FAST BOUTS ON TAP AT WINTER GARDEN TONIGHT

20 Rounds Slated In Double Main Event

LILLARD MEETS CLARKE

George Dixon of Portland Slated to Meet Carl Miller of Eugene in Second Big Bout on Card

A pent-up avalanche of gloves will be let loose tonight at the Winter Garden with the 28-rounds of fighting in store for fans on one of the finest boxing cards that has ever been made in Eugene. The double main event in which Mack Lillard of Eugene meets Bobby Clarke of San Francisco and Carl Miller of Eugene goes against George Dixon of Portland, both to go ten rounds, look to be battles that will show the squared circle enthusiasts that the cauliflower industry is making wonderful progress in Eugene. The first fight starts at 9 o'clock sharp it was announced by Promotor M. H. Gallow. Five Eugene men will fight on the card.

In a thrilling ten-round main event battle two weeks ago Lillard won a decision over Clarke after knocking him down four times. It was a bout filled with clever fighting and hard punching. It ended with both trying desperately for a knockout and from what each says they are starting tonight where they left off. Clarke is out to avenge the defeat and he has Lillard's measure to a certain extent. Lillard, on the other hand, is over the handicap of a bad cold which he suffered in the last bout and is in the pink of condition. He is determined to make a better showing this time. He carries the knockout drops in either hand and says he intends to use them both tonight. Both men weigh 122 pounds.

Both Men Look Lake Comers

Both men look like comers in the ring. They mix and they punch their way through for the ten rounds. Lillard will be better than he was in the last match. He was tired out in the last five rounds from a cold and Clarke slashed and punched him in the face for the entire last part of the bout.

In the other main event bout of the double-header George Dixon, "the phantom brown boy," will meet some tough going in Carl Miller of Eugene in the 150-pound weight. Miller has won his last two bouts in Eugene by knockouts and this contest tonight will test his punching power to the limit. The crouching weave of Dixon puzzled his opponent in the last bout so that he was not touched a dozen times in the bout. It was a baffling weave and crouch that he used for protection. A long reach and clever footwork makes Dixon decidedly formidable. He didn't punch last time for he didn't have to. He will probably use all the drive he has tonight if he gets any place with Miller. George Dixon lost a close decision to Tim Calahan in Portland last week, against an unusually clever 150-pounder.

New Ones to Be Seen

The new boys on the card are doing their stuff in the two four-round preliminaries and the curtain raiser. Speed Lander of Eugene and Les Anderson of Portland clash for four rounds at 155 pounds. Peewee Bond and Bobby Holk meet four rounds at 112 pounds.

The seating capacity of the Winter Garden has been enlarged so that approximately a thousand seats are available for the anticipated increase in attendance. The last card was so highly successful that Promoter Gallow decided to increase the capacity all that the room would permit.

The boxers will weigh in this afternoon at three o'clock at Ray Babbs under the supervision of the local boxing commission, with Cal Herman of Salt Lake City the referee for the evening.

TWO PIONEER TEAMS LEAD IN VOLLEYBALL

Eagles and McKenzies at Top of League

Standings of the Pioneer club volley ball league were given out yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. following a series of games between the various organizations on the "Y" floor.

Eagles and McKenzies are holding precarious positions at the head of the list, both teams won three series and lost none.

Mohawks are crowding the leaders with a score of two victories and one loss, while Pirates are third with one victory and two loses. Owing to a forfeited game, the Whitman club, which otherwise might have been in the same class with the Pirates, is in the cellar. The Whitmans lost two series and was declared loser in a third by failure to compete in the club's first game of the season.

Percentages of the Pioneer club teams have not been completed but W. P. Walter, boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A. is working on them and will have the list ready for publication in a few days.

SPRINGFIELD QUINTET DEFEATS MONROE 21-4

Teamwork Ragged For Both Basketball Fives

(Register Lane County Special)

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Dec. 21.—The Springfield high school basketball team romped to a 22 to 4 victory over the Monroe high school team last Saturday night at Monroe in the second game on the season's schedule. The local quintet completely outclassed the Monroe five and after the first few minutes of the game had passed it was merely a question of how big the score would be. The local five did not show any great amount of dash in the game. Team work was ragged, shooting inaccurate and a great many ginring faults will have to be polished off by Coach V. D. Bain. The large one-sided score gives no indication of the strength of the teams. The Springfield eleven failed to get going at top form in any period of the game. Their play was listless.

At the end of the first half the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of the winners. After the beginning of the second half the Monroe team failed to make a single basket and got the other two points by means of two foul shots.

Substitutes were sent in by both teams near the end of the last half but they failed to show up as expected. Springfield substitutes did not score at all.

The high-point man and outstanding star of the contest was Ivan Beeson, clever Springfield forward, who shot basket after basket for the winners and chalked up ten points for his credit. Whiteneck, lanky center, was nearest o him with six markers.

FLOORS ARE SELECTED FOR FIRST HOOP GAMES

Varsity or Freshmen of U. Barred From League

Representatives of the teams in the Lane county basketball league recently formed at the Y. M. C. A. met last night and decided on places for the opening games of the season.

Referees were not named at the meeting, but will be chosen prior to the contests.

One important ruling established by the league representatives was: in the list of the first 15 men on any squad, participation in or association with either the varsity team or the freshmen team at the University of Oregon shall be considered enough to disqualify that player from taking part in the Lane county league games.

Following is the schedule for the opening games as outlined last night:

Wednesday, December 23, Y. M. C. A. Comets versus the Babb Hardware company, at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m.

Y. M. C. A. Hounds versus the Wendling 4-L team, at the Eugene high school gymnasium at 7:30 p. m.

Eugene high school gymnasium team versus Company "C" 162nd infantry, at the armory at 8 p. m.

YOUNG NATIONALISTA BEATS JACKIE NEWMAN

Technical Knockout Scored In Seventh Round

(By The Associated Press)

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 21.—Young Nationalista, aspirant for bantamweight honors, scored a technical knockout over Jackie Newman of somewhere in Canada, in the seventh round of their fight tonight. Newman had stuck his chin in front of a light left hook and rolled over on his side on the canvas. Nationalista was so surprised he stumbled over Newman, who immediately started groaning and holding the small of his back. Referee Gruman also was surprised, for he momentarily forgot to count. Newman rose to his feet with a pleading look and then flopped down again. It was a technical knockout.

Tommy O'Brien of Portland and Buddie Davis of Vancouver, B. C., turned in a crashing battle for six rounds, Davis winning the decision. The boys weighed in at 125 pounds.

Don Fraser of Spokane knocked out Johnny Duarte of Honolulu in the second round of a scheduled six-round match.

Joe Boyd, a lightweight novice from Seattle knocked out Tom McCarty of Portland in the first round with a right smash to the pit of the stomach.
