XMAS PROGRAM GIVEN

100 PRESENT AT METHODIST CHURCH EVENT

White Offering to Be Sent to W. C. T. U. Home in Corvallis; Mrs. W. H. Gantz Has Charge

(Register Lane County Special)

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Dec. 23.—The annual Christmas program held last evening in the Methodist church of Springfield was enjoyed by over four hundred members of the congregation and visitors.

The evening was taken up with an elaborate program planned by Mrs. W. H. Gantz, superintendent of the Sunday school and included a variety of presentations by members of the Sunday school classes and of the choir. The program started promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the large audience which packed the church enjoyed two hours of Christmas spirit. The stage and the church was decorated with Christmas paper and designs.

The preparation of the affair was under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Gantz, superintendent and a committee composed of Mrs. K. Duncan, Mrs. L. K. Page, Miss Edna Platt and Miss Nat Boessen. The committee worked out the various arrangements for the evening and drilled the children in their parts.

The Christmas at the Methodist church will be a "white" Christmas in that the offering will be used for some worthy cause instead of paying for gifts for the children of the congregation, according to Mrs. Gantz. The W. C. T. U. orphan home or farm home of Corvallis has been selected as the recipient of the gift from the local church.

The program for last evening was:

Orchestra selections—High school orchestra.

Violin solo—Charles Nadvornik.

Vocal, vocal—Mrs. Katherine Duncan and Mrs. S. R. Potter.

Violin solo—Harlen Duncan.

Story of the Nativity in Picture, song and scripture.

Pictures—Stereopticon slides.

Song—Members of choir.

Scripture—Mrs. W. H. Gantz.

Children's songs and solos—Primary classes under direction of Miss Edna Page.

Violin solo—Joe Syre.
