EUGENE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, SUNDAY, JANUARY 31, 1926

Upper left—Mrs. John B. Patterson, who is most active in the work of Eugene Daughters of the Nile club, and who was general chairman for the recent benefit sponsored by the group.

Right—Mrs. Walden Adams, chairman of the committee for the Assembly club hard-times dance of Tuesday night.

Right—Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, which sponsored its annual silver tea for the State Federation scholarship loan fund on Wednesday of the past week.

Of architecture, and was shown for the first time. It is not the final plan, but carries a most vivid impression of the general idea.

The fine arts building as a whole, will of course, according to present plans, be dedicated to President Campbell, whose dearest wish it was that a splendid building be placed on the university campus, to house the already priceless collections and become a center for the activities of all cultural life on the campus and indeed in Eugene.

It is Dean Lawrence's splendid conception of the building that at its very heart shall be a memorial; the center motif of which will be a reflecting pool, delicately proportioned with its focus points as balanced as to lead to an arched niche. There will be placed the bust of Oregon's most beloved president, his spirit abiding, his ideas and hopes reflected in the very heart of his university's cultural life. This, in brief, has been Dean Lawrence's symbolic thought.

The model has been returned to Portland; but it is hoped that it may be brought back here at some time in the near future and shown, that friends of the university may view it.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Rudolph Prael of Salem are spending the week-end in Eugene as guests of Mrs. Charles A. Gray and Mrs. Josephine Stewart, who also entertained as their guests for the day yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Park and Miss Margaret Cooper all of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer are entertaining informally at supper this evening for Mrs. Laura Ernst and Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Higgins returned at mid-west from Portland where they have been spending some time.

Among the most charming events of the week past was the very informal tea hour which Mrs. Charles Gray and Mrs. Josephine each year, so this annual affair is of wide interest. In the group were Mrs. Ed Anderson, Mrs. N. E. Nasser and Mrs. C. H. Sedgewick of Creswell, Mrs. Merritt Davidson of Galesburg, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilkins of Portland and Mrs. Halvorsen of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Peterson entertained at dinner informally Tuesday night, their guests numbering Mrs. W. R. Cameron and Mr. Davidson of Galesburg, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sigwart, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Howling.

Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers presided over one of the week's most charming small teas, entertaining at her home Monday afternoon for a group of friends who were bidden to meet Mrs. W. S. Cameron. Needlework and the delightful tea hour were most enjoyable, about two dozen friends being bidden for the afternoon. Miss Amy Dunn presided over the tea table, which was most attractive in its decoration of spring flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Picant entertained a group of their friends at their home Sunday evening. The evening was spent in playing whist. At eleven o'clock a waffle supper was prepared. Those who enjoyed the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edholm, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCready, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wintler, Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Praedrick, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harger, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Uebel Montoya, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams.

Mrs. W. S. Cameron and Mr. Davidson, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sigwart for the past fortnight, left Wednesday at noon for California from whence they will return to their homes in Galesburg, Ill. During their stay here they have been honored at many small teas, which have been a source of much pleasure to friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sigwart.

Mrs. V. D. Seibert and Mrs. C. E. Fisher planned a most pleasurable evening on Tuesday, entertaining in honor of Miss Yveta Bryant, who is soon to be wed.

Miss Bryant was bidden to the Fisher home, and upon her arrival was immediately surrounded by a group of friends and showered with the brightly wrapped packets from a gay orange band-box suspended from the center of the room and opened by strings operated by the hostesses.

After the gifts were opened, evening hours were spent in bridge and supper, the guests numbering about a dozen close friends. Miss Bryant left last Saturday for California where she will visit friends before continuing to Nevada, where her marriage will take place.

Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Seibert invited Miss Pauline Boston, Miss Irene Applegate, Miss Eleanor Stone, Miss Amy Johnson, Pauline Burch, Elanora Graves, Mrs. Guy Eide, Mrs. Valetta Scott, Mrs. Jeannie Ward and Mrs. Georgia Okey.

The brilliant military note was present in detailed plans for the officers ball, which was one of the most interesting of the university winter social season, and for which R. O. T. C. officers were hosts at the Osburn hotel on Friday night.

National and battalion flags formed the decorative motif, and the colors were prominently displayed about the dancing rooms and in other appointments for the ball. Music by the Moonlight Serenaders from O. A. C. was a feature of the dance, and several out-of-town guests were bidden.

Patrons for the ball included Colonel and Mrs. George W. Moore, Lieutenant and Mrs. George H. White, both of O. A. C.; Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. W. S. Sinclair; Major and Mrs. J. P. Hubby; Captain and Mrs. John J. McKean; Captain and Mrs. P. M. Moore; Captain J. P. Murray; Dr. and Mrs. James H. Gilbert; Mrs. Virginia Judy Exterly; Professor and Mrs. W. E. Milne; Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. Robert David; Mr. Davis is cadet colonel at O. A. C.

Bringing to completion a plan long-anticipated, members of the Eugene Business and Professional women's club gathered in their newly completed club room in the Hampton building, Tuesday evening of last week, for a covered dish supper which formally dedicated the rooms to club use. Special gifts from members of the club and a few friends made possible the furnishing of the quarters, and from now on they will furnish a delightful meeting place for the group.

The interior work of the club rooms is in rustic neutral tones, with bright draperies in harmonizing shades, and the club members are delighted at the completion of their own headquarters.

About seventy-five friends called during the evening, the guest book carrying the following names among its list:

Miss Eloise Barnard, Miss Mabel Armitage, Mrs. E. A. Barrette, who composed the music which arranged the dinner; Althea Randall Wells, Addie R. Piper, Mrs. F. K. Foster, J. Howard, Shirley E. Wood, Alta Williams, Mrs. M. B. Gilmore, Eunice V. Parker, Maude Clarke, Mrs. L. M. Creede, Adelaide Lilly, M. Page, Juanita Eller, Halley Moon, Aurel K. Clarke, Catherine Cogswell, Thorne, Edith McKune, Goldie White, Grace Turner, Mrs. E. W. Ellis, Mrs. Norman C. Christie, Julia E. Opp, Mae D. Kinsey, Rose Powell, L. McMurphy, Elizabeth Elkins, Grace Schiska, Jennie L. Hanson, Ruth Van Hook, Mrs. V. Taylor, S. Eleanor Skene, Mary C. Avey and Harriett Underwood.

Everything from the out-grown overalls and suit, to the new dress, and wamp-wait arrived at Laraway hall Tuesday night to celebrate Assembly club's hard-times dance which was a novel event of the week.

Corn-cob pipes, baskets of lunch, and various of the old "antiques" of family attics appeared in the way of accessories to the costumes, and a study of the varied dresses and suits excavated for the occasion proved most diverting.

An old fashioned square dance was the feature of the evening, and while some of the waltzes were watched in amusement, others stepped gallily about to the orders of the "caller," swinging their partners, promenading, and doing all the other intricate things a square dance consisted of in its day.

An exhibition dance was also a feature, the committee awarding prizes for the best costumes to Mrs. Delbert Oberstoffer and Kenneth Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ludford and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Houston were on the committee.

The next affair for the club members will be a dinner held at the Osburn hotel near Washington's birthday.

"Red Letter Day," that day which is each year set aside by the state federation of women's clubs for raising funds for the federation scholarship loan fund, was observed by Monday Book club on Wednesday afternoon, when members of this influential group sponsored their annual silver tea and musicale.

The club members, with Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. J. O. Holt, Mrs. L. E. Bean and Mrs. C. L. Tether in the receiving line, received their guests in alumni hall of the woman's building, and a musical program was a most delightful feature of the affair, the numbers including:

Vocal solo, Mrs. Delbert Oberstoffer.

Whistling solo, Miss Janet Larsen.

Vocal solo, Orlan Dawson.

Recitation, Mrs. Avarad Fairbanks.

Instrumental solo, Piano, Mrs. Rex Underwood.

Vocal solo, Mme. Rose McCreary.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mrs. P. L. Campbell and Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck.

Assisting Mrs. Holt on the committee were Mrs. L. J. Temple, Mrs. A. E. Roberts, and Mrs. C. I. Collins. Remaining members of the club assisted about the rooms and in receiving the guests.

Eugene friends of Mrs. Kenneth A. J. MacKenzie (Louise Sheahan) will be much interested in news that Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie are receiving the congratulations of their Portland friends on the birth of a daughter. The baby arrived January 25, and will be christened Barbara. Mrs. MacKenzie is a sister of Mrs. Lamar Toose, and has a wide circle of friends in Eugene.

A particularly interesting and delightful affair of the week past was the dinner dance which members of the Shrine club planned for Thursday night, and which drew a large contingent of society folk to the Osburn hotel.

The dining room was arranged with long tables, adorned with bright flowers and Shrine club motifs, and there during the hours for dinner and dancing good fellowship and sociability prevailed. Good music for dancing, some short talks, and several features added interest to the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland B. Johnson left the week past for a fortnight's motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hainey are among the many Eugene folk who are enjoying trips to California.

Mrs. Charles Paine and her two children, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rugh for the past several weeks, have returned to their home in Oakland, California.

Miss Doris Helen Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Patterson, and who is a skilled young harpist, is spending the week-end in Corvallis where she will play in concert with the O. A. C. orchestra this afternoon.

One of the cleverest dinners of the winter was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Manerud were hosts at their home Tuesday night preceding the Assembly club hard-times dance.

The hosts received in their costumes, and guests arrived in the same array of past elegance, and fitting into the spirit of the evening were all the supper appointments. The old-fashioned checked red table cloth with its floral and fringe border covered the table, and white "tallow-dish" stuck into bottle necks cast their light over stacks of tin plates, old-fashioned dishes and old tin "eating-irons." Paper napkins, a camp coffee pot and bare small tables placed about the rooms completed the effect.

For this novel party, Mr. and Mrs. Manerud invited as their guests Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready.

Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey presided over a most attractive buffet supper on Thursday night at her home, planning the affair as a surprise in honor of Mr. Coffey's birthday.

A mass of yellow daffodils in a green Italian pottery bowl, and yellow tapers centered the supper table, and bridge was the evening's diversion. Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Higgins, Dr. and Mrs. Will Moxley and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready.

Preceding the Assembly club hard-times dance, a group of congenial friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herald White for a no-host supper. In the number were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefield, Dr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Meville Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Will Moxley and Mr. and Mrs. White.

Eugene friends of Mrs. Charles Fisher were most happy to welcome her in Eugene for a few days visit from her present home in Roseburg last week. Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck planned a very delightful small luncheon in her honor during her stay.

Miss Amy Zachary has arrived in Eugene and will make her future home with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jenkins.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Smith gave them a very pleasant surprise Thursday, at their new home, 1878 Lawrence street. It was in the nature of a house-warming and a welcome into the neighborhood. Cards, games and music followed by a luncheon were enjoyed. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, daughter, Miss Warda, and son, Master Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Snyder, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Graham and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Paul De Autremont, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. M. Crandall, daughter, Miss Violet and Pearl, Mrs. Stroud and daughter, Mrs. Jennie Vogle, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vogle, Mrs. Emma Wier and Edwin Weberg.

Several Eugene matrons are spending the week-end in Portland, having gone to attend a general meeting of the Psi Alpha of Chi Omega alumni association yesterday. Among the number attending from here are Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, Mrs. R. U. Steelquist, Mrs. Frederick Sticks, Mrs. Jack Benefield, Miss Henriette Guoy and Miss Julia Burgess.

Mrs. Amy Smith and daughter, Miss Marjorie of Seattle will arrive in Eugene tomorrow to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith for a day or so.

Mrs. John J. MacEwan and two children, John J. Junior and Janet, arrived in Eugene the week past from their former home in Alexandria, Minn., to join Captain MacEwan. Captain and Mrs. MacEwan are temporarily domiciled at the Osburn apartments, and will be entertained at several small affairs planned as a welcome to Mrs. MacEwan.

Tulleums club met Friday as guests of Mrs. H. H. Fields, who entertained with a one o'clock luncheon preceding the afternoon meeting.

Mrs. May Moon entertained Wednesday noon for members of the Helmetta club, who met for a covered dish luncheon at her home.

The Dakota club will meet for a picnic this coming Wednesday night at the chamber of commerce building at 5:15 o'clock, and officers of the club, who number Mrs. C. E. (Continued on Page 5, Column 1)
