BOND SALE JANUARY 4 SUNDAY CLOSING WANTED BY MINISTERS

(Register Lane County Special) COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Dec. 22.—It was decided at the meeting of the city council Monday night to re-advertise the bonds, the sale to be held January 4. Members of the ministers' association were present and congratulated the council on the laws which have been passed, prohibiting the sale of tobacco to minors and forbidding minors to enter the pool halls. They also wished to ascertain regarding the necessary procedure for getting up a petition for Sunday closing in Cottage Grove.

KNOWLES CLUB SPEAKER NEW BAPTIST CHURCH TOPIC OF DR. TITUS

(Register Lane County Special) COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Dec. 22.—George Knowles was the principal speaker at the regular luncheon of the commercial club today at the Bartlett hotel. He pointed out that most of the large trucks today weigh practically the load limit without any load, and questioned whether the people should pay to repair damage done by the heavy loads. Dr. Titus gave an interesting talk on the new Baptist church, which is to be erected in the near future, just east of the high school. The main auditorium of the church will have a seating capacity of 500.
