesday night to members of the Welviah club group, who met for dinner and bridge. Christmas gifts were placed in bright array on the disused table and holiday spirit made the time most pleasurable to the group. Daughters of the Nile met Wednesday at one o'clock for their annual Christmas party, a luncheon given in the tea room of the Osburn hotel. Hostesses for this enjoyable affair were Mrs. Marion Veatch, Mrs. E. L. Nombelals, Mrs. E. L. Zimmerman and Mrs. W. W. Branstratter, and they had prepared delightful Christmas plans for the afternoon. The luncheon table was gay and lovely with a holiday centerpieces lovely with small clusters of pine, holly and red candles arranged in little wooden containers marked each place. A huge cluster of mistletoe, a large table, and two bunches of lighted red candles completed a beautiful effect. Following the luncheon hour a business meeting occupied the hour of time, and plans were made for the annual bridge benefit and tea of Christmas club, which will be an event of next month. At noon hours were spent in exchanging gifts from the decorated Christmas tree, arranging contributions for Mrs. Ady's Christmas cheer work, and listening to a delightful program of

Christmas carols and other music. All Cottage Grove and Springfield members of the club were present, and covers were placed for thirty-three. Mrs. Paul Kelly, Mrs. C. P. Tillman and Mrs. A. L. Loumax will be the next hostesses. Members of the Monday Book club, with their husbands, planned one of the week's jolly and most impromptu affairs, when they took covered dish dinner and went to the new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holt on Monday night. The evening gathering was in the nature of a house-warming, and so was especially enjoyable, with after-dinner hours spent informally about the fireplace and in enjoying the new home. Mrs. E. L. Knapp served as toastress for the dinner, calling upon the hosts, the new members of the club, and the husbands for responses, and during the time the group presented to Mr. and Mrs. Holt a gift for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. George Goodall were guests for the evening, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keeney were also in the group, Mrs. Keeney being a new member of the club. Mrs. J. T. Cockburn will be hostess for the regular meeting of her home tomorrow. The regular meeting of W. R. P. L. has been postponed until the January meeting date. Mrs. Troy Morton of Irving planned a jolly affair last Friday for a group of her Eugene friends, holding them for needlework and tea. Guests numbered Mesdames W. Ekins, J. B. Strawn, B. F. Goodpasture, Chris Marx, Otto Lamb, D. E. Harshman, T. A. Lee, Elmer Gilbertson, L. Moore and George Alfred of Irving. A no-host dinner at the Eugene hotel, followed by bridge, was the diversion for members of the Ladies Club around the corner on Thursday night of the week past. Assembly club's New Year's eve dance, which is always one of the gayest of the winter parties for this group, will be held Thursday night in Laraway hall, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kissling as hosts. Teachers of Patterson school enjoyed a merry Christmas party last Tuesday evening, first going to the Holiday to see Bountiful, and later to the home of Miss Marjorie Speed, where a Christmas shower was given for the tiny baby girl who was left at the Speed home several weeks ago. A lovely tree laden with beautiful and useful gifts for the baby formed the center of the attractive table decorations. Bounteous refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mrs. Rose Stacks, Miss Edna Briggs, Mrs. Margaret Stevens, Mrs. Mabel Getting, Mrs. Mary Peterson, Miss Juanita Wolff, Miss Virginia Crow, and the hostess Miss Marjorie Speed, her husband Mr. Jan Speed and baby Velma Patterson Speed. At a lovely, though very quiet wedding to which only members of the two families were bidden the two young ladies, Preston M. Gross and Miss Marjorie Speed, were married Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at Mrs. Albra's home. The bride was accompanied by Catherine Redman at her parents' lovely home, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Redman, 1499 Moss street. The ring service was read by Rev. A. H. (Continued on Page 8, Column 1)
