known as KPWL, operating on 236 meters with 600 volts. In a tryout recently held after midnight, the station came in strong on several local receiving sets. It has been reported. One of the features of the official opening, it was announced, will be an exclusive talk by "Red" Grange, the professional football player. The station KPWL will open at 8 o'clock and there will be a prize contest for telegrams of appreciation from the greatest distance. All messages will be numbered and drawn for other prizes. In this connection, J. A. McKeitt, manager of the Western Union here said last night that two private loops to the studio had been installed and that telegrams would be handled promptly. Tolls may be charged to local telephone numbers and will not be necessary to go to the telegraph office.

GUNSHOT WOUNDS FATAL
HARRY THIENES DIES AFTER HUNTING ACCIDENT
Funeral of Former Local School Student to Be Held at Veatch Funeral Home Today

Harry Thienes, 25, resident of Deerhorn, who was accidentally shot in the stomach when a gun in the hands of his brother, Earl, was prematurely discharged, died at the Pacific Christian hospital yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. According to the story of the accident which resulted in Mr. Thienes' death, he and his brother were walking along a trap line near Deerhorn, when Earl fell. The charge in the gun was exploded and the bullet pierced the victim's intestines in 12 places. Mr. Thienes was formerly a resident of Eugene and attended schools here. He was a member of the First Methodist church and the W. O. W. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Veatch funeral home and Rev. J. Franklin Haas will preach the sermon. Interment will be in the Laurel Hill cemetery. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Esther Chaffee Thienes, and two children, Harry Allen and John Ralph Thienes; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thienes of Deerhorn; three brothers, Earl and William of Deerhorn and Dr. C. H. Thienes of Portland; and two sisters, Mrs. C. R. Baker of Eugene, and Miss Ethel Thienes, student at the University of Oregon.

Eight acts of feature caliber comprise the program of the De Molay vaudeville show which that order will present at the McDonald theatre Wednesday, January 27, according to the plans of the committee in charge of the affair. Final selection of the acts has been made, and those chosen, representing the best of local talent drawn both from the university and Eugene high school, are rehearsing daily. Following are the acts in the order in which they will be presented: 1—"Hot Stuff"—Newman brothers, Dal and Icky. 2—"Static"—Councilor club, University of Oregon. 3—"Une Petite Amourette"—Anna Katherine Garrett and Kathleen Powell. 4—"The Zoo"—One act play given by the Eugene De Molays. 5—"Tuneful Twins"—Hiestand and Baxter, Dal and Nel. 6—"This and That"—Helen McGrew, Orion Dawson, Vivian Woodside and Mr. Seltsberg. 7—"The Porter"—Mark Taylor and Sidney King. 8—"Modern Tendencies"—Jimmy Purcell's band, with Angeline Fisher and Rema Nichols. The regular meeting of the order will be held at 7 o'clock this evening at the Maconic hall, when plans will be checked over and everything in readiness to make the vaudeville the best ever shown here. Funds derived from the performances will be used to defray expenses of the team that will be sent to eastern Oregon in the spring.

CANNERY STILL RUNNING
BIG PLANT OPERATES NEARLY ALL YEAR ROUND

Carrots and parsnips are still being canned at the plant of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association and about 60 persons are employed, according to J. D. Hamlin, office manager of the association. "It is getting to be nearly an all-year proposition in the canning business at the plant," said Mr. Hamlin yesterday. "There is nearly always some product to can." As a matter of fact, he remarked, the association has a steady payroll throughout the entire year. The box plant operates during the winter and there are always a number of men employed in the different departments of the big plant.

C. M. T. C. DUTY SOUGHT
RESERVE OFFICER MAKING SURVEY OF CORPS

Second Lieutenant Frederick S. Clayton, infantry-reserve corps, has filed an application with Major John P. Bubbs (DOL) for service in the citizen's military training camp this year. Major Bubbs yesterday received a letter from corps area headquarters advising that Lieutenant Colonel H. Edmund Bullis, general staff corps reserve, now on active duty in the interests of the service, would be in Portland soon and that he wished to get in touch with an army reserve officer as possible. Colonel Bullis is making a survey of the reserve corps activities and has been placed on active duty for two years. Keith Kingins, ex-service man, has filed an application here for a commission as second lieutenant in the ordnance reserve.

ANDERSON WILL LECTURE
AUTHOR AND LECTURER COMING HERE MONDAY

Sherwood Anderson, author and lecturer, will open the associated students' lecture series Monday evening, January 25 at Villard hall at the university. These lectures are arranged for by the student body in order to bring to the campus and to Eugene men famous in the world as literary men, or men of science and adventure, that they may be heard by local people. Sherwood Anderson is probably one of the greatest living American authors. He was born in Chardon, Ohio, in 1876. He had little or no education to start with, being born of parents who had to struggle to eke out a bare living. His father was a shiftless "actor" and sign painter who traveled around the country giving a little broke down at school houses, and earning his room and board by story-telling. Later Anderson went to Chicago where he worked at odd jobs until war, after which he went into the advertising business as a copy writer, at which he attained some success and fame. He entered business for himself but his health broke down and the business failed, and then he took to writing for publication. His first book was published when he was 40 years
