

It Is Not True—

That people "begin wearing glasses too soon." Not if the one who first examined the eyes was up to the standard in his work.

Because when the skillful optometrist gets through examining a pair of eyes HE KNOWS what their condition is, HE KNOWS what they need and what they do not need.

And he will not put glasses on that patient until they are NECESSARY.

"You're Safe at Dr. Gick's"

Dr. Royal Gick
OPTOMETRIST — OPTICIAN
878 Willamette Street Eugene, Oregon

"We have one of the finest, most modernly equipped optical offices on the Pacific Coast."

says Mr. Foresight

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Mrs. Fraser in Portland—Mrs. Fraser is in Portland and expects to be gone several days.

Mrs. Clyde Fisk in City—Mrs. Fisk is in the city from her home in British Columbia and expects to operate a trout hatchery.

Mr. and Mrs. Babb Return—Mr. and Mrs. Babb have returned from their trip to San Francisco.

Forest Assistant Resigns—Linton Carter, junior forester, who has been assistant to the ranger at Bridge has resigned his position. He is visiting in Detroit, Mich., and his resignation will be telegraphed.

Inventory is Filed—The property of the estate of Angelina, deceased, is valued at $750, and to the inventory of the property, William G. Hughes, J. C. Martin and L. K. Page, and in probate court yesterday.

Administrator Appointed—J. H. W. yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of William G. Hughes, who died March 25, 1925. C. Washburne, F. W. Moore, and C. H. Washburne were named as appraisers of the property.

Strombaugh Funeral Arranged—Funeral services for Tony Strombaugh, who died at the Eugene hospital a few days ago, will be held at the Branstetter chapel at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. It was reported yesterday that he was survived by his widow, Mamie Strombaugh, a small son August, and his mother Mrs. H. B. Hunter, all of Land Appraiser Here—S. A. Sanford, federal land appraiser, and W. A. Ayers, secretary of the First National Farm Loan association of Lane county, were appraising property yesterday for loan applicants.

Eugene Weather Best—Eugene weather is considerably warmer and better than in San Francisco, according to J. S. Magdary, who returned from the south Wednesday night. There is a difference of two or three degrees, he said.

County Superintendent Home—E. J. Moore, county school superintendent, has returned from Salem where he and other superintendents graded the examination papers of those who applied for teachers' certificates at the recent examinations throughout the state. Mr. Moore says the superintendents held a sort of convention while there. They presented J. A. Churchill, state superintendent, with a gold watch as a token of

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. An-

Revenue Official Here—W. W. Allingham, deputy collector of internal revenue, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with his department.

Fire Is Extinguished—Fire which started in a box of leaves at 422 Twelfth avenue east yesterday morning, was extinguished by the fire department. No damage resulted.

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: Miss Beulah Van Guilder, city; Mrs. W. R. Grapke, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Charles Johnston, Wendling, Mrs. Nevell Furr, Brownsville.

Returns from Portland—Professor Ralph D. Casey of the department of journalism at the University of Oregon has returned from Portland where he addressed a meeting of the Quillers.

Ada Resident Here—J. E. Furrish of Ada was in the city yesterday. He called upon the members of the county court and urged that Guard Huston be reappointed road patrolman for that district.

Rubbish Fire Extinguished—Local firemen extinguished a rubbish fire in the basement of the residence at 542 Twelfth avenue east at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Only slight damage was reported.

Starverud Goes After Lewis—Van Starverud, chief deputy sheriff, leaves this morning for Seattle to bring to this city D. A. Lewis, arrested there Tuesday night on a charge of larceny by bailer, preferred by a Cottage Grove man.

Residence on Jefferson Street Sold—The residence of Fred M. Potter at 224 Jefferson street has been sold to Mrs. Bernice A. Dewey. The deal was made by E. H. Peterson of the Robert Prescott company.

Two Houses Sold—H. C. Day and daughter, Agnes, have purchased two houses on Twenty-fifth avenue east from Mrs. W. W. White. The deal was made through the P. E. Poulton real estate office.

Mrs. Haugen Aid President—Mrs. J. O. Haugen, wife of Rev. J. O. Haugen of the Lutheran church, was elected president of the ladies aid society at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Other officers were not announced.

Arrested on Train—James Haney, 19, and Leo Nutting, 22, were arrested at Junction City yesterday by a Southern Pacific company train conductor, and were lodged in the county jail on a charge of stealing a ride.

Harbaugh Makes Trip to Salem and Back—Colonel J. J. Harbaugh, county juvenile officer, says a river is as full of pep and vim as he is. Yesterday he took a boy to the state reform school at Salem. They left shortly after 8 o'clock and the colonel was back by three in the afternoon.

Returns From Roseburg—Mrs. Clara Plankard has returned from Roseburg, where she conducted classes in the Smith-Hughes school of vocational training. Mrs. Plankard will start a class in the making of lamp shades next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at seven o'clock. It is announced.

Old Injury Troublesome—An old injury to his nose, sustained in a football scrimmage with the University of Oregon freshmen four years ago, has caused considerable trouble to Bob Mautz, 1925 captain of the varsity team. Mr. Mautz left yesterday for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation to correct the condition.

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. An-

Revenue Official Here—W. W. Allingham, deputy collector of internal revenue, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with his department.

Fire Is Extinguished—Fire which started in a box of leaves at 422 Twelfth avenue east yesterday morning, was extinguished by the fire department. No damage resulted.

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: Miss Beulah Van Guilder, city; Mrs. W. R. Grapke, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Charles Johnston, Wendling, Mrs. Nevell Furr, Brownsville.

Returns from Portland—Professor Ralph D. Casey of the department of journalism at the University of Oregon has returned from Portland where he addressed a meeting of the Quillers.

Ada Resident Here—J. E. Furrish of Ada was in the city yesterday. He called upon the members of the county court and urged that Guard Huston be reappointed road patrolman for that district.

Rubbish Fire Extinguished—Local firemen extinguished a rubbish fire in the basement of the residence at 542 Twelfth avenue east at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Only slight damage was reported.

Starverud Goes After Lewis—Van Starverud, chief deputy sheriff, leaves this morning for Seattle to bring to this city D. A. Lewis, arrested there Tuesday night on a charge of larceny by bailer, preferred by a Cottage Grove man.

Residence on Jefferson Street Sold—The residence of Fred M. Potter at 224 Jefferson street has been sold to Mrs. Bernice A. Dewey. The deal was made by E. H. Peterson of the Robert Prescott company.

Two Houses Sold—H. C. Day and daughter, Agnes, have purchased two houses on Twenty-fifth avenue east from Mrs. W. W. White. The deal was made through the P. E. Poulton real estate office.

Mrs. Haugen Aid President—Mrs. J. O. Haugen, wife of Rev. J. O. Haugen of the Lutheran church, was elected president of the ladies aid society at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Other officers were not announced.

Arrested on Train—James Haney, 19, and Leo Nutting, 22, were arrested at Junction City yesterday by a Southern Pacific company train conductor, and were lodged in the county jail on a charge of stealing a ride.

Harbaugh Makes Trip to Salem and Back—Colonel J. J. Harbaugh, county juvenile officer, says a river is as full of pep and vim as he is. Yesterday he took a boy to the state reform school at Salem. They left shortly after 8 o'clock and the colonel was back by three in the afternoon.

Returns From Roseburg—Mrs. Clara Plankard has returned from Roseburg, where she conducted classes in the Smith-Hughes school of vocational training. Mrs. Plankard will start a class in the making of lamp shades next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at seven o'clock. It is announced.

Old Injury Troublesome—An old injury to his nose, sustained in a football scrimmage with the University of Oregon freshmen four years ago, has caused considerable trouble to Bob Mautz, 1925 captain of the varsity team. Mr. Mautz left yesterday for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation to correct the condition.

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. An-

Revenue Official Here—W. W. Allingham, deputy collector of internal revenue, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with his department.

Fire Is Extinguished—Fire which started in a box of leaves at 422 Twelfth avenue east yesterday morning, was extinguished by the fire department. No damage resulted.

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: Miss Beulah Van Guilder, city; Mrs. W. R. Grapke, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Charles Johnston, Wendling, Mrs. Nevell Furr, Brownsville.

Returns from Portland—Professor Ralph D. Casey of the department of journalism at the University of Oregon has returned from Portland where he addressed a meeting of the Quillers.

Ada Resident Here—J. E. Furrish of Ada was in the city yesterday. He called upon the members of the county court and urged that Guard Huston be reappointed road patrolman for that district.

Rubbish Fire Extinguished—Local firemen extinguished a rubbish fire in the basement of the residence at 542 Twelfth avenue east at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Only slight damage was reported.

Starverud Goes After Lewis—Van Starverud, chief deputy sheriff, leaves this morning for Seattle to bring to this city D. A. Lewis, arrested there Tuesday night on a charge of larceny by bailer, preferred by a Cottage Grove man.

Residence on Jefferson Street Sold—The residence of Fred M. Potter at 224 Jefferson street has been sold to Mrs. Bernice A. Dewey. The deal was made by E. H. Peterson of the Robert Prescott company.

Two Houses Sold—H. C. Day and daughter, Agnes, have purchased two houses on Twenty-fifth avenue east from Mrs. W. W. White. The deal was made through the P. E. Poulton real estate office.

Mrs. Haugen Aid President—Mrs. J. O. Haugen, wife of Rev. J. O. Haugen of the Lutheran church, was elected president of the ladies aid society at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Other officers were not announced.

Arrested on Train—James Haney, 19, and Leo Nutting, 22, were arrested at Junction City yesterday by a Southern Pacific company train conductor, and were lodged in the county jail on a charge of stealing a ride.

Harbaugh Makes Trip to Salem and Back—Colonel J. J. Harbaugh, county juvenile officer, says a river is as full of pep and vim as he is. Yesterday he took a boy to the state reform school at Salem. They left shortly after 8 o'clock and the colonel was back by three in the afternoon.

Returns From Roseburg—Mrs. Clara Plankard has returned from Roseburg, where she conducted classes in the Smith-Hughes school of vocational training. Mrs. Plankard will start a class in the making of lamp shades next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at seven o'clock. It is announced.

Old Injury Troublesome—An old injury to his nose, sustained in a football scrimmage with the University of Oregon freshmen four years ago, has caused considerable trouble to Bob Mautz, 1925 captain of the varsity team. Mr. Mautz left yesterday for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation to correct the condition.

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. An-

Revenue Official Here—W. W. Allingham, deputy collector of internal revenue, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with his department.

Fire Is Extinguished—Fire which started in a box of leaves at 422 Twelfth avenue east yesterday morning, was extinguished by the fire department. No damage resulted.

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: Miss Beulah Van Guilder, city; Mrs. W. R. Grapke, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Charles Johnston, Wendling, Mrs. Nevell Furr, Brownsville.

Returns from Portland—Professor Ralph D. Casey of the department of journalism at the University of Oregon has returned from Portland where he addressed a meeting of the Quillers.

Ada Resident Here—J. E. Furrish of Ada was in the city yesterday. He called upon the members of the county court and urged that Guard Huston be reappointed road patrolman for that district.

Rubbish Fire Extinguished—Local firemen extinguished a rubbish fire in the basement of the residence at 542 Twelfth avenue east at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Only slight damage was reported.

Starverud Goes After Lewis—Van Starverud, chief deputy sheriff, leaves this morning for Seattle to bring to this city D. A. Lewis, arrested there Tuesday night on a charge of larceny by bailer, preferred by a Cottage Grove man.

Residence on Jefferson Street Sold—The residence of Fred M. Potter at 224 Jefferson street has been sold to Mrs. Bernice A. Dewey. The deal was made by E. H. Peterson of the Robert Prescott company.

Two Houses Sold—H. C. Day and daughter, Agnes, have purchased two houses on Twenty-fifth avenue east from Mrs. W. W. White. The deal was made through the P. E. Poulton real estate office.

Mrs. Haugen Aid President—Mrs. J. O. Haugen, wife of Rev. J. O. Haugen of the Lutheran church, was elected president of the ladies aid society at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Other officers were not announced.

Arrested on Train—James Haney, 19, and Leo Nutting, 22, were arrested at Junction City yesterday by a Southern Pacific company train conductor, and were lodged in the county jail on a charge of stealing a ride.

Harbaugh Makes Trip to Salem and Back—Colonel J. J. Harbaugh, county juvenile officer, says a river is as full of pep and vim as he is. Yesterday he took a boy to the state reform school at Salem. They left shortly after 8 o'clock and the colonel was back by three in the afternoon.

Returns From Roseburg—Mrs. Clara Plankard has returned from Roseburg, where she conducted classes in the Smith-Hughes school of vocational training. Mrs. Plankard will start a class in the making of lamp shades next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at seven o'clock. It is announced.

Old Injury Troublesome—An old injury to his nose, sustained in a football scrimmage with the University of Oregon freshmen four years ago, has caused considerable trouble to Bob Mautz, 1925 captain of the varsity team. Mr. Mautz left yesterday for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation to correct the condition.

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. An-

Revenue Official Here—W. W. Allingham, deputy collector of internal revenue, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with his department.

Fire Is Extinguished—Fire which started in a box of leaves at 422 Twelfth avenue east yesterday morning, was extinguished by the fire department. No damage resulted.

Pacific Christian Hospital News—Admitted: Miss Beulah Van Guilder, city; Mrs. W. R. Grapke, city. Dismissed: Mrs. Charles Johnston, Wendling, Mrs. Nevell Furr, Brownsville.

Returns from Portland—Professor Ralph D. Casey of the department of journalism at the University of Oregon has returned from Portland where he addressed a meeting of the Quillers.

Ada Resident Here—J. E. Furrish of Ada was in the city yesterday. He called upon the members of the county court and urged that Guard Huston be reappointed road patrolman for that district.

Rubbish Fire Extinguished—Local firemen extinguished a rubbish fire in the basement of the residence at 542 Twelfth avenue east at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Only slight damage was reported.

Starverud Goes After Lewis—Van Starverud, chief deputy sheriff, leaves this morning for Seattle to bring to this city D. A. Lewis, arrested there Tuesday night on a charge of larceny by bailer, preferred by a Cottage Grove man.

Residence on Jefferson Street Sold—The residence of Fred M. Potter at 224 Jefferson street has been sold to Mrs. Bernice A. Dewey. The deal was made by E. H. Peterson of the Robert Prescott company.

Two Houses Sold—H. C. Day and daughter, Agnes, have purchased two houses on Twenty-fifth avenue east from Mrs. W. W. White. The deal was made through the P. E. Poulton real estate office.

Mrs. Haugen Aid President—Mrs. J. O. Haugen, wife of Rev. J. O. Haugen of the Lutheran church, was elected president of the ladies aid society at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Other officers were not announced.

Arrested on Train—James Haney, 19, and Leo Nutting, 22, were arrested at Junction City yesterday by a Southern Pacific company train conductor, and were lodged in the county jail on a charge of stealing a ride.

Harbaugh Makes Trip to Salem and Back—Colonel J. J. Harbaugh, county juvenile officer, says a river is as full of pep and vim as he is. Yesterday he took a boy to the state reform school at Salem. They left shortly after 8 o'clock and the colonel was back by three in the afternoon.

Returns From Roseburg—Mrs. Clara Plankard has returned from Roseburg, where she conducted classes in the Smith-Hughes school of vocational training. Mrs. Plankard will start a class in the making of lamp shades next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at seven o'clock. It is announced.

Old Injury Troublesome—An old injury to his nose, sustained in a football scrimmage with the University of Oregon freshmen four years ago, has caused considerable trouble to Bob Mautz, 1925 captain of the varsity team. Mr. Mautz left yesterday for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation to correct the condition.

Laird Funeral Is Today—The funeral of John Laird, former Lane county resident, who died at Spokane, Wash., a few days ago, will be held at the Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services and the Veatch funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Administrators Appointed—Hattie Whitsett yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of H. R. Cain, who died August 3, 1925. J. W. Mitchell, B. C. Gray and George Kelsey were named to appraise the property. Amanda E. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Abraham Miller, who died November 16, 1925. F. E. Kelsey, C. F. May and B. E. Green were appointed members of the board of appraisers.

Suitcase Found Is Mystery—A suitcase containing $1500 worth of stock certificates of the Security Savings and Loan association of this city and made out to B. R. Patterson was found beneath a walk at Salem yesterday. It had apparently been there for a number of weeks. The sale of these certificates was made by an agent of the local association to Mr. Patterson about a year ago but little is known of him. The officers are of the opinion that the suitcase was stolen from him.

Injured in Auto Accident—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Randolph of 1308 Willamette street, received word yesterday that their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Randolph, had been injured in an automobile accident near Los Angeles on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, who live at Los Angeles, had gone out for a drive and in turning on a grade near Glendale, went off the road, their car turning over several times on the steep grade. Mr. Randolph was in the hospital for several days and his wife is still there.

Petition to Vacate Streets Filed—There was filed in county court yesterday a petition to vacate portions of two streets just outside the Springfield city limits. The petition asks for the vacation of a part of Third street extending from the north line of F street to the north line of block 113 and that portion of G street extending west from the east line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific in Washburne's subdivision of the Springfield Investment and Power company's addition. The petition was signed by F. Andrews, O. F. Anentem. He is to take the presidency of the state normal school at Ashland in April.

Mrs. Jaeg in City—Mrs. J. T. Jaeg of Junction City was a visitor in Eugene yesterday.

Alpha Resident Here—W. W. Wilbur of the Alpha neighborhood, up Deadwood creek, was in the city yesterday.

Janitor Is on Duty Again—J. M. Singers, janitor at the Washington school, who has been