

LANDSCAPE EXHIBIT PLAYED ON CAMPUS Open Afternoons For Public PAINTS ARE FAMOUS Who Paint Canvas On Are World Known: Varied Pictures Pictured by Paint Lovers of the painted canvas an exceptional chance to view a collection of prize landscapes in the exhibition now on display at the art museum in the building on the campus. The collection, consisting of as many as 100 pictures, has been prepared by special college exhibition under the auspices of the National Society of Design for 1924. The painter Virgil O. Hafen of the group of pictures, said: "The finest collection of paintings I have ever gathered together in one place. It is a rare treat to see them here and be able to see them as well as situated on the campus may see them any afternoon of the week from 1 to 4 o'clock and Monday and Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10 o'clock. The pictures are each valued at $40 to $150. "The Pool," by W. Bedford and the most of the number, was painted in seven hours. It is a large picture, a winter scene with a freshness and coolness very realistic. Heavy shadows combined with blue and shadows overhanging the stream bring about this effect. "Palmer Works Past" is credited with having painted in 15 days. It is characteristic of the painter's original work. The original work on the painting is really presented in the work there is no need of explanation. "Mountain Trail," by Charles Palmer, is a picture which is of unusual interest to Oregonians inasmuch as the painter is to interpret with the brush the mountains of California through these forests was a picture. Another picture, "In Woods," and a result of the trip took the second Altman in the Spring Academy. Other Pictures Pictures in the group are: "View" by Charles C. Cole; "The Boat" by H. H. Jones; "Fisherman," Eric; "September Basket," F. M. Smith; "Afternoon," Walter; "Midsummer," W. H. Smith; "Warren East," W. H. Smith; "Willow," W. H. Smith; "La Bascourte," Hor- Walker; "Bahama Sponcer," George Pearce Ennis; "The Boat," Paul King; "Douglas," Carl Henshaw; "Marine," Douglas Marshall; "Lone," Rex Drexel Smith; "At the Sunset Door," Robert Ryan; "The Boat," Camelia White; "The Boat," Hampshire; "The Boat," R. Ryder; "The Boat," Bruce Crain; "The Boat," Alphaeus P. Cole; "Cattle," Edward C. Volkert; "The Boat," Marie Haughton; "The Boat," Rosario U.

MRS OSCAR DE NINA MAYER

To the flappers of the Bolivian jungles, Mrs. Oscar de Nina Mayer, former Cornell medical student, brought the boyish bob. When the natives saw her, on an engineering trip with her husband, they insisted she fashion their hair according to her style. When she snipped the tresses of a few, the style was heeded by most of the women of the wilds.

FARM LOAN BODY ELECTS

DIRECTORS FOR 1926 CHOSEN AT ANNUAL MEETING C. B. Swango of Coburg Elected President of Lane County Association

Directors and officers of the First National Farm Loan association of Lane county were elected yesterday at the annual meeting in the office of the secretary, William A. Ayers.

The directorate for this year consists of C. H. Powell of Junction City, G. M. Deyoe of Eugene, C. B. Swango of Coburg, H. A. Soultz of Eugene, Fred Johnson of Eugene, F. B. Chase of Eugene, A. C. Wells of Eugene, W. A. Ayers of Eugene and A. C. Miller of Goshen.

The directors elected the following officers: C. B. Swango, president; G. M. Deyoe, vice-president; W. A. Ayers, secretary and treasurer.

A loan committee was named, consisting of C. B. Swango, F. B. Chase and H. A. Soultz. Alternates are A. C. Wells and G. M. Deyoe.

The report of the secretary shows that there are 277 members holding loans from the federal land bank and that the total amount loaned is $1,119,369.

Reports of committees handling activities in various departments of the Y. M. C. A. and a talk by Lester Adams, newly elected general secretary of the association of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, were the principal features of the annual membership dinner held in the "V" auditorium last night.

J. Matt Johnson, Starlin Ventch, A. R. Gray, A. R. Tiffany, L. D. Pierre and O. L. Skeels were elected on the board of directors. It was announced by Frank Eberhart, general secretary, that a report had been made by the nominating committee. This board will meet at the Osburn hotel at noon today to elect officers.

Mr. Skeels was elected on the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late president, Dr. N. C. Nelson.

The budget week committee headed by Dr. W. Kuykendall, and the two division chiefs, T. A. Hill and J. Matt Johnson will meet with the board today.

Mr. Adams who has been here for two days assisting in the organization of the financial campaign, is expected to return to Seattle today, but will be back in time to help put over the drive which starts February 15.

The amount to be raised will be in excess of the total of 1925, or a little more than $12,500 it was said.

Fred G. Fisher and C. H. Hohngart, gospel singers, entertained with duets at the meeting yesterday.

Evangelist Ross has spent six years in evangelistic work, and he says he has never seen a meeting with greater prospects than this one in which he is now engaged.

He also states that he is finding much pleasure in meeting many who knew years ago when a student in Eugene. Last evening his sermon was on the subject, "Bicycles and Baptism," which was a discussion of the place of baptism in the program of Christ. He stated that baptism was one step into Christ, but that it was necessary that it be preceded by faith, repentance and confession of faith in Christ.

His experience with criminal cases in which young people are the offenders has shown Judge Skipworth that some go wrong through reasons of heredity, some because of bad environment and lack of proper training, while still other cases are not to be accounted for by either of these causes.

"I am by no means pessimistic in regard to the rising generation," declared Judge Skipworth. "I do not believe that because girls wear short skirts and bob their hair they are going to pot. I think if we men had been accustomed to wearing long and voluminous hampering skirts down to our ankles, which interfered with our freedom of movement, we would welcome a change to shorter and briefs, costuming, too. I believe that generally speaking our youth of today are coming up wholesome."

Opportunities Not Equal The speaker said it is a fact plainly apparent that opportunities are not equal among our youth. Some have good homes, proper training and adequate educational advantages, while others have none of these things & have them only in limited degree. It is the young people of this latter class that should have help such as service clubs and other organizations, as well as individuals can give.

ORATORS ARE SELECTED TRY-OUTS HELD AT VILLARD HALL LAST NIGHT

Six members of the University of Oregon oratorical team were selected last night at a try-out of approximately 15 aspirants, held in Villard hall on the campus, according to a report.

Those chosen included Ralph Bailey, Donald Beeler, Horchel Brown, Jack Hampstead, Avery Thompson and Benolt McCroskey.

One of the six will be an alternate on the team, although the selection of this alternate was not made last night.

PLEA MADE FOR YOUTH Judge Skipworth Speaker at Rotary Luncheon Boys' Work in Eugene Is Commended by Court Officer; Citizens Should Help

The years of youth are the hardest and the most critical years and it is the duty of every citizen of Eugene to help the rising generation.

Such was the thought expressed by Judge G. F. Skipworth, speaker at the Rotary club luncheon yesterday noon, and whose talk was the opening wedge of a campaign being instituted by the Rotary club to carry out a boys' work program.

Judge Skipworth urged the public to accept this obligation and aid in the work that is being done for boys and girls in Eugene.

The speaker commended the work of the service club, the Y. M. C. A., the Boy Scout movement and other kindred organizations.
