BY GLADYS WILKINS MCCREARY

It is too late to shop early for Christmas; individuals and clubs of congenial groups of friends have all been busily occupied through the past with the most interesting details of Yuletide's approach. Streets have been busy, shops have been busy, streets have been alive, firesides have hummed with activity, and mysterious packages have been stowed away in spots as mysterious still. Some will be remembered when the time comes and some will doubtless be forgotten, a few weeks too late to rank as strictly the doings of Yuletide.

Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. George Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boney, Mrs. Kennedy of Cal., Mrs. J. J. Walton, Mrs. Pauline Walton, Mrs. Helen Richardson of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hampton.

Earl Simmons entertained a number of young men at Clyde Mitchell's residence Tuesday evening in honor of his son Paul's fifteenth birthday. Games were played till a late hour when refreshments were served. Those present were, Elmo Sanders, Dale Sanders, Harry Elroy, Rosco Farmer, Clayton Cawthorn, Malcolm Cawthorn, Henry Dotery, Albert Dotery, Richard Dotery, Paul Simmons, Clyde Mitchell, Earl Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolin.

With more elaborate plans than usual, for which the officers and their wives are to be responsible, the Amusement club will hold its annual Christmas week dance at Laraway hall on the night of Tuesday, December 29.

A large orchestra, Yuletide decorations, and special features are being planned for the affair, and members will entertain their Christmas week guests in this delightful fashion, according to the invitation of the club group.

During the visit of Mrs. John H. Stephens of Monrovia, Cal., who has been the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Reister several small affairs were delightfully planned for her.

Last Tuesday Mrs. T. G. Hendricks entertained a few intimate friends at luncheon at her home. For Mrs. Stephens, while on Thursday Mrs. Frank L. Chambers was hostess for a needlework tea at her home. About a dozen guests were bidden for each affair.

Mrs. Stephens has returned to her home in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer P. Rainey were recent hosts at an informal dinner, bidding six friends to their home. Guests numbered Mr. and Mrs. Hart Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson.

Eugene friends of Miss Louise Nelson will welcome her back in Eugene for the Christmas holidays, which she is to spend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Allen.

Miss Allen is at present located in New York City, where she is in newspaper advertising with the New York American.
