WILSON IS REMEMBERED

KIWANIS OBSERVE BIRTH OF LATE CHIEF

Eugene Postmaster Appeals for Creation of Spirit to Cause New Office Here

With the observance yesterday of the anniversary of Woodrow Wilson's birth, members of the local Kiwanis club were entertained with a story of the life and ideals of the wartime president by Vernon Paine, former student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Kiwanis ideals were linked up with the observance by J. H. Thorne of Roseburg, regional officer of the club, who said that all members must work unitedly in all undertakings for the success of the international organization.

Mr. Thorne also urged the local Kiwanians to strive for a successful district convention here next summer. He is visiting all clubs in this district.

Activities of the postoffice department during the recent Christmas rush, and the need of a new building in Eugene were told by Darwin E. Yoran, postmaster.

Mrs. E. E. Wyatt entertained with vocal selections and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. E. Roberts.

Yesterday's meeting was the last in which the old officers will take part. The next meeting being in the hands of the officers-elect.

DAMAGE SUIT ANSWERED

HAZEL CANTOR AND OTHERS PLACE BLAME ELSEWHERE

In the circuit court suit of John L. Toews against Hazel Cantor, Freeman W. Robinson, Wilma Elliott and Ray F. Elliott, in which he seeks damages on account of a collision between an automobile occupied by the plaintiff and his wife and one occupied by the defendants, an answer was filed yesterday. It is stated that when they were about to meet the plaintiff's car on the highway another car in front of them slowed down without warning and their car skidded, resulting in the collision.

The blame is placed on the car that slowed down and the defendants ask that the case be dismissed and that they recover their costs and disbursements in the suit.

DOCTORS PLAN MEETING

PORTLAND PHYSICIAN WILL READ PAPER

Central Willamette Medical Society to Meet in Eugene on Night of January 7

With a paper on "Induction of labor," an observational subject, Dr. Albert Mathieu of Portland, a specialist in this phase of the medical profession, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Central Willamette Medical society, to be held here January 7, it was learned yesterday.

Dr. Mathieu will be the only speaker to read a paper, the remainder of the time during the meeting to be taken up by discussion.

Five well-known physicians will lead the discussion on and they were announced as follows: Dr. E. C. Joseph of Coquille, Dr. N. E. Irvine of Lebanon, Dr. C. E. Hunt of Eugene, Dr. W. C. Rebhan of Springfield, Dr. B. R. Wallace of Albany, and Dr. Gavin C. Dwyer of Cottage Grove.

You are expected to dress like old-time school boys and girls. Come with your school buckets full. We will furnish the coffee, cream, sugar and pickles. Bring your friends and do not leave the children at home as a room is prepared for them to play. An entertainment will be given during the evening for a good time. Let's all be young again and make it a family gathering; an evening long to be remembered.

The committee consists of J. D. Hamlin, T. A. Stocker and H. P. Curran.

STICKELS IS RELEASED

FINE ASSESSED IN 1922 PAID BY ACCUSED

Leslie Stickels, held in the county jail here under two charges, was released last night with a receipt for a fine of $500 assessed in 1922 marked "paid in full."

Young Stickels was also released by the Coquille authorities who asked for his detention on a bad check charge, the accused having settled this account also, according to a story told at the county jail last night.

The liquor fine of 1922, although lighter than that being given in sentences now, was explained with the statement that Stickels was arrested with two other young men under compromising circumstances.
