TOWN MAY JOIN LEAGUE

SPRINGFIELD RECORDED BACK FROM PORTLAND

Most Small Cities as Well as Larger Ones Are Members of Oregon Association

(Register Lane County Special) SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Feb. 1.—Springfield may join the league of Oregon cities which has its annual meeting in Portland last Saturday, according to W. Smith, city recorder, who attended the session. A fee of $10 a year is charged to the cities, and Springfield, he said, and the league would be well worth this outlay, he believes.

Mr. Smith will present the proposition to the city council when it meets next time and he believes that the city officials will be willing to join the organization. The league is a year old now, but Springfield was not a member last year. Almost all cities and towns are members of the association, Mr. Smith reported.

The league will outline a program of legislation which it will present to the legislature before the session next year, holding its annual meeting in November instead of January to make this possible. By grouping the cities together, they have more power to get the right kind of legislation, said Mr. Smith, and this is one of the reasons for joining the league.

Disposal of sewage, automobile taxes and taxation were some of the topics discussed at the Portland meeting. No completely satisfactory method of sewage disposal was agreed upon but plans were
