

Morning Register Lane County News

(Continued from page 2)

Springfield, Mrs. S. K. Pay, left tonight for Weiser, Idaho, where he will spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays with his parents in that city. He will return for the opening of the winter term of the university.

Mrs. Mabel Olsen, of Pleasant Hill, was shopping today with Springfield friends.

Mrs. Helen Ricknell and son Paul of Martinez, Cal., will visit at the home of Mrs. Grace Roberts. They will arrive Monday.

John Olin of Lost Creek spent the afternoon in town transacting business.

Two officers were left out of the newspaper report yesterday of the election of officers of the Springfield Woodmen of the World.

George Ditto was named clerk of the local group and Charles Miller was elected banker. No customary Christmas party was planned.

Harry Merendorf, farmer living near Springfield, is in town for supplies Saturday.

Mrs. Mary E. Reed has moved her residence to West Springfield. She resided formerly at Ninth and B streets.

Mrs. Taylor Needham of Thurston and her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Hadley of Eugene, who have been spending the week with her while recuperating from an illness, were Springfield visitors yesterday.

Mrs. Myrtle Walker and two children are expected to arrive Wednesday, to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thompson, during the Christmas holidays.

R. L. Burnett is planning a trip to Albany Sunday.

The turbine of the Mountain States Power company plant will be put in operation Saturday following repairs. It is announced.

Charles Girard of Everett, Wash., is expected home for the holidays. He will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Girard, Miss Dorothy Girard, who teaches near Coburg, will also be home for Christmas to visit her parents.

No clues have been found to the theft of a new automobile tire and rim which were stolen from a car belonging to J. C. Parker, which was parked in front of his home on Fifth and C streets.

INSTALLATION IS HELD

MRS. MABEL SMITH MATRON AT COTTAGE GROVE

(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Dec. 19.—A joint public installation of the Eastern Star and the Masonic lodge was held Friday evening in the lodge rooms. Following the business session light refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mrs. K. Mills, Mrs. E. Bede, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. C. Burkholder, Mrs. N. Durham, Mrs. G. Bjorset and Miss Donna Nichols.

The incoming matron, Mrs. Mabel Smith, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The outgoing matron, Mrs. Roy Short, being presented with a beautiful hand carved tray and the past matron's pin. The lodge rooms were decorated with red candles and evergreens.

C. E. WILL GIVE PLAY

MUSIC WILL BE FEATURE OF ENTERTAINMENT

(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Dec. 19.—The members of the Christian Endeavor will sponsor the Christmas play to be put on at the church Christmas eve at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Roy Hands, Mrs. Claude Sherman and Lula Hull.

A half hour of music, consisting of choruses and solo work will precede the play. "The Greatest Day of the Year." There will be 27 characters and the scene is the palace of time, with a review by Father Time, to choose from all the days of the year the one that is greatest. The costumes and music are in keeping with the play.

The play is being directed by Bert Burrows and Mrs. Claude Sherman is the accompanist. Solos will be rendered by Lelle Hull and the chorus music and the play.

COTTAGE GROVE PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patton were out-of-town visitors from Culp creek today.

Miss Helen Breedlove, who has been attending the state normal at Monmouth, ad her sister, Mrs. Wm. Carr of Gateway, arrived today to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Breedlove. Miss Helen Breedlove met her sister in Portland.

Robert Meranda arrived Friday afternoon from Azalea and will remain here through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Meranda, accompanied by their daughters, Helen and Genevieve, and niece, Mrs. Ed Skilling, motored to Eugene Saturday and spent the day with friends.

Mrs. L. E. Liston was a Eugene visitor Friday. She was joined there by Mr. Liston's sister, Mrs. H. L. Wood of Goshen, and will be a guest of Mrs. Wood's over the week-end.

J. C. and Wm. Franklin, from Medford, Oklahoma, have leased the McKinney farm near Goudyville, from Hal and Long, and will move here with their families soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coon, accompanied by Mrs. Coon's aunt, Mrs. A. E. Hand, will leave early Sunday morning for a two week's visit with friends and relatives in Eureka, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Slagle of Sharps creek, were business visitors in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Proudfoot visited in town Saturday on their way to spend the holidays with relatives at Wildwood.

Mrs. D. M. Nichols of Oakland was a shopping visitor in town Saturday.

Mrs. Gertrude Whitset, accompanied by Kenneth and Dalton Ward, motored to Eugene Friday.

School to Have Social (Register Lane County Special) CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 19.—The Camas Center school will hold a basket social and Christmas program Tuesday evening. The general public is invited. It is announced.

Wooten Funeral Held (Register Lane County Special) CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 19.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Lucy M. Wooten was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church. Beautiful floral tributes attested the regard for the deceased and her family by friends and neighbors. A quartet consisting of Mrs. F. W. Ogram, Mrs. Cora Olson, Ed Weber and C. H. Sedgwick accompanied by Miss Florence Schaub, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Rock of Ages." Rev. J. L. Stratford officiated.

Students Return Home

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 17.—Miss Edna Zinniker, Miss Nita Zinniker and Miss Willoughby Howe returned Friday from Monmouth normal for the Christmas holidays. George and Howard Sedgwick returned Friday from O. A. C. for the Christmas holidays.

GRANGE PLAY IS POPULAR

STAGE SETTING REALISTIC FOR PRODUCTION

Country Atmosphere Appears in First Act of "Back to the Farm," at Creswell

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 19.—The Grange play, "Back to the Farm," drew a good-sized audience Friday evening at the Creswell Grange. The theme was to demonstrate the value of education along farming lines mixed with a bit of romance and comedy that kept a live interest.

Each member of the cast carried his part to perfection. The stage decorations were a feature. The opening scene making a veritable farm-yard out of the stage. Between the first and second acts a male quartet sang a number. The receipts were close to $40. The following was the cast of characters:

Chas. Merrill, a farmer of the old school, Mr. Chas. Wetzel.

Merton Merrill, the son, Leonard Zinniker.

Mrs. Merrill, the thrifty wife, Mrs. Parsons.

Rose Meade, the school ma'am, Hazel Taylor.

Gus Anderson, the hired man, Mr. Iderhoff.

Reuben Allen, a neighbor, Amherst Howe.

Mr. Stanley, a lawyer and real estate agent, John Napper.

Robert Powell, a senior in law, Clifford Gregor.

Margerie Lagdon, a promising society debutante, Thea Meade.

Hilda, the maid, Mrs. Iderhoff.

Act I—The Merrill farm, mid-autumn, 1906; morning.

Act II—The University of Minnesota. Five years later. At the fraternity ball.

Act III—Merton's study at the Merrill farm. Two years later. Morning.

LODGE NAMES OFFICERS

EASTERN STAR AT CRESWELL HAS MEETING

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 18.—The Eastern Star chapter No. 96 of the Eastern Star installed officers Thursday evening as follows: worthy matron, Mrs. N. E. Steele; worthy patron, C. H. Sedgwick; associate matron, Mrs. H. V. Mathew; secretary, Mrs. C. F. Moore; treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Martin; conductress, Mrs. Will Lower; associate conductress, Mrs. F. D. Lacey; chaplain, Mrs. G. E. Everson; marshal, Mrs. Clay M. Stone; organist, Mrs. Grace Sedgwick; Ada, Mrs. Wayne Land; Ruth, Mrs. R. E. Dersham; Esther, Mrs. William Holliston; Martha, Mrs. F. W. Ogram; Electa, Mrs. J. E. Nolan; warder, Mrs. George Shaub; sentinel, C. L. Weber.

The installing officers were Mrs. Gertrude Clark of Glendale and Mrs. Olive Parsons of Eugene, both charter members of the local chapter. Mrs. Parsons was its first worthy matron.

A beautiful past matron's pin was presented to Mrs. R. E. Dersham, the retiring worthy matron, on behalf of the chapter by Mrs. C. F. Moore. Other out-of-town members who were present are: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McDonald and Mrs. John Cosman of Eugene.

Mrs. R. E. Parsons of Springfield and Mrs. Opal Wilkerson of Fresno, Cal. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee consisting of Wm. Holliston, Mrs. J. E. Nolan and Mrs. Dersham.

P-T. A. Meeting Monday

(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., Dec. 19.—The Parent-Teacher meeting will be held at the school house at 2:30 p. m. Monday. Mothers of all school age children are urged to attend. The pupils of the first and second grade, Miss Phetteplace, teacher, will give a Christmas program.

FARMERS' UNION ELECTS

HADLEYVILLE LOCAL HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

(Register Lane County Special)

HADLEYVILLE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Hadleyville local of the farmers' union met Thursday for its regular business session and elected the following officers: president, Norman Hemenway; vice-president, George Powell; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Smith; conductor, M. Gillespie; doorkeeper, Jesse McCulloch.

After election, the officers were installed by President Seales. Hadleyville local went on record favoring Mr. Allen as county president and Mr. Seales as vice-president.

The members are looking forward to the good will luncheon at the Osburn hotel, New Year's day.

Entertainment Is Given

(Register Lane County Special)

PLEASANT HILL, Ore., Dec. 19.—The entertainment given at the church here Friday night was well attended and over $20 was taken in at the cafeteria supper, to be applied to the purchase of a carpet for the church. The program was very interesting, a feature being the old-style costumes worn by 12 of the women.

AID FINISHES QUILT

NEXT MEETING IS PLANNED FOR JANUARY 7

(Register Lane County Special)

BLAICHLY, Ore., Dec. 16.—The ladies aid held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Johnson. The quilt which was being made was finished and is now ready for sale. Those present were: Mrs. Pontius, Mrs. Walter Blachly, Mrs. L. Miller, Mrs. J. Ratcliff, Mrs. Danly, Mrs. Dade, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Mabel Rust, Mrs. E. E. Barrows and Mrs. Coy Denninger. All reported a splendid time as visiting was the main issue of the afternoon.

BLAICHLY PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

BLAICHLY, Ore., Dec. 18.—There were 60 in the Christmas program at the church next Sunday, December 20. Sunday school will be at 10 o'clock followed by program and regular services.

C. M. Congdon, who has been visiting his brother for some time, left Monday morning for Portland to spend the holidays with his family.

Ralph Schmitt of Horton is confined to a local hospital with the scarlet fever.

Dr. A. N. Orcutt is leaving soon for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend Christmas with his father.

Mrs. C. M. Hulbert and sons, Earl Myers, Ross Taylor and Harry Miller were business visitors in Gresham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Post and son were business visitors in Junction City Wednesday.

The Blachly Telephone company held a meet at the school house Monday to vote on a permanent route for the telephone line. Both the high pass and the low pass were considered. The high pass which is the present route, carried by one vote, George Syphers and F. E. Blachly are repairing the line.

Asst. H. Rust, who has been working with the state highway department at Austin, Oregon, came home Wednesday evening. Work had closed down on account of the snow but will be resumed after New Year.

Leland Dyringer of Hillsboro is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Myers motored to Eugene Monday.

"GYPSY ROVER" GIVEN

OPERAETTA PRESENTED BY SCHOOL STUDENTS

(Register Lane County Special)

WENDLING, Ore., Dec. 19.—Mohawk union high school operated "The Gypsy Rover," was a decided success as given to the Wendling people in Four-L hall last night, Friday, December 18. The work of Ida Wickes as "Constance" was splendid. Harold "Taylor" as "Gypsy" and "Sir" Gilbert as "Howe," male lead in a dual role won applause time and again with his acting and singing.

John Howard, Walter Mull and Gertrude Sorenson, Jack Arnold, Theo Johnson, Lester Lybarger, Charles Snow, Chester Boulett, Hal Howard, Wallace Mull and the members of the high school glee club were the supporting cast.

BURIAL SERVICE HELD

AYLESWORTH INTERMENT IN L. O. O. F. CEMETERY

(Register Lane County Special)

JUNCTION CITY, Ore., Dec. 18.—The funeral of Mrs. M. E. Aylesworth was held from the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Habershon officiating. Interment at the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Hattie M. Burlington was born March 12, 1853, at Battle Creek, Mich. She was married September 24, 1871, to M. G. Aylesworth of Buffalo, N. Y. She has three daughters were born, both sons and one daughter have since died.

She leaves her husband and two daughters, Fannie Newell, Erie, Kansas, and Nellie Widner of Junction City. Twelve grand-children and four great grand-children also survive. She has lived in this community many years and was a member of the Baptist church.

JUNCTION CITY PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

JUNCTION CITY, Ore., Dec. 18.—The women of the Methodist Episcopal church held their bazaars and Christmas sale Thursday.

Brus Beas, seventh grade teacher, is in Eugene this week taking teachers' examinations. Marguerite Douglas is substituting for her.

Lee Mr. Finley has been to Marshfield and other coast points for the past few days. He returned Thursday evening accompanied by Cleo Jenkins, architect from Portland, who has been to Coquille and Myrtle Point on business and were en route home.

Oakridge Restaurant Sold (Register Lane County Special) OAKRIDGE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Edd Lindig of Alaska has purchased the model restaurant along with fixtures and all from Mr. Stevens.

OAKRIDGE PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

OAKRIDGE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hills are leaving Sunday for Portland.

Mrs. Lee of Alaska is going to Kilton Springs for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darnell and daughter, Betty, spent Friday in Eugene.

O. Johnson of Seattle spent a few days here the past week.

H. H. Harry of San Francisco, was here this week.

Clarence Rycher drove to Eugene today to meet his sister, Katie Rycher, who is coming from Monmouth to spend the holidays.

Russell and Metzner have shipped four or five carloads of poles recently.

BECK PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

BECK, Ore., Dec. 18.—Mrs. Chas. Darling went out on the train Wednesday to spend the holidays with friends in Portland.

Charles Darling left Friday for Portland where he expects to meet with his wife and spend Christmas vacation.

C. J. Adrance, a retired railroad man, motored into Beck last Thursday and on account of roads being bad decided to stay here for a month or so, and do a little hunting and fishing.

The Riverview school will hold a Christmas program at the school house December 13 at 7 o'clock.

FRANKLIN PERSONALS (Register Lane County Special) FRANKLIN, Ore., Dec. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Richardson went to Donna Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Bryant. Mrs. Richardson will remain for a few days' visit.

Wednesday at the C. W. Rankin home.

SMALL FARM IS BOUGHT

IDAHO MAN COMES TO HARRISBURG TO LIVE

(Register Lane County Special)

HARRISBURG, Ore., Dec. 19.—(Special to the Register)—Eugene Holbrook who recently arrived from Lewiston, Idaho, expects to locate here on a small farm. He was engaged in truck farming in Idaho, but this fall deliberately walked off, as he puts it, and let the other fellow have the place.

The method of marketing oats all the profit he makes. His little farm was well improved and he worked hard to build it up. Every year there was some drawback that kept down the profit.

He said he desires to try the Willamette valley where he feels sure that he can at least have a good living for his efforts, intimating that that was more than he had been able to secure on his little irrigated farm near Lewiston.

Several from the vicinity attended the Dunlap sale near Meadowview Wednesday.

Earl Dieckill butchered hogs Wednesday.

Maude Young, May House and Ina House were in Eugene Saturday evening.

Ches Kirk is doing some carpenter work for G. N. Bryant.

CHESHIRE PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

CHESHIRE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Maude Burt of Eugene visited at the A. S. Cheshire home Sunday and Monday.

H. O. Jackson has traded his farm here for property near Carr Falls and will move to that place as soon as he disposes of his personal property.

Mrs. R. C. Allen entertained the Christian ladies at an all-day meeting, Tuesday to finish up some work on hand before Christmas.

Marvin Bailey and family of Wendling, Ore., visited at the L. L. Cheshire home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Allen transacted business in Eugene, Tuesday.

Mrs. A. S. Cheshire received a fine Jersey calf from Tillamook county Tuesday evening.

MEADOWVIEW NEWS

(Register Lane County Special)

MEADOWVIEW, Ore., Dec. 19.—The play entitled "When Home Came Ted," given at the school house Saturday evening, was a success in every respect. There was an excellent crowd out. Proceeds amounted to over thirty dollars clear.

W. L. Copperton of Eugene was here on business Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ira Parks of Roseburg visited over the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Parkinson.

Born, at the Eugene hospital, Sunday, December 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Larky, a daughter.

Mrs. Middleton returned to her home Saturday evening after the past two weeks at the Haines home.

C. E. Duckworth and daughter Aloha, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Stone and children, Vernon, Harold and Betty Jean, of Canby were house guests at the Deming home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Barnard of Eugene, drove out to the ranch Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunlap expect to leave the latter part of the week for Idaho where they will make their home.

Mrs. Walter Stafford and daughter Virginia, came out from Eugene Saturday evening to attend the play at the school house and spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deming.

Mrs. Lenhart and children, Mrs. Alice and Mrs. Clark Dick of Eugene visited Wednesday at the Deming home.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Deming were Mr. and Mrs. Mickel of Creswell.

Mrs. Stanford Matheson spent Wednesday night with Mrs. Russell Lenhart of Eugene.

WESTLAKE PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

WESTLAKE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Earl Clark went home over the week-end and was accompanied by his brother Dan.

Miss Rosella McKee, teacher, is preparing a Christmas program to be given next Wednesday evening, at 7:30 at the school house.

J. P. Simpson returned Saturday from his home in Eugene. He is the foreman of the Sitcoons Logging company.

V. Heminway of the Oregon Drug company of Eugene was here on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neely Christainson was here from Roseburg, visiting Mrs. Christainson's sister, Mrs. Miles Stuvan.

Mrs. Ern Phillips and child are here from Marshfield visiting Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Johnson.

Norma McKellip, secretary, Catharine Hupp, conductress, Vivian Bligh, assistant conductress, Gladys Helts. Ice cream and cake were served after the business of the evening was concluded.

SMALL FARM IS BOUGHT

IDAHO MAN COMES TO HARRISBURG TO LIVE

(Register Lane County Special)

HARRISBURG, Ore., Dec. 19.—(Special to the Register)—Eugene Holbrook who recently arrived from Lewiston, Idaho, expects to locate here on a small farm. He was engaged in truck farming in Idaho, but this fall deliberately walked off, as he puts it, and let the other fellow have the place.

The method of marketing oats all the profit he makes. His little farm was well improved and he worked hard to build it up. Every year there was some drawback that kept down the profit.

He said he desires to try the Willamette valley where he feels sure that he can at least have a good living for his efforts, intimating that that was more than he had been able to secure on his little irrigated farm near Lewiston.

Several from the vicinity attended the Dunlap sale near Meadowview Wednesday.

Earl Dieckill butchered hogs Wednesday.

Maude Young, May House and Ina House were in Eugene Saturday evening.

Ches Kirk is doing some carpenter work for G. N. Bryant.

CHESHIRE PERSONALS

(Register Lane County Special)

CHESHIRE, Ore., Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Maude Burt of Eugene visited at the A. S. Cheshire home Sunday and Monday.

H. O. Jackson has traded his farm here for property near Carr Falls and will move to that place as soon as he disposes of his personal property.

Mrs. R. C. Allen entertained the Christian ladies at an all-day meeting, Tuesday to finish up some work on hand before Christmas.

Marvin Bailey and family of Wendling, Ore., visited at the L. L. Cheshire home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Allen transacted business in Eugene, Tuesday.

Mrs. A. S. Cheshire received a fine Jersey calf from Tillamook county Tuesday evening.

MEADOWVIEW NEWS

(Register Lane County Special)

MEADOWVIEW, Ore., Dec. 19.—The play entitled "When Home Came Ted," given at the school house Saturday evening, was a success in every respect. There was an excellent crowd out. Proceeds amounted to over thirty dollars clear.

W. L. Copperton of Eugene was here on business Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ira Parks of Roseburg visited over the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Parkinson.

Born, at the Eugene hospital, Sunday, December 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Larky, a daughter.

Mrs. Middleton returned to her home Saturday evening after the past two weeks at the Haines home.

C. E. Duckworth and daughter Aloha, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Stone and children, Vernon, Harold and Betty Jean, of Canby were house guests at the Deming home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Barnard of Eugene, drove out to the ranch Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunlap expect to leave the latter part of the week for Idaho where they will make their home.

Mrs. Walter Stafford and daughter Virginia, came out from Eugene Saturday evening to attend