

Grocery Sale—Five Days—Tuesday Morning 'Till Saturday Evening

Less Than Wholesale!

Yes, we are going to turn out a lot of goods at less than wholesale prices. Mind you, not less than these goods cost us, but less than they cost most of the other guys—and, too, many of them are less than we could now buy, for goods have advanced a whole lot lately.

Why?

Our stocks are too heavy. This is the time of year that we always reduce stocks. We have a lot of good help now, and we would rather keep them busy turning goods at small profits than let them go.

You'll Save Money on Every Dollar Spent at Stanley's This Week

We like to be busy—we like to keep things just a popping. We like to have the other fellow continually crabbing. We like to have them say: "Stanley's are going broke." We like to have them say: "Stanley is selling goods at less than car-load wholesale cost." But we are really, truly sorry for them—yes we are—not.
