January 26 to 29 Inclusive
Beginning at 2 P. M. Daily

Miss Jeannette Beyer

Home Economics Expert in Charge

For each afternoon of the cooking school, Miss Beyer will present a different program. On Tuesday she will discuss and demonstrate the making of salads and luncheon dishes. Wednesday, cakes and cake icings will be the topic, which will be illustrated with demonstrations. Thursday, fancy yeast breads will be discussed and on Friday afternoon tea and party suggestions.

All cooking will be of a practical nature that can be repeated in any kitchen with a minimum of effort. All recipes used by Miss Beyer will be distributed to the visitors. Every woman in Eugene and vicinity is invited to attend the institute, which is being offered as a form of public service by the Morning Register.
